TITLE 2. ADMINISTRATIONCHAPTER 5. DEPARTMENT OF ADMINISTRATION
STATE PERSONNEL SYSTEM

(Authority: A.R.S. § 41-761 et seq.)

Editor's Note: The Chapter Title was amended from Department of Administration, Personnel Administration to Department of Administration, State Personnel System. All Articles 1 through 9 repealed under exempt rulemaking at 18 A.A.R. 2782 effective September 29, 2012 (Supp. 12-4).

Editor's Note: Because the rules in this Chapter that were adopted under an exemption from the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 6) have been repealed, the Chapter is printed on white paper (Supp. 99-3).

Editor's Note: This Chapter contains rules which were repealed and adopted under an exemption from the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 6) pursuant to Laws 1997, Ch. 288, § 10. Exemption from A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 6 means the Department of Administration did not submit these rules to the Governor's Regulatory Review Council for review; the Department did not submit notice of proposed rulemaking to the Secretary of State for publication in the Arizona Administrative Register; and the Department was not required to hold public hearings on these rules. Because this Chapter contains rules which are exempt from the regular rulemaking process, the Chapter is printed on blue paper.

R2-5A-D601. Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) Leave

- A. General. All state agencies are responsible for complying with the federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) of 1993 and all applicable revisions. FMLA Regulations, 29 CFR 825.100 through 29 CFR 825.800 (July 2012), are incorporated by this reference and on file with the Department and available from the U.S. Government Printing Office, 732 North Capitol Street N.W., Washington, D.C. 20401. This incorporation by reference contains no future editions or amendments. Any interference with, restraint of, or denial of an employee's rights provided by the FMLA is strictly prohibited.
- B. Eligible employee.
 1. An eligible employee for the purposes of the FMLA is an employee who:
 - a. Is an employee of the state of Arizona;
 - b. Has been employed by the state of Arizona for at least 12 months; and
 - c. Worked for at least 1,250 hours of service during the 12 months immediately preceding commencement of the leave.
 2. An agency head shall not extend FMLA benefits to an ineligible employee.
- C. Situations covered by the FMLA. A state agency shall grant an eligible employee FMLA leave when the employee takes leave for one or more of the following reasons:
 1. The birth of a child or placement of a child with the employee for adoption or foster care, provided the leave concludes within 12 months of the birth or placement.
 2. To care for the employee's spouse, child or parent with a serious health condition.
 3. The employee is unable to work because of the employee's own serious health condition.
 4. Any qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that the employee's spouse, child or parent is a covered military member on active duty or call to active duty status in support of a contingency operation.
 5. To care for a covered service member with a serious injury or illness when the covered service member is the employee's spouse, child, parent or next of kin.
- D. Amount of FMLA leave.
 1. An employee who takes FMLA leave for any of the situations described in subsections (C)(1), (2), (3) or (4) may take a maximum of 12 workweeks of leave during any rolling 12-month period, measured backward from the first day of each approved period of FMLA leave.
 2. An employee who takes FMLA leave for the situation described in subsection (C)(5) may take up to 26 workweeks of leave in a single 12-month period.
 3. During a 12-month period, an eligible employee is able to take no more than 12 workweeks of leave for any of the situations described in subsections (C)(1), (2), (3) or (4) and a combined total of 26 workweeks of leave if the leave includes the situation described in subsection (C)(5).
- E. Designation of FMLA leave. An employee need not specifically request FMLA leave to be placed on FMLA leave. If an eligible employee takes leave for any reason covered by the FMLA and has not already exhausted the employee's available FMLA leave, the agency head shall designate the employee's leave as FMLA leave.
- F. Use of paid leave. Except for portions of industrial leave, an employee on FMLA leave shall be required to use the employee's available paid leave while on FMLA leave as follows and in the following order:
 1. Sick leave or, as applicable, family sick leave subject to the provisions of R2-5A-B603.

- H. Return from FMLA leave. An agency head shall restore an employee returning from FMLA leave to the employee's original job, or to an equivalent job with equivalent pay, benefits, and other terms and conditions of employment. The provisions of the FMLA, not the provisions of R2-5A-C602(C), shall govern return to work from leave without pay granted to complete an FMLA-qualified leave.
- I. Employee responsibilities. An employee is required to adhere to the employing agency's call-in procedures, give the agency 30 days' notice in the event of a foreseeable leave, provide requested documentation, and periodic updates of the employee's status and intent to return to work as requested by the agency.

- J. Agency rights. Nothing in the FMLA or this rule should be construed as limiting an agency's right to manage, discipline or terminate an employee, including an employee's failure to comply with the agency's request for appropriate documentation to substantiate the employee's need for the leave. However, an employee's use of FMLA leave cannot be considered as a negative factor in any employment decision.

R2-5.1-103. Appeal Procedures

- A. Appeal. A permanent status covered employee who wishes to appeal a disciplinary action shall, no later than 10 business days from the effective date of the action, file a written appeal with the Board in accordance with A.R.S. § 41-783. The appeal shall include:
 1. The appellant's name, address, and telephone number;
 2. The name of the agency taking the disciplinary action being appealed;

3. The name, address, and telephone number of the appellant's representative, if applicable;
 4. The action requested of the Board; and
 5. A specific response to the causes for disciplinary action upon which the appeal is based.
- B. Change of address. A party shall notify the Board of a change of address or telephone number.
- C. Routing of appeal. The Board shall provide a copy of an appeal to the respondent at the respondent's last known address within five business days from the date of filing.
- D. Hearing officer. The Board or the Board's chair may assign an appeal or may direct staff administratively to assign an appeal to a hearing officer for hearing. When an appeal is assigned to a hearing officer, the hearing officer is the authorized representative of the Board and is fully empowered to grant or refuse extensions of time, to set proceedings for hearing, to conduct the hearing, and to take any action in connection with the proceedings that the Board is authorized by law to take other than making the final findings of fact, conclusions of law, and order. The assignment of an appeal to a hearing officer does not preclude the Board or the Board's chair from withdrawing the assignment and conducting the hearing itself or from reassigning the appeal to another hearing officer.
- E. Hearing officer report. The hearing officer conducting the hearing shall write proposed findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a recommendation, as well as a brief statement of reasons for the hearing officer's findings and conclusions and shall submit to the Board the proposed findings of fact, conclusions of law, and recommendation within 30 days of the last date of the hearing.
- F. Conclusion of hearing. The Board shall consider the hearing concluded when it receives a copy of the hearing officer's proposed findings of fact, conclusions of law, and recommendation or, if objections are filed, on the date the objections are filed. At the discretion of the Board, the hearing officer may be, but need not be, present during the consideration of the appeal by the Board, and, if requested, shall assist and advise the Board.
- G. Time for hearing. The Board shall hold a hearing on an appeal within 30 days from receipt by the Board of an appeal unless the Board finds good cause to extend the time.
- H. Notice of hearing. The Board shall provide the appellant and respondent with written notice of the time, date, and place of hearing of an appeal, and the name of the hearing officer at least 20 days before the date of the hearing.
- I. Nature of hearing; rules of evidence. Every hearing shall be open to the public unless the appellant requests a confidential hearing. If the hearing involves evidence the state is precluded by law from disclosing, the Board or the Board's hearing officer shall grant a request for a confidential hearing by the respondent. The appellant, respondent, or hearing officer may request that portions of the record be sealed or adequately protected if testimony of a witness is of a sensitive nature. Any party may be self-represented or may designate a representative as provided by law. Every hearing shall be conducted in an impartial manner as a quasi-judicial proceeding. All witnesses shall testify under oath or by affirmation, and a record of the proceeding shall be made and kept by the Board for three years. Hearings shall be conducted in a manner that ascertains the substantial rights of the parties. The Board, a Board member, or a hearing officer is not bound by common law, statutory rules of evidence, or technical or formal rules of procedure, except the rule of privilege as recognized by law.
- J. Prehearing conference. The Board or the Board's hearing officer may require the appellant and respondent to attend a prehearing conference. Any agreements reached at that conference shall be binding at the hearing.
- K. Exhibits. A party introducing an exhibit shall furnish the Board or the Board's hearing officer and the opposing party with a copy of the exhibit before or at the beginning of the hearing.
- L. Exclusion of witnesses. Upon the motion of an appellant or respondent, the hearing officer, in the hearing officer's discretion, may exclude from the hearing room any witness who is not under examination. The hearing officer shall not exclude a party to the hearing or a party's representative.
- M. Witness fees. Witnesses, other than state employees, when subpoenaed to attend a hearing are entitled to the same fee as is allowed witnesses in civil cases in the Arizona Superior Court. If the hearing officer, on the hearing officer's own motion, subpoenas a witness, fees and mileage shall be paid from funds of the Board upon presentation of a duly executed claim. If the appellant or respondent subpoenas a witness, the fees and mileage shall be paid by the party requesting the witness. Reimbursement to state employees subpoenaed as witnesses is limited to payment of mileage by the party requesting the witness. Mileage shall be paid at the current Arizona Department of Administration reimbursement rate.
- N. Enforcement of subpoenas. If enforcement of a subpoena for appearance of a witness is necessary, enforcement proceedings shall be taken to Superior Court by the party requesting enforcement, and enforcement shall be determined by the Superior Court and not the Board. The party requesting enforcement shall name the Board as a party to any proceedings. The Board shall follow any orders entered by the court.
- O. Depositions. Either party may request that a witness' deposition be used as evidence if the presence of a witness cannot be procured at the time of hearing. The hearing officer shall grant or deny the request.
- P. Proposed findings of fact. Both appellant and respondent may file with the Board proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law for the benefit of the hearing officer. If either the appellant or the respondent chooses to file proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, the filing shall take place before the conclusion of the hearing as defined in subsection (F).
- Q. Objections to findings. The Board shall send a copy of the hearing officer's proposed findings of fact, conclusions of law, and recommendation to the appellant and respondent. The appellant or respondent may file written objections, but not post-hearing evidence, to the hearing officer's proposed findings of fact or conclusions of law with the Board within 15 days from receipt of the hearing officer's proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law and shall serve copies of the objections upon the other party and the Board. The Board shall not consider untimely objections.
- R. Personnel Board decision. Within the time required by law, the Board shall notify the appellant and respondent of the time and place of the Board meeting at which the appeal will be decided. The Board may affirm, reverse, adopt, modify, supplement, or reject the hearing officer's proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law in whole or in part, may recommit the matter to the hearing officer with instructions, may convene itself as a hearing body, or may make any other disposition of the appeal allowed by law. The Board shall make a decision on the appeal in an open meeting within 45 days after the conclusion of the hearing and shall send a copy of the decision to the appellant and respondent by certified mail, return receipt requested. If the Board orders the respondent to reinstate the appellant, it may also order the respondent to reinstate the appellant with or without back pay in the amount and for the period the Board determines to be proper.

- S. Appeal of Board decision in court. The appellant or respondent may appeal the Board's decision to the Superior Court as provided in A.R.S. § 41-783.

R2-8-104. Definitions

- A. Proprietary functions: Services performed in a single proprietary function for a political subdivision are those services normally carried on by private enterprises. These include, but are not limited to, municipal water departments, municipal transportation departments, municipal housing and airport authorities. For other political subdivisions such as school districts, these functions include cafeteria workers and bookstore employees. School district bus drivers engaged in transporting students without charge are not engaged in a proprietary function. Hospitals operated for the care of the indigent sick by political subdivisions constitute a governmental function, and the employees in such a hospital, therefore, are not performing services in proprietary functions.
- B. Who are employees:
 - 1. Every individual is an employee if the political subdivision for which he performs services has the right to control and direct him not only as to what shall be done but how it shall be done. It is not necessary that the political subdivision actually control or direct the manner in which the services are performed; it is sufficient if the subdivision has the right to do so. The right to discharge strongly implies the right to control.
 - 2. Officers of a political subdivision are its employees. So are any individuals performing services under contract in the exercise of a governmental function. Individuals such as physicians, dentists, and lawyers, engaged in an independent profession in which they offer their services to the public, are employees if their services include the exercise of a governmental function. If not, they may or may not be employees depending upon the degree to which they are subject to control by the political subdivision.
 - 3. Whether the individual is an employee depends upon the actual facts of his relationship with the political subdivision. A juror is not an employee since he is not a public officer and is not subject to control as to how he votes on a verdict. A physician who contracts with a county Board of Supervisors to furnish medical services to the indigent sick is an employee when the duty of caring for indigent sick is by law placed in the Board.
- C. Mandatory exclusion: Prior to the 1967 Social Security Amendments, the state had the option of excluding emergency services. Beginning January 1, 1968, services performed by an individual as an employee serving on a temporary basis in case of fire, storm, snow, earthquake, flood, or other similar emergency are mandatorily excluded. This mandatory exclusion is applicable to services for groups already covered as well as to services for groups which may be covered in the future.
- D. Elective positions: Elective positions as used in agreements excluding such positions from coverage means those positions filled by a vote of a legislative body, a board or committee, or by the qualified electorate at large for the subdivision or instrumentality covered by the agreement, which would constitute an election under the law of Arizona.
- E. Class or classes of part-time positions: Services performed in a position which does not require more than 150 hours of service in a calendar quarter are services in a part-time position. If a position is established during a calendar quarter and if such position would require more than 150 hours of service if it had been in existence for the entire quarter, such position would not be a part-time position and services in such a position would not be excluded under the state's definition. The time requirements of the position itself, and not the number of hours worked by an individual, is the determinative factor. For example, an individual may be employed and compensated for only a few hours in only one day of a calendar quarter and such individual may be subject to coverage if the position is one which requires more than 150 hours of service.
- F. Class or classes of positions the compensation for which is on a fee basis:
 - 1. Compensation is considered to be on a salary basis when the payments are made at regular and fixed intervals based on services for definite and regular periods of time; and on a fee basis when made for particular services rendered at irregular and uncertain periods. Persons performing personal services of a governmental nature for a political subdivision are employees regardless of whether compensation is on a salary or fee basis. The services of such a person may be excluded, however, if compensated on a fee rather than a salary basis and the agreement between the Arizona State Retirement System Board and the subdivision excludes positions on a fee basis.
 - 2. Individuals performing governmental services in the practice of their profession, such as doctors or lawyers, may be on either a fee or salary basis depending on the nature of their contract of employment with the political subdivision. For example, a city attorney working full time for a regular monthly salary is not on a fee basis. An attorney employed by the city for special services to be rendered at irregular and uncertain periods for a fixed amount (even though weekly, monthly or other partial advances may be made) is compensated on a fee basis. When, as with some justices of the peace or tax collectors, the compensation is derived in part from fees and part from salary, the position is to be considered as on a fee basis if fees constitute the primary source of compensation. The fees may be received from either the public or the political subdivision. If the fee-basis exclusion is taken and if the position is a fee-basis position, all fees and salary received for services in such a position are not to be reported. If the exclusion is not exercised, all fees received, whether from the political subdivision or other sources, are to be reported.
 - 3. Beginning January 1, 1968, services performed by state and local employees in positions compensated solely by fees, which are not covered under an agreement, are compulsorily covered as self-employment. However, an individual occupying such a fee-basis position in 1968 could elect not to have his fees covered as self-employment income, if he filed a certificate of election of exemption with the Internal Revenue Service on or before the due date of his 1968 federal income tax return.
 - 4. An entity may modify its agreement to extend coverage to services performed after 1967 in any class or classes of positions compensated solely by fees not covered under an agreement prior to 1968. However, the entity must specifically include such services where this coverage is desired. Such coverage shall be effective with respect to services in such fee-basis positions performed beginning with the first day of the year after the year in which the agreement is approved.
 - 5. An entity may at any time after 1967 modify its agreement to exclude services performed in any class or classes of positions compensated solely by fees. Such an exclusion from coverage is effective the first day of the year following the year in which the agreement is approved. If any class or classes of positions are so excluded, the entity cannot at a later date modify its agreement to again cover the services.

G. Exclusion by class or classes of positions:

1. Basic classifications may be made within either elective, part-time, or fee-basis positions according to a class or classes of positions having common characteristics or attributes, and exclusions limited to such classes. A class of positions includes all of the positions in the coverage group which have these common characteristics. Services in one or more classes or combinations of classes may be excluded. Positions may be excluded in one class and covered in another. For example, in a coverage group there may be excluded services in all elective positions or the exclusion could be limited to services in all elective positions except elective judicial positions and except part-time elective positions.
2. Positions in a single organizational unit of the coverage group do not constitute a class of positions. Therefore, while all of the part-time maintenance workers of a county could be excluded under the part-time option, the exclusion could not be limited to all or any class or part-time maintenance workers in the Office of the County Clerk, which is an organizational unit of the county.

H. Agricultural labor which would be excluded if performed for a private employer:

1. Under the federal Social Security Act, when the agricultural exclusion has been taken, tests as to services which are excluded should be applied to all reports covering reporting quarters beginning on or after January 1, 1957. Cash remuneration paid to an employee for agricultural services should be reported only if:
 - a. Such remuneration paid the employee during a calendar year (even though part of it was for services performed in a previous calendar year) amounts to $150 or more; or
 - b. The employee performs agricultural services for the employer on some part of a day on at least 20 days during a calendar year for cash remuneration computed on a time basis, as by the hour, day, or week; in which event the amount of cash remuneration is immaterial in determining if the services are covered.
2. Services performed by individuals lawfully admitted from any foreign country on a temporary basis to perform agricultural labor are excluded.

I. Student service exclusion: Only those student services which would be mandatorily excluded if performed for a private employer fall within this exclusion. Where this exclusion is taken, the following services are not covered:

1. Services performed by a student regularly enrolled and attending classes in the employ of his school, college, or university. This means the employing entity and not necessarily the individual institution. The exclusion applies only during periods of regular school attendance. Thus, the exclusion does not apply to work done during summer vacation unless the student is attending a summer session. This is true even though the student was enrolled and regularly attending classes in the school during the previous year and expects to return to school the following year. Services performed on holidays and weekends falling within the academic year when classes are not scheduled, on the other hand, are excluded.

2. Services performed as a student nurse in the employ of a hospital or nurses' training school by an individual who is enrolled and regularly attending classes in a nurses' training school chartered or approved pursuant to state law. It is not necessary that the nurses' training school in which the student nurse is enrolled and attending classes be located within the approving state as long as the school meets the educational standards established by state law for the approval of schools within the state.

J. Services performed by election officials or election workers if remuneration paid in a calendar quarter is less than $50:

1. Prior to the 1967 amendments to the Social Security Act, there was no provision for a specific exclusion of the services of election officials or election workers. The exclusion of such services was possible, however, by exclusion of a class of services for which an exclusion was permitted, i.e., exclusion of election officials and election workers as a class of part-time or fee-basis positions.
2. This optional exclusion of services performed by election officials or election workers is dependent on the amount paid in a calendar quarter for such services, e.g., if the remuneration paid in the third calendar quarter of a year amounts to $50 or more, the services are covered and must be reported regardless of the fact that the remuneration paid in any other calendar quarter for election officials' or election workers' services amount to $49.99 or less and is not reportable.
3. These services may continue to be excluded as a class of part-time or fee-basis positions without regard to the amount paid for such services. These services would, of course, be excluded already if a part-time or fee-basis position exclusion in broad enough terms was previously exercised. The purpose of the optional exclusion of services performed by election officials or election workers if remuneration in a calendar quarter is less than $50 is to permit the exclusion to be taken where one was not previously taken. The effective date of exclusion for these services may not be earlier than the last day of the calendar quarter in which the modification to state's Social Security agreement is mailed to the Secretary of Health and Human Services.
4. On or after January 1, 1978, a political entity can modify its agreement to specifically exclude the services of election officials or election workers if the remuneration paid in a calendar year is less than $100. A change to $100 in a year from $50 in a calendar quarter requires the execution of a new modification. For modification executed after December 31, 1977, the $100 in a year test must be used.

K. "Wages" -- (A.R.S. § 38-701(8)) means all remuneration paid to employees whose services are covered under an agreement in a calendar year not in excess of the maximum reportable wages on which social security contributions are due.

1. Wages include the cash value of remuneration paid to employees other than money, for example, the value of room and board. The valuation of room and board furnished an employee by a political entity shall be computed at the same valuation as computed by the Industrial Commission for payment of workmen's compensation premiums.
2. If, as a part of the employment, it is understood that the employee is entitled to meals and the employer is to furnish them, the value of such meals is wages and should be reported. If there is no understanding (either orally or in writing) that meals will be furnished the employee, but they are in fact provided, the value of the meals would be wages if it is substantial. The value of meals may be considered as not substantial if it is less than five percent of the cash pay.

3. The employer's report of wages paid for each calendar quarter to the Arizona State Retirement System Board shall include for each employee both the cash wages and the value of room and board as a lump sum for the quarter for which the report is made.
4. The employee tax shall be deducted from the wages paid in accordance with the method of including the value of remuneration paid in any medium other than cash in each pay period or in a single pay period in the calendar quarter.
5. The value of meals and lodging furnished by, or on behalf of an employer to an employee, the employee's spouse, or any of the employee's dependents is not wages for Social Security purposes if:
 - a. The meals or lodging are furnished on the business premises of the employer, and
 - b. The meals or lodging are furnished for the convenience of the employer, and
 - c. The employee is required to accept such lodging as a condition of employment.

If an audit determines that the member is eligible for a benefit from the other public service employer's retirement plan, the member is required to take necessary steps to forfeit the benefit, and if the forfeiture is not completed within 90 days of being notified of the audit results, the service credit purchase listed on this application will be revoked and any funds paid to purchase the service credit will be refunded to the member.
- B. The amount the member shall pay to purchase other public service credit is determined as provided in R2-8-506.

R2-8-513. Purchasing Service Credit by Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization

- A. An eligible member may purchase service credit by Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization.
- B. By the due date specified on the SP invoice, the member shall ensure that the ASRS receives the completed Service Purchase Payment Request form with the information specified in R2-8-502(D)(2).
- C. If the eligible member elects to pay for service credit by Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization, ASRS shall prepare an Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization and send it to the eligible member for signature. The member shall ensure that the ASRS receives the signed Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization within 30 days after the date on the Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization. The signed Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization becomes irrevocable upon receipt by the ASRS.
- D. At the time the eligible member signs the Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization the eligible member may elect to use termination pay towards the balance of the Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization if the eligible member terminates employment. If the eligible member chooses this option, the eligible member shall complete the Termination Pay Addendum to the Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization and return it to the ASRS along with the remainder of the Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization that includes the following:
 - 1. A statement that the member:
 - a. Understands and agrees that the member must continue working at least three full calendar months after the date of submission of the form before termination pay may be used on a pre-tax basis;
 - b. Understands that if the termination payment exceeds the balance owed on the Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization, the overage will be returned to the ASRS employer to be distributed to the member; and
 - c. Elects to irrevocably agree to have termination pay that may be payable to the member upon termination of employment sent to the ASRS on a pre-tax basis and used toward any remaining balance of the Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization if all scheduled payroll deductions have not been completed upon termination of service; and
 - 2. A statement that either all termination pay or a specified amount of termination pay is to be applied to the balance of the Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization.
- E. The ASRS shall:
 - 1. Charge interest on the unpaid balance at the assumed actuarial investment earnings rate approved by the Board in effect at the time the authorization was entered into;
 - 2. Limit the payroll deduction time period to a maximum of 20 years; and
 - 3. Require a minimum payment of $10.00 per payroll period, or payment in an amount to purchase at least .001 year of service credit per payroll period, whichever is greater.
- F. The ASRS shall transmit the Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization to the active member's ASRS employer, and the ASRS employer shall implement the deduction on the first pay period after receiving the Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization.
- G. If a deduction is not made under an Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization within six months after the member signs the authorization, the authorization lapses and the member may make another request, which is recalculated based on the new request date unless the failure to begin deductions is due to an ASRS error.

- H. A period of leave of absence, long-term disability, or Presidential Call-up shall not cancel the Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization. The ASRS employer shall resume deductions immediately upon the member's return to that employment. The period during which the member is on leave of absence, on long-term disability, or leaves work because of a Presidential Call-up is not included in the 20-year payment time limitation under subsection (E)(2). If the member does not return to active working status, whether due to termination of employment or retirement, the member may elect to purchase the balance of unpaid service under the Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization at the time of termination or retirement as specified in this Section.
- I. Deductions made pursuant to an Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization continue until the:
 - 1. Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization is completed;
 - 2. Member retires, whether or not the member continues employment as allowed in A.R.S. §§ 38-766.01 and 38-764(J); or
 - 3. Member terminates all ASRS employment without transferring employment.
- J. If a member retires or terminates employment from all ASRS employers without transferring employment as stated in R2-8-513.01 before all deductions are made as authorized by the Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization, the member's purchase of service credit is canceled unless the member notifies the ASRS in writing during the period 14 days before to 14 days after retirement or termination from all ASRS employment of the intent to purchase the remaining amount due in a lump sum.
- K. When the member notifies ASRS of retirement or termination from all ASRS employment and requests to pay off the Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization, the ASRS shall send the member a PDA pay-off letter to the mailing address given by the member. The ASRS shall calculate the amount owed by the member and reduce the amount owed by any excess interest that the member has paid.
- L. Within 30 days of the date of the PDA pay-off letter, the member shall ensure that the ASRS receives the completed SP Payment Request form with the information specified in R2-8-502(D)(2). The member may purchase the remaining service credit by one or more of the following methods:
 - 1. By check, cashier's check, or money order made out to the ASRS under R2-8-512;

R2-8-513.01. Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization and Transfer of Employment to a Different ASRS Employer

- A. An Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization continues if a member transfers employment.

offer to work for a new ASRS employer, and the member is not already an active member working for a different ASRS employer. The member shall then pay off the Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization as specified in R2-8-513(J).

- C. If a retirement contribution is due from the new ASRS employer within 120 days from the member's termination date with the previous employer, there is a rebuttable presumption that there is a transfer of employment. If a retirement contribution is not received within 120 days, the Irrevocable Payroll Deduction Authorization terminates.

 1. Use the service mark without reference to a private brand or label.

 2. Use the service mark as the signatory’s own mark or as the exclusive representation of its business entity.

 1. Commits a flagrant violation or repeated major deviation;
 2. Fails to comply with R3-9-603;
 3. Has not paid assessments due for the prior fiscal year; or
 4. Withdraws from participation in the LGMA pursuant to Article XVI, section C of the LGMA.
- B. The first flagrant violation or repeated major deviation will result in a suspension of the privilege to use the service mark for a minimum two-week period.
- C. A flagrant violation or repeated major deviation following the first flagrant violation or repeated major deviation will result in an indefinite suspension of the privilege to use the service mark.
- D. A flagrant violation or repeated major deviation following a suspension pursuant to subsection (C) will result in an indefinite revocation of the privilege to use the service mark. The privilege to use the service mark will not be restored to the signatory for a minimum of two years unless the signatory demonstrates to the satisfaction of the auditor and the Committee a significant change in management and brand.
- E. A signatory whose privilege to use the service mark is suspended or revoked pursuant to subsections (B) through (D) shall not use the service mark until the signatory has undergone at least one new audit without the finding of any major deviations or flagrant violations and has evidenced that the signatory has corrected any minor deviations found.
- F. At least two weeks of any suspension of the privilege to use the service mark under subsections (B) through (D) must occur between December 1 and March 31.
- G. The Committee may accelerate the progression of penalties under this Section if the signatory’s product seriously affects a person’s health and the signatory handled the product with intentional, knowing or reckless disregard for the signatory’s obligations under the LGMA and best practices.
- H. A signatory will not lose the privilege to use the service mark under subsections (A)(1) and (2) without an opportunity for a hearing under A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 6, Article 10, except if the Committee finds that the public health, safety or welfare imperatively requires emergency action, and incorporates a finding to that effect in its order, the Committee may order summary suspension of a signatory’s privilege to use the service mark.
- I. A signatory that loses the privilege to use the mark under subsection (A)(3) must pay all assessments due from prior fiscal years, including penalties and interest, before regaining the privilege to use the service mark.
- J. The Committee may publish a list of signatories whose privilege to use the service mark has been suspended.

R3-9-605. Violation Levels; Repeated Violations

- A. Violations of R3-9-602 fall into four levels: flagrant violations, major deviations, minor deviations, and minor infractions. The Committee or its designee shall determine the level of a violation consistent with this Section.
- B. A flagrant violation occurs when a signatory buys, consigns, or otherwise accepts or handles a leafy green product and knows or should have known the product was grown, packed, shipped, processed or handled in violation of R3-9-602 and the violation:
1. Significantly increases the risk of delivering unsafe product into commerce;
 2. Affects the integrity of the LGMA's food safety program; or
 3. In the Committee's judgment, merits more serious treatment than a major deviation based on the consideration of, as relevant:
 - a. The position of the employee responsible for the violation,
 - b. Whether the employee responsible for the violation knowingly committed the violation,
 - c. The circumstances surrounding the violation,
 - d. Whether the signatory took prompt corrective action,
 - e. Whether the signatory has committed the same or a similar violation previously, and
 - f. Any other relevant facts.
- C. A major deviation is a violation of R3-9-602 that may inhibit the maintenance of food safety, but that does not necessarily result in unsafe product.
- D. The following violations constitute at least major deviations and are potentially flagrant violations:
1. Falsification of any record for any reason;
 2. Spitting in the field;
 3. Unclean sanitation facilities, including the presence of soiled toilet paper;
 4. Failure to:
 - a. Properly wash hands after using a restroom or returning to the field;
 - b. Follow the best practices with respect to feces or fecal matter found in the field;
 - c. Follow the best practices with respect to the use of compost or animal manure, including creating and maintaining proper records related to that use;
 - d. Have a trace-back system;
 - e. Sanitize gloves and knives;
 - f. Follow a work health practices program concerning the transfer of human pathogens by workers; or
 - g. Provide a Compliance Plan, as defined in the best practices, to an auditor;
5. Refusing an audit; and
 6. Conditions for which an automatic "unsatisfactory" would be assessed by USDA if performing a GAP/GHP audit.
- E. Violations constituting flagrant violations or major deviations are not limited to those listed in subsection (D).
- F. A minor deviation is a violation of R3-9-602 that the signatory can correct within five business days of the audit and that does not necessarily increase the risk of a food borne illness.
- G. A minor infraction is a violation of R3-9-602 that the signatory corrects before the auditor leaves the audited premises and that does not necessarily increase the risk of a food borne illness.
- H. The Marketing Committee or its designee may assess a signatory with a major deviation if an auditor discovers several minor deviations or minor infractions of the same type or if a signatory fails to timely submit a corrective action plan.
- I. Repeated major violations are limited to violations occurring during the current and prior fiscal year.

Historical Note

New Section made by exempt rulemaking at 16 A.A.R. 2282, effective October 28, 2010 (Supp. 10-4). Amended by exempt rulemaking at 17 A.A.R. 2569, effective November 29, 2011 (Supp. 11-4).

R3-9-606. Corrective Action Plans

- A. A signatory who commits a flagrant violation, major deviation, or minor deviation must correct the violation and submit a corrective action plan to the Marketing Committee or its designee within five business days of receipt of the audit report noting the violation. If the Marketing Committee or its designee rejects the corrective action plan, the signatory has 24 hours to submit a revised corrective action plan.
- B. In the case of a flagrant violation or major deviation, once the Marketing Committee or its designee accepts the signatory's corrective action plan, an auditor will perform an unannounced audit of the signatory within three business days.
- C. The signatory shall comply with the corrective action plan.
- D. Notwithstanding subsection (A), in the case of a violation that creates an immediate danger to public health, the signatory shall submit a correction action plan immediately and take necessary action to minimize the threat to public health.

- A. To receive credit for intern training hours, a pharmacy or graduate intern shall train in a site that:
1. Holds a valid Arizona pharmacy permit and employs a pharmacy intern preceptor who supervises the intern; or
 2. Is an alternative training site. For purposes of this Section, the term alternative training site is a non-pharmacy training site established and monitored by a Board-approved college or school of pharmacy or other non-pharmacy site where pharmacy related activities are performed and where an intern gains experience as specified in R4-23-301(E).

- B. The Board shall inform a pharmacy or alternative training site that an intern will not get credit for training received at the site if the Board determines that a pharmacy or alternative training site fails to provide experiential training as specified in R4-23-301(E) or violates A.R.S. Chapter 18 Title 32 or Chapter 27 Title 36 or the federal act.
- C. Pharmacy intern preceptor. To be a pharmacy intern preceptor, a pharmacist shall:

Title 32, Chapter 18 or Title 36, Chapter 27 or the federal act. R4-23-111 applies to revocation of preceptor privileges.

The ratio of pharmacist to intern shall not exceed one pharmacist to two interns in a community pharmacy or limited-service pharmacy setting unless approved by the Board. In considering a request to exceed the ratio, the Board will consider pharmacy space limitations and whether exceeding the ratio poses a safety risk to the public health. Subject to R4-23-609 and the safety of public health, there is no pharmacist-to-intern ratio in a practice setting directed by a Board-approved college or school of pharmacy experiential training program.
- F. Preceptor responsibilities. A pharmacy intern preceptor assumes the responsibilities of a teacher and mentor in addition to those of a pharmacist. 1. A request for a hearing shall be filed in writing with the Department or provider within 15 calendar days after the mailing date of the decision letter, except that for appeals on denying, revoking or suspending a license of a child welfare agency or foster home the request shall be filed within 20 calendar days.
2. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by Department regulation, any appeal, application, request, notice, report, or other information or document submitted to the Department shall be considered received by and filed with the Department:
 - a. If transmitted via the United States Postal Service or its successor, on the date it is mailed. The mailing date will be as follows:

 - c. The submission of any appeal, application, request, notice, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the Department that the delay in submission was due to Department error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States Postal Service or its successor.
 - d. Any notice, determination, decision or other data mailed by the Department shall be considered as having been given to the addressee to whom it is directed on the date it is mailed to the addressee's last known address. All parties shall be ready and present with all witnesses and documents at the time and place specified in the notice of hearing, and shall be prepared at such time to dispose of all issues and questions involved in the appeal.
4. The hearing officer may take such action for the proper disposition of an appeal as he deems necessary, and on his own motion, or at the request of any interested party upon a showing of good cause disqualify himself, or may continue the hearing to a future time or reopen a hearing before a decision is final to take additional evidence. If an interested party fails to appear at a scheduled hearing, the hearing officer may adjourn the hearing to a later date or may make his decision upon record and such evidence as may be presented at the scheduled hearing. If, within ten days of the scheduled hearing, appellant files a written application requesting reopening of the proceedings and establishes good cause for failure to appear at the scheduled hearing, the hearing shall be rescheduled. Notice of the time, place, and purpose of any continued, reopened or rescheduled hearing shall be given to all interested parties.

C. Prehearing summary

The request for the issuance of a subpoena shall be made to give sufficient time, a minimum of three working days, prior to the hearing. A subpoena requiring the production of records and documents shall specifically describe them in detail and further set forth the name and address of the custodian thereof.

A transcript of the proceedings need not, however, be made unless it is required for further proceedings. When a transcript has been made for further proceedings, a copy shall be furnished without cost to each interested party.
- G. Hearing decision
- The hearing decision shall be rendered exclusively on the evidence and testimony produced at the hearing, appropriate state and federal law, and Department rules governing the issues in dispute.
 - The decision shall set forth the pertinent facts involved, the conclusions drawn from such facts, the sections of applicable law or rule, the decision and the reasons thereof. A copy of such decision, together with an explanation of the appeal rights, shall be delivered or mailed to each interested party and their attorneys of record not more than 60 days from the date of filing the request for appeal, unless the delay was caused by the appellant.
 - In those cases where the local office must take additional action as a result of a decision, such action must be taken immediately.
 - All decisions in favor of the appellant apply retroactively to the date of the action being appealed, or to the date the hearing officer specifically finds appropriate.
 - When a hearing decision upholds the proposed action of reducing, suspending or terminating a grant, an overpayment is the result.
 - All hearing decisions will be made accessible to the public, subject to meeting the provision for safeguarding confidential information relating to the client.
 - Decision of the hearing officer will be the final decision of the Department unless a reconsideration is requested in accordance with subsection (I).
- H. Withdrawal of appeal. An appeal may be withdrawn as follows:
- Voluntary withdrawal. This may be accomplished by completing and signing the proper Department form or by submitting a letter properly signed.
 - Abandonment or involuntary withdrawal. This occurs when an appellant fails to appear at a scheduled hearing and within ten days thereof fails to request a rescheduled hearing or fails to appear at a rescheduled hearing which he has requested. A hearing may not be considered abandoned if the claimant provides notification up to the time of the hearing that he is unable, due to good cause, to keep the appointment and that he still wishes a hearing.
- I. Reconsideration
- An appellant, within ten calendar days after the decision was mailed or otherwise delivered to him, may request the Director to review the decision. The request shall be in writing and should set forth a statement of the grounds for review, and may be filed personally or by mail.
 - After receipt of an application for leave to appeal, the Director shall:
 - Deny the application, or
 - Remand the case for rehearing, specifying the nature of any additional evidence required and/or issues to be considered, or
 - Grant the application and decide the appeal on the record.
 - The Director shall promptly adopt his decision which shall be the final decision of the Department. A copy of the decision, together with a statement specifying the rights for judicial review, shall be distributed to each interested party.
