Section B: Reportable Interest

- Present      2nd Vice Chair Native American Caucus, Arizona Democratic Party, Phoenix, AZ
The Native American Democratic Caucus of Arizona – through education, voice and advocacy and the strategic use of our collective power – is committed to increasing the political participation of Native American individuals and allies in the Democratic Party and to ensuring that the Party, its officers, candidates, public officials and members respect and support the political status of tribal nations and issues of concern to Native American peoples and our communities.
- Present      Chair, Community Advisory Board, Partnership for the Center for American Indian Resiliency (CAIR), University of Arizona/Northern Arizona University
The Partnership for the Center of American Indian Resiliency (CAIR) is an NIH P20 center grant that focuses on resiliency research among local Native American communities. The project integrates comprehensive research, training and outreach to decrease health disparities found in Native American populations. The five-year project will create partnerships among health researchers and tribal communities to identify, research and teach approaches that take advantage of long-standing Native American cultural practices that promote health.
- Present      Board of Director, American Indian Chamber of Commerce of Arizona, Phoenix, AZ
The American Indian Chamber of Commerce of Arizona (AICCAz) was founded in 1995 and incorporated as a non-profit organization in 1996. The focus of the Chamber is to provide a format for American Indian entrepreneurs to promote their business, for corporations to connect with American Indian businesses, to act as a liaison on tribal economic development issues and to offer the best in resources, training and networking for the American Indian business. AICCAz offers our members the opportunity to exchange ideas and information with business owners throughout the state.
- Present      VP, Business Development, American Indian Health Management & Policy, Inc., Phoenix, AZ
AIHMP is our principal consulting and healthcare management organization specializing in American Indian Healthcare and Health Policy. AIHMP is a 100% American Indian owned and operated company formed in 2004 and based in Phoenix, Arizona. AIHMP principals have a broad range of knowledge and understanding of the Indian health delivery system and the complexities of American Indian health policy. As a leading consulting firm for many tribes across the country, we have been regarded as the thought leaders in American Indian healthcare nationally. Our consulting and management services are broad in scope, but we offer solutions and services in almost all facets of Indian healthcare.
