2. The subject matter of the proposed rule:

The Aggregate Mine Land Reclamation Act (Arizona Revised Statutes Title 27, Chapter 6) was passed in the First Regular Session of the 2005 Arizona Legislature. In general, the Act requires aggregate exploration operations and aggregate mining units to submit reclamation plans and financial assurance mechanisms to the Office of the State Mine Inspector. The Act requires the State Mine Inspector to adopt rules consistent with the Act for the reclamation of surface disturbances at aggregate exploration operations and aggregate mining units, including rules to:

1. Implement the public notice, comment, and hearing provisions of the Act for reclamation plans;
2. Define the term "substantial change" to an approved reclamation plan;
3. Establish a reclamation plan submission fee schedule;
4. Provide for additional licensing time-frames, if necessary; and
5. Define standards and procedures relating to financial assurance requirements.

3. A citation to all published notices relating to the proceeding:

None
