 Phoenix, AZ 85007
 602-542-4373
<https://agriculture.az.gov/divisions/agricultural-consultation-training/aerb>
 Jack Peterson, Interim Director

The Agricultural Employment Relations Board was established to provide a means to collectively bargain which is fair and equitable to agricultural employers, labor organizations and employees. The Board oversees a process by which the agricultural community may engage in labor organization activities and fair elections and by which declaration may be made whether certain acts are unfair labor practices and therefore subject to legal intervention. Additionally, the Board may prevent any person from engaging in unfair labor practices and shall have access, for purpose of examination and the right to copy, any evidence of any person being investigated or proceeded against. The objectives of the Board are to foster labor peace and to provide a forum for this state's agricultural industry and employees to resolve labor disputes and to develop more constructive labor relations. More information may be found on their website through the Arizona Department of Agriculture or in A.R.S. § 23-1386.

Gilbert M. Orrantia, Director

The Homeland Security Senior Advisory Committee examines how to integrate preparedness activities across disciplines, agencies, and levels of government, including state, territorial, local, and tribal units of government. A cohesive planning framework should be incorporated that builds and implements homeland security initiatives which leverage DHS resources, as well as other federal, state, territory, local, and tribal resources. Specific attention should be paid to how all available preparedness funding sources can be effectively utilized in a collaborative manner to support the enhancement of overall capabilities. The membership of the Senior Advisory Committee must, at a minimum, include the following State officials

 Bret Parke, General Counsel

The purpose of the Governor's Regulatory Review Council (G.R.R.C.) is to review and approve or return rules; preambles; economic, small business, and consumer impact statements; and concise explanatory statements prepared by state agencies under grants of rulemaking authority from the Arizona Legislature. The standards that the G.R.R.C. uses to decide whether to approve or return an agency's rule-related materials are at A.R.S. § 41-1052(C). G.R.R.C. consists of six members who are appointed by the Governor and who serve at the pleasure of the Governor, and the director of the department of administration or the assistant director of the department of administration who is responsible for administering the council. The director or assistant director is an ex-officio member and chairperson of G.R.R.C. G.R.R.C. shall elect a vice-chairperson to serve as chairperson in the chairperson's absence. The Governor shall appoint at least one member who represents the public interest, at least one member who represents the business community, one member from a list of three persons who are not legislators submitted by the president of the Senate and one member from a list of three persons who are not legislators submitted by the speaker of the House of Representatives. At least one member of G.R.R.C. shall be an attorney licensed to practice law in this state. The Governor shall appoint the members of G.R.R.C. for staggered terms of three years. A.R.S. § 41-1051.
