of the State Park System; reviews the public demand for park services and subsequent impacts of visitor use on park resources. State Parks actively pursues public input into the fee structure through regional meetings throughout the State.

Since March 1, 2004, Arizona State Parks has taken additional public comment, and held staff reviews of the agency's Annual Pass program. Administrative and usage descriptions for the current pass program has been developed. These changes are less restrictive, and there is no change to the actual fee for either pass. The Board approved the changes as recommended.

7. A reference to any study that the agency relied on its evaluation of or justification for the rule and where the public may obtain or review the study, all data underlying each study, any analysis of the study and other supporting material:
Not applicable
8. A showing of good cause why the rule is necessary to promote a statewide interest if the rule will diminish a previous grant of authority of a political subdivision of this state:
Not applicable
9. The summary of the economic, small business, and consumer impact:
Not applicable
10. A description of the changes between the proposed rules, including supplemental notices, and final rules (if applicable):
See item #6.
11. A summary of the principal comments and the agency response to them:
Some members of the public were concerned that the fees were too high, while others thought they were too low. The agency responded by explaining the need to charge fees that were commensurate with development costs and ongoing operating costs.
12. Any other matters prescribed by statute that are applicable to the specific agency or to any specific rule or class of rules:
