Be Brilliant At The Polls.

Voting is not only an important right but an easy one to exercise.

Just follow these simple instructions to “know before you go,” and happy voting!

As an Arizona voter, you should bring proof of identity to your polling place. When you arrive, simply give your name and place of residence to the election official, then present one form of identification that has your name, address and photograph, or two forms of ID that show your name and address.

Acceptable IDs with your photograph, name, and address (1 needed):

- Valid Arizona driver license
- Valid Arizona non-operating identification license
- Tribal enrollment card or other form of tribal identification
- Valid United States federal, state or local government issued identification

Note: In all cases, IDs are considered “valid” unless expired.

Visit azsos.gov or call 1-877-THE-VOTE

If you don't have one of the former, simply bring any two acceptable forms of identification that do not require a photo.

Acceptable IDs (no photograph) with your name and address (2 needed):

- Utility bill of the voter that is dated within 90 days of the date of the election (may be for electric, gas, water, solid waste, sewer, telephone, cellular phone or cable TV)
- Bank or credit union statement that is dated within 90 days of the date of the election
- Valid Arizona Vehicle Registration
- Indian census card
- Property tax statement of the voter's residence
- Tribal enrollment card or other form of tribal identification
- Recorder's Certificate
- Valid United States federal, state or local government issued identification, including a voter registration card issued by the county recorder
- Any mailing to the elector marked “Official Election Material”

Acceptable forms of ID, one with photo and one without (2 needed)

- Any valid photo identification from the first list in which the address does not match the precinct register accompanied by one valid form of non-photo identification
- U.S. Passport and one valid form of non-photo identification
- U.S. Military ID and one valid form of non-photo identification
