SALARIES FOR ELECTIVE STATE OFFICERS, COMMISSION ON

Commission on Salaries for Elective State Officers
 100 N. 15th Ave., Suite 250
 Phoenix, AZ 85007
 602-542-1774
 Travis Butchart, Senior Compensation Analyst

The Commission on Salaries for Elective State Officers consists of five members including two appointed by the Governor and one each appointed by the president of the Senate, the speaker of the House, and the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Terms expire after the submission of reports made under A.R.S. §§ 41-1903 and 41-1904, but not longer than to the end of the calendar year in which appointed. Beginning in 2002, the commission shall biennially conduct a review of the rates of pay of elective state officers, of justices and judges of courts of record and of clerks of the superior court. Such review by the commission shall be made for the purpose of determining and providing the pay levels appropriate to the duties and responsibilities of the respective offices and positions subject to such review. The commission may hold public hearings to aid it in its work. The commission shall submit to the Governor no later than June 1 a report of the results of each review conducted by the commission of the offices and positions subject to this chapter, together with its recommendations. A.R.S. § 41-1901 and 41-1902.
