  1. During the substantive review time-frame, the Board may make one comprehensive written request for additional information or documentation. The substantive review and overall time-frames are suspended from the postmark date on the comprehensive written request for additional information or documentation until the Board receives the additional information or documentation. The Board and applicant may agree in writing to allow the Board to submit supplemental requests for additional information.
  2. The Board shall send a written notice of approval to an applicant who meets the requirements of A.R.S. Title 32, Chapter 17 and this Chapter.
  3. The Board shall send a written notice of denial to an applicant who fails to meet the requirements of A.R.S. Title 32, Chapter 17 or this Chapter.
- D. The Board shall administratively close an applicant's file if the applicant fails to submit the information or documentation required under subsection (B)(1) or (C)(1) within 360 days from the date on which the application package was originally submitted. If an individual whose file is administratively closed wishes to be licensed, the individual shall file another application package and pay the application fee.
- E. The Board shall grant or deny the following licenses within seven days after receipt of an application:
  1. Ninety-day extension of locum tenens registration;
  2. Waiver of continuing education requirements for a particular period;
  3. Extension of time to complete continuing education requirements;
  4. Five-day educational training permit; and
  5. Extension of one-year renewable training permit.
- F. In computing any time-frame prescribed in this Section, the day of the act or event that begins the time-frame is not included. The computation includes intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and official state holidays. If the last day of a time-frame falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or official state holiday, the next business day is the time-frame's last day.

R4-22-107. Petition for Rulemaking or Review

- A. A person may petition the Board under A.R.S. § 41-1033 for either a:
1. Rulemaking action relating to a Board rule, including making a new rule or amending or repealing an existing rule; or
  2. Review of an existing Board practice or substantive policy statement alleged to constitute a rule.
- B. A person shall submit to the Board a written petition including the following information:
1. Name, address, e-mail address, and telephone and fax numbers of the person submitting the petition;
  2. Name of any person represented by the person submitting the petition;
  3. If requesting a rulemaking action:
    - a. Statement of the rulemaking action sought, including the A.A.C. citation of all existing rules, and the - specific language of a new rule or rule amendment; and

- b. Reasons for the rulemaking action, including an explanation of why the existing rule is inadequate, unreasonable, unduly burdensome, or unlawful;
- 4. If requesting a review of an existing practice or a substantive policy statement:
  - a. Subject matter of the existing practice or substantive policy statement, and
  - b. Reasons why the existing practice or substantive policy statement constitutes a rule; and
- 5. Dated signature of the person submitting the petition.
- C. A person may submit supporting information with a petition.
- D. A person may submit a petition and any supporting information by e-mail, hand delivery, or the U.S. Postal Service.
- E. The Board shall send the person submitting a petition a written response within 60 days of the date the Board receives the petition.

Historical Note

Adopted effective August 7, 1992 (Supp. 92-3). Section R4-22-107 repealed; new Section R4-22-107 renumbered from R4-22-115 and amended by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-108. Rehearing or Review of Decision

- A. The Board shall provide for a rehearing and review of its decisions under A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 6, Article 10 and rules established by the Office of Administrative Hearings.
- B. Except as provided in subsection (I), a party is required to file a motion for rehearing or review of a decision of the Board to exhaust the party's administrative remedies.
- C. A party may amend a motion for rehearing or review at any time before the Board rules on the motion.
- D. The Board may grant a rehearing or review for any of the following reasons materially affecting a party's rights:
  - 1. Irregularity in the proceedings of the Board, or any order or abuse of discretion, that deprived the moving party of a fair hearing;
  - 2. Misconduct of the Board, its staff, an administrative law judge, or the prevailing party;
  - 3. Accident or surprise that could not have been prevented by ordinary prudence;
  - 4. Newly discovered material evidence that could not, with reasonable diligence, have been discovered and produced at the hearing;
  - 5. Excessive penalty;
  - 6. Error in the admission or rejection of evidence or other errors of law occurring at the hearing or during the progress of the proceedings;
  - 7. The Board's decision is a result of passion or prejudice; or
  - 8. The findings of fact or decision is not justified by the evidence or is contrary to law.
- E. The Board may affirm or modify a decision or grant a rehearing to all or any of the parties on all or part of the issues for any of the reasons in subsection (D). An order modifying a decision or granting a rehearing shall specify with particularity the grounds for the order.
- F. When a motion for rehearing or review is based upon affidavits, the affidavits shall be served with the motion. An opposing party may, within 15 days after service, serve opposing affidavits.
- G. Not later than 10 days after the date of a decision, after giving parties notice and an opportunity to be heard, the Board may grant a rehearing or review on its own initiative for any reason for which it might have granted relief on motion of a party.

The Board may grant a motion for rehearing or review, timely served, for a reason not stated in the motion.

- H. If a rehearing is granted, the Board shall hold the rehearing within 60 days after the issue date on the order granting the rehearing.
- I. If the Board makes a specific finding that a particular decision needs to be effective immediately to preserve the public peace, health, or safety and that a review or rehearing of the decision is impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest, the Board shall issue the decision as a final decision without an opportunity for rehearing or review.
- J. A party that has exhausted the party's administrative remedies may appeal a final order of the Board under A.R.S. Title 12, Chapter 7, Article 6.

ARTICLE 2. LICENSING

R4-22-201. Application Required

An individual or entity that seeks a license or other approval from the Board shall complete and submit an application form prescribed by the Board. The Board has prescribed the following application forms, which are available from the Board office or web site:

1. License,
2. License renewal,
3. Locum tenens registration,
4. Initial registration to dispense,
5. Registration to dispense renewal,
6. Renewable one-year post-graduate training permit,
7. Renewal of post-graduate training permit,
8. Short-term training permit,
9. Two-year teaching license, and
10. Approval of an educational program for medical assistants.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-202. Determining Qualification for Licensure

A. To obtain a license, an applicant shall submit:

1. The application form specified in R4-22-201;
2. The proof required under A.R.S. § 32-1822(A);
3. A list of all Board-certified specializations, the certifying entity, and a copy of each certification or letter verifying specialization;
4. A malpractice claim or suit questionnaire for each instance of medical malpractice in which there was an award, settlement, or payment;
5. A passport-size picture taken within the last 60 days; and
6. The application fee required under R4-22-102(A).

B. In addition to the materials required under subsection (A), an applicant shall have the following information submitted directly to the Board by the specified entity:

1. Professional Education Verification form or an official transcript submitted by the osteopathic college from which the applicant graduated;
2. Verification of Postgraduate Training form submitted by each postgraduate facility or program at which the applicant trained;
3. Practice Experience Verification form for at least seven of the last 10 years submitted by each health care facility or employer at which the applicant obtained experience;
4. Verification of passing the medical licensure examination if the examination was passed within the last seven years submitted by the examining entity; and
5. Verification of licensure form submitted by every state in which the applicant is or has been licensed as an osteopathic physician.

C. If an applicant has established a credentials portfolio with the FCVS or AOIA, the applicant may request that the FCVS forward to the Board some or all of the materials required under subsection (B).

D. The Board shall conduct a substantive review of the information submitted under subsections (A) and (B) and determine whether the applicant is qualified for licensure by virtue of:

1. Possessing the knowledge and skills necessary to practice medicine safely and skillfully;
2. Demonstrating a history of professional conduct; and
3. Possessing the physical, mental, and emotional fitness to practice medicine.

E. If the substantive review referenced in subsection (D) does not yield sufficient information for the Board to determine whether an applicant is qualified for licensure, the Board shall request that the applicant appear before the Board for an interview.

1. The Board shall conduct an application interview in the same manner as an informal hearing conducted under A.R.S. § 32-1855 and shall accord the applicant the same rights as a respondent.

2. In conjunction with an application interview, the Executive Director or Board may require that the applicant, at the applicant's expense:

- a. Provide additional documentation,
- b. Submit to a physical or psychological examination,
- c. Submit to a practice assessment evaluation,
- d. Pass an approved special purposes competency examination listed in R4-22-203(A)(3), or
- e. Fulfill any combination of the requirements listed in subsections (E)(2)(a) through (d).

F. If the substantive review referenced in subsection (D) reveals that an applicant has been subject to disciplinary action or criminal conviction, the Board shall consider the following factors to determine whether the applicant has been rehabilitated from the conduct underlying the disciplinary action or criminal conviction:

1. Nature of the disciplinary or criminal action including charges and final disposition;
2. Whether all terms of court-ordered sentencing or Board-issued order were satisfied;
3. Whether the disciplinary action or criminal conviction was set aside, dismissed with prejudice, or reduced;
4. Whether a diversion program was entered and completed;
5. Whether the circumstances, relationships, or personal attributes that caused or contributed to the underlying conduct changed;
6. Personal and professional references attesting to rehabilitation; and
7. Other information the Board determines demonstrates whether the applicant has been rehabilitated.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-203. Examination; Practice Equivalency to an Examination

A. Approved examinations. For the purposes of licensing, the Board approves the following examinations:

1. All levels and parts of the COMLEX required by the NBOME with a passing score determined by the NBOME;
2. All levels and parts of the USMLE required by the NBME with a passing score determined by the NBME; and
3. A special purposes competency examination given by the

NBOME or NBME to an applicant at the request of the Board, with a passing score established by the NBOME or NBME.

- B. Practice equivalency to an examination. If an applicant has not passed an approved examination within the seven years before the date of application, the Board shall find that the applicant has practice experience equivalent to an approved examination if the applicant submits documentation of all of the following:
1. On the date of application and continuously until the date the applicant is issued or denied a license, the applicant holds:
    - a. An active license to practice osteopathic medicine issued by another state, or
    - b. An active permit or temporary license to practice in an approved residency or fellowship;
  2. For at least seven of the 10 years immediately before the date of application, the applicant:
    - a. Was in clinical practice providing direct patient care, or
    - b. Was in the second or later year of an approved residency or fellowship; and
    - c. Has completed a certification examination provided by a specialty board under R4-22-106; and
  3. Within two years immediately before the date of application, the applicant completed at least 40 hours of approved CME, defined and documented as specified in R4-22-207.

Historical Note

New Section renumbered from R4-22-104 and amended by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-204. License Issuance; Effective Date of License

- A. Within 90 days after an applicant for licensure receives notice from the Board that the applicant is approved, but no later than 360 days after the date on which the application was originally submitted, the approved applicant shall submit to the Board the license issuance fee required by A.R.S. § 32-1826(A) and the following information in writing:
1. Practice address and telephone number,
  2. Residential address, and
  3. A statement of whether the practice address or residential address should be used by the Board as the address of record.
- B. The Board shall issue a license to an approved applicant that is effective on the date the information required under subsection (A) is received.
- C. The Board shall administratively close an approved applicant's file if the approved applicant fails to submit the information required within the time specified under subsection (A). If an applicant whose file is administratively closed wishes to be considered further for licensure, the applicant shall reapply by complying with R4-22-202.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-205. License Renewal

To renew a license, the licensee shall submit to the Board the renewal application required under R4-22-201. Failure to receive notice of the need to renew does not excuse failure to renew timely.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-206. Procedure for Application to Reenter Practice

- A. The procedures in this Section apply only to an osteopathic physician who:
1. Was licensed and practiced as an osteopathic physician in Arizona or another jurisdiction, and
  2. Currently is not licensed and practicing as an osteopathic physician in Arizona or another jurisdiction.
- B. All applicants to reenter practice shall:
1. Submit the application required under R4-22-201, including all documents specified in the application; and
  2. Pay the fee specified in R4-22-102(A).
- C. In addition to complying with subsection (B), an applicant who has been out of practice for less than two years and has no disciplinary history shall submit documentation of completing at least 40 hours of Category 1-A or Category 1 CME in the applicant's intended field of practice within the two years before the date the application to reenter practice is approved.
- D. In addition to complying with subsection (B), an applicant who has been out of practice for two or more years and has no disciplinary history shall attend a Board meeting and:
1. Discuss with the Board evidence that the applicant remains competent to practice medicine; and
  2. Develop a reentry plan designed to ensure that the applicant is competent to practice medicine. The re-entry plan may include any or all of the following, at the discretion of the Board:
    - a. Taking a competency or specialty examination;
    - b. Taking continuing education;
    - c. Completing a practice assessment program;
    - d. Practicing under supervision or with restrictions; and
    - e. Submitting to a physical or psychological examination.
- E. In addition to complying with subsection (B), an applicant who has been out of practice and has a history of disciplinary action shall attend a Board meeting and:
1. Establish to the Board's satisfaction that the applicant is rehabilitated from the underlying unprofessional conduct. In determining whether the applicant is rehabilitated, the Board shall consider the factors listed in R4-22-202(F); and
  2. If the Board determines that the applicant is rehabilitated, take the actions listed in subsection (D) to ensure that the applicant is competent to practice medicine.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-207. Continuing Medical Education; Waiver; Extension of Time to Complete

- A. Under A.R.S. § 32-1825(B), a licensee is required to obtain 20 hours of Board-approved CME in each of the two years before license renewal. The Board shall approve the CME of a licensee if the CME complies with the following:
1. At least 12 hours are obtained annually by completing CME classified by the AOA as Category 1A; and
  2. No more than eight hours are obtained annually by completing CME classified as American Medical Association Category 1 approved by an ACCME-accredited CME provider.
- B. A licensee may fulfill 20 hours of the CME requirement for a particular year by participating in an approved residency, internship, fellowship, or preceptorship during that year.
- C. The Board shall accept the following documentation as evidence of compliance with the CME requirement:
1. For a CME under subsection (A)(1):

Board of Osteopathic Examiners in Medicine and Surgery

- a. The AOA printout of the licensee's CME, or
  - b. A copy of the certificate of attendance from the provider of the CME showing:
    - i. Licensee's name,
    - ii. Title of the CME,
    - iii. Name of the provider of the CME,
    - iv. Category of the CME,
    - v. Number of hours in the CME, and
    - vi. Date of attendance;
  2. For a CME under subsection (A)(2):
    - a. A copy of the certificate of attendance from the provider of the CME showing the information listed in subsection (C)(1)(b); or
    - b. A specialty board's printout showing a licensee's completion of CME.
  3. For a CME under subsection (B), either a letter from the Director of Medical Education or a certificate of completion for the approved internship, residency, fellowship, or preceptorship.
- D. Waiver of CME requirements. To obtain a waiver under A.R.S. § 32-1825(C) of the CME requirements, a licensee shall submit to the Board a written request that includes the following:
1. The period for which the waiver is requested,
  2. CME completed during the current license period and the documentation required under subsection (C), and
  3. Reason that a waiver is needed and the applicable documentation:
    - a. For military service. A copy of current orders or a letter on official letterhead from the licensee's commanding officer;
    - b. For absence from the United States. A copy of pages from the licensee's passport showing exit and reentry dates;
    - c. For disability. A letter from the licensee's treating physician stating the nature of the disability; or
    - d. For circumstances beyond the licensee's control:
      - i. A letter from the licensee stating the nature of the circumstances, and
      - ii. Documentation that provides evidence of the circumstances.
- E. The Board shall grant a request for waiver of CME requirements that:
1. Is based on a reason listed in subsection (D)(3),
  2. Is supported by the required documentation,
  3. Is filed no sooner than 60 days before and no later than 30 days after the license renewal date, and
  4. Will promote the safe and professional practice of osteopathy in this state.
- F. Extension of time to complete CME requirements. To obtain an extension of time under A.R.S. § 32-1825(C) to complete the CME requirements, a licensee shall submit to the Board a written request that includes the following:
1. Ending date of the requested extension,
  2. CME completed during the current license period and the documentation required under subsection (C),
  3. Proof of registration for additional CME that is sufficient to enable the licensee to complete all CME required for license renewal before the end of the requested extension, and
  4. Licensee's attestation that the CME obtained under the extension will be reported only to fulfill the current license renewal requirement and will not be reported on a subsequent license renewal application.
- G. The Board shall grant a request for an extension that:
1. Specifies an ending date no later than May 1,

2. Includes the required documentation and attestation,
3. Is submitted no sooner than 60 days before and no later than 30 days after the license renewal date, and
4. Will promote the safe and professional practice of osteopathy in this state.

- A. To protect the public health and safety, a licensee is required by A.R.S. § 32-1822 to be physically, mentally, and emotionally able to practice medicine.
- B. If the Board determines that a licensee may be impaired by substance abuse and there is evidence of an imminent danger to the public health and safety, the Board's Executive Director, with the concurrence of investigative staff, the medical consultant, or a Board member, may enter into:
1. A consent agreement with the licensee to restrict the licensee's practice if there is evidence that a restriction of the licensee's practice is needed to mitigate the danger to the public health and safety;
  2. A stipulated agreement with the licensee requiring the licensee to complete a Board-approved evaluation and treatment program for abuse or misuse of chemical substances if there is evidence the program would be successful in enabling the licensee to return to practice safely; and
  3. A stipulated agreement with the licensee to enter a Monitored Aftercare Program (MAP) if there is evidence the licensee intends to comply with a program for rehabilitation.

ARTICLE 3. DISPENSING DRUGS

R4-22-301. Registration to Dispense Required

- A. An osteopathic physician shall register with the Board annually if the osteopathic physician:
1. Maintains a supply of controlled substances, as defined in A.R.S. § 32-1901(13), prescription-only drugs, as defined in A.R.S. § 32-1901(76), or prescription-only devices, as defined in A.R.S. § 32-1901(75), excluding manufacturers' samples;

2. Prescribes the items listed in subsection (A)(1) to a patient of the osteopathic physician for use outside the office of the osteopathic physician; and
3. Obtains payment for the items listed in subsection (A)(1) at a practice location in Arizona.
- B. To register with the Board to dispense, an osteopathic physician shall:
  1. Submit the form referenced in R4-22-201,
  2. Submit a copy of the osteopathic physician's current Drug Enforcement Administration certificate of registration for each location from which the osteopathic physician will dispense a controlled substance, and
  3. Pay the fee authorized by A.R.S. § 32-1826(A)(11).
- C. An osteopathic physician who is registered with the Board to dispense shall renew the registration by December 31 of each year by complying with subsection (B). If an osteopathic physician submits a timely and complete application to renew a registration to dispense, the osteopathic physician may continue to dispense until the Board approves or denies the renewal application.
- D. If an osteopathic physician fails to submit a timely and complete application to renew a registration to dispense, the osteopathic physician shall immediately cease dispensing.
  1. If the osteopathic physician wishes to resume dispensing, the osteopathic physician shall register with the Board by complying with subsection (B) and shall not dispense until the osteopathic physician receives notice from the Board that the registration is approved.
  2. If the osteopathic physician does not wish to resume dispensing, the osteopathic physician shall, as required by A.R.S. § 32-1871(F), submit to the Board an inventory disposal form, which is available from the Board office or on its web site.
- a. Designation of the persons who have access to the locked cabinet or room, and
- b. Procedures for recording requests for access to the locked cabinet or room;
3. Make the written procedure required under subsection (C)(2) available on demand by the Board or its authorized representative for inspection or copying;
4. Store prescription-only drugs so they are not accessible to patients; and
5. Store controlled substances and prescription-only drugs not requiring refrigeration in an area where the temperature does not exceed 85° F.
- D. An osteopathic physician shall maintain a dispensing log for all controlled substances and the prescription-only drug nalbuphine hydrochloride (Nubain) dispensed. The osteopathic physician shall ensure that the dispensing log includes the following information on a separate inventory sheet for each controlled substance or prescription-only drug:
  1. Date the drug is dispensed;
  2. Patient's name;
  3. Name of controlled substance or prescription-only drug, strength, dosage, form, and name of manufacturer;
  4. Number of dosage units dispensed;
  5. Running total of each controlled substance or prescription-only drug dispensed; and
  6. Written signature of the osteopathic physician next to each entry.
- E. An osteopathic physician may use a computer to maintain the dispensing log required under subsection (D) if the log is quickly accessible through either on-screen viewing or printing a copy.
- F. This Section does not apply to a prepackaged manufacturer sample of a controlled substance or prescription-only drug unless otherwise provided by federal law.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R.
2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-302. Packaging and Inventory

- A. An osteopathic physician shall dispense a controlled substance or prescription-only drug in a prepackaged or light-resistant container with a consumer safety cap that complies with standards specified in the official compendium, as defined at A.R.S. § 32-1901(55), and state and federal law, unless a patient or the patient's representative requests a non-safety cap.
- B. An osteopathic physician shall ensure that a dispensed controlled substance or prescription-only drug is labeled with the following information:
  1. The name, address, and telephone number of the dispensing osteopathic physician;
  2. The date the controlled substance or prescription-only drug is dispensed;
  3. The patient's name;
  4. The name of the controlled substance or prescription-only drug, strength, dosage, form, name of manufacturer, quantity dispensed, directions for use, and any cautionary statement necessary for the safe and effective use of the controlled substance or prescription-only drug; and
  5. A beyond-use date not to exceed one year from the date of dispensing or the manufacturer's expiration date if less than one year.
- C. An osteopathic physician shall:
  1. Secure all controlled substances in a locked cabinet or room;
  2. Control access to the locked cabinet or room by a written procedure that includes, at a minimum:

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R.
2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-303. Prescribing and Dispensing Requirements

- A. An osteopathic physician who dispenses a controlled substance, prescription-only drug, or prescription-only device shall record the following information on the patient's medical record:
  1. Name, strength, dosage, and form of the controlled substance, prescription-only drug, or prescription-only device dispensed;
  2. Quantity or volume dispensed;
  3. Date of dispensing;
  4. Medical reasons for dispensing; and
  5. Number of refills authorized.
- B. Before dispensing a controlled substance, prescription-only drug, or prescription-only device, an osteopathic physician shall review the prepared controlled substance, prescription-only drug, or prescription-only device to ensure that:
  1. The container label and contents comply with the prescription; and
  2. The patient is informed of the name of the controlled substance, prescription-only drug, or prescription-only device, directions for use, precautions, and storage requirements.
- C. An osteopathic physician shall purchase all controlled substance, prescription-only drugs, or prescription-only devices dispensed from a manufacturer or distributor approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration or a pharmacy holding a current permit from the Arizona Board of Pharmacy.

Board of Osteopathic Examiners in Medicine and Surgery

- D. The individual who prepares a controlled substance, prescription-only drug, or prescription-only device for dispensing shall countersign and date the original prescription form.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-304. Recordkeeping and Reporting Shortages

- A. An osteopathic physician who dispenses a controlled substance or prescription-only drug shall ensure that an original prescription order, as defined in A.R.S. § 32-1901(77), for the controlled substance or prescription-only drug dispensed is dated, consecutively numbered in the order in which originally dispensed, and filed separately from patient medical records. The osteopathic physician shall ensure that original prescription orders are maintained in three separate files, as follows:
1. Schedule II controlled substances, which are listed at A.R.S. § 36-2513;
  2. Schedule III, IV, and V controlled substances, which are defined or listed at A.R.S. §§ 36-2514 through 36-2516, and
  3. Prescription-only drugs.
- B. An osteopathic physician shall ensure that purchase orders and invoices for all dispensed controlled substances and prescription-only drugs are maintained for three years from the date on the purchase order or invoice in three separate files as follows:
1. Schedule II controlled substances;
  2. Schedule III, IV, and V controlled substances and nalbuphine; and
  3. All other prescription-only drugs.
- C. An osteopathic physician who discovers a theft or loss of a controlled substance or dangerous drug, as defined in A.R.S. Title 36, Chapter 27, Article 2, from the physician's office shall:
1. Immediately notify the local law enforcement agency,
  2. Provide the local law enforcement agency with a written report, and
  3. Send a copy of the report to the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration and the Board within seven days of the discovery of the theft or loss.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-305. Inspections; Denial and Revocation

- A. An osteopathic physician shall allow the Board or its representative access to the physician's office and the records required under this Article for inspection of compliance with A.R.S. § 32-1871 and this Article.
- B. Failure to comply with A.R.S. § 32-1871 and this Article is unprofessional conduct and grounds for revocation of the physician's registration to dispense or denial of renewal of registration to dispense.
- C. The Board shall revoke an osteopathic physician's registration to dispense upon the occurrence of the following:
1. Suspending, revoking, surrendering, or canceling the physician's license;
  2. Failing to timely renew the physician's license; or
  3. Restricting the physician's ability to prescribe or administer medication, including loss or expiration of the physician's Drug Enforcement Administration Certificate of Registration.
- D. If the Board denies a registration to dispense to an osteopathic physician, the physician may appeal the decision by filing a written request with the Board no later than 30 days after service of the notice of denial.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

ARTICLE 4. MEDICAL ASSISTANTS*R4-22-401. Approval of Educational Programs for Medical Assistants

- A. For purposes of this Section, a Board-approved medical assistant training program is a program:
1. Accredited by the CAAHEP;
  2. Accredited by the ABHES;
  3. Accredited by any accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education; or
  4. Designed and offered by a licensed osteopathic physician, that meets or exceeds the standards of one of the accrediting programs listed in subsections (A)(1) through (A)(3), and the licensed osteopathic physician verifies that those who complete the program have the entry level competencies referenced in R4-22-402.
- B. A person seeking approval of a training program for medical assistants shall submit to the Board the application required under R4-22-201 and verification that the program meets the requirements in subsection (A).

Historical Note

Section R4-22-401 renumbered from R4-22-110 and amended by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-402. Medical Assistants – Authorized Procedures

- A. A medical assistant may, under the direct supervision of a licensed osteopathic physician, perform the medical procedures listed in the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs' Standards and Guidelines for the Accreditation of Educational Programs in Medical Assisting, revised 2008. This material is incorporated by reference, does not include any later revisions, amendments or editions, is on file with the Board, and may be obtained from the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs, 1361 Park Street, Clearwater, FL 33756, 727-210-2350, or www.caahep.org.
- B. Additionally, a medical assistant working under the direct supervision of a licensed osteopathic physician may:
1. Perform physical medicine modalities, including administering whirlpool treatments, diathermy treatments, electronic galvanic stimulation treatments, ultrasound therapy, massage therapy, and traction treatments;
  2. Apply Transcutaneous Nerve Stimulation units and hot and cold packs;
  3. Administer small volume nebulizers;
  4. Draw blood;
  5. Prepare proper dosages of medication and administer the medication as directed by the physician;
  6. Assist in minor surgical procedures;
  7. Perform urine analyses, strep screens, and urine pregnancy tests;
  8. Perform EKGs; and
  9. Take vital signs.

Historical Note

Section R4-22-402 renumbered from R4-22-111 and amended by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-403. Medical Assistant Training Requirement

- A. The licensed osteopathic physician who will provide direct supervision to a medical assistant shall ensure that the medical assistant satisfies one of the following training requirements before the medical assistant is employed:

1. Completes an approved medical assistant training program,
2. Completes an unapproved medical assistant training program and passes a medical assistant examination administered by either the American Association of Medical Assistants or the American Medical Technologists, or
3. Completes a medical services training program of the Armed Forces of the United States.

- B. This Section does not apply to a person who completed a medical assistant training program before August 7, 2004, and was employed continuously as a medical assistant since completing the program.

ARTICLE 5. OFFICE-BASED SURGERY

R4-22-501. Definitions

In this Article,

“ACLS” means advanced cardiac life support performed according to certification standards of the American Heart Association.

“Auscultation” means the act of listening to sounds within the human body either directly or through use of a stethoscope or other means.

“BLS” means basic life support performed according to certification standards of the American Heart Association.

“Capnography” means monitoring the concentration of exhaled carbon dioxide of a sedated patient to determine adequacy of the patient's ventilatory function.

“Deep sedation” means a drug-induced depression of consciousness during which a patient:

- Cannot be easily aroused, but
- Responds purposefully following repeated or painful stimulation, and
- May partially lose the ability to maintain ventilatory function.

“Discharge” means a written or electronic documented termination of office-based surgery provided to a patient.

“Emergency” means an immediate threat to the life or health of a patient.

“General anesthesia” means a drug-induced loss of consciousness during which a patient:

- Can not be aroused even with painful stimulus; and
- May partially or completely lose the ability to maintain ventilatory, neuromuscular, or cardiovascular function or airway.

“Health care professional” means a registered nurse or a registered nurse practitioner, as defined in A.R.S. § 32-1601, physician assistant, as defined in A.R.S. § 32-2501, and any individual authorized to perform surgery under A.R.S. Title 32 who participates in office-based surgery.

“Informed consent” means advising a patient of the:
Purpose for and alternatives to office-based surgery,
Risks associated with office-based surgery, and
Possible benefits and complications from office-based surgery.

“Malignant hyperthermia” means a life-threatening condition in an individual who has a genetic sensitivity to inhalant anesthetics and depolarizing neuromuscular blocking drugs that occurs during or after the administration of an inhalant anesthetic or depolarizing neuromuscular blocking drug.

“Minimal sedation” means a drug-induced state during which:

- A patient responds to verbal commands,
- Cognitive function and coordination may be impaired, and
- A patient's ventilatory and cardiovascular functions are unaffected.

“Moderate sedation” means a drug-induced depression of consciousness during which:

- A patient responds to verbal commands or light tactile stimulations, and
- No interventions are required to maintain ventilatory or cardiovascular function.

“Monitor” means to assess the condition of a patient.

“Office-based surgery” means a medical procedure performed by an osteopathic physician in the physician's office or other practice location that is not part of a licensed hospital or licensed ambulatory surgical center while using sedation.

“PALS” means pediatric advanced life support performed according to certification standards of the American Academy of Pediatrics or the American Heart Association.

“Rescue” means to correct adverse physiologic consequences of deeper than intended level of sedation and return the patient to the intended level of sedation.

“Staff member” means an individual who:

- Is not a health care professional, and
- Assists with office-based surgery under the supervision of the osteopathic physician performing the office-based surgery.

“Transfer” means a physical relocation of a patient from the office or other practice location of an osteopathic physician to a licensed health care institution.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-502. Health Care Institution License

An osteopathic physician who performs office-based surgery shall obtain a health care institution license as required by the Arizona Department of Health Services under A.R.S. Title 36, Chapter 4 and 9 A.A.C. 10.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-503. Administrative Provisions

A. An osteopathic physician who performs office-based surgery shall:

1. Establish, document, and implement written policies and procedures that cover:
  - a. Patients' rights,
  - b. Informed consent,
  - c. Care of patients in an emergency, and
  - d. Transfer of patients to a local accredited or licensed acute-care hospital;
2. Ensure that a staff member who assists with or a health care professional who participates in office-based surgery:

Board of Osteopathic Examiners in Medicine and Surgery

- a. Has sufficient education, training, and experience to perform assigned duties;
  - b. If applicable, has a current license or certification required to perform assigned duties; and
  - c. Performs only those acts that are within the scope of practice established in the staff member's or health care professional's governing statutes;
3. Ensure that the office or other practice location where office-based surgery is performed has all equipment necessary for:
    - a. The physician to perform the office-based surgery safely,
    - b. The physician or health care professional to administer the sedation safely,
    - c. The physician or health care professional to monitor the use of sedation, and
    - d. The physician and health care professional administering the sedation to rescue a patient after the sedation is administered if the patient enters into a deeper state of sedation than was intended by the physician;
  4. Ensure that a copy of the patients' rights policy is provided to each patient before performing office-based surgery;
  5. Obtain informed consent from the patient before performing office-based surgery that:
    - a. Authorizes the office-based surgery, and
    - b. Authorizes the office-based surgery to be performed at the specific practice location; and
  6. Review all policies and procedures at least every 12 months and update as needed.
- B. An osteopathic physician who performs office-based surgery shall comply with:
1. The local jurisdiction's fire code;
  2. The local jurisdiction's building codes for construction and occupancy;
  3. The bio-hazardous waste and hazardous waste standards in 18 A.A.C. 13, Article 14; and
  4. The controlled substances administration, supply, and storage standards in 4 A.A.C. 23, Article 5.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-504. Procedure and Patient Selection

- A. An osteopathic physician shall ensure that each office-based surgery performed:
1. Can be performed safely with the equipment, staff members, and health care professionals at the physician's office;
  2. Is of duration and degree of complexity that allows a patient to be discharged from the physician's office within 24 hours;
  3. Is within the education, training, experience, skills, and licensure of the physician; and
  4. Is within the education, training, experience, skills, and licensure of the staff members and health care professionals at the physician's office.
- B. An osteopathic physician shall not perform office-based surgery if the patient:
1. Has a medical condition or other condition that indicates the procedure should not be performed in the physician's office, or
  2. Will require inpatient services at a hospital.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-505. Sedation Monitoring Standards

- A. An osteopathic physician who performs office-based surgery when minimal sedation is administered to a patient shall ensure from the time sedation is administered until post-sedation monitoring begins that a quantitative method of assessing the patient's oxygenation, such as pulse oximetry, is used.
- B. An osteopathic physician who performs office-based surgery when moderate or deep sedation is administered to a patient shall ensure from the time sedation is administered until post-sedation monitoring begins that:
1. A quantitative method of assessing the patient's oxygenation, such as pulse oximetry, is used;
  2. The patient's ventilatory function is monitored by any of the following:
    - a. Direct observation,
    - b. Auscultation, or
    - c. Capnography;
  3. The patient's circulatory function is monitored by:
    - a. Having a continuously displayed electrocardiogram,
    - b. Documenting arterial blood pressure and heart rate at least every five minutes, and
    - c. Evaluating the patient's cardiovascular function by pulse plethysmography;
  4. The patient's temperature is monitored if the physician expects the patient's temperature to fluctuate; and
  5. A licensed and qualified health care professional, other than the physician performing the office-based surgery, is:
    - a. Present throughout the office-based surgery, and
    - b. Has the sole responsibility of attending to the patient.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-506. Perioperative Period; Patient Discharge

An osteopathic physician performing office-based surgery shall ensure all of the following:

1. The physician is physically present in the room where office-based surgery is performed while the office-based surgery is performed;
2. After the office-based surgery is performed and until the patient's post-sedation monitoring is discontinued, a physician is at the physician's office and sufficiently free of other duties to respond to an emergency;
3. If using minimal sedation, the physician or a health care professional certified in ACLS, PALS, or BLS is at the physician's office and sufficiently free of other duties to respond to an emergency until the patient is discharged;
4. If using moderate or deep sedation, the physician or a health care professional certified in ACLS or PALS is at the physician's office and sufficiently free of other duties to respond to an emergency until the patient is discharged;
5. A discharge is documented in the patient's medical record including:
  - a. The date and time of the patient's discharge, and
  - b. A description of the patient's medical condition at the time of discharge; and
6. The patient receives discharge instructions and receipt of the discharge instructions is documented in the patient's medical record.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-507. Emergency Drugs; Equipment and Space Used for Office-based Surgery

A. In addition to the requirements in R4-22-503(A)(3) and R4-22-504(A)(1), an osteopathic physician who performs office-based surgery shall ensure that the physician's office has at a minimum:

1. The following:
  - a. A reliable oxygen source with a SaO<sub>2</sub> monitor;
  - b. Suction;
  - c. Resuscitation equipment, including a defibrillator;
  - d. Emergency drugs; and
  - e. A cardiac monitor;
2. The equipment for patient monitoring according to the standards in R4-22-505;
3. Space large enough to:
  - a. Allow access to the patient during office-based surgery, recovery, and any emergency;
  - b. Accommodate all equipment necessary to perform the office-based surgery; and
  - c. Accommodate all equipment necessary for sedation monitoring;
4. A source of auxiliary electrical power available in the event of a power failure;
5. Equipment, emergency drugs, and resuscitative capabilities required under this Section for patients less than 18 years of age, if office-based surgery is performed on these patients; and
6. Procedures to minimize the spread of infection.

B. An osteopathic physician who performs office-based surgery shall:

1. Ensure that all equipment used for office-based surgery is maintained, tested, and inspected according to manufacturer specifications; and
2. Maintain documentation of manufacturer-recommended maintenance of all equipment used in office-based surgery.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2654, effective November 8, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R4-22-508. Emergency and Transfer Provisions

A. An osteopathic physician who performs office-based surgery shall ensure that a health care professional who participates in or a staff member who assists with office-based surgery receives instruction in the following:

1. Policy and procedure in cases of emergency,
2. Policy and procedure for office evacuation, and
3. Safe and timely patient transfer.

B. When performing office-based surgery, an osteopathic physician shall not use any drug or agent that may trigger malignant hyperthermia.

ARTICLE 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

R4-30-101. Definitions

The following definitions apply in this Chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Act" means the Technical Registration Act, A.R.S. Title 32, Chapter 1.
2. "Active engagement" means actually practicing or providing architectural, assaying, engineering, geological, landscape architectural, or land surveying services.
3. "Bona fide employee" means:
  - a. Any person employed by a town, city, county, state, or federal agency working under the direction or supervision of a registrant;
  - b. Any person employed by a business entity and working under the direct supervision of a registrant who is also employed by the same business entity; or
  - c. Any person working under the direct supervision of a registrant who:
    - i. Receives direct wages from the registrant;
    - ii. Receives contract compensation from the registrant; or
    - iii. Receives direct wages from the project prime professional who has a contract with another registrant and whose work product is the responsibility of the latter registrant.
4. "Branch" means a specialty area within the category of engineering.
5. "Category" means the professions of architecture, assaying, geology, engineering, landscape architecture, and land surveying.
6. "De minimis violations" means violations of Board statutes or rules that do not present a threat to public welfare, health, or safety.
7. "Design team" means a group of individuals that includes one or more professional registrants collaborating with any other individuals on a specific project to develop professional documents.
8. "Detached single family dwelling" as used in the Act means a single family dwelling unit such as a house, which is structurally and physically separate from all other family dwelling units. This does not mean any single family dwelling unit which is part of a multiple dwelling unit building such as a duplex, townhouse, apartment building, condominium, or cooperative. The term "detached single family dwelling" also includes all subsidiary buildings, structures and improvements such as garage, storage areas, swimming pool, and landscaping.
9. "Direct supervision" means a registrant's critical examination and evaluation of a bona fide employee's work product, during and after the preparation, for purposes of compliance with applicable laws, codes, ordinances, and regulations pertaining to professional practice.
10. "Experience" is classified as follows:
  - a. "Subprofessional experience" means task work done under direct supervision and not falling within the definition of professional experience, including but not limited to time spent as a rodman, chainman, recorder, instrument technician, survey aide, technician, clerk of the works, or similar work.
  - b. "Professional experience" means work calling for substantial technical knowledge, skill, and responsibility as well as a lesser degree of supervision.
  - c. "Responsible charge experience" means work in the field or in the office, where the applicant had responsibility for the direction of the work and its successful accomplishment and where the applicant had to make professional decisions without relying on advice or instructions from or first referring the decisions for approval to a superior.
  - d. "Design experience" means professional experience, including work defined under "responsible charge experience," where the applicant must fulfill the requirements of local circumstances and conditions and yet not violate any of the requirements of the profession and ensure that the executed plan meets the purpose for which it was designed.
11. "Federal agency" means the United States or any agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States.
12. "Good moral character and repute" means that the registration or certification applicant:
  - a. Has not been convicted of a class 1 felony as under in A.R.S. § 13-601(A).
  - b. Has not been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor if the offense has a reasonable relationship to the functions of the employment or category for which the registration, certification, or designation is sought;
  - c. Has not, within five years of application for registration or certification, committed any act involving dishonesty, fraud, misrepresentation, breach of fiduciary duty, gross negligence, or incompetence reasonably related to the candidate's proposed area of practice;
  - d. Is not currently incarcerated in a penal institution;
  - e. Has not engaged in fraud or misrepresentation in connection with the application for registration, certification, or related examination;
  - f. Has not had a registration or certification revoked or suspended for cause by this state or by any other jurisdiction, or surrendered a professional license in lieu of disciplinary action;

- ### Historical Note

Adopted effective August 3, 1983 (Supp. 83-4).

Amended effective December 18, 1991 (Supp. 91-4).

Amended effective May 1, 1995 (Supp. 95-2). Amended by final rulemaking at 6 A.A.R. 1018, effective February 25, 2000 (Supp. 00-1). Amended by emergency rulemaking at 8 A.A.R. 1102, effective February 19, 2002 for 180 days (Supp. 02-1). Emergency rulemaking renewed for an additional 180 days under A.R.S. § 41-1026(D) at 8 A.A.R. 3842, effective August 14, 2002 (Supp. 02-3). Emergency expired; original Section amended by final rulemaking at 9 A.A.R. 791, effective February 12, 2003 (Supp. 03-1). Amended by final rulemaking at 10 A.A.R. 2798, effective August 7, 2004 (Supp. 04-2). Amended by final rulemaking at 13 A.A.R. 968, effective May 5, 2007 (Supp. 07-1).

R4-30-102. Home Inspection Definitions

The following definitions apply to home inspection requirements in this Chapter:

1. "Automatic safety controls" means devices designated and installed to protect systems and components from high or low pressures and temperatures, electrical current, loss of water, loss of ignition, fuel leaks, fire, freezing, or other unsafe conditions.
2. "Central air conditioning" means a system that uses ducts to distribute cooled or dehumidified air to more than one room or uses pipes to distribute chilled water to heat exchangers in more than one room, and that is not plugged into an electrical convenience outlet.
3. "Component" means a readily accessible and observable aspect of a system, such as a floor or wall, but not individual pieces such as boards or nails where many similar pieces make up the system.
4. "Cross connection" means any physical connection or arrangement between potable water and any source of contamination.
5. "Dangerous or adverse situations" means situations that pose a threat of injury to the inspector, and those situations that require the use of special protective clothing or safety equipment.
6. "Dismantle" means to take apart or remove any component, device, or piece of equipment that is bolted, screwed, or fastened by other means and that would not be taken apart or removed by a homeowner in the course of normal household maintenance.
7. "Major defect" means a system or component that is dangerous or not functioning.
8. "Observe" means the act of making a visual examination of a system or component and reporting on its condition.

9. "On-site water supply quality" means water quality based on the bacterial, chemical, mineral, and solids content of the water.
10. "Parallel inspection" means a home inspection by an applicant supervised by a certified home inspector, in the presence of no more than three other applicants, that includes a written report prepared by the applicant, reviewed and corrected by the supervising certified home inspector, and returned to the applicant within 10 days after the supervising certified home inspector receives the written report.
11. "Primary windows and doors" means windows and exterior doors that are designed to remain in their respective openings year round.
12. "Readily openable access panel" means a panel provided for homeowner inspection and maintenance that has removable or operable fasteners or latch devices so the panel can be lifted off, swung open, or otherwise removed by one person; and has edges and fasteners that are not painted in place; is within normal reach or accessible from a four-foot stepladder, and is not blocked by stored items, furniture, or building components.
13. "Recreational facilities" means spas, saunas, steam baths, swimming pools, tennis courts, play-ground equipment, and other exercise, entertainment, or athletic facilities.
14. "Representative number" means for multiple identical components such as windows and electrical outlets, the inspection of one component per room. For multiple identical exterior components, the inspection of one component on each side of the building.
15. "Safety glazing" means tempered glass, laminated glass, or rigid plastic.
16. "Shut down" means a piece of equipment whose switch or circuit breaker is in the "off" position, or its fuse is missing or blown, or a system cannot be operated by the device or control that a home owner should normally use to operate it.
17. "Solid fuel heating device" means any wood, coal, or other similar organic fuel burning device, including but not limited to fireplaces whether masonry or factory built, fireplace inserts and stoves, wood stoves (room heaters), central furnaces, and combinations of these devices.
18. "Structural component" means a component that supports non-variable forces or weights (dead loads) and variable forces or weights (live loads). For purposes of this definition, a dead load is the fixed weight of a structure or piece of equipment, such as a roof structure on bearing walls; and a live load is a moving variable weight added to the dead load or intrinsic weight of a structure.
19. "System" means a combination of interacting or interdependent components, assembled to carry out one or more functions.
20. "Technically exhaustive" means an inspection involving measurements, instruments, testing, calculations, and other means to develop scientific or engineering findings, conclusions, and recommendations.

Historical Note

Adopted effective August 3, 1983 (Supp. 83-4). Repealed effective December 18, 1991 (Supp. 91-4). New Section made by emergency rulemaking at 8 A.A.R. 1102, effective February 19, 2002 for 180 days (Supp. 02-1). Emergency rulemaking amended and renewed for an additional 180 days under A.R.S. § 41-1026(D) at 8 A.A.R. 3842, effective August 14, 2002 (Supp. 02-3). Emergency expired; new Section made by final rulemaking at 9 A.A.R. 791, effective February 12, 2003 (Supp.

03-1). Amended by final rulemaking at 10 A.A.R. 2798, effective August 7, 2004 (Supp. 04-2).

R4-30-103. Drug Laboratory Site Remediation Definitions

In addition to the definitions provided in A.R.S. §§ 12-990, 32-101, and R4-30-101, the following definitions shall apply only to drug laboratory site remediation requirements in this Chapter:

1. "ADHS" means the Arizona Department of Health Services.
2. "AHERA" means the Asbestos Hazard Emergency Response Act of 1986 training provisions contained in 40 CFR 763.92, effective November 15, 2000, 65 FR 69216, the provisions of which are incorporated by reference. This rule does not include any later amendments or editions of the incorporated matter. Copies of these provisions are available at the office of the Board of Technical Registration and from the U.S. Government Printing Office, P.O. Box 979050, St. Louis, MO 6397-9000, and on the federal digital system at www.gpo.gov/fdsys.
3. "AWQS" means the Arizona Aquifer Water Quality Standards contained in A.A.C. R18-11-406.
4. "Background concentration" means the level of naturally occurring contaminant in soil.
5. "Certificate" or "certificates" means registrations or certifications issued to onsite workers or onsite supervisors by the Board.
6. "Certified Industrial Hygienist" means a person certified in the comprehensive practice of industrial hygiene by the American Board of Industrial Hygiene.
7. "Certified Safety Professional" means a person certified in safety practices and procedures by the Board of Certified Safety Professionals.
8. "Chain-of-custody protocol" means a procedure used to document each person that has had custody or control of an environmental sample from its source to the analytical laboratory, and the time of possession of each person.
9. "Characterize" means to determine the quality or properties of a material by sampling and testing to determine the concentration of contaminants, or specific properties of the material such as flammability or corrosiveness.
10. "Combustible" means vapor concentration from a liquid that has a flash point greater than 100° F.
11. "Confirmation sampling of remedial projects" means collecting material samples after a remedial effort to confirm that the remedial effort reduced contaminant concentrations or material properties to a level at or below the remedial standard.
12. "Contamination" or "contaminated" means the state of being impacted or polluted by hazardous or petroleum substances or chemicals.
13. "Corrosive" means a material such as acetic acid, acetic anhydride, acetyl chloride, ammonia (anhydrous), ammonium hydroxide, benzyl chloride, dimethylsulfate, formaldehyde, formic acid, hydrogen chloride/hydrochloric acid, hydrobromic acid, hydriodic acid, hydroxylamine, methylamine, methylene chloride (dichloromethane, methylene dichloride), methyl methacrylate, nitroethane, oxalylchloride, perchloric acid, phenylmagnesium bromide, phosphine, phosphorus oxychloride, phosphorus pentoxide, sodium amide (sodamide), sodium metal, sodium hydroxide, sulfur trioxide, sulfuric acid, tetrahydrofuran, or thionyl chloride that increases or decreases the pH of a material and may cause degradation of the material.
14. "Delineated" means to determine the extent of a contaminant by sampling, testing, and showing the size and shape of the contaminant plume on a drawing.

Board of Technical Registration

15. "EPA" means the United States Environmental Protection Agency.
16. "EPA Method 8015B" means the EPA approved method for determining the concentration of various non-halogenated volatile organic compounds and semi-volatile organic compounds by gas chromatography/flame ionization detector. The EPA first published the second revision to the report, SW-846, citing this Method in Ch. 4.3.1, in the South West Region, in December 1996. It is incorporated by reference. The material incorporated by reference does not include any later amendments or editions of the incorporated matter. Copies of these provisions are available at U.S. EPA Region 9, 75 Hawthorne Street, San Francisco, CA 94105, and at the office of the Board of Technical Registration.
17. "EPA Method 6010B" means the EPA approved method for determining the concentration of various heavy metals by inductively coupled plasma. The EPA first published the report, SW-846, citing this Method in Ch. 3.3, in the South West Region, in December 1996. It is incorporated by reference. The material incorporated by reference does not include any later amendments or editions of the incorporated matter. Copies of these provisions are available at U.S. EPA Region 9, 75 Hawthorne Street, San Francisco, CA 94105, and at the office of the Board of Technical Registration.
18. "EPA Method 8260B" means the EPA approved method for determining the concentration of various volatile organic compounds by GC/MS. The EPA first published the report, SW-846, citing this Method in Ch. 4.3.2, in the South West Region, in December 1996. It is incorporated by reference. The material incorporated by reference does not include any later amendments or editions of the incorporated matter. Copies of these provisions are available at U.S. EPA Region 9, 75 Hawthorne Street, San Francisco, CA 94105 or on the EPA website at http://epa.gov/wastes/hazard/testmethods/sw846/online/8\_series.htm, and at the office of the Board of Technical Registration.
19. "Exposed" means open to the atmosphere and not covered by a non-porous material.
20. "Final Report" means the report required in R4-30-305(D).
21. "FID" means flame ionization detector.
22. "Flammable" means vapor concentration from a liquid that has a flash point less than 100° F.
23. "GC/MS" means gas chromatograph/mass spectrometer.
24. "Hazardous chemical decontamination projects" means work or services related to the remediation, removal, or clean-up of hazardous chemicals, hazardous substances, petroleum substances, or other hazardous materials.
25. "Hazardous substance" means red phosphorus, iodine crystals, tincture of iodine, methamphetamine, ephedrine, pseudoephedrine, volatile organic compounds, corrosives, LSD, ecstasy, lead, mercury, and any other chemical used at a clandestine drug laboratory site to manufacture methamphetamine, LSD, or ecstasy.
26. "Hazardous waste" means toxic materials to be discarded as defined in 40 CFR 261.3, and 66 FR 60153, effective December 3, 2001, and published by the U.S. Government Printing Office, P.O. Box 979050, St. Louis, MO 63197-9000 and available electronically through the federal digital system at www.gpo.gov/fdsys/. The text of this regulation is incorporated by reference. This rule does not include any later amendments or editions of the incorporated matter. Copies of these provisions are available in the office of the Board of Technical Registration.
27. "HAZWOPER" or Hazardous Waste Operations and Emergency Response training means Hazardous Waste Operations Training as defined in 29 CFR 1910.120(e), and 67 FR 67964, effective November 7, 2002, and published by the U.S. Government Printing Office, P.O. Box 979050, St. Louis, MO 63197-9000, and available electronically through the federal digital system at www.gpo.gov/fdsys/. The text of this regulation is incorporated by reference. This rule does not include any later amendments or editions of the incorporated matter. Copies of these standards are available at the office of the Board of Technical Registration.
28. "HEPA" means high-efficiency particulate air.
29. "Highly suggestive of contamination" means visible or olfactory indication of contamination, or locations that are within 10 feet of areas where hazardous substances were stored or used to manufacture methamphetamine, LSD, or ecstasy and could likely be contaminated with hazardous substances, unless separated by a full-height, non-porous wall with no openings.
30. "Impacted groundwater" means water present beneath ground surface that contains hazardous or petroleum substances at concentrations above background concentrations.
31. "Impacted soil" means soil that contains hazardous or petroleum substances at concentrations above background concentrations.
32. "Inaccessible" means unable to be reached without removal of a construction material or component.
33. "LEL/O<sub>2</sub>" means lower explosive limit/oxygen.
34. "Laboratory detection limit" means the lowest concentration of a hazardous or petroleum substance that can be reliably quantified or measured by an analytical laboratory under ideal operating conditions for a particular test method on a sample.
35. "Negative pressure enclosure" means an air-tight enclosure using a local exhaust and HEPA filtration system to maintain a lower air pressure in the work area than in any adjacent area and to generate a constant flow of air from the adjacent areas into the work area.
36. "Non-porous" means resistant to penetration of hazardous substances or non-permeable substance or materials, such as concrete floors, wood floors, ceramic tile floors, vinyl tile floors, sheet vinyl floors, painted drywall or sheet rock walls or ceilings, doors, appliances, bathtubs, toilets, mirrors, windows, counter-tops, sinks, sealed wood, metal, glass, plastic, and pipes.
37. "Personal protective equipment" means various types of clothing such as suits, gloves, hats, and boots, or apparatus such as face masks or respirators designed to prevent inhalation, skin contact, or ingestion of hazardous chemicals.
38. "Personnel decontamination procedures" means procedures used to clean or remove potential contamination from personal protective equipment.
39. "PID" means photo ionization detector.
40. "Porous" means easily penetrated or permeated by hazardous substances or permeable substances or materials such as carpets, draperies, bedding, mattresses, fabric covered furniture, pillows, drop ceiling or other fiberboard ceiling panels, cork paneling, blankets, towels, clothing, and cardboard.
41. "Properly disposed of" means to discard at a licensed facility in accordance with all applicable laws and not reused or sold, or metal recycled by giving or selling to a licensed recycling facility for scrap metal.

42. "Remedial standard" or "remediation standard" means the level or concentration to be achieved by the drug laboratory site remediation firm as defined in R4-30-305(C)(2) and (C)(4).
43. "Remediated" or "remediation" means treatment of the residually contaminated portion of the real property by a drug laboratory site remediation firm to reduce contaminant concentrations to a level below the remedial standards.
44. "Residual contamination" means contamination resulting from spills or releases of hazardous or petroleum substances.
45. "Return air housing" means the main portion of an air ventilation system where air from the livable space returns to the air handling unit for heating or cooling.
46. "Reusable" means not disposable or equipment that can be used more than one time for sampling after cleaning.
47. "Sample location" means the actual place where an environmental sample was obtained.
48. "Shoring plan" means a written description or drawing that shows the structural supports required to safely occupy the building during remediation.
49. "Seepage pit" means a hole in the ground used to dispose of septic fluids.
50. "Services" means the activities performed by the drug laboratory site remediation firm in the course of remediating residual contamination from the manufacturing of methamphetamine, ecstasy, or LSD, or from the storage of chemicals used in manufacturing methamphetamine, ecstasy, or LSD.
51. "SRL" means the Arizona residential soil remediation levels contained in, 18 A.A.C. 7, Article 2, Appendices A and B.
52. "Temporary filter media" means a device used to filter or clean air.
53. "Toxic" means hazardous substances that can cause local or systemic detrimental effects to people.
54. "VOA" means volatile organic analyte.
55. "VOCs" means volatile organic compounds or chemicals that can evaporate at ambient temperatures such as acetone, acetonitrile, aniline, benzene, benzaldehyde, benzyl chloride, carbon tetrachloride, chloroform, cyclohexanone, dioxane, ethanol, ethyl acetate, ethyl ether, Freon 11, hexane, isopropanol, methanol, methyl alcohol, methylene chloride, naphtha, nitroethane, petroleum ether, petroleum distillates, pyridine, toluene, o-toluidine, and any other volatile organic chemical used at the clandestine drug laboratory site to manufacture methamphetamine, LSD, or ecstasy.
56. "Waste" means refuse, garbage, or other discarded material.

Historical Note

Adopted effective August 3, 1983 (Supp. 83-4). Repealed effective December 18, 1991 (Supp. 91-4). New Section made by exempt rulemaking at 9 A.A.R. 1412, effective April 15, 2003 (Supp. 03-2). Amended by final rulemaking at 10 A.A.R. 2798, effective August 7, 2004 (Supp. 04-2). Amended by final rulemaking at 19 A.A.R. 1911, effective October 7, 2013 (Supp. 13-3).

R4-30-106. Fees

- A. The Board shall charge the following fees:
  1. A roster of registrants is $15.00.
  2. A code or rule booklet is $5.00.
  3. The computer printout fee per name is $0.10 (non-commercial use). The maximum charge is $150.00 per run.
  4. The photocopy fee is $0.20 per page (non-commercial use).
  5. The replacement certificate fee is $10.00.
  6. The recording medium copy fee is $10.00 per recording.
  7. The local examination review fee is $25.00.
  8. The returned check fee is $25.00.
- B. A person paying fees shall remit them in United States dollars in the form of cash, check, or money order. If a check is returned for insufficient funds, repayment, including payment of the returned check charge, shall be made in the form of cash, money order, or certified check.
- C. Upon written request, the Board shall waive renewal fees for registrants whose registration is in inactive status.
- D. Application fee refunds are not allowed after the application has been assigned an application number and processing commences.

Historical Note

Adopted effective August 3, 1983 (Supp. 83-4). Emergency amendments adopted effective May 7, 1990, pursuant to A.R.S. § 41-1026, valid for only 90 days (Supp. 90-2). Emergency amendments readopted without change effective August 8, 1990, pursuant to A.R.S. § 41-1026, valid for only 90 days (Supp. 90-3). Emergency expired. - A. The Board shall select a pool of volunteers who have submitted resumes and letters of interest to serve on enforcement advisory committees. The Executive Director shall select registrants and public members from the pool of volunteers to serve on the committees as needed. Each committee shall be comprised of one public member and a minimum of four registrants, at least one of whom is registered in the same category or branch as the respondent. The committee members shall provide technical assistance to Board staff in the evaluation and investigation of complaints. A quorum of three committee members is required for each committee meeting.
- B. During the preliminary informal investigation of a complaint, registrants named as respondents may appear before an enforcement advisory committee for an informal conference relating to the complaint. Respondents may elect to appear with or without counsel. The committee shall attempt to assess the complaint and discuss the complaint with the respondent and others, if deemed necessary, and prepare a recommendation for disposition of the complaint.

- C. Respondents are not required to participate in the informal conference and no inference shall be drawn from a respondent's decision not to attend.
- D. If a respondent chooses not to attend the informal conference, the committee may meet and review information presented by staff and others and prepare a recommendation for disposition of the complaint.
- E. The Board shall advise the respondent of the committee recommendation and offer the respondent the opportunity to attend an informal compliance conference as outlined in R4-30-123 as part of the informal investigation.
- F. After the informal investigation has been completed, if the committee recommendation supports a determination that the complaint is unfounded, the recommendation shall be forwarded to the Board for review and final disposition.
- G. In all cases where the advisory committee finds probable cause to believe that disciplinary action is warranted, the staff will attempt to obtain a signed consent agreement. The Board shall review the committee recommendation, staff recommendation, consent agreement, and, in the event a signed consent agreement cannot be obtained, any counterproposal from the respondent.

Historical Note

Adopted effective December 18, 1991 (Supp. 91-4).
 Amended effective May 1, 1995 (Supp. 95-2). Amended by final rulemaking at 6 A.A.R. 1018, effective February 25, 2000 (Supp. 00-1). Amended by emergency rulemaking at 8 A.A.R. 1102, effective February 19, 2002 for 180 days (Supp. 02-1). Emergency rulemaking renewed for an additional 180 days under A.R.S. § 41-1026(D) at 8 A.A.R. 3842, effective August 14, 2002 (Supp. 02-3). Emergency expired; original Section amended by final rulemaking at 9 A.A.R. 791, effective February 12, 2003 (Supp. 03-1).

R4-30-121. Investigation of Violations

If any information concerning a possible violation of the Act or any of these rules is received or obtained by the Board or Board staff, an investigation shall be conducted prior to the initiation of formal proceedings. Investigative reports, enforcement advisory committee recommendations, and other documents and materials relating to an investigation shall remain confidential until the matter is closed, until the issuance of a hearing notice under A.R.S. § 32-128, or until the matter is settled by consent order; however, the Board shall inform the respondent that an investigation is being conducted and explain the general nature of the investigation. The public may obtain information that an investigation is being conducted and an explanation of the general nature of the investigation. The Board may refer investigative information to other public agencies as appropriate under the circumstances.

Historical Note

Adopted effective August 3, 1983 (Supp. 83-4).
 Amended effective December 18, 1991 (Supp. 91-4).
 Amended by final rulemaking at 6 A.A.R. 1018, effective February 25, 2000 (Supp. 00-1).

R4-30-122. Issuance of Subpoenas

Any party desiring the Board to issue a subpoena shall make application, stating the substance of the testimony expected of the witness or the relevancy of the evidence to be produced. If the testimony or evidence appears to the Board to be material and necessary, a subpoena shall be supplied. The affixing of the seal of the Board and the signature of the Chairman, Secretary, Executive Director, shall be sufficient attestation of the same. The party applying for the subpoena shall pay for service of the subpoena. A party is considered served at the time of personal service or mailing of the document by certified mail that is addressed to the person's last known address of record on file with the Board.

R4-30-123. Informal Compliance Procedures

- A. Upon notification of the recommendation of an enforcement advisory committee, a registrant may attend a compliance conference with Board staff. The registrant may appear with or without counsel. The Board staff shall mail the notice of the compliance conference to the registrant at least 15 days before the date of the conference. The purpose of the compliance conference is to discuss informal settlement of the investigative matter. Upon completion of the interview, a Board enforcement officer shall make recommendations to the Board.
- B. At any time either before or after formal disciplinary proceedings have been instituted against a registrant, the registrant may submit to the Board an offer of settlement whereby, in lieu of formal disciplinary action by the Board, the registrant agrees to accept certain sanctions such as suspension, civil penalties, enrolling in relevant professional education courses, limiting the scope of practice, submitting work product to professional peer review, or other sanctions. If the Board determines that the proposed settlement will adequately protect the public welfare, the Board shall accept the offer and enter a decision consented to by the registrant, incorporating the proposed settlement.

R4-30-126. Service of Board Decisions; Rehearing of Board Decisions

- A. Except as provided in subsection (G), any party to an appealable agency action or contested case before the Board who is aggrieved by a decision rendered in the matter may file with the Board, not later than 30 days after service of the decision, a written motion for rehearing or review of the decision specifying the particular grounds for the motion. A decision shall be deemed to have been served when personally delivered or mailed by certified mail to the party's last known address of record with the agency. The filing of a motion for rehearing is a condition precedent to the right of appeal provided in A.R.S. § 32-128(J).

- B. A motion for rehearing under this rule may be amended at any time before it is ruled upon by the Board. A response may be filed within 15 days after service of the motion or amended motion by any other party. The Board may require the filing of written briefs upon the issues raised in the motion and may provide for oral argument. The filing of a motion for rehearing or review suspends the operation of the Board's order and allows the registrant to practice in his or her profession pending denial or granting of the motion, and pending the decision of the Board on the rehearing or review if the motion is granted.
- C. A rehearing or review of the decision may be granted for any of the following causes materially affecting the moving party's rights:
  1. Irregularity in the administrative proceedings of the agency, members of the Board or the prevailing party, or any order or abuse of discretion, whereby the moving party was deprived of a fair hearing;
  2. Misconduct of the Board or the prevailing party;
  3. Accident or surprise which could not have been prevented by ordinary prudence;
  4. Newly discovered material evidence which could not with reasonable diligence have been discovered and produced at the original hearing;
  5. Excessive or insufficient penalties;
  6. Error in the admission or rejection of evidence or other errors of law occurring at the administrative hearing;
  7. The decision is unjustified based upon the evidence or is contrary to law.
- D. The Board may affirm or modify the decision or grant a rehearing to all or any of the parties and on all or part of the issues for any of the reasons set forth in subsection (C). An order granting a rehearing shall specify with particularity the ground or grounds on which the rehearing is granted, and the rehearing shall cover only those matters so specified.
- E. Not later than 30 days after a decision is rendered, the Board may on its own motion order a rehearing or review of its decision for any reason listed in subsection (C). After giving the parties or their counsel notice and an opportunity to be heard on the matter, the Board may grant a motion for rehearing for a reason not stated in the motion. In either case the order granting a rehearing shall specify the grounds for the rehearing.
- F. When a motion for rehearing is based upon affidavits, they shall be served with the motion. An opposing party may, within ten days after service, serve opposing affidavits, which period may be extended for an additional period not exceeding 20 days by the Board for good cause shown or by written stipulation of the parties. Reply affidavits may be permitted.
- G. If the Board makes specific findings that the immediate effectiveness of a decision is necessary for preservation of the public welfare, health or safety and that a rehearing or review of the decision is impracticable, unnecessary or contrary to the public interest, the decision may be issued as a final decision without an opportunity for a rehearing or review. If a decision is issued as a final decision without an opportunity for rehearing, any application for judicial review of the decision shall be made within the time limits permitted for applications for judicial review of the Board's final decisions.

ARTICLE 2. REGISTRATION PROVISIONS*R4-30-201. Registration as an Architect, Assayer, Engineer, Geologist, Landscape Architect, or Land Surveyor

A. An applicant for registration as an architect, assayer, engineer, geologist, landscape architect, or land surveyor shall submit an original and one copy of a completed application package for professional registration that contains the following:

1. Evidence of successful completion of the current national professional examination or waiver of the examination pursuant to A.R.S. § 32-126 and R4-30-203 in the category, and branch if applicable, for which registration is sought. Applicants shall arrange to have their examination results sent directly to the Board from the applicable testing agency holding the examination results;
2. Name, residence address, mailing address if different from residence, and telephone number, of the applicant;
3. Date of birth and social security number of the applicant;
4. Citizenship or legal residence of the applicant;
5. Category, and branch of engineering if applicable, for which the applicant is seeking registration;
6. A detailed explanatory statement and documentation, regarding;
  - a. Any disciplinary action, including suspension and revocation, taken by any state or jurisdiction on any professional or occupational registration, certification, or license held by the applicant in any state or jurisdiction;
  - b. Refusal of any professional or occupational registration, certification, or license to the applicant by any state or jurisdiction;
  - c. Any pending disciplinary action in any state or jurisdiction on any professional or occupational registration, certification, or license held by the applicant;
  - d. Any alias or other name used by the applicant; and
  - e. Any conviction of the applicant for a felony or misdemeanor, other than a minor traffic violation.
7. State or jurisdiction in which the applicant holds any other professional or occupational registration, certification, or license, type of registration, certification or license number, year granted, how registration, certification, or license was granted (by examination, education, experience, or reciprocity), and the number of examination hours taken by the applicant;
8. State or jurisdiction in which the applicant has pending an application for any type of professional or occupational license, registration, or certification, type of license, registration or certification being sought, and the status of the application;
9. Name, mailing address, years attended, graduation date, major, and type of degree received from each college, university, or educational institution the applicant attended;
10. Certified transcripts sent directly to the Board from the registrar of each college, university, or educational institution the applicant attended, unless previously provided to the Board pursuant to R4-30-204;
11. Name, current address, and telephone number of the applicant's current and former employers in the category for which registration is sought; dates of employment; applicant's title; description of the work performed; and number of hours worked per week, unless previously provided to the Board pursuant to R4-30-204;
12. Names and addresses of immediate supervisors in past and present employment in the category for which registration is sought. An applicant who has been working in the category for which registration is sought for 10 or more years shall provide the names and address of all immediate supervisors during the most recent 10-year period. If an applicant cannot supply the names and addresses of supervisors for at least three engagements, the applicant shall provide to the Board a written, sworn statement explaining the inability to provide this information, and the names and addresses of three references, unrelated to the applicant, at least two of whom are registered in the category for which registration is sought, unless previously provided to the Board pursuant to R4-30-204;

13. A release authorizing the Board to investigate the applicant's education, experience, moral character, and repute;
  14. Certificate of Experience Record and Reference Forms from the applicant's present and past immediate supervisors, unless previously provided to the Board pursuant to R4-30-204. The applicant shall also provide Certificate of Experience Record and Reference Forms from additional references as required by the Board. The applicant shall provide the name, address, and telephone numbers of all references. The applicant shall ensure that completed reference forms are provided to the Board;
  15. Evidence of successful completion, or waiver by the Board, of the applicable in-training examination, unless previously provided to the Board pursuant to R4-30-204. An applicant for registration who has successfully completed an in-training examination in another jurisdiction in the category for which registration is sought equivalent to the examination for that category administered in Arizona shall submit proof of examination directly from the authority that administered the original examination. An applicant seeking professional registration as an architect or landscape architect may take the in-training examination at the same time as the professional examination. An applicant seeking professional registration as an assayer, engineer, geologist or land surveyor shall pass the applicable in-training examination before admission to the professional examination;
  16. Certification that the information provided to the Board is accurate, true and complete; and
  17. The applicable fee.
- B. If an applicant does not have the required education and experience for registration, the Board may, upon request of the applicant, hold the application for a period of time that does not exceed one year from the date the application is filed with the Board. All time-frames adopted pursuant to Title 41, Chapter 6, Article 7.1 are suspended during the above-referenced time.
- C. An applicant holding a certificate of qualification issued by one of the national registration bodies recognized in R4-30-203(B) shall arrange to have the record forwarded to the Board by the national registration body. If the forms provided by the national registration body contain all the information described in A.R.S. § 32-122.01 and subsection (A), the Board may accept the forms in lieu of requiring the applicant to furnish the information directly to the Board.
- D. The Board staff shall review all applications and, if necessary, refer completed applications to an advisory committee for evaluation. If the application for registration is complete and in the proper form and the Board staff or committee is satisfied that all statements on the application are true and that the applicant is eligible in all other aspects to be registered in the field for which the application was filed, the Board staff or committee shall recommend that the Board certify the applicant as eligible for registration. If for any reason the Board staff or committee is not satisfied that all of the statements on the application are true or that the applicant is eligible in all respects for registration, the Board staff shall make a further investigation of the applicant. The Board staff and committee shall submit recommendations to the Board for approval. The Board may also require an applicant to submit additional oral or written information if the applicant has not furnished satisfactory evidence of qualifications for registration.

- E. The Board may accept documentation that an applicant has passed a written national examination in the area for which registration is sought from a national council of which the Board is a member or a professional association approved by the Board.
- F. The Board shall not accept an application for registration renewal unless the applicant has responded to the questions on the application relating to good moral character and other misconduct and signed the application for renewal. The Board shall return an incomplete application to the applicant which may result in assessment of a delinquent renewal fee.
- G. An applicant may withdraw an application for registration by written request to the Board. Any fee paid by the applicant is non-refundable. If an applicant withdraws an application, the Board shall close the file. An applicant whose file has been closed and who later wishes to apply for professional registration shall submit a new application package to the Board pursuant to R4-30-201 and R4-30-202.

R4-30-202. In-training Designation

- A. An applicant for in-training designation shall submit an original and one copy of a completed in-training application package that contains the following:
  - 1. Evidence of successful completion, or waiver by the Board, of the current in-training examination in the category and branch, if applicable, for which in-training designation is sought;
  - 2. The information set forth in subsections (B)(1) through (9); and
  - 3. The applicable fee.
- B. An in-training applicant who wants to sit for an in-training examination shall submit an original and one copy of a completed application for in-training designation to the Board, and provide the following:
  - 1. Name, residence address, mailing address if different from residence, and telephone number of the applicant;
  - 2. Date of birth and social security number of the applicant;
  - 3. Citizenship or legal residence;
  - 4. Category, and branch of engineering if applicable, for which the applicant is seeking an in-training designation;
  - 5. Information regarding any conviction for a felony or misdemeanor, other than a minor traffic violation, and any alias or other name used by the applicant;
  - 6. Name, mailing address, years attended, graduation date, major, and type of degree received from each college, university, or educational institution that the applicant attended;
  - 7. Certified transcripts sent directly to the Board from the registrar of each college, university, or educational institution the applicant attended;

- 8. A release authorizing the Board to investigate the applicant's education, experience, moral character, and repute;
- 9. Certification that the information provided to the Board is accurate, true, and complete.
- C. If otherwise qualified, the Board shall permit an applicant for in-training designation to take the in-training examination in the final year of a baccalaureate, masters, or other degree program accepted by the Board and accredited in the category for which the application is made. The applicant shall have the application form endorsed by the applicant's college dean or faculty advisor, or, if already a graduate, may arrange to have a final transcript, indicating the degree awarded, sent directly from the registrar to the Board, in lieu of the endorsement.
- D. The Board shall permit an applicant for in-training designation without an accredited college degree to take the in-training examination after submitting to the Board evidence of four years, or if an architect-in-training applicant, five years of satisfactory experience or education or both. The applicant shall provide the name, current address, and telephone number of all current and former employers; names of all supervisors and their titles; dates of employment; applicant's title, and a description of the work performed. The applicant shall provide Certificate of Experience Record and Reference Forms to immediate supervisors at present and past employers. The applicant shall ensure the completed reference forms are submitted to the Board. The applicant shall meet all other requirements of this Section.

applicant is seeking, and the current status of any application for professional or occupational registration, certification, or license pending in any state or jurisdiction;

6. Name, mailing address, years attended, graduation date, major, and type of degree received from each college, university or educational institution the applicant attended;
7. Relevant certified transcripts sent directly to the Board from the registrar of educational institutions the applicant attended;
8. Name, current address, and telephone number of the applicant's current and former employers in the area of remediation; dates of employment; applicant's title; description of the work performed, and the number of hours worked per week;
9. Names and addresses of immediate supervisors in past and present employment in the area of remediation. Applicants who have been working in remediation for 10 or more years shall provide the names and addresses of all immediate supervisors during the most recent ten-year period. If an applicant cannot supply the names and addresses of all immediate supervisors for at least three engagements, the applicant shall provide to the Board a written, sworn statement explaining the inability to provide this information;
10. A release authorizing the Board to investigate the applicant's education, experience, moral character and repute;
11. Certificate of Experience Record and Reference forms from the applicant's present and past immediate supervisors. The applicant shall also provide Certificate of Experience Record and Reference forms to additional references as required by the Board. The applicant shall provide the name, address, and telephone numbers of all references and ensure that completed reference forms are provided to the Board;
12. Certification that the information provided to the Board is accurate, true, and complete;
13. A completed fingerprint card; and
14. The applicable fees.

- B. The Board staff shall review all applications and, if necessary, refer completed applications to an advisory committee for evaluation. If the application is complete and in the proper form and the Board staff or committee is satisfied that all statements on the application are true and that the applicant is eligible in all other aspects to be certified as a remediation specialist, the Board staff or committee shall recommend that the Board certify the applicant as eligible to take the examination. If for any reason the Board staff or committee is not satisfied that all of the statements on the application are true or that the applicant is eligible in all other respects for registration, the Board staff shall make a further investigation of the applicant. The Board staff or committee shall submit recommendations to the Board for approval. The Board may also require an applicant to submit additional oral or written information if the applicant has not furnished satisfactory evidence of qualifications for examination or certification.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 8 A.A.R. 903, effective February 14, 2002 (Supp. 02-1). Amended by final rulemaking at 10 A.A.R. 2798, effective August 7, 2004 (Supp. 04-2).

R4-30-203. Waiver of Examination

- A. The Board shall grant a waiver of the professional examination requirement in A.R.S. § 32-122.01 and R4-30-201 to an applicant for professional registration who holds a valid professional or occupational registration, certification, or license in the category for which registration, certification, or licensure is sought, and is in good standing in another state or jurisdiction provided:

1. The applicant submits verifiable documentation to the Board that the education, experience, and examination requirements under which the applicant was registered in the original state or jurisdiction were substantially identical to those existing in Arizona at the time of the applicant's original registration, certification, or licensure; or
  2. The applicant submits verifiable documentation to the Board that the applicant has been actively engaged as a professional or occupational registrant, certificant, or licensee in another state or jurisdiction for at least 10 years in the category for which registration, certification, or licensure is sought. For purposes of this subsection, "actively engaged as a professional registrant" means that the applicant holds a valid professional or occupational registration, certification, or license in good standing, and has been practicing or offering professional services for at least 10 of the last 15 years.
- B. The Board shall grant a waiver of the professional examination requirement in A.R.S. § 32-122.01 and R4-30-201 to an applicant for professional registration who submits verifiable documentation to the Board that the applicant holds one of the following professional records, issued by a national registration body, and is registered in good standing in another state or jurisdiction. The Board recognizes the following national registration body records:
1. National Council of Architectural Registration Boards Certificate Record, with design and seismic (lateral forces) qualifications;
  2. National Council of Examiners for Engineers and Surveyors Council Record; or
  3. Council of Landscape Architectural Registration Boards Council Record and Certification.
- C. When reviewing an engineering applicant's experience and examination information, the Board shall take into account the specific branch of engineering in which the applicant is seeking proficiency recognition.
- D. The Board shall waive the in-training examination if an applicant has successfully completed an in-training examination in another state or jurisdiction in the category for which registration is sought, which is equivalent to those examinations administered in Arizona. The applicant shall ensure that proof of successful completion is forwarded directly from the authority that administered the original examination.
- E. The Board shall waive the in-training examination for an applicant who has a degree listed in R4-30-208(A) or other educational credit approved by the Board in the category, and branch if applicable, for which registration is sought, and meets all other requirements of A.R.S. § 32-126(D).
- F. All applicants who request a waiver of any examination requirement shall meet all other requirements for professional registration or in-training designation in R4-30-201 and R4-30-202. An applicant applying for a waiver under subsection (B) shall ensure that the required documentation is forwarded directly to the Board from the national registration body.
- G. The Board shall waive the remediation specialist examination requirement if the applicant has successfully completed a remediation specialist examination in another state or jurisdiction that is substantially equivalent to the remediation specialist examination provided in Arizona.

R4-30-204. Examinations

- A. Board Review For Examination Equivalency: Applicants who wish to sit for professional examination who do not possess an educational degree recognized by the applicable national council shall submit to the Board the following information for approval:
1. Name, residence address, mailing address if different from residence, and telephone number;
  2. Date of birth and Social Security number;
  3. Proof of citizenship or legal residence;
  4. Category, and branch of engineering if applicable;
  5. Name, mailing address, years attended, graduation date, major, and type of degree received from each college, university, or educational institution attended;
  6. Certified transcripts sent directly to the Board from the registrar of each college, university, or educational institution attended;
  7. Evidence of at least 60 months of required education or experience, or both, in the category for which registration is sought.
    - a. The name, current address, and telephone number of the applicant's current and former employers in the category for which registration is sought;
    - b. Dates of employment;
    - c. Applicant's title;
    - d. Description of work performed; and
    - e. Number of hours worked per week;
  8. Names and addresses of applicant's immediate supervisors in past and present employment in the category for which registration is sought. If an applicant cannot supply the names and addresses of supervisors for at least three engagements, the applicant shall provide to the Board a written, sworn statement explaining the inability to provide this information, and the names and addresses of three additional references, unrelated to the applicant, at least two of whom are registered in the category for which registration is sought;
  9. A release authorizing the Board to investigate the applicant's education and experience;
  10. Certificate of Experience Record and Reference Forms from the applicant's present and past immediate supervisors. The applicant shall also provide Certificate of Experience Record and Reference Forms from additional references as required by the Board. The applicant shall provide the name, address, and telephone numbers of all references. The applicant shall ensure that completed reference forms are provided to the Board;
  11. Evidence of successful completion, or waiver by the Board, of the applicable in-training examination. An applicant who has successfully completed an in-training examination in another jurisdiction in the category for which registration is sought equivalent to the examination for that category administered in Arizona shall submit proof of examination directly from the authority that administered the original examination. An applicant seeking professional registration as an assayer, engineer, geologist, or land surveyor shall pass the applicable in-training examination before admission to the professional examination;
  12. Certification that the information provided to the Board is accurate, true, and complete; and
  13. The applicable fees.
- B. The Board staff shall review all applications and, if necessary, refer completed applications to an advisory committee for evaluation. If the application for examination is complete and in the proper form and the Board staff or committee is satisfied that all statements on the application are true and that the applicant is eligible to take the examination, the Board staff or committee shall recommend that the Board certify the applicant as eligible to take the examination. If for any reason the Board staff or committee is not satisfied that all of the statements on the application are true or that the applicant is eligible in all respects for examination, the Board staff shall make a further investigation of the applicant.
- C. National Council Examinations:
1. Applicants for architect, landscape architect, engineer, or land surveyor registration who wish to sit for a professional examination, and who have earned an educational degree recognized by the applicable national council, may apply directly to the applicable national council to take that exam.
  2. Applicants not possessing the appropriate degree pursuant to subsection (C)(1) may apply to the Board for examination approval and after Board review, may be recommended to the applicable national council for entry into the applicable national examination. Applicants must meet all national council requirements for successful completion of applicable examinations.
  3. An applicant for professional examination in any category must take the examination within one year after receiving approval. If an applicant fails to take an examination within one year after receiving approval, the applicant must submit a new application for professional examination to the Board.
  4. An applicant who has failed any division of a national multi-divisional examination shall be required to meet the applicable national council's requirements for successful completion of the examination.
  5. Examinations administered by a national council of which the Board is a member, or a professional association approved by the Board, shall be given at the times and places determined by the testing agency. Once approved to sit for a non-Board-administered examination, the applicant shall communicate all questions and concerns regarding extensions, additional time, special accommodation, reexamination, exam review and refunds to the applicable testing agency. The Board shall not refund any examination fee paid to a testing agency.
- D. Board Administered Examinations:
1. An examination administered by the Board shall be given at the times and places determined by the Board. Once the Board approves an applicant to sit for a Board-administered examination, the applicant shall communicate all questions and concerns regarding extensions, special accommodations and refunds to the Board. The applicant shall make any request for additional time or other special examination accommodation to the Board within a reasonable time before the examination date.
  2. An applicant who fails to achieve a passing grade on any division of any examination administered by the Board may request reexamination by notifying the Board in writing of the applicant's desire to retake the examination and paying the applicable examination fee. An applicant who retakes any examination shall advise the Board of any changes in the information provided under subsection

Board of Technical Registration

(A) of this Section and R4-30-202(B) within 30 days from the date of the change. The Board shall close an applicant's file if the Board does not receive written confirmation from the applicant of the applicant's desire to retake the Board-administered examination within one year from the request for reexamination. An applicant whose file has been closed and who later wishes to apply for examination shall submit a new examination application package to the Board.

3. An applicant for a Board-administered examination who wishes to review the applicant's examination scores shall file a written request with the Board within 30 days after receiving notification of the failing grade. The applicant may review an examination by making prior arrangements with the staff and paying the applicable fee. The applicant shall complete any review within 60 days of the request for a review. In reviewing multiple choice questions, an applicant may review only those questions that were incorrect.
4. An applicant who desires a regrade of a Board administered examination shall file a written request with the Board within 30 days after receiving notification of the failing grade or within 30 days after reviewing the examination, whichever is applicable, and pay the applicable fee. The applicant shall identify the questions to be reviewed. The applicant shall state why a review of the item is justified. The applicant shall provide specific facts, data, and references to support any assertion that the solution deserves more credit. The Board shall determine whether it will regrade the examination.
5. The Board shall close an application file for examination if the applicant fails to pass all divisions of the applicable examination within five years after first passing any division of the examination unless the Board approves an extension.
6. If an applicant for professional examination fails to take the examination within five years from the examination approval date, the Board shall close the application file. The applicant shall submit a new application to take the applicable examination to the Board.

R4-30-208. Education and Work Experience*A. Education credit.

1. The Board shall grant credit according to the following:
  - a. Architectural applicants with five-year National Architectural Accrediting Board accredited degree (NAAB) . . . . . 60 months
  - b. Architectural applicants with four-year NAAB accredited degree . . . . . 48 months
  - c. Landscape Architectural applicants with five-year Landscape Architectural Accrediting Board accredited degree (LAAB) . . . . . 60 months
  - d. Landscape Architectural applicants with four-year LAAB accredited degree . . . . . 48 months
  - e. Engineering applicants with an Accreditation Board of Engineering and Technology (ABET) accredited bachelor degree and a (ABET) master's or doctorate degree in the branch of engineering that registration is sought . . . . . 60 months
  - f. Engineering applicants with an ABET accredited bachelor degree in the branch of engineering that registration is sought . . . . . 48 months
  - g. Engineering applicants with four-year ABET accredited degrees in a branch other than that in which registration is sought . . . . . 36 months
  - h. Land Surveying applicants with ABET accredited bachelor degree in land surveying 48 months
  - i. Geology applicants with four-year degree in geology . . . . . 48 months
  - j. Assayer applicants with four-year degree in chemistry, metallurgy or other science directly related to the analysis of metal and ores . . . . . 48 months
  - k. Remediation specialist applicants with an undergraduate degree as specified in subsection (A), or up to five years of education directly relating to remediation.
2. The Board shall grant all other education credit according to the following:
  - a. Credit shall not be granted for course work obtained in the United States or its possessions unless attained at an institution of higher education accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education.
  - b. Pro rata credit shall be granted for successful completion of courses substantially equivalent to the courses contained in the pertinent degree program identified in subsection (A) of this rule.
  - c. Credit shall not be given for general education courses in excess of the number of hours allowed in the pertinent program identified in subsection (A).
  - d. In determining pro rata credit, 30 semester hours or 45 quarter hours shall equal 12 months' credit.
  - e. An applicant shall be granted both education and work experience for the same period provided the total months' credit granted in a period does not exceed the number of months in that period.
  - f. Foreign education evaluation service acceptable to the Board shall be required of foreign-educated applicants and shall be provided at applicants' cost.

B. The Board shall credit work experience as follows:

1. One hundred and thirty hours or more of work per month is equal to one month of work experience.
2. Between 85 hours and 129 hours of work per month is equal to one-half month of work experience.
3. The Board shall not grant credit for less than 85 hours of work experience in a month.

4. Experience shall be substantiated by the employer before the Board grants the credit.
5. Remediation specialist applicants shall have at least eight years of acceptable education and remediation experience, including at least three years of experience supervising remediations

Historical Note

Adopted effective December 18, 1991 (Supp. 91-4).
Amended effective May 1, 1995 (Supp. 95-2). Amended by final rulemaking at 6 A.A.R. 1018, effective February 25, 2000 (Supp. 00-1). Amended by final rulemaking at 8 A.A.R. 903, effective February 14, 2002 (Supp. 02-1).

R4-30-209. Time-frames for Professional Registration, Certification, or In-training Designation

- A. Within 60 days of receiving the initial application package for professional registration, certification, or in-training designation, the Board shall finish an administrative completeness review.
  1. If the application package is complete, the Board shall notify the applicant that the package is complete and that the administrative completeness review is finished.
  2. If the application package is incomplete, the Board shall notify the applicant that the package is deficient and specify the information or documentation that is missing. All time-frames are suspended from the date the notice is mailed to the applicant until the Board receives all missing information or documentation.
  3. An applicant with an incomplete application package shall supply the missing information or documentation within 90 days from the date of the notice of deficiencies. However, the Board may hold a home inspector applicant's package for one year to permit a home inspector applicant to meet the requirements of R4-30-247(A)(7). If the applicant fails to supply the missing information or documentation, the Board may close the applicant's application file. Any fee paid by the applicant is non-refundable. An applicant whose file has been closed and who later wishes to apply for professional registration, certification, or in-training designation shall submit a new application package and pay the applicable fee.
  4. If an applicant requests to sit for the professional, certification, or in-training examination, or requests a waiver of examination, the time-frames in R4-30-210 apply until the Board grants or denies the applicant's request.
- B. The Board shall complete its substantive review of the application package and render a decision no later than 60 days after the date the Board mails the notice of administrative completeness to the applicant.
  1. If the Board finds that the applicant meets all requirements in statute and rule, the Board shall approve the applicant for professional registration, certification, or in-training designation.
  2. If the Board finds that the applicant does not meet all requirements in statute and rule, the Board shall deny the applicant professional registration, certification, or in-training designation. The Board shall provide written notice of the denial. The notice shall include justification for the denial, references to the statutes or rules on which the denial was based, and an explanation of the applicant's right to appeal, including the number of days the applicant has to file an appeal, and the name and telephone number of a Board contact person who will answer questions regarding the appeals process.
  3. If the Board finds a deficiency during the substantive review of the application package, the Board shall issue a written request, specifying the additional information or documentation to be submitted and the deadline for submission. The time-frame for substantive review of an application package is suspended from the date the written request for additional information or documentation is mailed until the date that all missing information or documentation is received or the deadline for submission passes.

4. When the Board and applicant mutually agree in writing, the Board or its designee shall grant extensions of the substantive review time-frame totaling no more than 30 days.
  5. If the applicant fails to supply the missing information or documentation by the deadline date, the Board may close the applicant's application file. Any fee paid by the applicant is non-refundable. An applicant whose file has been closed and who later wishes to apply for professional registration, certification, or in-training designation shall submit a new application package and pay the applicable fee.
- C. Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays are not counted in calculating the number of days under this Section.
  - D. For purposes of A.R.S. § 41-1073, the Board establishes the following time-frames for a candidate applying for professional registration, certification, or in-training designation:
    1. Administrative completeness review time-frame: 60 days;
    2. Substantive review time-frame: 60 days; and
    3. Overall time-frame: 120 days. Days during which time is suspended under subsection (A)(2) are not counted in the computation of the overall time-frame.

Historical Note

Adopted effective November 10, 1998 (Supp. 98-4).
Amended by final rulemaking at 8 A.A.R. 903, effective February 14, 2002 (Supp. 02-1). Amended by emergency rulemaking at 8 A.A.R. 1102, effective February 19, 2002 for 180 days (Supp. 02-1). Emergency rulemaking amended and renewed for an additional 180 days under A.R.S. § 41-1026(D) at 8 A.A.R. 3842, effective August 14, 2002 (Supp. 02-3). Emergency expired; original Section amended by final rulemaking at 9 A.A.R. 791, effective February 12, 2003 (Supp. 03-1). Amended by final rulemaking at 10 A.A.R. 2798, effective August 7, 2004 (Supp. 04-2).

R4-30-210. Time-frames for Approval to Sit for, or for Waiver of, the Professional, Certification, or In-training Examination

- A. Within 60 days of receiving the initial application package to sit for, or for waiver of, the professional, certification, or in-training examination, the Board shall finish an administrative completeness review.
  1. If the application package is complete, the Board shall notify the applicant that the package is complete and that the administrative completeness review is finished.
  2. If the application package is incomplete, the Board shall notify the applicant that the package is deficient and specify the information or documentation that is missing. All time-frames are suspended from the date the notice is mailed to the applicant until the Board receives all missing information or documentation.
  3. An applicant with an incomplete application package shall supply the missing information or documentation within 90 days from the date of the notice of deficiencies. If the applicant fails to supply the missing information or documentation, the Board may close the applicant's application file. Any fee paid by the applicant is non-refundable. An applicant whose file has been closed and who later wishes to sit for the in-training, certification, or professional examination, or who requests a waiver of examination, shall submit a new application package and pay the applicable fee.

B. The Board shall complete its substantive review of the application package and render a decision no later than 120 days after the date the Board mails the notice of administrative completeness to the applicant.

1. If the Board finds that the applicant meets all requirements in statute and rule, the Board shall either approve the applicant to sit for the next applicable examination, or the Board shall waive the examination requirement.
2. If the Board finds that the applicant does not meet all requirements in statute or rule, the Board shall not allow the applicant to sit for the applicable examination or shall deny a waiver of examination.
3. The Board shall provide written notice of its refusal to allow the applicant to sit for the examination, or for its decision to deny a waiver of the examination. The notice shall include justification for the denial, references to the statutes or rules on which the denial was based, an explanation of the applicant's right to appeal, including the number of days the applicant has to file an appeal, and the name and telephone number of a Board contact person who will answer questions regarding the appeal process. If the Board issues a denial of waiver of an examination, it may allow the applicant to sit for the applicable examination or, depending on the circumstances and the applicant's qualifications, require the applicant to submit an application to sit for the applicable examination.
4. If the Board finds a deficiency during the substantive review of the application package, the Board shall issue a written request, specifying the additional information or documentation to be submitted and the deadline for submission. The time-frame for substantive review of an application package is suspended from the date the written request for additional information or documentation is mailed until the date that all missing information or documentation is received.
5. If the Board and applicant mutually agree in writing, the Board or its designee shall grant extensions of the substantive review time-frames totaling not more than 45 days.
6. If the applicant fails to supply the missing information or documentation by the deadline date, the Board may close the applicant's application file. Any fee paid by the applicant is non-refundable. An applicant whose file has been closed and who later wishes to sit for the applicable examination or request a waiver of examination shall submit a new application package and pay the applicable fee.

C. Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays are not counted in calculating the number of days under this Section.

D. For the purposes of A.R.S. § 41-1073, the Board establishes the following time-frames for an applicant wishing to sit for the applicable examination or to request a waiver of examination:

1. Administrative completeness review time-frame: 60 days;
2. Substantive review time-frame: 120 days; and
3. Overall time-frame: 180 days.

1. Agriculture: Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, location, development, and review of construction for projects concerning agricultural machinery, drainage, irrigation, terracing, farm electricity or water pumps and wells for the maintenance of adequate potable water supplies for crops, people, animals, or industry.
2. Architectural: Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, location, development, and review of construction for projects concerning building mechanical, acoustical, electrical, lighting, or structural systems.
3. Chemical: Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, location, development, and review of construction for projects concerning chemical enterprises, chemical and biological processes, plant layout, production of pilot plants, water, wastewater and pollution control plants, piping and distribution systems, heat exchanges, energy production management and distribution systems, process instrumentation and control systems, biomedical equipment, mining and minerals beneficiation, corrosion retardation, heat, mass and momentum transfer systems, reaction kinetics, thermodynamics, quality assurance controls, or systems for heat transmission.
4. Civil: Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, location, development, and review of construction for projects concerning highways, streets, transportation systems, drainage and flood control structures, surface and subsurface hydrologics, sewers, tunnels, railroads, geotechnical analysis, waterfronts, water and wastewater systems, water power and supply apparatus, wells, pumps, bridges, dams, irrigation structures, water purification apparatus, incinerators, or site fire protection systems.
5. Control Systems: Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, location, development, and review of construction for projects concerning control systems and their constituent devices including, but not limited to, dynamic stability and the application of instrumentation and feedback control principles to regulate and operate chemical plants, petroleum refineries, food processing plants, water and waste treatment plants, power plants, pollution abatement systems, transportation systems, or other dynamic processes and systems.
6. Electrical: Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, location, development, and review of construction for projects concerning power systems, electronic and transmission equipment, electric service and supply systems, lighting systems, communication service and supply systems, fire alarm and detection systems, control systems, or electrical installations.
7. Environmental: Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, location, development, and review of construction for projects concerning water and wastewater systems, domestic and process (industrial/commercial) solid waste and hazardous materials systems, air quality systems, or health, safety, and environmental protection including, but not limited to systems relating to emergency response, risk analysis, radiation protection, noise toxicology, or industrial hygiene.
8. Fire Protection: Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, location, development, and review of construction for projects concerning building exiting and life safety systems, fire suppression systems and devices, fire detection and alarm systems and devices, smoke exhaust and smoke management systems, fire resistance for building components and assemblies, water supplies and pumping systems for fire protection, including the hydraulic analysis of such systems, and the reduction and control of fire hazards due to processes subject to fire or explosion.
9. Geological: Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, location, development, and review of construction for projects concerning geological studies related to surface and subsurface excavations and foundations, stability of slopes, groundwater locations, geological material age and strength determinations near surface or deep subsurface geological structures or geophysical mapping of geological formations and groundwater locations.
10. Industrial: Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, location, development, and review of construction for projects concerning factory layouts, tools and fixtures, factory planning, time and motion study systems, rate plans, production plans, quality control systems and analysis, work simplification systems, methods studies and cost, production control, organizational, operational and labor needs, or safety analysis.
11. Mechanical: Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, location, development, and review of construction for projects concerning air conditioning, refrigeration, ventilation, combustion, heat transfer, energy, power, fuels, propulsion, machinery, tools, manufacturing, fluids, plumbing, fire suppression systems and devices, water supplies and pumping systems for fire protection, including the hydraulic analysis of such systems.
12. Metallurgical: Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, location, development, and review of construction for projects concerning the production of metals or metal objects, testing procedures, metal processing, failure analysis procedures, mining and mineral beneficiation, or the development of metal alloys.
13. Mining: Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, location, development, and review of construction for projects concerning the construction of plants, shaft and bottom layouts, ventilation and hoisting systems, head frames, washery or concentration mills, mining methods and testing procedures, or metallurgical works and production procedures.
14. Nuclear: Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, location, development, and review of construction for projects concerning nuclear waste management, alternative waste management systems, disposal criteria and risk evaluation, transportation, packaging, decontamination, handling, welding evaluation, site stabilization, recovery techniques, water and air quality control systems, waste volume management, evaporation systems, reactor safety methods, health safety systems, cycle analysis, or nuclear fuels.
15. Petroleum: Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, location, development, and review of construction for projects concerning drilling equipment, pipelines, refinery plants, gathering systems, handling and storage systems, exploitation and selection methods, gas measurement and core analysis, phase behavior studies, reserve calculations, or the development of petroleum products.

16. Sanitary: Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, location, development, and review of construction for projects concerning water treatment and sewage disposal plants, water systems, sewers, incinerators, distribution systems, sewage and industrial waste treatment plants, pollution reduction systems, sanitary facilities, or public health systems.
  17. Structural: Consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, location, development, and review of construction for projects concerning force-resisting and load-bearing members and their connections for structures such as foundations, bridges, walls, columns, slabs, beams, trusses, or similar members used singly or as part of a larger structure.
- B. An applicant shall submit to the Board a separate application and application fee for each branch for which application is made. An applicant who wishes to change the branch of application after notification by the Board that the application has been evaluated by the Board shall submit the request in writing and pay an additional application fee.

R4-30-222. Engineer-In-Training Designation

- A. To qualify for admission to the in-training examination solely on the basis of education, an applicant shall be a graduate of a four-year engineering degree program accredited at the time of graduation by the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology (ABET) or an equivalent predecessor organization.
- B. To qualify for admission to the in-training examination, an applicant who is not a graduate of a four-year ABET-accredited engineering degree program shall have at least four years of education or experience or a combination of both directly related to the practice of engineering. Experience directly related to the practice of engineering of a character satisfactory to the Board includes but is not limited to the following in the candidate's branch of engineering:
1. Consultation: The active involvement in meetings, discussions or development of reports intended to provide information, facts or advice regarding the application of the accepted engineering principles to fulfill the client's specific requirements.
  2. Research investigation: The search, examination or study to determine the practicality or effectiveness of accepted principles for adaptation and application to novel situations or the development of new or alternative solutions to solve problems.
  3. Evaluation: The analysis, testing or study to determine or estimate the merit, effect, efficiency or practicality of approaches, methods, designs, structures or materials for use in a given situation or to achieve a specific result.
  4. Planning: The preliminary development of objectives, statements, outlines, drafts, drawings or diagrams showing the arrangement, scheme, schedule, program or procedure for determining the most effective solution to a problem.

5. Design: Design, development and location experience.
  6. Construction review: The review or supervision of construction projects in the candidate's branch of engineering to determine conformance with contract documents and design specifications (maximum 12 months' credit).
  7. Administration: Administrative experience in the candidate's branch of engineering, including office and field administration, field or laboratory testing, quotation requests, change orders, bidding procedures, cost accounting and project closeouts (maximum 12 months' credit).
  8. Surveying: The measurement, using accepted methods of surveying, of units of space, water, land or structures to determine boundaries, areas, shapes, slopes, distances, angles or other calculations (maximum 12 months' credit).
  9. Editing or writing: The editing or writing for publication of articles, books, newsletters or other written materials directly relating to the candidate's branch of engineering (maximum six months' credit).
  10. Other engineering experience: Experience of a nature set forth in this subsection but in other recognized branches of engineering (maximum six months' credit).
  11. Subprofessional experience: As defined in rule R4-30-101 (maximum six months' credit).
- C. An applicant shall successfully complete the engineer-in-training examination designated by the Board and provided by the National Council of Examiners for Engineers and Surveyors.

R4-30-245. Reserved*R4-30-246. Reserved*R4-30-247. Home Inspector Certification

- A. An applicant for certification as a home inspector shall submit an original and one copy of a completed application package that contains the following:
1. Evidence of successful completion, within two years before the date of application, of the National Home Inspector Examination as administered by the Examination Board of Professional Home Inspectors;
  2. The information in subsections (B)(1) through (10);
  3. A completed fingerprint card;
  4. Applicable fees;
  5. Evidence of successful completion of 84 hours of classroom training or an equivalent course conducted by an educational facility that is licensed by the applicable post-secondary education regulatory agency in the home state of the facility, or accredited by the Accrediting Commission of the Distance Education and Training Council, or by an accrediting agency approved by the United States Department of Education. The course of study shall encompass all of the following major content areas:
    - a. Structural Components,
    - b. Exterior,
    - c. Roofing,
    - d. Plumbing,
    - e. Heating,
    - f. Cooling,
    - g. Electrical,
    - h. Insulation and Ventilation,
    - i. Interiors,
    - j. Fireplaces and Solid Fuel-Burning Devices,
    - k. Swimming Pools & Spas, and
    - l. Professional Practice;
  6. An applicant who has lawfully conducted home inspections as part of a business shall provide evidence of successful completion of 100 home inspections that meet the standards referenced in R4-30-301.01 on a form provided by the Board. An applicant under this subsection shall meet all other requirements for certification in this Section; and
  7. To complete a home inspector in-training program, an applicant who otherwise qualifies for certification as a home inspector except for meeting the qualification in subsection (A)(6), shall present evidence of completion of 30 parallel inspections. The 30 parallel inspections and home inspection report shall meet the standards in R4-30-301.01 and be retained by the applicant for at least two years from the date of application. The applicant shall conduct these inspections on separate residential dwelling units and shall list them on a log provided by the Board. The log shall include, with respect to each inspection, the address of the property, the date of the inspection, and the name and certification number of the supervising home inspector. The Board may hold the applicant's package for a period of one year based solely on the need for time to permit the applicant to complete the required parallel inspections. All time-frames promulgated under A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 6, Article 7.1 are suspended during this period.

- B. A certified home inspector is not required to inspect a pool and/or spa as part of a home inspection. If a certified home inspector conducts a pool and/or spa inspection, it shall be conducted in accordance with the "Standards of Professional Practice for the Inspection of Swimming Pools & Spas for Arizona Home Inspectors," ("Standards") adopted and published by Arizona Chapter of the American Society of Home Inspectors on March 11, 2011, and incorporated by reference, without any later amendments or editions, by the Board on February 28, 2012. Copies of the Standards are available at the Board's office and at the Arizona Chapter of the American Society of Home Inspectors' web site, www.azashi.org.
- C. The application package shall contain the following:
  - 1. Name, residence address, mailing address if different from residence address, and telephone number;
  - 2. Date of birth and Social Security number of the applicant;
  - 3. Citizenship or legal residence;
  - 4. A detailed explanatory statement regarding:
    - a. Any disciplinary action, including suspension and revocation, taken by any state or jurisdiction on any professional or occupational registration, license, or certification held by the applicant in any state or jurisdiction;
    - b. Refusal of any professional or occupational registration, license, or certification by any state or jurisdiction;
    - c. Any pending disciplinary action in any state or jurisdiction on any professional or occupational registration, license, or certification held by the applicant;
    - d. Any alias or other name used by the applicant;
    - e. Any conviction for a felony or misdemeanor, other than a minor traffic violation.
  - 5. Documentation of absolute discharge from sentence at least five years before the date of application if an applicant has been convicted of one or more felonies;
  - 6. State or jurisdiction in which any professional or occupational registration, license or certification is held; type of registration, license, or certification; number; year granted, and how registration, license, or certification was granted (that is, by examination, education, experience, or reciprocity);
  - 7. The current status of any application for any type of professional or occupational registration, license, or certification pending in another state or jurisdiction;
  - 8. A release authorizing the Board to investigate the applicant's education, experience, and moral character and repute;
  - 9. Certification that the information provided to the Board is accurate, true, and complete;
  - 10. Copy of one report that meets the standards in R4-30-301.01; and

11. Sworn statement or statements by the supervising certified home inspector or inspectors that the parallel inspections conducted by the applicant meet the standards in R4-30-301.01.

- D. The Board staff shall review all applications and, if necessary, refer completed applications to the Home Inspector Rules and Standards Committee for evaluation. If the application is complete and in the proper form, the Board staff or committee is satisfied that all statements on the application are true, and the applicant is eligible in all other aspects to be certified as a home inspector, the Board staff or committee shall recommend that the Board certify the applicant. If the evidence is not clear and convincing of qualification for certification, the matter shall be reviewed by the committee and the committee may request additional information regarding any issue upon which the applicant has not established qualification by clear and convincing evidence.
- E. A certified home inspector shall notify the Board in writing within five business days of any loss of, or change in, financial assurance. The Board shall suspend the certificate holder's certification immediately and prohibit further home inspections until current proof of financial assurance is provided to the Board. The Board shall revoke a certificate if the certificate holder fails to provide proof of financial assurance within 90 days of loss of financial assurance or lapse of policy. All certified home inspectors shall provide proof of financial assurance at the time of each annual certification renewal. The Board shall not renew a home inspector certification unless the financial assurance is in full force and effect.
- F. A registrant who has been certified by the Board to conduct home inspections prior to February 28, 2012, will be exempt from any additional education or testing requirements relating to pools and spas.

      - d. Assessment of the structural stability for safe entry into a clandestine drug laboratory site,
      - e. Characterizing waste from the remediation of a clandestine drug laboratory, and
      - f. Preparing the final report on the remediation of a clandestine drug laboratory;
    - 5. The applicable fee.
  - C. The Board staff shall review all applications and, if necessary, refer completed applications to the Environmental Remediation Rules and Standards Committee for evaluation. If the application is complete and in the proper form, and the Board staff or committee is satisfied that all statements on the application are true and that the applicant is eligible in all other aspects to be certified, the Board staff or committee shall recommend that the Board certify the applicant. If for any reason the Board staff or committee is not satisfied that all of the statements on the application are true, the Board staff shall make a further investigation of the applicant. The Board staff or committee shall submit recommendations to the Board for approval. The Board may also require an applicant to submit additional oral or written information if the applicant has not furnished satisfactory evidence of qualifications for certification.

    - 5. Name of the state or jurisdiction, the type of professional or occupational certification, registration, or license the applicant is seeking, and the status of any professional or occupational application pending in any state or jurisdiction;
    - 6. A detailed explanatory statement regarding:
      - a. Any denial of professional or occupational certification, registration, or license by any state or jurisdiction;
      - b. Any pending disciplinary action in any state or jurisdiction on any professional or occupational certification, registration, or license held by the applicant;
      - c. Any alias or other name used by the applicant;
      - d. Any conviction for a felony or misdemeanor, other than a minor traffic violation; and
      - e. Any disciplinary action taken by any state or jurisdiction on any professional or occupational certification, registration, or license held by the applicant in any state or jurisdiction;
    - 7. Certification that the information provided to the Board is accurate, true, and complete;
    - 8. Copy of a current 40-hour HAZWOPER training certificate or copy of a current eight-hour HAZWOPER training refresher certificate and a copy of a 40-hour HAZWOPER training certificate;
    - 9. Documentation of successful completion of an eight-hour training course approved by the Board that encompasses the following:
      - a. Clandestine Drug Laboratory Site Remediation Best Standards and Practices contained in R4-30-305;
      - b. Chemical and physical hazards of a clandestine drug laboratory;
      - c. Typical manufacturing methods for methamphetamine, LSD, and ecstasy;
      - d. Typical flammable, combustible, corrosive, and reactive materials used in a clandestine drug laboratory;
      - e. Potential sharps and biohazards at a clandestine drug laboratory;
      - f. Proper handling and disposal of wastes from the remediation of a clandestine drug laboratory; and
      - g. Other potential hazards or dangers that can be associated with a clandestine drug laboratory;
    - 10. A signed release authorizing the Board to investigate the applicant's education, experience, and good moral character and repute; and
    - 11. The applicable fee.
  - B. An applicant for renewal of onsite worker certification shall submit an application package that contains:
    - 1. A completed renewal application form provided by the Board, signed and dated by the applicant that provides the information contained in subsections (A)(1), (2), (6) and (7);
    - 2. A copy of the applicant's current eight-hour HAZWOPER training refresher certificate;
    - 3. The applicable fee.
  - C. The Board staff shall review all applications and, if necessary, refer completed applications to the Environmental Remediation

tion Rules and Standards Committee for evaluation. If the application is complete and in the proper form, and the Board staff or committee is satisfied that all statements on the application are true and the applicant is eligible in all other respects to be certified, the Board staff or committee shall recommend that the Board certify the applicant. If for any reason the Board staff or committee is not satisfied that all of the statements on the application are true, the Board staff shall make a further investigation of the applicant. The Board staff or committee shall submit recommendations to the Board for approval. The Board may also require an applicant to submit additional oral or written information if the applicant has not furnished satisfactory evidence of qualifications for certification.

- A. To qualify for admission to the in-training examination solely on the basis of education, an applicant shall be a graduate of a four-year land surveying degree program accredited at the time of graduation by the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology (ABET) or an equivalent predecessor organization.
- B. To qualify for admission to the in-training examination, an applicant who is not a graduate of a four-year ABET-accredited land surveying degree program shall have at least four years of education or experience or both directly related to the practice of land surveying. Experience directly related to the practice of land surveying of a character satisfactory to the Board shall include the following:
  1. The measurement of space, water, land or structures located or to be located upon or within them, to determine boundaries, areas or other necessary calculations through the use of any mechanical, physical, electric or electronic equipment or devices commonly used by registered professional land surveyors.
  2. The analysis of measurement data through the use of professional knowledge or education or practical experience in the mathematical and physical sciences and in the principles of land surveying.
  3. The location or relocation, establishment or re-establishment of boundaries, easements, rights-of-way, bench marks or corners.
  4. Consultation with clients to determine the necessity of land surveying services and the determination of the correct type of services necessary to fulfill the client's needs and objectives.

5. The search of any source of public or private records for the purpose of performing a survey or to determine and, if necessary, to reconcile differences between the surveyor's collected data and such records.
  6. The platting or subdividing of land or the planning and design of parcels of land for development purposes.
  7. The preparation and maintenance of survey records.
  8. Other land surveying activities, analyses or investigations defined in the Act.
  9. The participation in office and field administration, quotation requests, bidding procedures, cost accounting and project closeouts (maximum 12 months' credit).
  10. The editing or writing for publication of articles, books, newsletters or other written materials on land surveying subjects (maximum six months' credit).
  11. Construction staking (maximum 12 months' credit).
  12. Subprofessional experience as defined in R4-30-101 (maximum six months' credit).
- C. The applicant shall successfully complete the land surveyor-in-training examination designated by the Board and provided by the National Council of Examiners for Engineers and Surveyors.

ARTICLE 3. REGULATORY PROVISIONS

R4-30-301. Rules of Professional Conduct

All registrants shall comply with the following rules of professional conduct:

1. A registrant shall not submit any materially false statements or fail to disclose any material facts requested in connection with an application for registration or certification, or in response to a subpoena.
2. A registrant shall not engage in fraud, deceit, misrepresentation or concealment of material facts in advertising, soliciting, or providing professional services to members of the public.
3. A registrant shall not commit bribery of a public servant as proscribed in A.R.S. § 13-2602, commit commercial bribery as proscribed in A.R.S. § 13-2605, or violate any federal statute concerning bribery.
4. A registrant shall comply with state, municipal, and county laws, codes, ordinances, and regulations pertaining to the registrant's area of practice.

5. A registrant shall not violate any state or federal criminal statute involving dishonesty, fraud, misrepresentation, embezzlement, theft, forgery, perjury, bribery, or breach of fiduciary duty. The Board may take action against a registrant's license or certificate if a violation of the law is reasonably related to a registrant's area of practice.
6. A registrant shall apply the technical knowledge and skill that would be applied by other qualified registrants who practice the same profession in the same area and at the same time.
7. A registrant shall not accept an engagement if the duty to a client or the public would conflict with the registrant's personal interest or the interest of another client without making a full written disclosure of all material facts of the conflict to each person who might be related to or affected by the engagement.
8. A registrant shall not accept compensation for services related to the same engagement from more than one party without making a full written disclosure of all material facts to all parties and obtaining the express written consent of all parties involved.
9. A registrant shall make full disclosure to all parties concerning:
  - a. Any transaction involving payments to any person for the purpose of securing a contract, assignment, or engagement, except payments for actual and substantial technical assistance in preparing the proposal; or
  - b. Any monetary, financial, or beneficial interest the registrant holds in a contracting firm or other entity providing goods or services, other than the registrant's professional services, to a project or engagement.
10. A registrant shall not solicit, receive, or accept compensation from material, equipment, or other product or services suppliers for specifying or endorsing their products, goods or services to any client or other person without full written disclosure to all parties.
11. If a registrant's professional judgment is overruled or not adhered to under circumstances where a serious threat to the public health, safety, or welfare may result, the registrant shall immediately notify the responsible party appropriate building official, or agency, and the Board of the specific nature of the public threat.
12. If called upon or employed as an arbitrator to interpret contracts, to judge contract performance, or to perform any other arbitration duties, the registrant shall render decisions impartially and without bias to any party.
13. To the extent applicable to the professional engagement, a registrant shall conduct a land survey engagement in accordance with the April 12, 2001 Arizona Professional Land Surveyors Association (APLS) Arizona Boundary Survey Minimum Standards, available at www.azapls.org and from APLS, 3346 East Menadota Drive, Phoenix, AZ. The Board of Technical Registration adopted them on June 15, 2001 and incorporated them into this subsection by reference. This incorporation by reference does not include any later amendments or editions and is available at the office of the Board of Technical Registration.
14. A registrant shall comply with any subpoena issued by the Board or its designated administrative law judge.
15. A registrant shall update the registrant's address and telephone number of record with the Board within 30 days of the date of any change.
16. A registrant shall not sign, stamp, or seal any professional documents not prepared by the registrant or a bona fide employee of the registrant.
17. Except as provided below and in subsections (18) and (19), a registrant shall not accept any professional engagement or assignment outside the registrant's professional registration category unless:
  - a. The registrant is qualified by education, technical knowledge, or experience to perform the work; and
  - b. The work is exempt under A.R.S. § 32-143.
18. A registered professional engineer may accept professional engagements or assignments in branches of engineering other than that branch in which the registrant has demonstrated proficiency by registration but only if the registrant has the education, technical knowledge, or experience to perform such engagements or assignments.
19. Except as otherwise provided by law, a registrant may act as the prime professional for a given project and select collaborating professionals; however, the registrant shall perform only those professional services that the registrant is qualified by registration to perform and shall seal and sign only the work prepared by the registrant or by the registrant's bona fide employee.
20. A registrant who is designated as a responsible registrant shall be responsible for the firm or corporation. The Board may impose disciplinary action on the responsible registrant for any violation of Board statutes or rules that is committed by a non-registrant employee, firm, or corporation.
21. A registrant shall not enter into a contract for expert witness services on a contingency fee basis or any other arrangement in a disputed matter where the registrant's fee is directly related to the outcome of the dispute.

R4-30-301.01. Home Inspector Rules of Professional Conduct

- A. To the extent applicable, a certified home inspector shall conduct a home inspection in accordance with the "Standards of Professional Practice" adopted by the Arizona Chapter of the American Society of Home Inspectors, Inc. on January 1, 2002, the provisions of which are incorporated by reference and on file with the Office of the Secretary of State. This rule does not include any later amendments or editions of the incorporated matter. Copies of these standards are available at the office of the Board of Technical Registration.
- B. A Certified Home Inspector shall not:
  1. Pay or receive, directly or indirectly, in full or in part, a commission or compensation as a referral or finder's fee;
  2. Perform, or offer to perform, for an additional fee, any repairs to a structure that has been inspected by that inspector or the inspector's firm for a period of twenty-four months following the inspection; or

Board of Technical Registration

3. Be accompanied by more than four home inspector candidates while conducting any parallel home inspection.

Historical Note

New Section made by emergency rulemaking at 8 A.A.R. 1102, effective February 19, 2002 for 180 days (Supp. 02-1). Emergency rulemaking amended and renewed for an additional 180 days under A.R.S. § 41-1026(D) at 8 A.A.R. 3842, effective August 14, 2002 (Supp. 02-3). Emergency expired; new Section made by final rulemaking at 9 A.A.R. 791, effective February 12, 2003 (Supp. 03-1).

R4-30-302. Electrical Plans

- A. A registrant shall prepare and submit drawings and specifications for a new electrical system or an addition or modification to an existing electrical system provided the service and associated electrical feeders exceeds 600 amperes 120/240 volts, single phase or 225 amperes 120/208 volts, three phase and the fault current exceeds 10,000 amperes.
- B. In all cases a registrant shall design:
  1. Electrical installations in hospitals or other buildings with surgical operating rooms regulated by Article 517 of the National Electrical code (1990 edition) incorporated herein by reference and on file with the Office of the Secretary of State.
  2. Electrical installations in locations classified as hazardous in Article 500 of the National Electrical Code (1990 edition) incorporated herein by reference and on file with the Office of the Secretary of State.
  3. Electrical installations in locations classified as hazardous in Article 500 of the National Electrical Code (1990 edition) with the exception of gasoline dispensing or repair garages.
  4. A registrant shall design an alarm or signaling system that is required for life safety or code compliance.

Historical Note

Adopted effective December 18, 1991 (Supp. 91-4).
Heading amended by final rulemaking at 9 A.A.R. 791, effective February 12, 2003 (Supp. 03-1).

R4-30-303. Securing Seals

- A. Each registrant required to use a seal shall secure and use an ink seal 1 1/2 inches in diameter and identical in style, size, and appearance to the sample shown in Appendix A. The upper portion of the annular space between the second and third circles shall bear whichever of the following phrases is applicable to the registrant:
  1. "Registered Architect"; "Registered Professional Engineer" together with the branch of engineering in which registered; "Registered Geologist"; "Registered Landscape Architect"; "Registered Land Surveyor"; or "Registered Assayer."
  2. The inscription "Arizona U.S.A." shall appear at the bottom of the annular space between the second and third circles; the inner circle shall contain the name of the registrant, registration number, and the words "date signed."
- B. The registrant may order the seal through any vendor and shall pay the cost of its manufacture. Immediately upon receipt of the seal and before using the seal for any purpose, the registrant shall file with the Board, for its records, on a form provided by the Board, an imprint of the seal with an original signature superimposed over it and an affidavit regarding the use of the seal. The Board, within 10 working days of receipt of the form from the registrant, shall disapprove any seal that does not meet the exact specifications of subsection (A) and require that the registrant obtain and pay for another seal that meets those specifications before sealing any work. Engineers registered in more than one branch shall secure and use a seal for each branch of engineering in which registration has been granted.

Historical Note

Adopted effective August 3, 1983 (Supp. 83-4).
Amended effective December 18, 1991 (Supp. 91-4).
Amended effective May 1, 1995 (Supp. 95-2). Amended by final rulemaking at 10 A.A.R. 2798, effective August 7, 2004 (Supp. 04-2).

R4-30-304. Use of Seals

- A. A registrant shall place a permanently legible imprint of the registrant's seal and signature on the following:
  1. Each sheet of drawings or maps;
  2. Each of the master sheets when reproduced into a single set of finished drawings or maps;
  3. Either the cover, title, index, or table of contents page, first sheet of each set of project specifications;
  4. Either the cover, index page, or first sheet of each addenda or change order to specifications;
  5. Either the cover, index page, or first sheet of bound details when prepared to supplement project drawings or maps;
  6. Either the cover, title, index, or table of contents page, or first sheet of any report, specification, or other professional document prepared by a registrant or the registrant's bona fide employee;
  7. The signature line of any letter or other professional document prepared by a registrant, or the registrant's bona fide employee; and
  8. Shop drawings that require professional services or work as described in the Act. Examples of shop drawings that do not require a seal include drawings that show only:
    - a. Sizing and dimensioning information for fabrication purposes;
    - b. Construction techniques or sequences;
    - c. Components with previous approvals or designed by the registrant of record; or
    - d. Modifications to existing installations that do not affect the original design parameters and do not require additional computations.
- B. A registrant shall apply a label that describes the name of the project and an original imprint of the registrant's seal and signature on all video cassettes that contain copies of professional documents.
- C. In the event that a copy of a professional document is provided to a client, regulatory body, or any other person for any reason by computer disk, tape, CD, or any other electronic form, and the document does not meet the requirements of subsection (D), the registrant shall mark the copy of the professional document: "Electronic copy of final document; sealed original document is with (identify the registrant's name and registration number)."
- D. A registrant shall sign, date, and seal a professional document:
  1. Before the document is submitted to a client, contractor, any regulatory or review body, or any other person, unless the document is marked "preliminary," "draft," or "not for construction" except when the document is work product intended for use by other members of a design team; and
  2. In all cases, if the document is prepared for the purpose of dispute resolution, litigation, arbitration, or mediation.
- E. For purposes of subsection (A), all original documents shall include:

1. An original seal imprint or a computer-generated seal that matches the seal on file at the Board's office;
  2. An original signature that does not obscure either the registrant's printed name or registration number;
  3. The date the document was sealed; and
  4. A notation beneath the seal either written, typed, or electronically generated that provides the day, month, and year of expiration of current registration, as shown in Appendix B.
- F. Methods of transferring a seal other than an original seal imprint or a computer-generated seal are not acceptable.
- G. An electronic signature, as an option to a permanently legible signature, in accordance with A.R.S. Title 41 and Title 44, is acceptable for all professional documents. The registrant shall provide adequate security regarding the use of the seal and signature.

R4-30-305. Drug Laboratory Site Remediation Best Standards and Practices

A. Preliminary procedures.

1. The onsite supervisor shall determine the nature and extent of damage and contamination of the residually contaminated portion of the real property.
2. The onsite supervisor shall request a copy of any document from a law enforcement agency, state agency, or other reporting agency regarding the nature and extent of illegal drug activity, evidence of what materials were removed from the real property, the location from which they were removed, and the area posted by the notice of removal.
3. The onsite supervisor shall:
  - a. Evaluate all information obtained regarding the nature and extent of damage and contamination,
  - b. Develop procedures to safely enter the residually contaminated portion of the real property in order to conduct a visual assessment,
  - c. Wear the appropriate personal protective equipment for all conditions assessed,
  - d. Visually inspect the residually contaminated portion of the real property, and
  - e. Be assisted by at least one onsite worker during the initial entry into the residually contaminated portion of the real property.
4. The onsite supervisor shall conduct and document required testing for corrosive, flammable, combustible, and toxic atmospheres during the initial entry in the residually contaminated portion of the real property, such as using a LEL/O<sub>2</sub> meter, pH paper, PID, FID, or equivalent equipment.
5. If the notice of removal posting is no longer present at the time of the initial entry by the drug laboratory site remediation firm, then the entire house, mobile home, recreational vehicle, detached garage or shed, hotel room, motel room or apartment unit shall be considered the residually contaminated portion of the real property.
6. If there was a fire or explosion in the residually contaminated portion of the real property that appears to have compromised the integrity of the structure, the drug laboratory site remediation firm shall obtain a structural assessment of the residually contaminated portion of the real property.
7. The owner may retain a drug laboratory site remediation firm to demolish, and dispose of the residually contaminated portion of the real property rather than perform the remediation described in subsection (B).
8. The drug laboratory site remediation firm shall prepare a written work plan that contains:
  - a. Complete identifying information of the real property, and the drug laboratory site remediation firm including but not limited to:
    - i. Street address, mailing address, owner of record, legal description, county tax or parcel identification number, or vehicle identification number if a mobile home or recreational vehicle;
    - ii. Registration number of the drug laboratory site remediation firm, name and certification number of the onsite supervisor and onsite workers that will be performing remediation services on the residually contaminated portion of the real property;
  - b. Copies of the current certification of the onsite supervisor and onsite workers that will be performing remediation services on the residually contaminated portion of the real property;
  - c. Photographs or drawings, and a written description of the residually contaminated portion of the real property that depicts the location and type of any residual contamination;
  - d. A description of the personal protective equipment to be used at the residually contaminated portion of the real property;
  - e. The health and safety procedures that will be followed in performing the remediation of the residually contaminated portion of the real property;
  - f. A list of emergency contacts and telephone numbers;
  - g. The route and location of the nearest hospital with emergency service facilities;
  - h. A detailed summary of the work to be performed by the drug laboratory site remediation firm including:
    - i. Any pre-remediation sampling and testing of non-porous or porous materials;
    - ii. Any demolition work;
    - iii. Any and all materials or articles to be removed or cleaned;
    - iv. All procedures to be employed to remove the residual contamination;
    - v. All procedures to be employed to evaluate plumbing, septic, sewer, and soil;
    - vi. All procedures for decontamination or disposal of contaminated materials or demolition debris;
    - vii. All containment and negative pressure enclosure plans; and
    - viii. Personnel decontamination procedures to be used;
  - i. The shoring plan, if an assessment of the structural integrity was conducted and it was determined that shoring was necessary for the safe occupation of the structure during remediation; and

- j. A complete list of the proposed post-decontamination testing of the residually contaminated portion of the real property and the name of each individual conducting the sampling, such as an independent Certified Industrial Hygienist, Certified Safety Professional, Arizona-registered geologist, or Arizona-registered engineer supervising the sampling, and each laboratory performing the analytical testing.

9. The written work plan shall be:

- a. Approved in writing by the owner of the real property or the owner's agent;
- b. Submitted to the State Board of Technical Registration; and
- c. Retained by the drug laboratory site remediation firm for a minimum of three years.

B. Remediation procedures for the residually contaminated portion of the real property.

1. All clandestine drug laboratory site remediation firms, onsite supervisors, and onsite workers shall comply with all applicable federal, state, municipal, and local laws, rules, ordinances, and regulations during the remediation or demolition of the residually contaminated portion of the real property.
2. An onsite supervisor shall be present on the residually contaminated portion of the real property during the performance of remedial or demolition services including any pre-remediation and post-remediation sampling and testing.
3. The ventilation system shall be turned off at the start of the remediation work and remain off until completion of the remediation work.
4. The remediation or demolition work shall be conducted in a manner so that no other areas or items are contaminated as a result of the work. An onsite worker shall not store new or cleaned items in any areas requiring remediation.
5. If the dwelling on the real property is connected to a septic system, then wash water from the remediation work shall not be disposed of in the septic system.
6. If the dwelling has an attic or crawl space, the onsite supervisor shall assess the attic or crawl space. If the attic or crawl space was not used for the manufacturing of drugs, the storage of drugs or chemicals, or the ventilation of manufacturing areas, and these areas will not be occupied, then the attic or crawl space does not require remediation.
7. The residually contaminated portion of the real property shall be assessed for asbestos-containing materials prior to demolition. Any Freon-containing appliances, propane tanks, tires, or other hazardous materials shall be removed from the residually contaminated portion of the real property prior to any demolition activities. The preliminary procedures described in subsection (A) shall be followed prior to demolition activities to verify the removal of all chemicals from the residually contaminated portion of the real property and to assist with characterization of the demolition wastes. The procedures for evaluating plumbing, septic, sewer, and soil described in subsection (B)(14) shall be followed prior to demolition activities. Mobile homes, travel trailers, or other recreational vehicles may be transported to the landfill prior to demolition. The demolition work shall be conducted in a manner to prevent visible dust emissions from the work area that may impact persons on adjacent property. The demolition debris shall be properly characterized prior to disposal as required in subsection (B)(15). After demolition, any remaining building components shall be remediated as described in subsection (B).

8. Onsite workers or onsite supervisors shall conduct the removal of the contamination from the residually contaminated portion of the real property, except for porous materials from areas not highly suggestive of contamination that may be cleaned by a dry cleaning or laundry service.
9. If pre-remediation sampling and testing are performed, non-porous materials and areas shall be sampled and tested using the personnel and procedures described in subsection (C) prior to any remediation services. If the non-porous materials or areas meet the post-remediation clearance levels described in subsections (C)(2) and (4), then no removal or cleaning of these non-porous materials or areas is required. If pre-remediation sampling and testing are performed, porous materials and areas shall be sampled and tested using the personnel and procedures described in subsection (C) prior to any remediation services. If the porous materials or areas meet the post-remediation clearance levels described in subsections (C)(2) and (4), then no removal or cleaning of these porous materials or areas is required. If pre-remediation sampling and testing are performed to evaluate whether remediation is required, the pre-remediation sampling and testing shall include an evaluation of plumbing, septic, sewer, and soil described in subsection (B)(14).
10. Procedures for areas highly suggestive of contamination:
  - a. All porous materials, such as carpets, draperies, bedding, fabric covered furniture, drop ceilings, clothing, and related items that were present in the area highly suggestive of contamination at the time of the initial notice of removal (A.R.S. § 12-1000) shall be removed and properly disposed of. All items to be removed and disposed of shall be destroyed to prevent future reuse of the items.
  - b. All porous materials such as carpets, draperies, bedding, fabric covered furniture, clothing, and related items, that were moved into the area highly suggestive of contamination after the time of the initial notice of removal (A.R.S. § 12-1000) shall be removed and properly disposed of, except porous drop ceilings, which shall be HEPA vacuumed and left in place. At the owner's discretion, all or some porous materials with no evidence of staining may be cleaned by HEPA vacuuming and one of the following methods:
    - i. Steam cleaning: Hot water and detergent shall be injected into the porous materials under pressure to agitate and loosen any contamination. The water and detergent solution shall then be extracted from the porous material by a wet vacuum.
    - ii. Chemical dry cleaning: Porous materials that cannot be washed with detergent and water shall be dry cleaned using a liquid solvent dry cleaning solution in a dry cleaning machine for at least 15 minutes.
    - iii. Detergent and water solution: Porous materials shall be washed with detergent and water for at least 15 minutes. The porous materials shall be rinsed with water.
    - iv. If any porous materials are removed from the real property for cleaning, the materials shall be

- HEPA vacuumed, and the cleaning facility shall be notified in writing, by the drug laboratory site remediation firm, that the materials being cleaned are from a clandestine drug laboratory.
- c. All stained materials from the laboratory operations including wall board (sheet rock), wood furniture, wood flooring, and tile flooring shall be removed and properly disposed of, unless the owner requests cleaning and testing to meet the post remediation clearance levels contained in subsections (C)(2) and (4). If cleaned, the materials shall be washed with a detergent and water solution and then thoroughly rinsed. This procedure shall be repeated at least two additional times using new detergent solution and rinse water.
  - d. All non-porous surfaces, such as bathtubs, toilets, mirrors, windows, floors, walls, ceilings, doors, appliances, counter-tops, sinks, and non-fabric furniture may be cleaned to the point of stain removal and left in place or removed and properly disposed of. If cleaned, these surfaces shall be washed with a detergent and water solution and then thoroughly rinsed. This procedure shall be repeated at least two additional times using new detergent solution and rinse water.
  - e. All exposed concrete surfaces shall be thoroughly washed with a detergent and water solution and then thoroughly rinsed, or may be removed and properly disposed of. This cleaning procedure shall be repeated at least two additional times using new detergent solution and rinse water; and
  - f. All appliances shall be removed and properly disposed of, unless the owner requests cleaning and testing to meet the post-remediation clearance levels contained in subsections (C)(2) and (4). If cleaned, the appliances shall be washed with a detergent and water solution and then thoroughly rinsed. This cleaning procedure shall be repeated at least two additional times using new detergent solution and rinse water.
11. Procedures for areas not highly suggestive of contamination.
    - a. All porous materials, such as carpets, draperies, bedding, fabric covered furniture, clothing, and related items shall be removed and properly disposed of, except porous drop ceilings, which shall be HEPA vacuumed and left in place. At the owner's discretion, all or some porous materials with no evidence of staining may be cleaned by HEPA vacuuming and one of the following methods:
      - i. Steam cleaning: Hot water and detergent shall be injected into the porous materials under pressure to agitate and loosen any contamination. The water and detergent solution shall then be extracted from the porous material by a wet vacuum.
      - ii. Chemical dry cleaning: Porous materials that cannot be washed with detergent and water shall be dry cleaned using a liquid solvent dry cleaning solution in a dry cleaning machine for at least 15 minutes.
      - iii. Detergent and water solution: Porous materials shall be washed with detergent and water for at least 15 minutes. The porous materials shall be rinsed with water.
  - iv. If any porous materials are removed from the real property for cleaning, the materials shall be HEPA vacuumed, and the cleaning facility shall be notified in writing, by the drug laboratory site remediation firm, that the materials being cleaned are from a clandestine drug laboratory.
  - b. All non-porous surfaces, such as bathtubs, toilets, floors, countertops, sinks, walls, ceilings, mirrors, windows, doors, appliances, and non-fabric furniture, shall be thoroughly HEPA vacuumed and washed with a detergent and water solution and then thoroughly rinsed. This cleaning procedure shall be repeated at least two additional times using a new detergent solution and rinse water.
  - c. Doors or other openings to areas with no visible contamination shall be cordoned off from all other areas with at least 4-mil plastic sheeting after being cleaned, to avoid recontamination during further remediation of the residually contaminated portion of the real property.
  - d. Spray-on acoustical ceilings shall be left undisturbed, and shall be sampled and tested for asbestos, and for residual contamination to determine whether ceilings meet the post-remediation clearance levels contained in subsections (C)(2) and (4). If the post-remediation clearance levels are exceeded, these materials shall be removed and disposed of according to applicable laws relating to asbestos removal.
  - e. All exposed concrete surfaces shall be thoroughly washed with a detergent and water solution and then thoroughly rinsed. This cleaning procedure shall be repeated at least two additional times using new detergent solution and rinse water.
12. Structural Integrity and Security Procedures. If, as a result of the remediation, the structural integrity or security of the real property is compromised, the drug laboratory site remediation firm shall contact a qualified, registered professional to conduct a structural assessment and recommend corrective action for the real property.
  13. Ventilation Cleaning Procedures.
    - a. The ventilation system shall be turned off at the start of the remediation work and remain off until completion of the remediation work.
    - b. Air registers shall be removed and washed with a detergent and water solution and then thoroughly rinsed. This cleaning procedure shall be repeated at least two additional times using new detergent solution and rinse water.
    - c. Temporary filter media shall be attached to air register openings.
    - d. A fan-powered HEPA filter collection machine shall be connected to the ductwork to develop negative air pressure in the ductwork.
    - e. Air lances, mechanical agitators, or rotary brushes shall be inserted into the ducts through the air register openings to loosen all dirt, dust and other loose materials.
    - f. The air handler unit, including the return air housing, coils, each fan, each system, and each drip pan, shall be washed with a detergent and water solution and then thoroughly rinsed. This cleaning procedure shall be repeated at least two additional times using new detergent solution and rinse water.
    - g. All porous linings or filters in the ventilation system shall be removed and properly disposed of.

- h. The ventilation system shall be sealed off at all openings with at least 4-mil plastic sheeting to prevent recontamination until the residually contaminated portion of the real property meets the post-remediation clearance levels contained in subsections (C)(2) and (4).
- 14. Procedures for Plumbing, Septic, Sewer, and Soil.
  - a. All plumbing inlets to the septic or sewer system, including but not limited to sinks, floor drains, bathtubs, showers, and toilets, shall be visually assessed for any staining or other visible residual contamination. All plumbing traps shall be assessed for VOC concentrations with a PID or FID, and for mercury vapors, using a mercury vapor analyzer. If VOC concentrations or mercury vapor concentrations exceed the post-remediation clearance levels contained in subsections (C)(2) and (4), the accessible plumbing and traps where the excess levels are found shall be removed and properly disposed of, or shall be cleaned and tested to meet the post-remediation clearance levels contained in R4-30-305(C)(2) and (4).
  - b. The onsite supervisor shall determine whether the dwelling is connected to a local sewer system or to an onsite septic system. If the dwelling is connected to an onsite septic system, water from the remediation work shall not be disposed of in the septic system, and a sample of the septic tank liquids shall be obtained and tested for VOC concentrations.
    - i. If VOCs are not found in the septic tank sample or are found at concentrations less than AWQS or less than 700 milligrams per liter (mg/l) for acetone, no additional work is required in the septic system area, unless requested by the owner of the real property.
    - ii. If VOCs are found in the septic tank at concentrations exceeding the AWQS or exceeding 700 mg/l for acetone, the following shall apply:
      - (1) The discharge area, such as the leach field, seepage pit, or evaporation mounds, shall be investigated under the direct supervision of an Arizona-registered geologist or an Arizona-registered engineer;
      - (2) The septic system discharge area shall be investigated for VOCs using EPA Method 8260B or an equivalent test method and, unless there is evidence that mercury or lead was not used in the manufacturing of methamphetamine, LSD or ecstasy at the clandestine drug laboratory, the septic system discharge area shall also be investigated for mercury and lead;
      - (3) The vertical extent of any VOCs, mercury, and lead detected in the soil samples shall be delineated to concentrations at or below laboratory detection limits or to background concentrations, and the horizontal extent of any VOCs, mercury, and lead shall be delineated to concentrations at or below each compound's SRL;
      - (4) If any VOCs, mercury, or lead used by the clandestine drug laboratory migrated down to groundwater level, the extent of groundwater contamination shall be investigated under the direct supervision of an Arizona-registered geologist or an Arizona-registered engineer and the vertical and horizontal extent of the groundwater contamination shall be delineated to concentrations at or below the AWQS or below 700 mg/l for acetone; and
- (5) After complete characterization of a release, the impacted soils shall be remediated to concentrations below the SRL or background concentrations, and any impacted groundwater shall be remediated to concentrations at or below the AWQS or below 700 mg/l for acetone.
- c. The onsite supervisor shall observe the real property for evidence of burn areas, burn or trash pits, debris piles or stained areas. The on-site supervisor shall test any burn areas, burn or trash pits, debris piles or stained areas with applicable testing equipment, such as a LEL/O2 meter, pH paper, PID, FID, mercury vapor analyzer or equivalent equipment.
  - i. If the burn areas, burn or trash pits, debris piles, or stained areas are not part of the residually contaminated portion of the real property, the drug laboratory site remediation firm shall recommend to the owner of the real property that these areas be investigated. If the owner advises the drug laboratory site remediation firm not to investigate these areas, the drug laboratory site remediation firm shall take appropriate action pursuant to R4-30-301(11).
  - ii. If the burn areas, burn or trash pits, debris piles or stained areas are part of the residually contaminated portion of the real property, these areas shall be investigated and remediated by the drug laboratory site remediation firm.
    - (1) Any wastes remaining from the operation of the clandestine drug laboratory or other wastes impacted by compounds used by the clandestine drug laboratory shall be characterized, removed, and properly disposed of.
    - (2) Any potentially impacted soil or groundwater shall be investigated under the direct supervision of an Arizona-registered geologist or an Arizona-registered engineer.
    - (3) The burn areas, burn or trash pits, debris piles, or stained areas shall be investigated for the VOCs used by the drug laboratory. Unless there is evidence that mercury or lead was not used in the manufacturing of methamphetamine, LSD, or ecstasy at the clandestine drug laboratory, the burn areas, burn or trash pits, debris piles, or stained areas shall be investigated for lead and mercury.
    - (4) The vertical extent of any VOCs, lead, or mercury detected in the soil samples shall be delineated to concentrations below laboratory detection limits or to background concentrations. The horizontal extent of these compounds shall be delineated to concentrations below each compound's SRL.
    - (5) If any of the compounds used by the clandestine drug laboratory migrated down to groundwater level, the extent of groundwater contamination shall be investigated under the direct supervision of an Arizona-registered geologist or an Arizona-registered engineer. The vertical and horizontal extent of the groundwater contamination shall be delineated to concentrations below the AWQS and below 700 mg/l for acetone.

- (6) After complete characterization of a release, the impacted soils shall be remediated to concentrations below the SRL or background concentrations, and any impacted groundwater shall be remediated to concentrations below the AWQS and below 700 mg/l for acetone.

15. Waste Characterization and Disposal Procedures.

- a. All items removed from the clandestine drug laboratory remediation site, and waste generated during the remediation or demolition work, shall be characterized and properly disposed of. All items to be removed and disposed of shall be destroyed to prevent future reuse of the items.
- b. All suspect asbestos-containing building materials shall be properly sampled and tested for asbestos pursuant to EPA rule prior to disturbance or removal.
- c. All waste shall be characterized by sampling and testing, or the waste shall be considered hazardous waste and disposed of pursuant to applicable law, except the waste shall not be deemed to be household hazardous waste.
- d. The drug laboratory site remediation firm shall comply with all federal, state, municipal, county laws, codes, ordinances and regulations pertaining to waste transportation and disposal.

C. Pre-remediation and Post-remediation Testing Procedures.

1. Remediation sampling shall be conducted under the direct supervision of an independent Certified Industrial Hygienist, Certified Safety Professional, Arizona-registered geologist or Arizona-registered engineer. The individual taking the samples and the Certified Industrial Hygienist, Certified Safety Professional, Arizona-registered geologist, or Arizona-registered engineer directing the sampling shall have experience with remediation of hazardous substances, confirmation sampling of remedial projects, and evaluation of health risks and exposures to chemicals. All sampling used to verify that no additional removal or cleaning is required shall be conducted under the direct supervision of a Certified Industrial Hygienist, Certified Safety Professional, Arizona-registered geologist, or Arizona-registered engineer. The drug laboratory site remediation firm and its employees shall not conduct the sampling and testing. All sample locations shall be photographed for documentation purposes, and these photographs shall be included in the final report.
2. Sampling and testing shall be conducted for all of the compounds listed below. All areas and materials shall meet the following remediation clearance levels:

Compound	Remediation Standard
Red Phosphorus	Removal of stained material or cleaned pursuant to these standards
Iodine Crystals	Removal of stained material or cleaned pursuant to these standards
Methamphetamine	1.5 µg Methamphetamine/100 cm <sup>2</sup>
VOCs in Air	VOC air monitoring < 1 ppm

Corrosives	Surface pH of 6 to 8
LSD	0.1 µg LSD/100 cm <sup>2</sup>
Ecstasy	0.1 µg Ecstasy/100 cm <sup>2</sup>

3. If methamphetamine, ecstasy, or LSD is detected in the pre-remediation sampling and testing of porous materials and surfaces, then the porous materials shall be disposed of or cleaned as described in subsection (B).
4. The drug laboratory site remediation firm shall conduct sampling and testing for all of the metals listed below in all cases except where there is evidence that these metals were not used in the manufacturing of methamphetamine, LSD, or ecstasy at the drug laboratory:

Compound	Remediation Standard
Lead	4.3 µg Lead/100 cm <sup>2</sup>
Mercury	3.0 µg Mercury/m <sup>3</sup> air

5. All sampling and testing shall be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:
  - a. All sample locations shall be photographed, and the photographs shall be included in the final report.
  - b. All sample locations shall also be shown on a floor plan of the residually contaminated portion of the real property, and the floor plan shall be included in the final report.
  - c. All samples shall be obtained from areas representative of the materials or surfaces being tested. All samples shall be obtained, preserved, and handled in accordance with industry standards for the types of samples and analytical testing to be conducted and maintained under chain-of-custody protocol.
  - d. The individual conducting the sampling shall wear a new pair of gloves to obtain each sample.
  - e. All reusable sampling equipment shall be decontaminated prior to sampling.
  - f. All testing equipment shall be equipped and calibrated for the types of compounds to be analyzed.
  - g. Methamphetamine, ecstasy, or LSD sampling and testing of non-porous materials and surfaces:
    - i. Whatman 40 ashless filter paper or an equivalent filter paper shall be used for all wipe sampling. The filter paper shall be wetted with analytical grade methanol or deionized water for the wipe sampling. The filter paper shall be blotted or wiped at least five times in two perpendicular directions within each sampling area. The same filter paper may be used for up to three wipe areas or a new filter paper may be used for each area, and the three filter papers combined for analytical testing.
    - ii. Three 10 cm x 10 cm areas (100 cm<sup>2</sup>) shall be wipe sampled from each room of the residually contaminated portion of the real property. The three samples shall be obtained from the non-porous floor, one wall, and the ceiling in each room.
    - iii. Three 10 cm x 10 cm areas (100 cm<sup>2</sup>) shall be wipe sampled from different areas of the ventilation system.
    - iv. If there is a kitchen in the residually contaminated portion of the real property, three 10 cm x 10 cm areas (100 cm<sup>2</sup>) shall be wipe sampled from a combination of the counter top, sink, or stove top, and from the floor in front of the stove top.

- v. If there is a bathroom in the residually contaminated portion of the real property, three 10 cm x 10 cm areas (100cm<sup>2</sup>) shall be wipe sampled from a combination of the counter top, sink, toilet, and any shower or bathtub.
- vi. If there are any cleaned appliances in the residually contaminated portion of the real property, one 10 cm x 10 cm area (100 cm<sup>2</sup>) shall be wipe sampled from the exposed portion of each appliance. If multiple appliances are present, each wipe sample may be a composite of up to three 100 cm<sup>2</sup> areas on three separate appliances.
- vii. After sampling, the wipe sample shall be placed in a new clean sample jar and sealed with a teflon-lined lid. The sample jar shall be labeled with at least the site or project identification number, date, time, and actual sample location. The sample jar shall be placed in a cooler with ice until delivered to an analytical laboratory licensed in any state in the United States to perform GC/MS testing. The sample shall be analyzed for methamphetamine, LSD, or ecstasy, depending upon the type of clandestine drug laboratory, using a GC/MS instrument, or an equivalent.
- h. Methamphetamine, ecstasy, and LSD sampling and testing of porous materials and surfaces:
  - i. Microvacuum sampling shall be conducted using a 37 mm microvac cassette equipped with a glass fiber filter and backup pad, a short piece of tygon tubing (1 to 2 inches) with one end cut at a 45 degree angle to be used as the "vacuum hose," and flexible tygon tubing to connect the pump to the filter. The person conducting the sampling shall connect the cassette with tygon tubing to a high volume sampling pump and calibrate the sampling pump, with a primary calibration standard, to a flow rate from 15 to 20 liters per minute.
  - ii. Select sampling areas of 10 cm x 10 cm (100 cm<sup>2</sup>). In general, visibly soiled, dusty, or heavily used areas are good choices for sampling. Three 10 cm x 10 cm areas (100 cm<sup>2</sup>) of carpet shall be microvacuum sampled from each room of the residually contaminated portion of the real property.
  - iii. If there are porous furniture, lamp shades, or other fixtures in the residually contaminated portion of the real property, three 10 cm x 10 cm areas (100 cm<sup>2</sup>) of these materials shall be microvacuum sampled from each room where present. If multiple porous furnishings are present, the three sampled areas shall be taken from three separate furnishings.
  - iv. If there are porous wall coverings, curtains, shades, or paintings in the residually contaminated portion of the real property, three 10 cm x 10 cm areas (100 cm<sup>2</sup>) of these materials shall be microvacuum sampled from each room where present. If multiple porous wall coverings are present, the three sampled areas shall be taken from three separate wall coverings.
  - v. If there are clothes, linens, or other porous materials in the residually contaminated portion of the real property, three 10 cm x 10 cm areas (100 cm<sup>2</sup>) of these materials shall be microvacuum sampled from each room where present. If multiple other porous materials are present, the three sampled areas shall be taken from three separate items.
- vi. Perform the first vacuuming, in one direction, from side to side, from top to bottom. Use a slow sweeping motion. During the sampling of softer materials, press the angled tubing nozzle firmly onto the sampling surface to agitate particles. Perform a second vacuuming, in one direction, from top to bottom from side to side across the entire area. Use a slow sweeping motion. During the sampling of softer materials, press the angled tubing nozzle firmly onto the sampling surface to agitate particles. The same filter may be used for up to three vacuum areas, or a new filter may be used for each area, and the three filters combined for analytical testing.
- vii. After sampling, immediately turn off the pump and remove the filter cassette from the inlet and outlet tubing sections, replace the cassette plugs and place the sample into a labeled, resealable plastic bag.
- viii. If additional samples are being collected, remove and discard the short vacuum nozzle tubing and place a clean vacuum nozzle on a new filter cassette to collect additional samples.
- ix. After all sampling has been completed, the pump exterior should be decontaminated (wiped with a 10% bleach solution or an equivalent solution.) The collection tubing should also be discarded.
- x. All sample cassette bags shall be labeled with at least the site or project identification number, date, time, and actual sample location. The samples shall be submitted to an analytical laboratory licensed in any state in the United States to perform GC/MS testing. The samples shall be analyzed for methamphetamine, LSD, and ecstasy, depending on the type of clandestine drug laboratory using a GC/MS instrument or an equivalent.
- i. VOC sampling and testing procedures:
  - i. A PID or FID calibrated to manufacturer's specifications capable of detecting VOCs shall be used for testing. The background concentration of VOCs shall be obtained by testing three exterior areas outside the limits of the residually contaminated portion of the real property and in areas with no known or suspected sources of VOCs. All VOC readings shall be recorded for each sample location.
  - ii. At least three locations in each room of the residually contaminated portion of the real property shall be tested for VOC readings. The testing equipment probe shall be held in the sample location for at least 30 seconds to obtain a reading.
  - iii. All accessible plumbing traps shall be tested for VOCs by holding the testing equipment probe in the plumbing pipe above the trap for at least 60 seconds.
- j. pH testing procedures:

- i. Surface pH measurements shall be made using deionized water and pH test strips with a visual indication for a pH between six and eight. The pH reading shall be recorded for each sample location.
  - ii. For horizontal surfaces, deionized water shall be applied to the surface and allowed to stand for at least three minutes. The pH test strip shall then be placed in the water for a minimum of 30 seconds and read.
  - iii. For vertical surfaces, a Whatman 40 ashless filter paper or equivalent filter paper shall be wetted with deionized water and wiped over a 10 cm x 10 cm area at least five times in two perpendicular directions. The filter paper shall then be placed into a clean sample container and covered with enough deionized water to cover the filter paper. The filter and water shall stand for at least three minutes prior to testing. The pH test strip shall then be placed in the water for a minimum of 30 seconds and read.
  - iv. pH testing shall be conducted on at least three locations in each room within the areas with visible contamination and within areas known to store or handle chemicals used for the clandestine drug laboratory in the residually contaminated portion of the real property.
  - k. Lead Sampling and Testing Procedures:
    - i. Unless there is evidence that lead was not used in the manufacturing of methamphetamine, LSD, or ecstasy at the clandestine drug laboratory, lead sampling shall be conducted as follows:
      - (1) Whatman 40 ashless filter paper or an equivalent filter paper shall be used for wipe sampling. The filter paper shall be wetted with analytical grade 3% nano-grade nitric acid for the wipe sampling. The filter paper shall be blotted or wiped at least five times in two perpendicular directions within each sampling area. The same filter paper may be used for up to three wipe areas or a new filter paper may be used for each area and the three filter papers combined for analytical testing.
      - (2) Three 10 cm x 10 cm areas (100 cm<sup>2</sup>) shall be sampled in each room within the areas with visible contamination or within areas known to store or handle chemicals used for the clandestine drug laboratory in the residually contaminated portion of the real property, and
      - (3) After sampling, the wipe sample shall be placed in a new clean sample jar and sealed with a teflon-lined lid. The sample jar shall be labeled with at least the site or project identification number, date, time, and actual sample location. The sample jar shall be placed in a cooler with ice until delivered to an Arizona-licensed analytical laboratory.
    - ii. The sample shall be analyzed for lead using EPA Method 6010B or an equivalent.
  - l. Mercury Sampling and Testing Procedures:
    - i. A mercury vapor analyzer calibrated in accordance with manufacturer's specifications shall be used for evaluating the remediated areas for the presence of mercury. All mercury readings shall be recorded for each sample location.
    - ii. At least three locations in each room within the areas with visible contamination or within areas known to store or handle chemicals used for the clandestine drug laboratory in the residually contaminated portion of the real property shall be tested for mercury vapor readings. The testing equipment probe shall be held in the sample location for at least 30 seconds to obtain a reading.
    - iii. All accessible plumbing traps shall be tested for mercury by holding the testing equipment probe in the plumbing pipe above the trap for at least 60 seconds.
  - m. Septic Tank Sampling and Testing Procedures:
    - i. The liquid in the septic tank shall be sampled with a new clean bailer or similar equipment.
    - ii. The liquid shall be decanted or poured with minimal turbulence into three new VOA vials prepared by the laboratory.
    - iii. The VOA vials shall be filled so that there are no air bubbles in the sealed container. If air bubbles are present, the vial must be emptied and refilled.
      - (1) The sample vials shall be labeled with at least the date, time, and sample location.
      - (2) The sample vials shall be placed in a cooler with ice until delivered to an Arizona-licensed analytical laboratory.
      - (3) The sample shall be analyzed for acetone and methanol using EPA Method 8015B or an equivalent method.
- D. Final report.
- 1. A final report shall be:
    - a. Prepared by the drug laboratory site remediation firm,
    - b. Submitted to the owner of the remediated property and the Board within 30 days after completion of the remediation services, and
    - c. Retained by the firm for a minimum of three years.
  - 2. The final report shall include the following information and documentation:
    - a. Complete identifying information of the real property, and the drug laboratory site remediation firm, including but not limited to street address, mailing address, owner of record, legal description, county tax or parcel identification number, or vehicle identification number if a mobile home or recreational vehicle, registration number of the drug laboratory site remediation firm, name and certification number of the onsite supervisor, and name and certification numbers of the onsite workers who performed the remediation services on the residually contaminated portion of the real property;
    - b. A summary of any pre-remediation sampling and testing and all post-remediation sampling and testing including the name and certification, registration, or license number of the Certified Industrial Hygienist, Certified Safety Professional, Arizona-registered geologist, or Arizona-registered engineer supervising the sampling and testing;
    - c. A summary of the remediation and demolition services completed on the residually contaminated portion of the real property, with any deviations from

- the approved work plan, including a list of the rooms, surfaces, materials, and articles cleaned, a list of the materials and articles removed and disposed of, and the procedures used to evaluate the plumbing, septic, sewer, and soil and to document the extent of the remediation or demolition services;
- d. Photographs documenting the remediation services and showing each of the sample locations, and a drawing or sketch of the residually contaminated areas that depict the sample locations;
  - e. A copy of the sampling and testing results for VOCs and mercury, a copy of any asbestos sampling and testing results, a copy of the laboratory test results on all samples, and a copy of the chain-of-custody protocol documents for all samples from the residually contaminated portion of the real property;
  - f. A summary of the waste characterization work, and copies of any waste sampling and testing results and transportation and disposal documents, including but not limited to, bills of lading, weight tickets, and manifests for all materials removed from the real property;
  - g. A summary of the onsite supervisor's observation and testing of the real property for evidence of burn areas, burn or trash pits, debris piles, or stained areas;
  - h. A copy of any reports provided to the drug laboratory site remediation firm including:
    - i. A copy of any report prepared by the Certified Industrial Hygienist, Certified Safety Professional, Arizona-registered geologist, or Arizona-registered engineer, and
    - ii. A signed statement confirming that the sampling was conducted under direct supervision;
  - i. A statement that the residually contaminated portion of the real property has been remediated in accordance with R4-30-305; and
  - j. The total cost of any pre-remediation sampling and testing, as described in subsection (B)(9), the total cost of all post-remediation sampling and testing, as described in subsection (C) and the total cost of the remediation decontamination services as described in subsections (B)(9), (10), (12), (13), and (14);

3. Within 24 hours after the final report described in subsection (D) has been prepared, the drug laboratory site remediation firm shall deliver, or send by certified mail, a copy of the complete and final report to the State Board of Technical Registration. The drug laboratory site remediation firm shall also deliver or send a separate document to all other individuals and entities stating that the residually contaminated portion of the real property has been remediated pursuant to A.R.S. § 12-1000 (E).

Historical Note

ARTICLE 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

R6-2-101. Definitions

The following definitions apply to this Chapter:

1. "America's Job Bank" means a nationwide computer database linking more than 1800 local Employment Service offices. The services of America's Job Bank are available to job seekers and employers via the Internet.
2. "Applicant" means a person who has applied to the Department for worker services and who is a United States citizen or a non-citizen who is legally authorized to work in the United States.
3. "Apprentice" means a worker who is at least age 16 if a higher minimum age standard is otherwise fixed by law, who is employed to learn a skilled trade under standards of apprenticeship that meet the requirements of 29 CFR 29.5 (Office of the Federal Register, National Archives and Records Administration, July 1, 1998), which is incorporated by reference in this rule. This incorporation by reference does not include any later amendments or editions. Copies of the incorporated material are available for inspection at the Department's Authority Library, 1789 West Jefferson, Phoenix, Arizona, and in the Office of the Secretary of State, Public Service Department, 1700 West Washington, Phoenix, Arizona.
4. "Apprenticeship agreement" means a written agreement between an apprentice and an employer or a committee acting on behalf of the employer, containing the terms and conditions for employment of the apprentice.
5. "Apprenticeship program" means a plan containing all terms and conditions for the qualification, recruitment, selection, employment, and training of apprentices.
6. "Apprenticeship program registration" means the acceptance and centralized recording of an apprenticeship program by the ESA that meets the basic standards and requirements established for apprenticeship programs under federal law.
7. "Apprenticeship program sponsor" means a person, association, committee, or organization operating an apprenticeship program and in whose name the program is registered and approved.
8. "BFOQ" or "bona fide occupational qualification" means a finding by an employer that age, sex, national origin, or religion is a characteristic necessary to an individual's ability to perform the job.
9. "Department" means the Arizona Department of Economic Security.
10. "DOT" or "Dictionary of Occupational Titles" means the reference work published by the United States Employ-

- ment Service, which contains brief, non-technical definitions of job titles, distinguishing numeric codes, and worker trait data.
11. "Disabled veteran" means:
    - a. A veteran who is entitled to compensation under laws administered by the United States Secretary of Veterans Affairs, or
    - b. A person who is discharged or released from active military duty because of a service-connected disability.
  12. "Employer job referral services" means Department activities that help an employer obtain workers with the occupational qualifications needed by the employer.
  13. "Employment counseling" means formulation of a vocational plan that is consistent with a person's vocational skills and interests, and advice on appropriate measures for implementation of that plan.
  14. "Employment test" means a standardized method or device for measuring a person's possession of, interest in, or ability to acquire job skills and knowledge.
  15. "ESA" or "Employment Security Administration" means the administrative unit within the Department's Division of Employment and Rehabilitation Services with responsibility for all worker and employer services.
  16. "Essential functions of a job" means the fundamental job duties of a particular employment position.
  17. "Geographic labor clearance" means Department efforts to facilitate labor mobility by encouraging and guiding migration of workers between geographical areas.
  18. "Industrial analysis services" means Department activities to assist employers and labor organizations in determining the cause of worker resource problems in a particular business, and provision of information developed by the USES for resolving such problems.
  19. "Job bank" means a computerized list of all currently available jobs and employment opportunities listed with the Department.
  20. "Job development" means the process by which the Department obtains a job or interview with an employer for a specific applicant for whom the local ESA office has no suitable job opening on file.
  21. "Job order" means a request by an employer for the referral of job seekers made available to job seekers via the Department's Job Bank.
  22. "JTPA" means the federal Job Training Partnership Act found at 29 U.S.C. 1501 et seq.
  23. "Labor market area" means a geographic area consisting of a central city, or group of cities, and the surrounding territory within a reasonable commuting distance.
  24. "Major life activities" means functions such as caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning, and working.
  25. "Occupational labor clearance" means Department efforts to facilitate labor mobility by encouraging and guiding migration of workers between occupations and industry types.
  26. "Older worker" means a person age 40 or older who is working or who is unemployed and wishes to work.
  27. "Person with a disability" or "disabled worker" means a person who:
    - a. Has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits 1 or more of that person's major life activities;
    - b. Has a record of such an impairment; or
    - c. Is regarded as having such an impairment.
  28. "Physical or mental impairment" means:
    - a. Any physiological disorder, or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting 1 or more of the following body systems: neurological, musculoskeletal, special sense organs, respiratory (including speech organs), cardiovascular, reproductive, digestive, genito-urinary, hemic and lymphatic, skin, and endocrine; or
    - b. Any mental or psychological disorder such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities.
  29. "Placement" means that a public or private employer has hired an applicant that the Department referred to the employer for a job or interview.
  30. "Qualified worker" means a worker who possesses the skills, knowledge, and abilities to perform the essential functions of a job.
  31. "Reasonable accommodation" means a modification of, or an adjustment to a process, position, or term of employment, that will permit a disabled worker to enjoy the same benefits and privileges of employment as those enjoyed by persons without disabilities.
  32. "Substandard work order" means a work order:
    - a. Containing employment terms that violate employment-related laws, or
    - b. Offering work at wages or conditions that are substantially inferior to those generally prevailing in the labor market area for the same or similar work.
  33. "Substantially limits" when used in reference to a disability, means:
    - a. Unable to perform a major life activity that the average person in the general population can perform; or
    - b. Significantly restricted as to the condition, manner, or duration under which an individual can perform a particular major life activity as compared to the condition, manner, or duration under which the average person in the general population can perform that same major life activity.
  34. "Targeted jobs tax credit" means an income tax credit available to businesses that hire persons whom ESA has certified as meeting certain criteria described in 26 U.S.C. 51 (Office of the Federal Register, National Archives and Records Administration, August 10, 1993), which is incorporated by reference in this rule. This incorporation by reference does not include any later amendments or editions. Copies of the incorporated material are available for inspection at the Department's Authority Library, 1789 West Jefferson, Phoenix, Arizona, and in the Office of the Secretary of State, Public Service Department, 1700 West Washington, Phoenix, Arizona.

ARTICLE 2. EMPLOYMENT SERVICES PROVIDED BY THE DEPARTMENT

R6-2-201. Worker Services

- A. As permitted by available resources, the Department shall provide services to a worker who is a United States citizen or a non-citizen authorized to work in the United States. The services include but are not limited to the following:

1. Employment counseling;
2. Aptitude testing;
3. Apprenticeship training; and
4. Job referral services.

- B. A worker applying for services shall file an application with the Department. The application shall include the worker's:
1. Name, address, telephone number, social security number, and date of birth;
  2. Prior work experience, including information on salary, job duties, and any past military service;
  3. Educational background, including technical or other vocational training the worker has completed;
  4. Career goals, hobbies, and volunteer work;
  5. Availability for work, including a willingness to travel or relocate, desire for full or part-time employment, and desired working hours; and
  6. Special skills or proficiencies, including a language other than English or the use of equipment.
- C. The Department shall obtain information about a worker's disability as is necessary to provide the worker with appropriate services. This information may include asking the worker whether the worker can perform the essential functions of a particular job, with or without reasonable accommodation.
- D. When the Department conducts employment testing, the Department shall:
1. Use only standardized tests and techniques approved by the United States Employment Service; and
  2. Not release the results of the tests without the written consent of the tested worker.

Historical Note

Adopted effective September 24, 1975 (Supp. 75-1).
 Section repealed, new Section adopted effective December 20, 1994 (Supp. 94-4). Section repealed, new Section adopted by final rulemaking at 5 A.A.R. 2155, effective June 18, 1999 (Supp. 99-2).

R6-2-202. Employer Services

- A. The Department shall require the following information from an employer who places a job order:
1. A description of the essential functions of the job in sufficient detail to permit the Department to ascertain the qualifications a worker needs to satisfactorily perform the work, with or without reasonable accommodation;
  2. An employer's hiring requirements, including the type of license or certification needed, or the type of equipment or tools the worker must supply;
  3. The terms and conditions of work, including hours, salary, benefits, promotional opportunities, and travel requirements;
  4. The job location and instructions for arranging a job interview.
- B. The Department shall refer workers to the employer who most closely match the requirements in the job order. If qualified workers are not available from the Department's files and, if resources are available, the Department shall recruit qualified workers to fill the employer's order.
- C. The Department shall not accept a job order from an employer for processing if:
1. The employer's requirements are discriminatory based on age, sex, national origin, or religion, unless the discriminatory characteristic is a bona fide occupational qualification necessary to perform the job. An example of a bona fide occupational qualification that is not discriminatory is the requirement for a female worker in a female intimate apparel retail outlet.

2. The terms and conditions of work are substandard under A.R.S. § 23-776(C)(2).
  3. The position is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute or conflict between employers and workers, including wage disputes and collective bargaining efforts.
  4. A worker is required to pay a fee for the job.
- D. If an employer refuses to modify a job order deemed unacceptable by subsection (C), the Department shall notify the employer in writing of discontinuance of services. The notification shall include the employer's right of appeal.

Historical Note

R6-7-401. Definitions

The following definitions apply in this Article unless otherwise provided in a specific Section of this Article:

1. “Certification” means to furnish OCSE with the name, identifying information, and amount of the arrearage owed by an individual determined delinquent in fulfilling a child support obligation.
2. “Federal administrative offset” means the interception of certain federal payments in order to collect past-due child support. Based on the Debt Collection Improvement Act (DCIA) of 1996, the process is managed by the Federal Office of Child Support Enforcement (OCSE), through the Financial Management Service (FMS) of the Department of the Treasury, in conjunction with the Federal Tax Refund Offset Program.
3. “Passport denial” means the certification process followed by the Title IV-D Agency and the United States Secretary of State, to refuse to issue a passport or to revoke, restrict, or limit a passport that was previously issued, because the obligor in a Title IV-D case has an arrearage in an amount that qualifies for certification under federal statute.
4. “Secretary” means the United States Secretary of State.
5. “Title IV-D case” means a proceeding for support managed by the Title IV-D Agency as required by Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 651 et seq.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 4540, effective December 17, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-402. Certification and Criteria

- A. The Title IV-D Agency shall:
  1. Submit and certify to OCSE for passport denial any Title IV-D case with an arrearage that qualifies for certification under federal statute; and
  2. Refer the case to OCSE for federal income tax refund offset and federal administrative offset under federal statute.
- B. The Title IV-D Agency shall submit and certify a case for passport denial if the case meets both of the following criteria:
  1. A support obligation has been established by a court or an administrative order; and
  2. The arrearage is in an amount that qualifies for certification under federal statute.
- C. The Title IV-D Agency shall not submit the following cases for passport denial:
  1. Interstate cases in which the obligee receives temporary assistance for needy families and the state of Arizona does not have an assignment of rights.
  2. Cases in which federal law precludes action.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 4540, effective December 17, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-403. Notice

- A. The Title IV-D Agency shall provide written notice to an obligor that the obligor has a support arrearage in an amount that qualifies for certification under federal statute, and that the obligor has been referred for federal administrative offset, federal income tax refund offset, and passport denial.
- B. The Title IV-D Agency shall send the notice to an obligor by first class mail. The mailing of the notice to the obligor’s last known address of record with Title IV-D Agency constitutes proper and sufficient notice.
- C. The notice shall inform the obligor of the right to contest the enforcement action.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 4540, effective December 17, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-404. Administrative Review

- A. An obligor may file a written request for administrative review by the Title IV-D Agency within 30 business days from the date on the notice mailed in accordance with R6-7-403.
- B. An obligor has the burden of proof regarding each issue raised in an administrative review.
- C. The issues in an administrative review are limited to:
  1. Whether there has been a mistake regarding the identity of the obligor; and
  2. The amount of the obligor’s arrearage, if any.
- D. If an obligor alleges that there has been a mistake regarding the identity of the obligor, the Title IV-D Agency shall issue a final written determination by first class mail to all parties within two business days after receipt of the request for administrative review.
- E. For all circumstances other than a mistake regarding the identity of the obligor, the Title IV-D Agency shall issue a final written determination by first class mail to all parties within 45 business days after receipt of the request for administrative review, or if additional information is required and provided, 45 business days after receipt of this information.
- F. In an interstate case, only the certifying state has the authority to withdraw an obligor from the passport denial process.
- G. If an obligor does not request an administrative review within 30 business days, the Title IV-D Agency’s certification for purposes of passport denial remains in effect.
- H. If an obligor requests an administrative review within 30 business days and meets the requirements for withdrawal of certification for passport denial in R6-7-405, the Title IV-D Agency shall notify OCSE to withdraw certification for passport denial in accordance with OCSE requirements.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 4540, effective December 17, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-405. Withdrawal of Certification for Passport Denial

- A. The Title IV-D Agency shall notify OCSE to withdraw certification for passport denial for an obligor if one or more of the following applies:
  1. The Title IV-D Agency makes a final determination during an administrative review that:
    - a. The case does not meet the criteria for passport denial in R6-7-402; or
    - b. There has been a mistake regarding the identity of the obligor;
  2. The obligor has paid the arrearage down to:
    - a. An amount less than the amount that qualifies for certification under federal statute, and has entered into a payment agreement with the Title IV-D Agency; or
    - b. Zero; or
    - c. An amount agreed to by the Title IV-D Agency, if the arrearage is owed to both the state and the obligee, provided the obligor agrees to and complies with any other terms required by the Title IV-D Agency, and the provisions of R6-7-405(B).
- B. The Title IV-D Agency shall also notify OCSE to withdraw certification for passport denial for an obligor if all of the following apply:
  1. The obligee agrees to accept partial payment of the total arrearages owed by the obligor to the obligee, even though the payment does not comply with the requirements of R6-7-405(A)(2) to pay arrearages down to zero or an amount less than that which qualifies for certification under federal statute;

Department of Economic Security – Child Support Enforcement

2. The obligor and obligee agree to the amount of the partial payment in writing, and the document is signed by both parties and submitted to the Title IV-D Agency;
  3. The Title IV-D Agency advises the obligee that the Title IV-D Agency may not have the opportunity to request passport denial for another 10 years;
  4. The obligee provides the Title IV-D Agency with a signed, notarized statement acknowledging receipt of the advisement in subsection (3) before the notification to OCSE to withdraw certification for passport denial;
  5. The obligor enters into a payment agreement with the Title IV-D Agency for the remainder of the arrearages owed; and
  6. The Title IV-D Agency consents to the agreement between the obligor and the obligee.
- C. The Title IV-D Agency shall notify OCSE by facsimile, computer, or other electronic or non-electronic means to withdraw certification for passport denial, in accordance with OCSE requirements.
- D. If an obligor fails to comply with the terms of any payment agreement with the Title IV-D Agency, and the arrearage qualifies for certification under federal statute, the Title IV-D Agency shall re-certify the obligor to OCSE for passport denial.
14. IRS tax reversals;
  15. Other fees or costs; and
  16. Futures.
- B. Arrearage payments distributed in a Title IV-D case are applied first to the principal and then to the interest that accrued on that principal in the following order:
1. The oldest written judgment's principal and interest and then to each successive written judgment's principal and interest.
  2. Arrearages not reduced to a written judgment and the corresponding interest.
- C. The Title IV-D Agency shall credit amounts received as support from or on behalf of the obligor as the required support obligation for the month in which they are received unless they are submitted by an employer. Payments submitted by an employer as the result of an income withholding order are considered received in the month in which the income was withheld by the employer. The date of receipt for income withholding order payments is the last day of the pay period from which the payment is withheld.
- D. A voluntary payment received in a cash assistance case shall be retained by the Title IV-D Agency and shared with the federal government. Any monies received in excess of cash assistance owed to the state and federal government shall be paid to the obligee.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective December 17, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-406. Appeal from Administrative Review

A Title IV-D Agency determination made under this Article is subject to judicial review under A.R.S. Title 12, Chapter 7, Article 6 (Judicial Review of Administrative Decisions), or other applicable law.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective December 17, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

ARTICLE 5. RESERVED*ARTICLE 6. TITLE IV-D DISTRIBUTION*R6-7-601. Distribution

- A. The Title IV-D Agency shall distribute monies collected in a Title IV-D case in accordance with state and federal law and the provisions of this Article in the following sequence to:
1. Current child support;
  2. Current spousal maintenance;
  3. Current cash medical support;
  4. Child support judgments for arrearage or past support, and the applicable corresponding interest;
  5. Spousal maintenance judgments for arrearage or past support and the applicable corresponding interest;
  6. Pregnancy and childbirth judgments and the corresponding interest;
  7. Cash medical support judgments and the corresponding interest;
  8. Judgments for uncovered medical costs and the corresponding interest;
  9. Child support arrearages not reduced to a written judgment and the corresponding interest;
  10. Spousal maintenance arrearages not reduced to a written judgment and the corresponding interest;
  11. Cash medical support arrearages not reduced to a written judgment, and the corresponding interest;
  12. Current month's handling fee;
  13. Handling fees owed to the Support Payment Clearinghouse;
- B. If an obligor or payor tenders payment in a foreign currency, draft, check, or other negotiable form of payment under a U.S. support order and the equivalent value in U.S. dollars is less than the ordered amount, the difference between the ordered amount and the amount tendered constitutes an unpaid amount owed.
- C. If an obligor or payor tenders payment in a foreign currency, draft, check, or other negotiable form of payment under a U.S. support order, and the equivalent value in U.S. dollars is more than the ordered amount, the Title IV-D Agency shall distribute the excess amount according to R6-7-601(A).
- D. If an obligor or payor tenders payment in a foreign currency, draft, check, or other negotiable form of payment as required under a foreign support order, the Title IV-D Agency shall give the obligor credit for the amount tendered regardless of the conversion value in U.S. dollars.
- E. The Clearinghouse shall disburse support and related payments it receives in U.S. dollars.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-603. Allocation of Monies Received from Federal Income Tax Refund Offset to Arrearages

If monies received from a federal income tax refund offset do not satisfy the total arrearages for all cases submitted by the Title IV-D Agency to OCSE for payment owed by an obligor to multiple obligees, the Title IV-D Agency shall make a proportionate allocation to each obligee whose case was submitted for federal income tax refund offset. The Title IV-D Agency shall determine the proportionate share by dividing the total arrearages owed to each obligee by the total arrearages owed by the obligor and multiplying the resulting percentage by the amount of the federal income tax refund offset.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-604. Allocation of Other Than Internal Revenue Service Payments to Multiple Obligees

- A. If the Title IV-D Agency receives a support payment not paid by an income withholding order that is undesignated as to case or obligee and it does not satisfy the total current support owed by one obligor to multiple obligees, the Title IV-D Agency shall use the following procedure to determine the amount of support allocated to each obligee:
  1. Determine the total current support owed by the obligor to all obligees,
  2. Divide the current support that the obligor owes to each obligee by the total current support that the obligor owes to all obligees, and
  3. Multiply the resulting percentage by the payment.
- B. If the Title IV-D Agency receives a support payment not paid by an income withholding order that is undesignated as to case or obligee and it does not satisfy the total arrearages or past support owed by one obligor to multiple obligees, the Title IV-D Agency shall use the following procedure to determine the amount of support allocated to each obligee:
  1. Determine the total arrearages owed by the obligor to all obligees,
  2. Divide the arrearages that the obligor owes to each obligee by the total arrearages that the obligor owes to all obligees, and
  3. Multiply the resulting percentage by the arrearage or past support payment.
- C. The Title IV-D Agency shall not use this procedure if:
  1. The payment source is an income withholding order and the employer or payor has allocated under A.R.S. §§ 25-504 or 25-505.01;
  2. The case is governed by R6-7-715; or
  3. The support owed to an obligee was not submitted for the enforcement action that resulted in the collection.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-605. Distribution of Monies Received from Federal Income Tax Refund Offset to Arrearages

If the federal income tax refund offset received from the Internal Revenue Service on behalf of an obligor is greater than the total arrearages owed for all cases submitted for federal income tax refund offset, the Title IV-D Agency shall refund any excess monies to the obligor, unless the obligor agrees in writing that the monies may be applied to other obligations owed.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-606. Distribution of Futures

The Title IV-D Agency shall apply futures as provided in 45 CFR 302.51(b) (Office of the Federal Register, National Archives and Records Administration, October 1, 2004), which is incorporated by reference and on file with the Department. This incorporation by reference does not include any later amendments or editions. The Title IV-D Agency shall also follow the same regulation in never assistance and former assistance cases.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-607. Distribution of Prepaid Support

- A. The Title IV-D Agency shall treat payments as prepaid support only if there is no alternative that would allow for prompt payment of support owed to an obligee in a future month.
- B. The Title IV-D Agency shall release any prepaid support in the applicable future month for distribution in accordance with R6-7-601(A).

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-608. Distribution in Title IV-E Cases

- A. The Department shall retain monies collected in a Title IV-E case for reimbursement of Title IV-E expenditures under A.R.S. § 8-243.02.
- B. While a case is current Title IV-E, all support collected shall be disbursed in accordance with 45 CFR 302.52 (Office of the Federal Register, National Archives and Records Administration, October 1, 2004), which is incorporated by reference and on file with the Department. This incorporation by reference does not include any later amendments or editions. If the collection is more than the current monthly support and exceeds the total Title IV-E expenditures, then the Department shall use the collection to pay any arrearages assigned to the state under A.R.S. § 46-407. If arrearages have been paid, the Department shall pay any excess in a current Title IV-E case to the Title IV-E Agency for the benefit of the Title IV-E child.
- C. When a case is former Title IV-E and former assistance with arrearages assigned to the state under A.R.S. § 46-407 and A.R.S. § 8-243.02, the Department shall first apply arrearage collections to the arrearages assigned under A.R.S. § 46-407.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-609. Distribution in Current Assistance Cases with a Child Exempt from Assignment

- A. In a current assistance case, when a child is determined to be a Child Not on Grant, the Title IV-D Agency shall distribute current support collected for a Child Not on Grant on or after the end of the month in which the current support is collected. Arrearages that accrue and are collected while the assistance unit is receiving cash assistance shall be distributed on or after the end of the month in which the arrearages are collected.
- B. If a child support order for a Child Not on Grant covers children who are not subject to A.R.S. § 46-407(B), the Title IV-D agency shall divide the ordered child support amount by the number of children in the order. The Title IV-D Agency shall distribute the prorated share of the child support collected for the benefit of the Child Not on Grant.
- C. Beginning July 1, 2003, for current child support and any child support arrearages that accrue during the period of assistance, the Title IV-D Agency shall distribute the prorated share of child support collected for the benefit of a child who is subject to A.R.S. § 46-292(G) on or after the end of the month in which it is collected.

- D. If a child support order for a child subject to A.R.S. § 46-292(G) also covers children who are not subject to A.R.S. § 46-292(G), the Title IV-D Agency shall divide the ordered child support amount by the number of children in the order. The Title IV-D Agency shall distribute the prorated share of the child support collected for the benefit of the child subject to A.R.S. § 46-292(G).

R6-7-610. Distribution of Cash Medical Support in Title XIX Cases

- A. The Title IV-D Agency shall retain current cash medical support monies for a child receiving Title XIX services under A.R.S. § 46-407 where the recipient of services is an individual to whom court ordered medical support is owed.
- B. When a child is receiving Title XIX services, the Title IV-D Agency shall disburse all current cash medical support for that child to the Title XIX Agency in accordance with 45 CFR 302.51 on or after the end of the month in which the current cash medical support is collected. The Title IV-D Agency shall distribute arrearages that accrue and are collected while the child is receiving Title XIX services on or after the end of the month in which the arrearages are collected.
- C. When a child is no longer receiving Title XIX services, the Title IV-D Agency shall disburse current cash medical support in accordance with R6-7-701. The Title IV-D Agency shall distribute collections of cash medical support arrears that accrued while the child was receiving Title XIX services in accordance with R6-7-601 to the Title XIX Agency.
- D. If a cash medical support order covers children who are not receiving Title XIX services and children who are receiving Title XIX services, the Title IV-D Agency shall divide the ordered cash medical support amount by the number of children in the order. The Title IV-D Agency shall distribute the prorated share of cash medical support for the benefit of the children receiving Title XIX services to the Title XIX Agency and the prorated share of cash medical support for the benefit of the children not receiving Title XIX services to the obligee.
- E. When a case is former Title XIX and former assistance with arrearages assigned to the state under A.R.S. § 46-407, the Title IV-D Agency shall first apply arrearage collections to the child and spousal support arrearages assigned under A.R.S. § 46-407.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 15 A.A.R. 1250, effective September 5, 2009 (Supp. 09-3).

R6-7-611. Distribution of the Mandatory Annual Fee on and after October 1, 2007

- A. The Title IV-D Agency shall charge a $25.00 annual fee to a recipient of services who has never received assistance under a state or tribal Title IV-A program for each Title IV-D case. The Title IV-D Agency shall retain the $25.00 fee from collections of support that exceed $500.00 within a federal fiscal year for each Title IV-D case.
- B. After the first $500.00 of support collections in a federal fiscal year, the Title IV-D Agency shall retain the fee from future collections and pay the mandatory fee before distributing collections pursuant to R6-7-601.
- C. If, after the $500.00 collection threshold has been met, no further collections are received, or less than $25.00 is collected within that year, the Title IV-D Agency shall charge the balance of the fee to the recipient of services after notice of a deadline for payment of the fee. If the recipient does not pay the fee by the deadline, the Title IV-D Agency shall retain the fee from future collections of support in subsequent federal fiscal years.

- D. If a foreign country has requested enforcement of a support order in a Title IV-D case, the annual fee of $25.00, owed pursuant to R6-7-611(A), shall be charged to the obligor.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 15 A.A.R. 1250, effective September 5, 2009 (Supp. 09-3).

ARTICLE 7. TITLE IV-D DISBURSEMENT

R6-7-701. Disbursement

- A. The Title IV-D Agency shall disburse support and related payments that the Title IV-D Agency receives in a Title IV-D case to one or more of the following recipients:
  1. An obligee or an agent authorized in writing by an obligee or as determined by law;
  2. A Title IV-D agency of another state if the agency submits a request for support establishment or enforcement services and is authorized to receive support under U.I.F.S.A.;
  3. The federal government, if Arizona is providing or has provided cash assistance to the assistance unit, or a member of the assistance unit, or if Arizona is providing or has provided Title IV-E foster care maintenance payments, or if the annual $25.00 fee is owed, pursuant to R6-7-611;
  4. A state, if the state is providing or has provided cash assistance to the assistance unit that does not exceed the total amount of unreimbursed cash assistance;
  5. An obligor, if a refund is due;
  6. A bankruptcy trustee;
  7. A state or federal agency as authorized by law;
  8. A caretaker under Arizona statute and R6-7-712.
- B. The Title IV-D Agency shall issue payments due to an obligee at the last known address filed with the Child Support Case Registry or the last address known to F.A.A.
- C. If a payment to an obligee is returned to the Title IV-D Agency because it was undeliverable, the Title IV-D Agency shall make a reasonable effort to locate the obligee for the period authorized in A.R.S. § 25-503.
- D. If the Title IV-D Agency is unable to locate the obligee by the end of the period authorized in A.R.S. § 25-503, the Title IV-D Agency shall contact the obligor to request oral or written approval to apply the funds to arrearages and any other unpaid obligations owed to the state. If the Title IV-D Agency is unable after a reasonable effort to locate the obligee or obligor, and an arrearage is still owed to the state, the Title IV-D Agency shall apply the payments to the arrearage. Any remaining amounts shall be handled consistent with applicable law.
- E. If an obligee requests that the Title IV-D Agency directly deposit support in a financial institution and the financial institution returns those monies because the obligee's account is closed, or the financial institution will not accept the deposit, the Title IV-D Agency shall make a reasonable effort to locate the obligee for the period authorized in A.R.S. § 25-503, after receiving notice that the account is closed or that the financial institution will not accept the deposit.
- F. Neither the return of monies to an obligor due to an inability to locate the obligee, nor the application of monies to arrearages or other support-related debts terminates an obligor's obligation ordered by a court or administrative entity.
- G. The Title IV-D Agency shall disburse support that the Title IV-D Agency receives for a current assistance case within two business days of the last day of the month in which the Clearinghouse receives the payment.

- H. Except as provided in subsections (G), (I), (J), (K), (L), and (M), the Title IV-D Agency shall disburse support within two business days of receipt by the Clearinghouse unless the Clearinghouse is unable to disburse the support for one or more of the following reasons:

1. The Title IV-D Agency does not have the obligee's current address;
2. The Title IV-D Agency or its payment posting contractor lacks sufficient information to identify the case to which the payment must be applied;
3. An action is pending before the Title IV-D Agency to determine whether:
  - a. An administrative income withholding order is enforceable under A.R.S. § 25-505.01, or
  - b. A limited income withholding order is enforceable under A.R.S. § 25-505;
4. The payment is for futures that federal law requires the Title IV-D Agency to hold for disbursement in a future month, or for prepaid support;
5. A court or administrative order, bankruptcy stay, or state or federal law requires the Title IV-D Agency to retain support or to use a different disbursement method or time-frame;
6. The Title IV-D Agency lacks information regarding a support order, an agreement, or any other obligation owed to the Department;
7. Support is returned to the Title IV-D Agency or the Clearinghouse due to the obligee's incarceration or because the obligee or only child still covered by the order is deceased;
8. A check received from an obligor or other payor has previously been dishonored, precluding the acceptance of a personal check under A.R.S. § 25-503; or
9. Other circumstances exist that prevent proper and timely disbursement of support through no fault or lack of diligence on the part of the Title IV-D Agency.

- I. If a federal income tax refund offset is based on a joint federal income tax return, the Title IV-D Agency shall retain the offset for 180 days after receipt of the refund monies unless the Internal Revenue Service notifies the Title IV-D Agency of the resolution of an injured spouse claim, or until the spouse signs a waiver of any right to claim a portion of the refund. The Title IV-D Agency shall distribute and disburse a federal income tax refund offset that is based on a joint tax return in accordance with R6-7-709, R6-7-710 and R6-7-711. The offset collections do not accrue interest and the Title IV-D Agency shall not pay interest on these monies.

- J. If a [state income] tax refund is based on a joint income tax return and the department of economic security receives a written claim from the nonobligated spouse within forty-five days after the notice of a setoff for overdue child support, the setoff only applies to that portion of the refund due to the obligor. The nonobligated spouse shall provide to the department of economic security copies of both the obligated and nonobligated spouse's federal W-2 forms and evidence of estimated tax payments supporting the proportionate share of each spouse's payment of tax. The department of economic security shall retain the amount of the set off refund due to the obligated spouse determined by a proration based on the tax payments of each spouse by estimated tax payment or tax withheld from wages. A.R.S. § 42-1122(S).

- K. The Title IV-D Agency shall distribute and disburse an Arizona income tax refund setoff that is based on a joint income tax return in accordance with R6-7-601. The Title IV-D

Agency shall not pay interest on these monies except as provided in A.R.S. §§ 42-1122 and 42-1123.

- L. The Title IV-D Agency shall retain a state lottery prize that has been set off under A.R.S. § 5-525 for 30 days after the date on the notice of setoff and right to appeal as prescribed in A.R.S. § 5-525. The Title IV-D Agency shall not pay interest on these monies except as provided in A.R.S. § 5-525.
- M. In addition to the reasons for retaining support already stated in this rule, the Title IV-D Agency may retain support for more than two business days if:
1. The amount received exceeds the amount due or owing, but is neither futures nor prepaid support;
  2. The obligee's and obligor's financial accounts maintained by the Title IV-D Agency are out of balance;
  3. An obligor has multiple cases and, in at least one case, has no known obligation to support a child, or a child covered by the support order is receiving Social Security benefits and A.R.S. § 46-407 applies;
  4. A personal or business check received for support in one case exceeds $2,500 and there is no history of checks that exceed $2,500 clearing in that case. In no event shall the Title IV-D Agency retain these monies for more than 10 business days;
  5. The Title IV-D Agency has received a notice of a stop payment order on a payment; or
  6. The amount to be disbursed in a check is less than $3.00. When the amount held reaches $3.00 or more, the Title IV-D Agency shall disburse the amount.
- N. If a support payment received by the Title IV-D Agency exceeds the amount due or owing and is neither futures nor prepaid support, the Title IV-D Agency shall refund the excess to the obligor at the last known address provided to the Child Support Case Registry.
- O. If an obligee cannot be located before a case is closed, the Title IV-D Agency shall send any undisbursed amounts owed to the obligee back to the obligor.

R6-7-702. Disbursement in Never Assistance Cases through December 31, 2002

Except as provided in R6-7-710 and R6-7-711 for federal income tax refund offsets, the Title IV-D Agency shall disburse support and related payments collected for an Arizona never assistance case to a recipient of services under Title IV-D or Title XIX of the Social Security Act as follows:

1. First, to current support;
2. Second, to the handling fee for the month in which the Title IV-D Agency receives the support;
3. Third, to never assigned arrearages;

R6-7-705. Disbursement in Current Assistance Cases on and after January 1, 2003

A. For all recipients who applied for current assistance prior to October 1, 2009 and therefore assigned their rights to support to the state, the Title IV-D Agency shall disburse support and related payments, except as provided in R6-7-710 and R6-7-711 for federal income tax refund offsets, collected for an Arizona Title IV-D current assistance case as follows:

1. First, to current support assigned to the state of Arizona, not to exceed the total amount of unreimbursed cash assistance;
2. Second, to temporarily assigned arrearages;
3. Third, to permanently assigned arrearages;
4. Fourth, to unassigned arrearages;
5. Fifth, to the handling fee for the month in which the Title IV-D Agency receives the support and other unpaid handling fees;
6. Sixth, to fees and costs;
7. Seventh, to futures.

B. For all recipients who applied for current assistance on and after October 1, 2009, the Title IV-D Agency shall disburse support and related payments, except as provided in R6-7-710 and R6-7-711 for federal income tax refund offsets, collected for an Arizona Title IV-D current assistance case as follows:

1. First, to current support assigned to the state of Arizona, not to exceed the total amount of unreimbursed cash assistance;
2. Second, to temporarily assigned arrearages which were assigned prior to October 1, 2009;

3. Third, to permanently assigned arrearages;
4. Fourth, to never assigned arrearages;
5. Fifth, to conditionally assigned arrearages based on assignments entered prior to October 1, 2009;
6. Sixth, to unassigned pre-assistance arrearages;
7. Seventh, to unassigned during-assistance arrearages;
8. Eighth, to the handling fee for the month in which the Title IV-D Agency receives the support and other unpaid handling fees;
9. Ninth, to fees and costs;

R6-7-706. Disbursement in Current Assistance Cases with a Child Exempt from Assignment

- A. The Title IV-D Agency shall disburse the prorated share of support received for a Child Not on Grant to the obligee after the end of the month in which it is received.
- B. If the Title IV-D Agency determines that a child is a Child Not on Grant, the unpaid share of support accrues as never assigned arrearages.
- C. If a Child Not on Grant is no longer subject to A.R.S. § 46-407(B), and instead is subject to the remaining provisions of A.R.S. §§ 46-407 and 46-408, all previously unpaid arrearages are assigned to the state.
- D. While an assistance unit is receiving cash assistance, the Title IV-D Agency shall disburse the prorated share of support received for a child subject to the provisions of A.R.S. § 46-292(G) to the obligee after the end of the month of current assistance.
- E. If the Title IV-D Agency determines that a child in an assistance unit is subject to the provisions of A.R.S. § 46-292(G), the unpaid prorated share of support accrues as never assigned arrearages.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R.

5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-707. Disbursement Under Federal Law from October 1, 1997 through September 30, 2000 for Former Assistance Cases

Except as provided in R6-7-710 and R6-7-711 for federal income tax refund offsets, the Title IV-D Agency shall disburse support and related payments for a former cash assistance case as follows:

1. First, to current support;
2. Second, to the handling fee for the month in which the Title IV-D Agency receives the support;
3. Third, to never assigned arrearages;
4. Fourth, to temporarily assigned arrearages;
5. Fifth, to the permanently assigned arrearages;
6. Sixth, to unassigned arrearages;
7. Seventh, to unpaid handling fees;
8. Eighth, to fees and costs;
9. Ninth, to futures as provided in R6-7-606.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R.

5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-708. Disbursement Under Federal Law from October 1, 2000 through December 31, 2002 for Former Assistance Cases

Except as provided in R6-7-710 and R6-7-711 for federal income tax refund offsets, the Title IV-D Agency shall disburse support and related payments for a former cash assistance case as follows:

1. First, to current support;
2. Second, to the handling fee for the month in which the Title IV-D Agency receives the support;
3. Third, to never assigned arrearages;
4. Fourth, to unassigned pre-assistance arrearages;
5. Fifth, to conditionally assigned arrearages;
6. Sixth, to permanently assigned arrearages;
7. Seventh, to unassigned during-assistance arrearages;
8. Eighth, to fees and costs;
9. Ninth, to futures.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-709. Disbursement Under Federal Law on and after January 1, 2003 for Former Assistance Cases

Except as provided in R6-7-710 and R6-7-711 for federal income tax refund offsets, the Title IV-D Agency shall disburse support and related payments collected for a former assistance case, as follows:

1. First, to current support;
2. Second, to never assigned arrearages;
3. Third, to unassigned pre-assistance arrearages;
4. Fourth, to conditionally assigned arrearages;
5. Fifth, to permanently assigned arrearages;
6. Sixth, to unassigned during-assistance arrearages;
7. Seventh, to the handling fee for the month in which the Title IV-D Agency receives the support and other unpaid handling fees;
8. Eighth, to fees and costs;
9. Ninth, to futures.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-710. Disbursement of Federal Income Tax Refund Offsets Under Federal Law from October 1, 1997 through September 30, 2000

The Title IV-D Agency shall disburse support collected through federal income tax refund offset in accordance with 26 U.S.C. 6402 and 42 U.S.C. 664, as follows:

1. First, to temporarily assigned arrearages;
2. Second, to permanently assigned arrearages; and
3. Third, to never assigned and unassigned arrearages.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-711. Disbursement of Federal Income Tax Refund Offsets Under Federal Law on and after October 1, 2000

A. The Title IV-D Agency shall disburse arrearages collected through federal income tax refund offset in accordance with 26 U.S.C. 6402 and 42 U.S.C. 664, as follows:

1. First, to temporarily or conditionally assigned arrearages owed to the state of Arizona;
2. Second, to permanently assigned arrearages; and
3. Third, to never assigned and unassigned arrearages.

B. The Title IV-D Agency shall retain conditionally assigned arrearages collected through the federal income tax refund offset to reimburse the state and federal governments for unreimbursed cash assistance paid to the assistance unit. The Title IV-

D Agency shall pay conditionally assigned arrearages, collected from any source other than a federal income tax refund offset, to the obligee.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-712. Caretaker Disbursement

If an obligee with a child support case becomes the caretaker of a child who is not the obligee's child, the Title IV-D Agency shall disburse support and related payments owed to the obligee in accordance with R6-7-703, R6-7-704, R6-7-707, and R6-7-708, as applicable. The support and related payments for the assistance unit shall be disbursed in accordance with R6-7-705.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-713. Past Support Judgments

If a court or an administrative entity orders past support that covers a period in which the obligee was on cash assistance, the amount for that period is assigned to the state and the Title IV-D Agency shall distribute collections in accordance with A.R.S. § 46-408 and disburse support in accordance with this Article. If a child covered by the order was receiving Title IV-E foster care maintenance payments for any of the period covered by the judgment, the amount for that period is assigned to the state and collections shall be distributed in accordance with R6-7-608. A past support judgment ordered on and after September 26, 2008 does not accrue interest.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).
Amended by final rulemaking at 15 A.A.R. 1250, effective September 5, 2009 (Supp. 09-3). Historical note year corrected from 2010 to 2009 for amendment in Supp. 09-3 (Supp. 14-3).

R6-7-714. Interest on Arrearages

- A. The Title IV-D Agency shall retain interest paid on arrearages assigned to the state of Arizona that do not exceed the total amount of unreimbursed cash assistance.
- B. From October 1, 1997 through September 31, 2000, the Title IV-D Agency shall allocate the amount of interest on permanently assigned, temporarily assigned, never assigned, and unassigned arrearages based on a proportionate share of the total amount of arrearages owed. The Title IV-D Agency shall determine the percentage allocated to each arrearage type by dividing each arrearage type by the total arrearages and multiplying the resulting percentages by the total amount of interest accrued.
- C. On and after October 1, 2000, the Title IV-D Agency shall allocate the amount of interest on permanently assigned, temporarily assigned, conditionally assigned, never assigned, and unassigned arrearages based on a proportionate share of the total amount of arrearages owed. The Title IV-D Agency shall determine the percentage allocated to each arrearage type by dividing each arrearage type by the total arrearages and multiplying the resulting percentages by the total amount of interest accrued.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-715. Unassigned Arrearages

- A. If a family stops receiving cash assistance, the Title IV-D Agency shall compare unreimbursed cash assistance and assigned arrearages as of the last day of the month when the family leaves assistance. If the total amount of assigned arrearages and accrued interest exceeds unreimbursed cash assistance, the Title IV-D Agency shall unassign the excess amount. These amounts are unassigned arrearages. The Title IV-D Agency shall unassign arrearages as follows:

1. First, from the interest owed on temporarily assigned arrearages;
  2. Second, from the corresponding principal of the temporarily assigned arrearages;
  3. Third, from the interest owed on permanently assigned arrearages; and
  4. Fourth, from the corresponding principal on the permanently assigned arrearages.
- B. On and after October 1, 2000, if the Title IV-D Agency unassigns arrearages from temporarily assigned amounts, these amounts are unassigned pre-assistance arrearages. The Title IV-D Agency shall first unassign the interest on arrearages and second unassign the corresponding principal on arrearages.
- C. On and after October 1, 2000, if the Title IV-D Agency unassigns arrearages from permanently assigned amounts, these amounts are unassigned during-assistance arrearages. The Title IV-D Agency shall first unassign the interest on arrearages and second unassign the corresponding principal on arrearages.
- D. For arrearages assigned before the enactment of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, the federal government did not require states to track periods of assignment. If the Title IV-D Agency cannot determine whether the unassigned arrearages were from a pre-assistance period or a during-assistance period, the Title IV-D Agency shall treat those unassigned arrearages as unassigned pre-assistance arrearages.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

R6-7-716. Interstate Collections in UIFSA Cases

If Arizona is the responding state, the Title IV-D Agency shall send payments received to the initiating or issuing state pursuant to A.R.S. § 25-1259.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5201, effective November 15, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).

ARTICLE 8. ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW

Article 8, consisting of R6-7-801, made by final rulemaking at 10 A.A.C. 1973, effective April 23, 2004 (Supp. 04-2).

R6-7-801. Obligor Request for Administrative Review of Distribution or Disbursement of Support or Related Payments

- A. An obligor requesting an administrative review under A.R.S. § 46-408 shall submit a written request with the information listed in subsections (A)(1) and (2) to the address specified in the notice of collections:
1. The residential and mailing address of the obligor, and
  2. The reasons why the obligor disputes the distribution or disbursement.
- B. An obligor shall include with the request for administrative review any information available to support the request. This may include such documents as:
1. Any support orders issued,
  2. Any notices sent by the Title IV-D Agency,
  3. Any proof of payments made,
  4. A copy of the obligor's notice of collections sent by the Title IV-D agency, and
  5. Any other information the obligor believes to be relevant.
- C. An obligor may submit a written request by first-class mail, facsimile, or in person.
- D. The Title IV-D Agency shall send a written request for additional information within 10 business days after receipt of the request for administrative review to the obligor if the agency requires the information to make its determination. The obligor shall provide the information requested within 30 business days of the date of the request.
- E. An obligor may appeal a determination of the Title IV-D Agency regarding the distribution or disbursement of support or related payments under A.R.S. § 25-522. To make an appeal, an obligor shall file a written request with the Department's Office of Appeals under A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 14, Article 3 within 30 business days from the date of the written determination. An appeal from the Office of Appeals' written determination may be made to the Appeals Board under A.R.S. § 41-1992. An appeal from the Appeals Board may be made to the Court of Appeals under A.R.S. § 41-1993.

R8-4-102. General Provisions

- A. The Commission shall make all forms referenced in this Chapter available on its internet site.
- B. The owner or operator of a facility that is required to submit information under this Article may submit the information electronically to the Commission and LEPC and to the FD if, as indicated on the Commission's web site, the FD has entered into an agreement with the Commission regarding electronic submission.
- C. When the chair of an LEPC forwards to the Commission an item requiring action by the Commission before its next meeting, the Executive Director of the Commission shall respond to the LEPC on behalf of the Commission until the Commission takes action at its next meeting.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 14 A.A.R. 2931, effective August 30, 2008 (Supp. 08-3).

R8-4-103. Responsibilities of an LEPC

- A. Members of an LEPC shall fulfill the responsibilities listed at 42 U.S.C. 11001(c), October 17, 1986, which is incorporated by reference, contains no future editions or amendments, and is available from the Commission and the U.S. Government Printing Office, P.O. Box 371954, Pittsburgh, PA 15250.
- B. In addition to the responsibilities under subsection (A), members of an LEPC shall:
1. Establish procedures for access to the Local Emergency Response Plan;
  2. Evaluate the resources needed to develop and implement the Local Emergency Response Plan and make recommendations to the County Board of Supervisors and the Commission regarding mechanisms to provide the resources needed;
  3. Ensure that newly appointed LEPC members participate in training provided by the Commission regarding the responsibilities of LEPC members; and
  4. Ensure that LEPC members are aware of and have the opportunity to attend Commission-sponsored meetings regarding matters related to emergency planning and preparedness.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 14 A.A.R. 2931, effective August 30, 2008 (Supp. 08-3).

R8-4-104. Emergency Planning and Preparedness

- A. If a facility is required to comply with 40 CFR 355.30, the owner or operator of the facility shall also comply with the emergency planning and preparedness requirements in this Section.
- B. If a facility is designated by the Commission under A.R.S. § 26-347(B), the owner or operator of the facility shall comply with the emergency planning and preparedness requirements in this Section and the reporting requirements of R8-4-107.
- C. No later than 60 days after a facility first becomes subject to the emergency planning and preparedness requirements of this Section, the owner or operator of the facility shall submit a facility emergency response plan according to A.R.S. § 26-347(D). The owner or operator of the facility may submit the facility emergency response plan by completing and submitting an Emergency Response Plan Questionnaire, which is available from the Commission.
- D. The owner or operator of a facility that submits an Emergency Response Plan Questionnaire under subsection (C) may also submit a Hazard Analysis Worksheet for each extremely hazardous substance at the facility that equals or exceeds the TPQ.
- E. On or before March 1 of each year, the owner or operator of a facility described in subsection (A) or (B) shall:
1. Review and determine whether the facility emergency response plan submitted under subsection (C) is still accurate and, if changes are needed to ensure that the facility emergency response plan is accurate, submit information regarding the relevant changes. If information regarding relevant changes to the facility emergency response plan is submitted, the owner or operator of the facility may revise and submit the Hazard Analysis Worksheet previously submitted under subsection (D); and
  2. Comply with R8-4-107(C).

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 14 A.A.R. 2931, effective August 30, 2008 (Supp. 08-3).

R8-4-105. Local Emergency Response Plan

- A. Within 12 months after the Commission designates a new emergency planning district and appoints members of an LEPC for the newly designated emergency planning district, the LEPC shall prepare an emergency response plan that complies with the requirements at A.R.S. § 26-345(E) and complies with NIMS.
- B. On or before December 31 of each year and when there are changed circumstances in the community or at a facility, an LEPC shall review and update the emergency response plan for its emergency planning district.
- C. An LEPC shall submit a copy of the emergency response plan prepared under subsection (A) or (B) to the Commission.
- D. Within 60 days after the Commission receives a copy of an emergency response plan under subsection (C), the Commission staff shall:
  - 1. Review the emergency response plan and make recommendations for revisions necessary to ensure that the emergency response plan complies with law and coordinates with the emergency response plans of adjoining emergency planning districts; and
  - 2. Return the emergency response plan and recommendations to the LEPC.
- E. An LEPC shall ensure that the emergency response plan prepared under subsection (B) and reviewed and amended under subsection (D) is incorporated into the county's emergency operations plan in accordance with county procedures.
- F. At least biennially and after providing at least 30 days notice to the Commission, an LEPC shall conduct an exercise of its emergency response plan.
- G. On or before December 31 of each year, an LEPC shall survey its emergency planning district to determine how many copies of the U.S. Department of Transportation Emergency Response Guidebook are needed and forward the information regarding the number of copies needed to the Commission.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 14 A.A.R. 2931, effective August 30, 2008 (Supp. 08-3).

R8-4-106. Reportable Release Notification

The owner or operator of a facility at which a reportable release occurs shall:

- 1. Comply with the notification requirements of A.R.S. § 26-348(A);
- 2. Submit the written follow-up emergency notice required under A.R.S. § 26-348(B); and
- 3. Update the notice provided under subsection (2) as required under A.R.S. § 26-348(C).

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 14 A.A.R. 2931, effective August 30, 2008 (Supp. 08-3).

R8-4-107. Extremely Hazardous Substance (EHS) or Hazardous Chemical Reporting

- A. The owner or operator of a facility shall comply with the extremely hazardous substance and hazardous chemical reporting requirements of 40 CFR 370, Subpart B, July 1, 2007, which is incorporated by this reference, contains no later amendments or editions, and is available from the Commission and the U.S. Government Printing Office, P.O. Box 371954, Pittsburgh, PA 15250.

- B. As required by A.R.S. § 26-350, an owner or operator described in subsection (A) shall submit a Tier Two Emergency and Hazardous Chemical Inventory Form, using a form available from the Commission, by March 1 of each year. All facilities subject to this reporting requirement shall be subject to the Tier II Emergency and Hazardous Chemical Inventory Reporting fee schedule:

- 1. Each owner or operator of a facility required to file a hazardous chemical inventory report(s) (Tier II Reports) under the provisions of 42 U.S.C. § 11022 will be assessed a report filing fee of seventy-five dollars ($75.00) for the first required facility report and an additional fee of twenty dollars ($20.00) for each additional required facility report up to a maximum limit of five hundred dollars ($500) per annual reporting period.
- 2. Owners or operators of facilities meeting the following conditions are exempt from the reporting fee(s):
  - a. Any business or other outlet that primarily reports or sells gasoline, diesel and other motor fuel only at retail to the public.
  - b. Any business or other outlet that only files a Tier II report to claim lead acid batteries.
  - c. Any business or other outlet that only files a Tier II report to claim diesel or gasoline.
  - d. Any business or other outlet that resides on tribal lands or a tribal Nation and must report to a Tribal Emergency Response Commission (TERC) or Chemical-Tribal Emergency Response Commission (C-TERC).

- C. If a facility ceases to meet the minimum reporting thresholds of 40 CFR 370, Subpart B, for EHS and hazardous chemical reporting with regard to a specific EHS or hazardous chemical, the owner or operator of the facility may submit a notice to the Commission, LEPC, and FD indicating that the specific EHS or hazardous chemical is no longer present in a quantity that meets the minimum reporting threshold.

New Section made by final rulemaking at 14 A.A.R. 2931, effective August 30, 2008 (Supp. 08-3). Amended by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 2524, effective October 17, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R8-4-108. Compliance Procedures

- A. The Commission shall make information regarding the EPCRA available to the owner or operator of a facility.
- B. The owner or operator of a facility may obtain guidance, but not legal advice, regarding complying with the EPCRA by contacting the Commission.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 14 A.A.R. 2931, effective August 30, 2008 (Supp. 08-3).

R8-4-109. Community Right-to-know Procedures

- A. To obtain information regarding a specific hazardous chemical or extremely hazardous substance at a specific facility, local emergency response plan, or notice regarding a reportable release, a person shall submit a written request to the Commission or LEPC. If a request is submitted to an LEPC, the LEPC may forward a copy of the request to the Commission so Commission staff can coordinate a response to the request. To obtain a copy of a Form R relating to toxic chemical releases, a person shall submit a written request to the Commission.
- B. As required by 42 U.S.C. 11022, the Commission or LEPC shall respond to a written request for information. The response shall advise the person making the request of one of the following:

Arizona Emergency Response Commission

1. The time and location at which the person may inspect and copy the requested information,
  2. That additional information is needed to process the request,
  3. That the requested information is not available but the Commission or LEPC will ask the owner or operator of the facility to provide the information, or
  4. That the request is denied because:
    - a. The requested information does not exist,
    - b. The owner or operator of the facility is not required to provide the information,
    - c. The Commission or LEPC determined that disclosing the information will impair its ability to protect public health or safety and the public interest in non-disclosure outweighs the public interest in disclosure, or
    - d. The information is exempt by law from disclosure.
- C. Before releasing information, the Commission or LEPC shall advise the owner or operator of a facility of the request for information regarding the facility.
- D. Under A.R.S. § 39-121, the Commission or LEPC shall charge the person making a request under this Section the cost of reproducing the information requested. The Commission shall deposit the funds received under this subsection in accordance with A.R.S. § 26-343(G).
- Historical Note
New Section made by final rulemaking at 14 A.A.R. 2931, effective August 30, 2008 (Supp. 08-3).
- R8-4-110. Grants
- A. On or before September 1 of each year, the Commission shall provide notice that is consistent with A.R.S. § 41-2702 to all LEPCs regarding grants that are available from the Commission.
- B. To receive funds that are awarded on a non-competitive basis, an LEPC shall submit a "Certification and Request for Funding" form in which the LEPC certifies that it:
1. Is in compliance with all applicable law, including NIMS;
  2. Will use the funds in the manner intended;
  3. Will keep separate funds from the Emergency Response Fund and funds from other sources; and
  4. Will submit all required reports.
- C. To receive grant funds that are awarded on a competitive basis, an LEPC shall submit to the Commission a proposal that specifies:
1. The goal that the LEPC intends to accomplish with any grant funds received,
  2. Where the grant funds will be spent,
  3. The amount of grant funds needed to accomplish the goal,
  4. The time needed to accomplish the goal, and
  5. Other information that the Commission requests to assist the Commission to evaluate the grant proposal.
- D. On behalf of the Commission, Commission staff shall meet at least annually with members of the LEPCs to establish the criteria used to evaluate a grant proposal. Commission staff, on behalf of the Commission, shall evaluate each proposal that is timely received using the criteria established. The Commission shall ensure that the criteria used include consideration of both the qualification of and need for an LEPC to receive a grant.
1. The criteria regarding qualification of an LEPC to receive a grant may include:
    - a. The extent to which the LEPC fulfilled the responsibilities listed in R8-4-103;
    - b. Whether the LEPC complied with all provisions of R4-8-104;
    - c. Whether the LEPC submitted all reports required for grant funds previously received;
    - d. Whether previously received grant funds were used in a manner that achieved the goal established;
    - e. Attendance by LEPC members at Commission-sponsored meetings; and
    - f. The number of training sessions provided by LEPC members to emergency responders in the emergency planning district; and
  2. The criteria regarding need for an LEPC to receive a grant may include:
    - a. The number of facilities required to report to the LEPC under this Chapter;
    - b. The population represented by the LEPC; and
    - c. The number of reportable releases during the past year in the area represented by the LEPC.
- E. Within 60 days after the grant-proposal deadline specified in the notice of grant availability, the Commission shall provide written notice to each LEPC that applies for grant funds regarding whether grant funds will be awarded and if so, the amount awarded.
- F. An LEPC that receives grant funds shall submit progress reports to the Commission on dates prescribed by the Commission. The LEPC shall include in each progress report a summary of the work done to accomplish the goal stated in the grant proposal and a detailed accounting of the expended and remaining grant funds.

TITLE 9. HEALTH SERVICES
CHAPTER 10. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH SERVICES
HEALTH CARE INSTITUTIONS: LICENSING

Editor's Note: The heading for 9 A.A.C. 10 changed from "Licensure" to "Licensing" per a request from the Department of Health Services (Supp. 03-4).

Editor's Note: The Office of the Secretary of State publishes all Chapters on white paper (Supp. 01-2).

Editor's Note: This Chapter contains rules which were adopted, amended, and repealed under exemptions from the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 6) pursuant to Laws 1993, Ch. 163, § 3(B); Laws 1996, Ch. 329, § 5; Laws 1998, Ch. 178 § 17, and Laws 1999, Ch. 311. Exemption from A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 6 means that the Department of Health Services did not submit these rules to the Governor's Regulatory Review Council for review; the Department may not have submitted notice of proposed rulemaking to the Secretary of State for publication in the Arizona Administrative Register; the Department was not required to hold public hearings on these rules; and the Attorney General did not certify these rules. Because this Chapter contains rules which are exempt from the regular rulemaking process, the Chapter is printed on blue paper.

    - e. For a facility with a licensed capacity of 150 beds or more, $1,825, plus the licensed capacity times $91;
  6. For a hospital providing behavioral health observation/stabilization services, in addition to the applicable fee in subsection (C)(5), the licensed occupancy times $91; and
  7. For an outpatient treatment center that is not a behavioral health facility and provides:
    - a. Dialysis services, in addition to the applicable fee in subsection (C)(5), the number of dialysis stations times $91; and
    - b. Behavioral health observation/stabilization services, in addition to the applicable fee in subsection (C)(5), the licensed occupancy times $91.
- D. In addition to the applicable fees in subsections (C)(5) and (C)(6), an applicant submitting an initial application or a renewal application for a single group hospital license shall submit to the Department an additional fee of $365 for each of the hospital's satellite facilities and, if applicable, the fees required in subsection (C)(7).
- E. Subsections (C) and (D) do not apply to a health care institution operated by a state agency according to state or federal law or to an adult foster care home.
- F. All fees are nonrefundable except as provided in A.R.S. § 41-1077.

Historical Note

New Section R9-10-106 renumbered from R9-10-122 and amended by exempt rulemaking at 19 A.A.R. 2015, effective October 1, 2013 (Supp. 13-2). Amended by exempt rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 1409, pursuant to Laws 2013, Ch. 10, § 13; effective July 1, 2014 (Supp. 14-2).

R9-10-107. Renewal License Application

- A. A licensee applying to renew a health care institution license shall submit an application packet to the Department at least 60 calendar days but not more than 120 calendar days before the expiration date of the current license that contains:
1. A renewal application in a format provided by the Department including:
    - a. The health care institution's:
      - i. Name, license number, mailing address, telephone number, and e-mail address; and
      - ii. Class or subclass;
    - b. Whether the applicant agrees to allow the Department to submit supplemental requests for information under R9-10-108;
    - c. Owner information including:
      - i. The owner's name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address;
      - ii. Whether the owner is a sole proprietorship, a corporation, a partnership, a limited liability partnership, a limited liability company, or a governmental agency;
      - iii. If the owner is a partnership or a limited liability partnership, the name of each partner;
      - iv. If the owner is a limited liability company, the name of the designated manager or, if no manager is designated, the names of any two members of the limited liability company;
      - v. If the owner is a corporation, the name and title of each corporate officer;
      - vi. If the owner is a governmental agency, the name and title of the individual in charge of the governmental agency or the individual designated in writing by the individual in charge of the governmental agency;
      - vii. Whether the owner or any person with 10% or more business interest in the health care institution has had a license to operate a health care institution denied, revoked, or suspended since the previous license application was submitted; the reason for the denial, suspension, or revocation;

- tion; the date of the denial, suspension, or revocation; and the name and address of the licensing agency that denied, suspended, or revoked the license;
- viii. Whether the owner or any person with 10% or more business interest in the health care institution has had a health care professional license or certificate denied, revoked, or suspended since the previous license application was submitted; the reason for the denial, suspension, or revocation; the date of the denial, suspension, or revocation; and the name and address of the licensing agency that denied, suspended, or revoked the license or certificate; and
  - ix. The name, title, address, and telephone number of the owner's statutory agent or the individual designated by the owner to accept service of process and subpoenas;
  - d. The name and address of the governing authority;
  - e. The chief administrative officer's:
    - i. Name,
    - ii. Title,
    - iii. Highest educational degree, and
    - iv. Work experience related to the health care institution class or subclass for which licensing is requested; and
  - f. Signature required in A.R.S. § 36-422(B);
2. The health care institution's scope of services;
  3. If the health care institution is located in a leased facility, a copy of the lease showing the rights and responsibilities of the parties and exclusive rights of possession of the leased facility; and
  4. The applicable application and licensing fees required by R9-10-106.
- B. A licensee may submit a health care institution's current accreditation report from a nationally recognized accrediting organization as part of the application packet in subsection (A).
- C. If a licensee submits a health care institution's current accreditation report from a nationally recognized accrediting organization, the Department shall not conduct an onsite compliance inspection of the health care institution during the time the accreditation report is valid.
- D. The Department shall approve or deny a renewal license according to R9-10-108.
- E. The Department shall issue a renewal license for:
1. One year; or
  2. Three years, if:
    - a. A licensee's health care institution is a hospital accredited by a nationally recognized accreditation organization, and
    - b. The licensee submits a copy of the hospital's current accreditation report.
- Historical Note
- New Section made by final rulemaking at 8 A.A.R. 3559, effective August 1, 2002 (Supp. 02-3). Amended by exempt rulemaking at 19 A.A.R. 2015, effective October 1, 2013 (Supp. 13-2). Amended by exempt rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 1409, pursuant to Laws 2013, Ch. 10, § 13; effective July 1, 2014 (Supp. 14-2).
- R9-10-108. Time-frames
- A. The overall time-frame for each type of approval granted by the Department is listed in Table 1.1. The applicant and the Department may agree in writing to extend the substantive review time-frame and the overall time-frame. The substantive review time-frame and the overall time-frame may not be extended by more than 25% of the overall time-frame.
- B. The administrative completeness review time-frame for each type of approval granted by the Department as prescribed in this Article is listed in Table 1.1. The administrative completeness review time-frame begins on the date the Department receives an application packet or a written request for a change in a health care institution license according to R9-10-109(F):
1. The application packet for an initial health care institution license is not complete until the applicant provides the Department with written notice that the health care institution is ready for a licensing inspection by the Department.
  2. If the application packet or written request is incomplete, the Department shall provide a written notice to the applicant specifying the missing document or incomplete information. The administrative completeness review time-frame and the overall time-frame are suspended from the date of the notice until the date the Department receives the missing document or information from the applicant.
  3. When an application packet or written request is complete, the Department shall provide a written notice of administrative completeness to the applicant.
  4. For an initial health care institution application, the Department shall consider the application withdrawn if the applicant fails to supply the missing documents or information included in the notice described in subsection (B)(2) within 180 calendar days after the date of the notice described in subsection (B)(2).
  5. If the Department issues a license or grants an approval during the time provided to assess administrative completeness, the Department shall not issue a separate written notice of administrative completeness.
- C. The substantive review time-frame is listed in Table 1.1 and begins on the date of the notice of administrative completeness.
1. The Department may conduct an onsite inspection of the facility:
    - a. As part of the substantive review for approval of architectural plans and specifications;
    - b. As part of the substantive review for issuing a health care institution initial or renewal license; or
    - c. As part of the substantive review for approving a modification in a health care institution's license.
  2. During the substantive review time-frame, the Department may make one comprehensive written request for additional information or documentation. If the Department and the applicant agree in writing, the Department may make supplemental requests for additional information or documentation. The time-frame for the Department to complete the substantive review is suspended from the date of a written request for additional information or documentation until the Department receives the additional information or documentation.
  3. The Department shall send a written notice of approval or a license to an applicant who is in substantial compliance with applicable requirements in A.R.S. Title 36, Chapter 4 and this Chapter.
  4. After an applicant for an initial health care institution license receives the written notice of approval in subsection (C)(3), the applicant shall submit the applicable license fee in R9-10-106 to the Department within 60 calendar days after the date of the written notice of approval.

Department of Health Services – Health Care Institutions: Licensing

5. The Department shall provide a written notice of denial that complies with A.R.S. § 41-1076 to an applicant who does not:
  - a. For an initial health care institution application, submit the information or documentation in subsection (C)(2) within 120 calendar days after the Department's written request to the applicant;
  - b. Comply with the applicable requirements in A.R.S. Title 36, Chapter 4 and this Chapter; or
  - c. Submit the fee required in R9-10-106.
6. An applicant may file a written notice of appeal with the Department within 30 calendar days after receiving the notice described in subsection (C)(5). The appeal shall be conducted according to A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 6, Article 10.
7. If a time-frame's last day falls on a Saturday, a Sunday, or an official state holiday, the Department shall consider the next working day to be the time-frame's last day.

R9-10-109. Changes Affecting a License

- A. A licensee shall ensure that the Department is notified in writing at least 30 calendar days before the effective date of:
  1. A change in the name of:
    - a. A health care institution, or
    - b. The licensee; or
  2. A change in the address of a health care institution that does not provide medical services, nursing services, or health-related services on the premises.
- B. If a licensee intends to terminate the operation of a health care institution either during or at the expiration of the health care institution's license, the licensee shall ensure that the Department is notified in writing of:
  1. The termination of the health care institution's operations, as required in A.R.S. § 36-422(D), at least 30 calendar days before the termination, and
  2. The address and contact information for the location where the health care institution's medical records will be retained as required in A.R.S. § 12-2297.
- C. If a licensee is an adult behavioral health therapeutic home or a behavioral health respite home, the licensee shall ensure that:
  1. The Department is notified in writing if the licensee does not have a written agreement with a collaborating health care institution, as required in R9-10-1603(A)(4) or R9-10-1803(A)(5) as applicable; and
2. The adult behavioral health therapeutic home or behavioral health respite home does not accept an individual as a resident or recipient, as applicable, or provide services to a resident or recipient, as applicable, until:
  - a. The adult behavioral health therapeutic home or behavioral health respite home has a written agreement with a collaborating health care institution;
  - b. The collaborating health care institution has approved the adult behavioral health therapeutic home's or behavioral health respite home's:
    - i. Scope of services, and
    - ii. Policies and procedures; and
  - c. The collaborating health care institution has verified the provider's skills and knowledge.
- D. A governing authority shall submit an initial license application required in R9-10-105 for:
  1. A change in ownership of a health care institution;
  2. A change in the address or location of a health care institution that provides medical services, nursing services, health-related services, or behavioral health services on the premises; or

3. A change in a health care institution's class or subclass.
- E. A governing authority is not required to submit documentation of a health care institution's architectural plans and specifications required in R9-10-105(A)(5) for an initial license application if:
  1. The health care institution has not ceased operations for more than 30 calendar days,
  2. A modification has not been made to the health care institution,
  3. The services the health care institution is authorized by the Department to provide are not changed, and
  4. The location of the health care institution's premises is not changed.
- F. The Department shall approve or deny a request for a change in services or another modification described in this Section according to R9-10-108.
- G. A licensee shall not implement a change in services or another modification described in this Section until an approval or amended license is issued by the Department.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 8 A.A.R. 3559, effective August 1, 2002 (Supp. 02-3). Amended by exempt rulemaking at 19 A.A.R. 2015, effective October 1, 2013 (Supp. 13-2). Amended by exempt rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 1409, pursuant to Laws 2013, Ch. 10, § 13; effective July 1, 2014 (Supp. 14-2).

R9-10-110. Modification of a Health Care Institution

- A. A licensee of a health care institution that is required by this Chapter to comply with any of the physical plant codes and standards incorporated by reference in A.A.C. R9-1-412 shall submit an application for approval of architectural plans and specifications for a modification of the health care institution.
- B. A licensee of a health care institution shall submit a written request for a modification of the health care in a Department-provided format that contains:
  1. The health care institution's name, address, and license number;
  2. A narrative description of the modification;
  3. The name of the health care institution's administrator's or individual representing the health care institution as designated in A.R.S. § 36-422 and the dated signature of the administrator or individual; and
  4. One of the following:
    - a. For a health care institution that is required to comply with the physical plant codes and standards incorporated by reference in A.A.C. R9-10-412 for the building, documentation of the health care institution's architectural plans and specifications approval in R9-10-104; or
    - b. For a health care institution that is not required to comply with the physical plant codes and standards, documentation that demonstrates that the requested modification complies with applicable requirements in this Chapter.
- C. The Department shall approve or deny a request for a modification described in subsection (B) according to R9-10-108.
- D. A licensee shall not implement a modification described in subsection (B) until an approval or amended license is issued by the Department.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 8 A.A.R. 3559, effective August 1, 2002 (Supp. 02-3). Amended by exempt rulemaking at 19 A.A.R. 2015, effective October 1, 2013 (Supp. 13-2). Section R9-10-110 renumbered to Section R9-10-111; new Section R9-10-110 made by exempt rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 1409, pursuant to Laws 2013, Ch. 10, § 13; effective July 1, 2014 (Supp. 14-2).

R9-10-111. Enforcement Actions

- A. If the Department determines that an applicant or licensee is violating applicable statutes and rules and the violation poses a direct risk to the life, health, or safety of a patient, the Department may:
  1. Issue a provisional license to the applicant or licensee under A.R.S. § 36-425,
  2. Assess a civil penalty under A.R.S. § 36-431.01,
  3. Impose an intermediate sanction under A.R.S. § 36-427,
  4. Remove a licensee and appoint another person to continue operation of the health care institution pending further action under A.R.S. § 36-429,
  5. Suspend or revoke a license under A.R.S. § 36-427 and R9-10-111,
  6. Deny a license under A.R.S. § 36-425 and R9-10-111, or
  7. Issue an injunction under A.R.S. § 36-430.
- B. In determining which action in subsection (A) is appropriate, the Department shall consider the direct risk to the life, health, or safety of a patient in the health care institution based on:
  1. Repeated violations of statutes or rules,
  2. Pattern of violations,
  3. Types of violation,
  4. Severity of violation, and
  5. Number of violations.

R9-10-113. Tuberculosis Screening

A health care institution's chief administrative officer shall ensure that the health care institution complies with the following if tuberculosis screening is required at the health care institution:

1. For each individual required to be screened for infectious tuberculosis, the health care institution obtains from the individual:
  - a. On or before the date specified in the applicable Section of this Chapter, one of the following as evidence of freedom from infectious tuberculosis:
    - i. Documentation of a negative Mantoux skin test or other tuberculosis screening test recommended by the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) administered within 12 months before the date the individual begins providing services at or on behalf of the health care institution or is admitted to the health care institution that includes the date and the type of tuberculosis screening test; or
    - ii. If the individual had a positive Mantoux skin test or other tuberculosis screening test, a written statement that the individual is free from infectious tuberculosis signed by a medical practitioner dated within 12 months before the date the individual begins providing services at or on behalf of the health care institution or is admitted to the health care institution; and
  - b. Every 12 months after the date of the individual's most recent tuberculosis screening test or written statement, one of the following as evidence of freedom from infectious tuberculosis:
    - i. Documentation of a negative Mantoux skin test or other tuberculosis screening test recommended by the CDC administered to the individual within 30 calendar days before or after the anniversary date of the most recent tuberculosis screening test or written statement that includes the date and the type of tuberculosis screening test; or
    - ii. If the individual has had a positive Mantoux skin test or other tuberculosis screening test, a written statement that the individual is free from infectious tuberculosis signed by a medical practitioner dated within 30 calendar days before or after the anniversary date of the most recent tuberculosis screening test or written statement; or
2. Establish, document, and implement a tuberculosis infection control program that complies with the Guidelines for Preventing the Transmission of Mycobacterium tuberculosis in Health-care Settings, 2005, published by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Atlanta, GA 30333 and available at <http://www.cdc.gov/mmwr/PDF/RR/rr5417.pdf>, incorporated by reference, on file with the Department, and including no future editions or amendments and includes:

- a. Conducting tuberculosis risk assessments, conducting tuberculosis screening testing, screening for signs or symptoms of tuberculosis, and providing training and education related to recognizing the signs and symptoms of tuberculosis; and
- b. Maintaining documentation of any:
  - i. Tuberculosis risk assessment;
  - ii. Tuberculosis screening test of an individual who is employed by the health care institution, provides volunteer services for the health care institution, or is admitted to the health care institution; and
  - iii. Screening for signs or symptoms of tuberculosis of an individual who is employed by the health care institution, provides volunteer services for the health care institution, or is admitted to the health care institution

    2. Respond to a hemodialysis-machine alarm;
    3. Draw blood for laboratory tests;
    4. Perform a water-contaminant test on a water system used for hemodialysis;
    5. Inspect a dialyzer and perform a germicide-positive test before priming a dialyzer;
    6. Set up a hemodialysis machine and blood lines before priming a dialyzer;
    7. Prime a dialyzer;
    8. Test a hemodialysis machine for germicide presence;
    9. Perform a hemodialysis machine safety check;
    10. Prepare a dialysate;
    11. Perform a conductivity test and a pH test on a dialysate;
    12. Assess a patient;
    13. Check and record a patient’s vital signs, weight, and temperature;
    14. Determine the amount and rate of fluid removal from a patient;
    15. Administer local anesthetic at an established fistula or graft, administer anticoagulant, or administer replacement saline solution;
    16. Perform a germicide-negative test on a dialyzer before initiating hemodialysis;
    17. Initiate or discontinue a patient’s hemodialysis;
    18. Adjust blood-flow rate, dialysate-flow rate, or fluid-removal rate during hemodialysis; or
    19. Prepare a blood, water, or dialysate culture to determine microorganism presence.
  - E. An inexperienced hemodialysis technician trainee shall not:
    1. Access a patient’s:
      - a. Fistula that is not established, or
      - b. Graft that is not established; or
    2. Provide direct observation.
  - F. When a hemodialysis technician trainee performs hemodialysis tasks for a patient, the patient’s medical record shall include:
    1. The name of the hemodialysis technician trainee;
    2. The date, time, and hemodialysis task performed;
    3. The name of the medical person directly observing or the nurse or physician directly supervising the hemodialysis technician trainee; and
    4. The initials or signature of the medical person directly observing or the nurse or physician directly supervising the hemodialysis technician trainee.
  - G. If the Department determines that a health care institution is not in substantial compliance with this Section, the Department may take enforcement action according to R9-10-110.

Section R9-10-115 renumbered to Section R9-10-116; new Section R9-10-115 renumbered from R9-10-114 and amended by exempt rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 1409, pursuant to Laws 2013, Ch. 10, § 13; effective July 1, 2014 (Supp. 14-2).

R9-10-116. Nutrition and Feeding Assistant Training Programs

- A. For the purposes of this Section, "agency" means an entity other than a nursing care institution that provides the nutrition and feeding assistant training required in A.R.S. § 36-413.
- B. An agency shall apply for approval to operate a nutrition and feeding assistant training program by submitting:
  1. An application in a format provided by the Department that contains:
    - a. The name of the agency;
    - b. The name, telephone number, and e-mail address of the individual in charge of the proposed nutrition and feeding assistant training program;
    - c. The address where the nutrition and feeding assistant training program records are maintained;
    - d. A description of the training course being offered by the nutrition and feeding assistant training program including for each topic in subsection (I):
      - i. The information presented for each topic,
      - ii. The amount of time allotted to each topic,
      - iii. The skills an individual is expected to acquire for each topic, and
      - iv. The testing method used to verify an individual has acquired the stated skills for each topic;
    - e. Whether the agency agrees to allow the Department to submit supplemental requests for information as specified in subsection (F)(2); and
    - f. The signature of the individual in charge of the proposed nutrition and feeding assistant training program and the date signed; and
  2. A copy of the materials used for providing the nutrition and feeding assistant training program.
- C. For an application for an approval of a nutrition and feeding assistant training program, the administrative review time-frame is 30 calendar days, the substantive review time-frame is 30 calendar days, and the overall time-frame is 60 calendar days.
- D. Within 30 calendar days after the receipt of an application in subsection (B), the Department shall:
  1. Issue an approval of the agency's nutrition and feeding assistant training program;
  2. Provide a notice of administrative completeness to the agency that submitted the application; or

3. Provide a notice of deficiencies to the agency that submitted the application, including a list of the information or documents needed to complete the application.
- E. If the Department provides a notice of deficiencies to an agency:
  1. The administrative completeness review time-frame and the overall time-frame are suspended from the date of the notice of deficiencies until the date the Department receives the missing information or documents from the agency;
  2. If the agency does not submit the missing information or documents to the Department within 30 calendar days, the Department shall consider the application withdrawn; and
  3. If the agency submits the missing information or documents to the Department within 30 calendar days, the substantive review time-frame begins on the date the Department receives the missing information or documents.
- F. Within the substantive review time-frame, the Department:
  1. Shall issue or deny an approval of a nutrition and feeding assistant training program; and
  2. May make one written comprehensive request for more information, unless the Department and the agency agree in writing to allow the Department to submit supplemental requests for information.
- G. If the Department issues a written comprehensive request or a supplemental request for information:
  1. The substantive review time-frame and the overall time-frame are suspended from the date of the written comprehensive request or the supplemental request for information until the date the Department receives the information requested, and
  2. The agency shall submit to the Department the information and documents listed in the written comprehensive request or supplemental request for information within 10 working days after the date of the comprehensive written request or supplemental request for information.
- H. The Department shall issue:
  1. An approval for an agency to operate a nutrition and feeding assistant training program if the Department determines that the agency and the application complies with A.R.S. § 36-413 and this Section; or
  2. A denial for an agency that includes the reason for the denial and the process for appeal of the Department's decision if:
    - a. The Department determines that the agency does not comply with A.R.S. § 36-413 and this Section; or
    - b. The agency does not submit information and documents listed in the written comprehensive request or supplemental request for information within 10 working days after the date of the comprehensive written request or supplemental request for information.
- I. An individual in charge of a nutrition and feeding assistant training program shall ensure that:
  1. The materials and coursework for the nutrition and feeding assistant training program demonstrate the following topics:
    - a. Feeding techniques;
    - b. Assistance with feeding and hydration;

    - e. Safety and emergency procedures, including the Heimlich maneuver;
    - f. Infection control;
    - g. Resident rights;
    - h. Recognizing a change in a resident that is inconsistent with the resident's normal behavior; and
    - i. Reporting a change in subsection (I)(1)(h) to a nurse at a nursing care institution;
  2. An individual providing the training course is:
    - a. A physician,
    - b. A physician assistant,
    - c. A registered nurse practitioner,
    - d. A registered nurse,
    - e. A registered dietitian,
    - f. A licensed practical nurse,
    - g. A speech-language pathologist, or
    - h. An occupational therapist; and
  3. An individual taking the training course completes:
    - a. At least eight hours of classroom time, and
    - b. Demonstrates that the individual has acquired the skills the individual was expected to acquire.
- J. An individual in charge of a nutrition and feeding assistant training program shall issue a certificate of completion to an individual who completes the training course and demonstrates the skills the individual was expected to acquire as a result of completing the training course that contains:
  1. The name of the agency approved to operate the nutrition and feeding assistant training program;
  2. The name of the individual completing the training course;
  3. The date of completion;
  4. The name, signature, and professional license of the individual providing the training course; and
  5. The name and signature of the individual in charge of the nutrition and feeding assistant training program.
- K. The Department may deny, revoke, or suspend an approval to operate a nutrition and feeding assistant training program if an agency operating or applying to operate a nutrition and feeding assistance training program:
  1. Provides false or misleading information to the Department;
  2. Does not comply with the applicable statutes and rules;
  3. Issues a training completion certificate to an individual who did not:
    - a. Complete the nutrition and feeding assistant training program, or
    - b. Demonstrate the skills the individual was expected to acquire; or
  4. Does not implement the nutrition and feeding assistant training program as described in or use the materials submitted with the agency's application.
- L. In determining which action in subsection (K) is appropriate, the Department shall consider the following:
  1. Repeated violations of statutes or rules,
  2. Pattern of non-compliance,
  3. Types of violations,
  4. Severity of violations, and
  5. Number of violations.

R9-10-118. Collaborating Health Care Institution

A. An administrator of a collaborating health care institution shall ensure that:

1. A list is maintained of adult behavioral health therapeutic homes and behavioral health respite homes for which the collaborating health care institution serves as a collaborating health care institution;
2. For each adult behavioral health therapeutic home or behavioral health respite home in subsection (A)(1), the collaborating health care institution maintains the following information:
  - a. A copy of the documented agreement that establishes the responsibilities of the adult behavioral health therapeutic home or behavioral health respite home and the collaborating health care institution consistent with the requirements in this Chapter;
  - b. For the adult behavioral health therapeutic home or behavioral health respite home, the following information:
    - i. Provider's name;
    - ii. Street address;
    - iii. License number;
    - iv. Whether the residence is an adult behavioral health therapeutic home or a behavioral health respite home;
    - v. If the residence is a behavioral health respite home, whether the behavioral health respite home provides respite care services to:
      - (1) Individuals 18 years of age or older, or
      - (2) Individuals less than 18 years of age;
    - vi. The beginning and ending dates of the documented agreement in subsection (A)(2)(a); and
    - vii. The name and contact information for the individual assigned by the collaborating health care institution to monitor the adult behavioral health therapeutic home or behavioral health respite home;
  - c. For the adult behavioral health therapeutic home or behavioral health respite home, a copy of the following that have been approved by the collaborating health care institution:
    - i. Scope of services,
    - ii. Policies and procedures, and
    - iii. Documentation of the review and update of policies and procedures;
  - d. A description of the required skills and knowledge for a provider, based on the scope of services of the adult behavioral health therapeutic home or behavioral health respite home, as established by the collaborating health care institution; and

- e. For a provider in the adult behavioral health therapeutic home or behavioral health respite home, documentation of:
  - i. The provider's skills and knowledge;
  - ii. If applicable, the provider's completion of training in assistance in the self-administration of medication;
  - iii. Verification of the provider's skills and knowledge; and
  - iv. If the provider is required to have clinical oversight according to R9-10-1805(C), the provider's receiving clinical oversight;
3. A provider's skills and knowledge are verified by a personnel member according to policies and procedures;
4. A provider who provides behavioral health services receives clinical oversight, required in R9-10-1805(C), from a behavioral health professional; and
5. A provider, other than a provider who is a medical practitioner or nurse, receives training in assistance in the self-administration of medication:
  - a. From a medical practitioner or registered nurse or from a personnel member of the collaborating health care institution trained by a medical practitioner or registered nurse;
  - b. That includes:
    - i. A demonstration of the provider's skills and knowledge necessary to provide assistance in the self-administration of medication,
    - ii. Identification of medication errors and medical emergencies related to medication that require emergency medical intervention, and
    - iii. The process for notifying the appropriate entities when an emergency medical intervention is needed; and
  - c. That is documented.

B. For a patient referred to an adult behavioral health therapeutic home or a behavioral health respite home, an administrator shall ensure that:

1. A resident or recipient accepted by and receiving services from the adult behavioral health therapeutic home or behavioral health respite home does not present a threat to the referred patient, based on the resident's or recipient's developmental levels, social skills, verbal skills, and personal history;
2. The referred patient does not present a threat to a resident or recipient accepted by and receiving services from the adult behavioral health therapeutic home or behavioral health respite home based on the referred patient's developmental levels, social skills, verbal skills, and personal history;
3. The referred patient requires services within the adult behavioral health therapeutic home's or behavioral health respite home's scope of services;
4. A provider of the adult behavioral health therapeutic home or behavioral health respite home has the verified skills and knowledge to provide behavioral health services to the referred patient;
5. A treatment plan for the referred patient that includes information necessary for a provider to meet the referred patient's needs for behavioral health services is completed and forwarded to the provider before the referred patient is accepted as a resident or recipient;
6. A patient's treatment plan is reviewed and updated at least once every twelve months and a copy of the patient's updated treatment plan is forwarded to the patient's provider;

7. If documentation of a significant change in a patient's behavioral, physical, cognitive, or functional condition and the action taken by a provider to address patient's changing needs is received by the health care institution, a behavioral health professional or behavioral health technician reviews the documentation and:
  - a. Documents the review; and
  - b. If applicable:
    - i. Updates the patient's treatment plan, and
    - ii. Forwards the updated treatment plan to the provider within 10 working days after receipt of the documentation of a significant change;
8. If the review and updated treatment plan required in subsection (7) is performed by a behavioral health technician, a behavioral health professional reviews and signs the review and updated treatment plan to ensure the patient is receiving the appropriate behavioral health services; and
9. In addition to the requirements for a medical record for a patient in this Chapter, a referred patient's medical record contains:
  - a. The provider's name and the street address and license number of the adult behavioral health therapeutic home or behavioral health respite home to which the patient is referred,
  - b. A copy of the treatment plan provided to the adult behavioral health therapeutic home or behavioral health respite home,
  - c. Documentation received according to and required by subsection (7),
  - d. Any information about the patient received from the adult behavioral health therapeutic home or behavioral health respite home, and
  - e. Any follow-up actions taken by the collaborating health care institution related to the patient.
- C. For a patient referred to an adult behavioral health therapeutic home, an administrator shall ensure that the collaborating health care institution has documentation in the patient's medical record of evidence of freedom from infectious tuberculosis that meets the requirements in R9-10-113.

    - c. Establish the process for developing and implementing a patient's care plan including:
      - i. Obtaining the patient's or the patient's representative's participation in the development of the patient's care plan;
      - ii. Ensuring that the patient is informed of the modality, frequency, and duration of any treatments that are included in the patient's care plan;
      - iii. Informing the patient that the patient has the right to refuse any treatment;
      - iv. Updating the patient's care plan and informing the patient of any changes to the patient's care plan; and
      - v. Documenting the actions in subsection (A)(5)(c)(i) through (iv) in the patient's medical record;
    - d. Establish the process for warning an identified or identifiable individual, as described in A.R.S. § 36-517.02 (B) through (C), if a patient communicates to a medical staff member or personnel member a threat of imminent serious physical harm or death to the individual and the patient has the apparent intent and ability to carry out the threat;
    - e. Establish the criteria for determining when an inpatient's absence is unauthorized, including whether the inpatient:
      - i. Was admitted under A.R.S. Title 36, Chapter 5, Articles 1, 2, or 3;
      - ii. Is absent against medical advice; or
      - iii. Is under 18 years of age;
    - f. Identify each type of restraint and seclusion used in the organized psychiatric services unit or special hospital and include for each type of restraint and seclusion used:
      - i. The qualifications of a medical staff member or personnel member who can:
        - (1) Order the restraint or seclusion,
        - (2) Place a patient in the restraint or seclusion,
        - (3) Monitor a patient in the restraint or seclusion,
        - (4) Evaluate a patient's physical and psychological well-being after being placed in the restraint or seclusion and when released from the restraint or seclusion, or
        - (5) Renew the order for restraint or seclusion;
      - ii. On-going training requirements for a medical staff member or personnel member who has direct patient contact while the patient is in a restraint or in seclusion; and
      - iii. Criteria for monitoring and assessing a patient including:
        - (1) Frequencies of monitoring and assessment based on a patient's condition, cognitive status, situational factors, and risks associated with the specific restraint or seclusion;

- sion;
- (2) For the renewal of an order for restraint or seclusion, whether an assessment is required before the order is renewed and, if an assessment is required, who may conduct the assessment;
- (3) Assessment content, which may include, depending on a patient's condition, the patient's vital signs, respiration, circulation, hydration needs, elimination needs, level of distress and agitation, mental status, cognitive functioning, neurological functioning, and skin integrity;
- (4) If a mechanical restraint is used, how often the mechanical restraint is monitored or loosened; and
- (5) A process for meeting a patient's nutritional needs and elimination needs;
- g. Establish the criteria and procedures for renewing an order for restraint or seclusion;
- h. Establish procedures for internal review of the use of restraint or seclusion;
- i. Establish requirements for notifying the parent or guardian of a patient who is under 18 years of age and who is restrained or secluded; and
- j. Establish medical record and personnel record documentation requirements for restraint and seclusion, if applicable;
- 6. If time out is used in the organized psychiatric services unit or special hospital, a time out:
  - a. Takes place in an area that is unlocked, lighted, quiet, and private;
  - b. Does not take place in the room approved for seclusion by the Department under R9-10-104;
  - c. Is time-limited and does not exceed two hours per incident or four hours per day;
  - d. Does not result in a patient's missing a meal if the patient is in time out at mealtime;
  - e. Includes monitoring of the patient by a medical staff member or personnel member at least once every 15 minutes to ensure the patient's health, safety, and welfare and to determine if the patient is ready to leave time out; and
  - f. Is documented in the patient's medical record, to include:
    - i. The date of the time out,
    - ii. The reason for the time out,
    - iii. The duration of the time out, and
    - iv. The action planned and taken to address the reason for the time out;
- 7. Restraint or seclusion is:

  - b. Only used when all of the following conditions are met:
    - i. Except as provided in subsection (A)(8), after obtaining an order for the restraint or seclusion;
    - ii. For the management of a patient's aggressive, violent, or self-destructive behavior;
    - iii. When less restrictive interventions have been determined to be ineffective; and
    - iv. To ensure the immediate physical safety of the patient, to prevent imminent harm to the patient or another individual, or to stop physical harm to another individual; and
  - c. Discontinued at the earliest possible time;
- 8. If as a result of a patient's aggressive, violent, or self-destructive behavior, harm to the patient or another individual is imminent or the patient or another individual is being physically harmed, a personnel member:
  - a. May initiate an emergency application of restraint or seclusion for the patient before obtaining an order for the restraint or seclusion, and
  - b. Obtains an order for the restraint or seclusion of the patient during the emergency application of the restraint or seclusion;
- 9. Restraint or seclusion is:
  - a. Only ordered by a physician or a registered nurse practitioner, and
  - b. Not written as a standing order or on an as-needed basis;
- 10. An order for restraint or seclusion includes:
  - a. The name of the individual ordering the restraint or seclusion;
  - b. The date and time that the restraint or seclusion was ordered;
  - c. The specific restraint or seclusion ordered;
  - d. If a drug is ordered as a chemical restraint, the drug's name, strength, dosage, and route of administration;
  - e. The specific criteria for release from restraint or seclusion without an additional order; and
  - f. The maximum duration authorized for the restraint or seclusion;
- 11. An order for restraint or seclusion is limited to the duration of the emergency situation and does not exceed:
  - a. Four continuous hours for a patient who is 18 years of age or older,
  - b. Two continuous hours for a patient who is between the ages of nine and 17 years of age, or
  - c. One continuous hour for a patient who is younger than nine years of age;
- 12. If restraint and seclusion are used on a patient simultaneously, the patient receives continuous:
  - a. Face-to-face monitoring by a medical staff member or personnel member, or
  - b. Video and audio monitoring by a medical staff member or personnel member who is in close proximity to the patient;
- 13. If an order for restraint or seclusion of a patient is not provided by a medical practitioner coordinating the patient's medical services, the medical practitioner is notified as soon as possible;
- 14. A medical staff member or personnel member does not participate in restraint or seclusion, monitor a patient during restraint or seclusion, or evaluate a patient after restraint or seclusion until the medical staff member or personnel member completes education and training that:
  - a. Includes:
    - i. Techniques to identify medical staff member, personnel member, and patient behaviors; events; and environmental factors that may trigger circumstances that require restraint or seclusion;
    - ii. The use of nonphysical intervention skills, such as de-escalation, mediation, conflict resolution, active listening, and verbal and observational methods;
    - iii. Techniques for identifying the least restrictive intervention based on an assessment of the patient's medical or behavioral health condition;

- iv. The safe use of restraint and the safe use of seclusion, including training in how to recognize and respond to signs of physical and psychological distress in a patient who is restrained or secluded;
  - v. Clinical identification of specific behavioral changes that indicate that the restraint or seclusion is no longer necessary;
  - vi. Monitoring and assessing a patient while the patient is in restraint or seclusion according to policies and procedures; and
  - vii. Training exercises in which medical staff members and personnel members successfully demonstrate the techniques that the medical staff members and personnel members have learned for managing emergency situations; and
  - b. Is provided by individuals qualified according to policies and procedures;
15. When a patient is placed in restraint or seclusion:
- a. The restraint or seclusion is conducted according to policies and procedures;
  - b. The restraint or seclusion is proportionate and appropriate to the severity of the patient's behavior and the patient's:
    - i. Chronological and developmental age;
    - ii. Size;
    - iii. Gender;
    - iv. Physical condition;
    - v. Medical condition;
    - vi. Psychiatric condition; and
    - vii. Personal history, including any history of physical or sexual abuse;
  - c. The physician or registered nurse practitioner who ordered the restraint or seclusion is available for consultation throughout the duration of the restraint or seclusion;
  - d. A patient is monitored and assessed according to policies and procedures;
  - e. A physician or other health professional authorized by policies and procedures assesses the patient within one hour after the patient is placed in the restraint or seclusion and determines:
    - i. The patient's current behavior,
    - ii. The patient's reaction to the restraint or seclusion used,
    - iii. The patient's medical and behavioral condition, and
    - iv. Whether to continue or terminate the restraint or seclusion;
  - f. The patient is given the opportunity:
    - i. To eat during mealtime, and
    - ii. To use the toilet; and
  - g. The restraint or seclusion is discontinued at the earliest possible time, regardless of the length of time identified in the order;
16. If a patient is placed in seclusion, the room used for seclusion:
- a. Is approved for use as a seclusion room by the Department under R9-10-104;
  - b. Is not used as a patient's bedroom or a sleeping area;
  - c. Allows full view of the patient in all areas of the room;
  - d. Is free of hazards, such as unprotected light fixtures or electrical outlets;
  - e. Contains at least 60 square feet of floor space; and
  - f. Except as provided in subsection (A)(17), contains a non-adjustable bed that:
    - i. Consists of a mattress on a solid platform that is:
      - (1) Constructed of a durable, non-hazardous material; and
      - (2) Raised off of the floor;
    - ii. Does not have wire springs or a storage drawer; and
    - iii. Is securely anchored in place;
17. If a room used for seclusion does not contain a non-adjustable bed required in subsection (A)(16)(f):
- a. A piece of equipment is available for use in the room used for seclusion that:
    - i. Is commercially manufactured to safely and humanely restrain a patient's body;
    - ii. Provides support to the trunk and head of a patient's body;
    - iii. Provides restraint to the trunk of a patient's body;
    - iv. Is able to restrict movement of a patient's arms, legs, trunk, and head;
    - v. Allows a patient's body to recline; and
    - vi. Does not inflict harm on a patient's body; and
  - b. Documentation of the manufacturer's specifications for the piece of equipment in subsection (A)(17)(a) is maintained;
18. A seclusion room may be used for services or activities other than seclusion if:
- a. A sign stating the service or activity scheduled or being provided in the room is conspicuously posted outside the room;
  - b. No permanent equipment other than the bed required in subsection (A)(16)(f) is in the room;
  - c. Policies and procedures are established, documented, and implemented that:
    - i. Delineate which services or activities other than seclusion may be provided in the room,
    - ii. List what types of equipment or supplies may be placed in the room for the delineated services, and
    - iii. Provide for the prompt removal of equipment and supplies from the room before the room is used for seclusion; and
  - d. The sign required in subsection (A)(18)(a) and equipment and supplies in the room, other than the bed required in subsection (A)(16)(f), are removed before a patient is placed in seclusion in the room;
19. A medical staff member or personnel member documents the following information in a patient's medical record before the end of the shift in which the patient is placed in restraint or seclusion or, if the patient's restraint or seclusion does not end during the shift in which it began, during the shift in which the patient's restraint or seclusion ends:
- a. The emergency situation that required the patient to be restrained or put in seclusion;
  - b. The times the patient's restraint or seclusion actually began and ended;
  - c. The time of the face-to-face assessment required in subsection (A)(12)(a);
  - d. The monitoring required in subsection (A)(12)(b) or (15)(d), as applicable;
  - e. The times the patient was given the opportunity to eat or use the toilet according to subsection (A)(15)(f); and

- f. The names of the medical staff members and personnel members with direct patient contact while the patient was in the restraint or seclusion; and
  - 20. If an emergency situation continues beyond the time limit of an order for restraint or seclusion, the order is renewed according to policies and procedures.
- B. An administrator of a hospital that provides opioid treatment services to an outpatient shall comply with the requirements in R9-10-1020.

R9-10-235. Administrative Separation

- A. In addition to the definitions in A.R.S. § 36-401, R9-10-101, and R9-10-201, the following definition applies in this Section: “Administrative separation” means the temporary isolation of a patient for the purpose of preserving the integrity of evidence during the course of a criminal investigation or for a situation where not isolating the patient presents a risk of serious harm to other individuals or a serious risk to the safety or security of a hospital.
- B. Only a hospital established according to A.R.S. § 36-202 may use administrative separation.
- C. An administrator appointed according to A.R.S. § 36-205 shall ensure that:
  1. Administrative separation:
    - a. Is only used for a patient admitted to the hospital pursuant to a criminal court order; and
    - b. Is not used:
      - i. In conjunction with a restraint,
      - ii. As a method to manage behaviors, or
      - iii. If prohibited by law; and
  2. Policies and procedures are established, documented, and implemented for administrative separation that:
    - a. Include the process and criteria for requesting an administrative separation;
    - b. Include the process and deadlines for approving a request for an administrative separation;
    - c. Cover patient notification of the right to appeal the administrative separation and to file a complaint;
    - d. Include the process for providing a patient access to:
      - i. Incoming mail, and
      - ii. An advocate or legal representative;
    - e. Include the process for providing treatment to a patient while in administrative separation;
    - f. Include the process for establishing investigative goals; and
    - g. Include the process for determining when administrative separation will no longer be used for a patient.

3. Registered nurse to provide direction for nursing services provided by or at the behavioral health inpatient facility.
- E. An administrator shall provide written notification to the Department of a patient's:
1. Death, if the patient's death is required to be reported according to A.R.S. § 11-593, within one working day after the patient's death; and
  2. Self-injury, within two working days after the patient inflicts a self-injury that requires immediate intervention by an emergency medical services provider.
- F. Except as specified in R9-10-318(A)(1), if abuse, neglect, or exploitation of a patient is alleged or suspected to have occurred before the patient was admitted or while the patient is not on the premises and not receiving services from a behavioral health inpatient facility's employee or personnel member, an administrator shall report the alleged or suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the patient according to A.R.S. § 46-454.
- G. If an administrator has a reasonable basis, according to A.R.S. § 46-454, to believe abuse, neglect, or exploitation has occurred on the premises or while a patient is receiving services from a behavioral health inpatient facility's employee or personnel member, the administrator shall:
1. If applicable, take immediate action to stop the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation;
  2. Report the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the patient according to A.R.S. § 46-454;
  3. Document:
    - a. The suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation;
    - b. Any action taken according to subsection (G)(1); and
    - c. The report in subsection (G)(2);
  4. Maintain the documentation in subsection (G)(3) for at least 12 months after the date of the report in subsection (G)(2);
  5. Initiate an investigation of the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation and document the following information within five working days after the report required in subsection (G)(2):
    - a. The dates, times, and description of the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation;
    - b. A description of any injury to the patient related to the suspected abuse or neglect and any change to the patient's physical, cognitive, functional, or emotional condition;
    - c. The names of witnesses to the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation; and
    - d. The actions taken by the administrator to prevent the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation from occurring in the future; and
  6. Maintain a copy of the documented information required in subsection (G)(5) and any other information obtained during the investigation for at least 12 months after the date the investigation was initiated.
- H. An administrator shall establish and document the criteria for determining when a patient's absence is unauthorized, including the criteria for a patient who:
1. Was admitted under A.R.S. Title 36, Chapter 5, Articles 1, 2, or 3;
  2. Is absent against medical advice; or
  3. Is under the age of 18.
- I. An administrator shall:
1. For a patient who is under a court's jurisdiction, within an hour after determining that the patient's absence is unauthorized according to the criteria in subsection (H), notify the appropriate court or a person designated by the appropriate court;
  2. Document the notification in subsection (I)(1) and the written log required in subsection (I)(3);
  3. Maintain a written log of unauthorized absences for at least 12 months after the date of a patient's absence that includes the:
    - a. Name of a patient absent without authorization;
    - b. If applicable, name of the person notified as required in subsection (I)(1); and
    - c. Date of the notification; and
  4. Evaluate and take action related to unauthorized absences under the quality management program in R9-10-304.

- R9-10-307. Admission; Assessment
- Except as provided in R9-10-315(E) or (F), an administrator shall ensure that:
- 1. A patient is admitted based upon the patient's presenting behavioral health issue and treatment needs and the behavioral health inpatient facility's ability and authority to provide physical health services, behavioral health services, and ancillary services consistent with the patient's treatment needs;
  - 2. A patient is admitted on the order of a medical practitioner or clinical director;
  - 3. A medical practitioner or clinical director, authorized by policies and procedures to accept a patient for admission, is available;
  - 4. Except in an emergency or as provided in subsections (6) and (7), general consent is obtained from a patient or, if applicable, the patient's representative before or at the time of admission;
  - 5. The general consent obtained in subsection (4) or the lack of consent in an emergency is documented in the patient's medical record;
  - 6. General consent is not required from a patient receiving a court-ordered evaluation or court-ordered treatment;
  - 7. General consent is not required from a patient receiving treatment according to A.R.S. § 36-512;
  - 8. A medical practitioner performs a medical history and physical examination on a patient within 30 calendar days before admission or within 72 hours after admission and documents the medical history and physical examination in the patient's medical record within 72 hours after admission;
  - 9. If a medical practitioner performs a medical history and physical examination on a patient before admission, the medical practitioner enters an interval note into the patient's medical record within seven calendar days after admission;
  - 10. Except when a patient needs crisis services, a behavioral health assessment of a patient is completed before treatment for the patient is initiated;
  - 11. If a behavioral health assessment is conducted by a:
    - a. Behavioral health technician or registered nurse, within 24 hours a behavioral health professional, certified or licensed under A.R.S. Title 32 to provide the behavioral health services needed by the patient, reviews and signs the behavioral health assessment to ensure that the behavioral health assessment identifies the behavioral health services needed by the patient; or
    - b. Behavioral health paraprofessional, a behavioral health professional, certified or licensed under A.R.S. Title 32 to provide the behavioral health services needed by the patient, supervises the behavioral health paraprofessional during the completion of the behavioral health assessment and signs the behavioral health assessment to ensure that the behavioral health assessment identifies the behavioral health services needed by the patient;
  - 12. When a patient is admitted, a registered nurse:
    - a. Conducts a nursing assessment of a patient's medical condition and history;
    - b. Determines whether the:
      - i. Patient requires immediate physical health services, and
      - ii. Patient's behavioral health issue may be related to the patient's medical condition and history;
    - c. Documents the patient's nursing assessment and the determinations required in subsection (12)(b) in the patient's medical record; and
    - d. Signs the patient's medical record;
  - 13. A behavioral health assessment:
    - a. Documents the patient's:
      - i. Presenting issue;
      - ii. Substance abuse history;
      - iii. Co-occurring disorder;
      - iv. Legal history, including:
        - (1) Custody,
        - (2) Guardianship, and

R9-10-308. Treatment Plan

- A. Except for a patient admitted to receive crisis services or as provided in R9-10-315(E) or (F), an administrator shall ensure that a treatment plan is developed and implemented for a patient that is:
  - 1. Based on the behavioral health assessment and on-going changes to the behavioral health assessment of the patient;
  - 2. Completed:
    - a. By a behavioral health professional or by a behavioral health technician under the clinical oversight of a behavioral health professional, and
    - b. Before the patient receives treatment;
  - 3. Documented in the patient's medical record within 48 hours after the patient first receives treatment;
  - 4. Includes:
    - a. The patient's presenting issue;
    - b. The behavioral health services and physical health services to be provided to the patient;
    - c. The signature of the patient or the patient's representative and date signed, or documentation of the refusal to sign;
    - d. The date when the patient's treatment plan will be reviewed;
    - e. If a discharge date has been determined, the treatment needed after discharge; and

- f. The signature of the personnel member who developed the treatment plan and the date signed;
- 5. If the treatment plan was completed by a behavioral health technician, reviewed and signed by a behavioral health professional within 24 hours after the completion of the treatment plan to ensure that the treatment plan meets the patient's treatment needs; and
- 6. Reviewed and updated on an on-going basis:
  - a. According to the review date specified in the treatment plan,
  - b. When a treatment goal is accomplished or changes,
  - c. When additional information that affects the patient's behavioral health assessment is identified, and
  - d. When a patient has a significant change in condition or experiences an event that affects treatment.
- B. An administrator shall ensure that:
  - 1. A request for participation in developing a patient's treatment plan is made to the patient or the patient's representative;
  - 2. An opportunity for participation in developing the patient's treatment plan is provided to the patient or the patient's representative; and
  - 3. The request in subsection (B)(1) and the opportunity in subsection (B)(2) are documented in the patient's medical record.
- C. If a patient who is admitted to receive crisis services remains admitted as a patient after the patient no longer needs crisis services, an administrator shall ensure that a treatment plan for the patient is:
  - 1. Except for subsection (A)(3), completed according to the requirements in subsection (A); and
  - 2. Documented in the patient's medical record within 24 hours after the patient no longer needs crisis services.

- A. Except as provided in R9-10-315(E) or (F), an administrator shall ensure that a discharge plan for a patient is:
  - 1. Developed that:
    - a. Identifies any specific needs of the patient after discharge;
    - b. If the discharge date has been determined, includes the discharge date;
    - c. Is completed before discharge occurs; and
    - d. Includes a description of the level of care that may meet the patient's assessed and anticipated needs after discharge;
  - 2. Documented in the patient's medical record within 48 hours after the discharge plan is completed; and
  - 3. Provided to the patient or the patient's representative before the discharge occurs.
- B. An administrator shall ensure that:
  - 1. A request for participation in developing a patient's discharge plan is made to the patient or the patient's representative,
  - 2. An opportunity for participation in developing the patient's discharge plan is provided to the patient or the patient's representative, and

3. The request in subsection (B)(1) and the opportunity in subsection (B)(2) are documented in the patient's medical record.
- C. An administrator shall ensure that a patient is discharged from a behavioral health inpatient facility when the patient's treatment needs are not consistent with the services that the behavioral health inpatient facility is authorized and able to provide.
- D. An administrator shall ensure that there is a documented discharge order by a medical practitioner or behavioral health professional before a patient is discharged unless the patient leaves the behavioral health inpatient facility against a medical practitioner's or behavioral health professional's advice.
- E. An administrator shall ensure that, at the time of discharge, a patient receives a referral for treatment or ancillary services that the patient may need after discharge, if applicable.
- F. If a patient is discharged to any location other than a health care institution, an administrator shall ensure that:
  1. Discharge instructions are documented, and
  2. The patient or the patient's representative is provided with a copy of the discharge instructions.
- G. An administrator shall ensure that a discharge summary:
  1. Is entered into the patient's medical record within 10 working days after a patient's discharge; and
  2. Includes:
    - a. The following information authenticated by a medical practitioner or behavioral health professional:
      - i. The patient's presenting issue and other physical health and behavioral health issues identified in the patient's nursing assessment, behavioral health assessment, or treatment plan;
      - ii. A summary of the treatment provided to the patient;
      - iii. The patient's progress in meeting treatment goals, including treatment goals that were and were not achieved; and
      - iv. The name, dosage, and frequency of each medication ordered for the patient by a medical practitioner at the behavioral health inpatient facility at the time of the patient's discharge; and
    - b. A description of the disposition of the patient's possessions, funds, or medications brought to the behavioral health inpatient facility by the patient.
- H. An administrator shall ensure that a patient who is dependent upon a prescribed medication is offered detoxification services, opioid treatment, or a written referral to detoxification services or opioid treatment before the patient is discharged from the behavioral health inpatient facility if a medical practitioner for the behavioral health inpatient facility will not be prescribing the medication for the patient at or after discharge.
- b. Information from the patient's medical record is provided to a receiving health care institution,
- c. A personnel member explains risks and benefits of the transport to the patient or the patient's representative, and
- d. A personnel member communicates or documents why the personnel member did not communicate with an individual at a receiving health care institution; and
3. The patient's medical record includes documentation of:
  - a. Communication or lack of communication with an individual at a receiving health care institution;
  - b. The date and time of the transport;
  - c. The mode of transportation; and
  - d. If applicable, the name of the personnel member accompanying the patient during a transport.
- B. Subsection (A) does not apply to:
  1. Transportation to a location other than a licensed health care institution,
  2. Transportation provided for a patient by the patient or the patient's representative,
  3. Transportation provided by an outside entity that was arranged for a patient by the patient or the patient's representative, or
  4. A transport to another licensed health care institution in an emergency.
- C. Except for a transfer of a patient due to an emergency, an administrator shall ensure that:
  1. A personnel member coordinates the transfer and the services provided to the patient;
  2. According to policies and procedures:
    - a. An evaluation of the patient is conducted before the transfer;
    - b. Information from the patient's medical record, including orders that are in effect at the time of the transfer, is provided to a receiving health care institution; and
    - c. A personnel member explains risks and benefits of the transfer to the patient or the patient's representative; and
  3. Documentation in the patient's medical record includes:
    - a. Communication with an individual at a receiving health care institution;
    - b. The date and time of the transfer;
    - c. The mode of transportation; and
    - d. If applicable, the name of the personnel member accompanying the patient during a transfer.

        - (2) Raised off of the floor;
      - ii. Does not have wire springs or a storage drawer; and
      - iii. Is securely anchored in place;
  3. If a room used for seclusion does not contain a non-adjustable bed required in subsection (B)(2)(f):
    - a. A piece of equipment is available that:
      - i. Is commercially manufactured to safely and humanely restrain a patient's body;
      - ii. Provides support to the trunk and head of a patient's body;
      - iii. Provides restraint to the trunk of a patient's body;
      - iv. Is able to restrict movement of a patient's arms, legs, body, and head;
      - v. Allows a patient's body to recline; and
      - vi. Does not inflict harm on a patient's body; and
    - b. Documentation of the manufacturer's specifications for the piece of equipment in subsection (B)(3)(a) is maintained; and
  4. A seclusion room may be used for services or activities other than seclusion if:
    - a. A sign stating the service or activity scheduled or being provided in the room is conspicuously posted outside the room;
    - b. No permanent equipment other than the bed required in subsection (B)(2)(f) is in the room;
    - c. Policies and procedures:

- i. Delineate which services or activities other than seclusion may be provided in the room,
    - ii. List what types of equipment or supplies may be placed in the room for the delineated services, and
    - iii. Provide for the prompt removal of equipment and supplies from the room before the room is used for seclusion; and
  - d. The sign required in subsection (B)(4)(a) and equipment and supplies in the room, other than the bed required in subsection (B)(2)(f), are removed before use.
- C. An administrator shall ensure that:
1. Policies and procedures for providing restraint or seclusion are established, documented, and implemented to protect the health and safety of a patient that:
    - a. Establish the process for patient assessment, including identification of a patient's medical conditions and criteria for the on-going monitoring of any identified medical condition;
    - b. Identify each type of restraint or seclusion used and include for each type of restraint or seclusion used:
      - i. The qualifications of a personnel member who can:
        - (1) Order the restraint or seclusion,
        - (2) Place a patient in the restraint or seclusion,
        - (3) Monitor a patient in the restraint or seclusion,
        - (4) Evaluate a patient's physical and psychological well-being after being placed in the restraint or seclusion and when released from the restraint or seclusion, or
        - (5) Renew the order for restraint or seclusion;
      - ii. On-going training requirements for a personnel member who has direct patient contact while the patient is in a restraint or seclusion; and
      - iii. Criteria for monitoring and assessing a patient including:
        - (1) Frequencies of monitoring and assessment based on a patient's medical condition and risks associated with the specific restraint or seclusion;
        - (2) For the renewal of an order for restraint or seclusion, whether an assessment is required before the order is renewed and, if an assessment is required, who may conduct the assessment;
        - (3) Assessment content, which may include, depending on a patient's condition, the patient's vital signs, respiration, circulation, hydration needs, elimination needs, level of distress and agitation, mental status, cognitive functioning, neurological functioning, and skin integrity;
        - (4) If a mechanical restraint is used, how often the mechanical restraint is loosened; and
        - (5) A process for meeting a patient's nutritional needs and elimination needs;
    - c. Establish the criteria and procedures for renewing an order for restraint or seclusion;
    - d. Establish procedures for internal review of the use of restraint or seclusion; and
  - e. Establish medical record and personnel record documentation requirements for restraint and seclusion, if applicable;
2. An order for restraint or seclusion is:
    - a. Obtained from a physician or registered nurse practitioner, and
    - b. Not written as a standing order or on an as-needed basis;
  3. Restraint or seclusion is:
    - a. Not used as a means of coercion, discipline, convenience, or retaliation;
    - b. Only used when all of the following conditions are met:
      - i. Except as provided in subsection (C)(4), after obtaining an order for the restraint or seclusion;
      - ii. For the management of a patient's aggressive, violent, or self-destructive behavior;
      - iii. When less restrictive interventions have been determined to be ineffective; and
      - iv. To ensure the immediate physical safety of the patient, to prevent imminent harm to the patient or another individual, or to stop physical harm to another individual; and
    - c. Discontinued at the earliest possible time;
  4. If as a result of a patient's aggressive, violent, or self-destructive behavior, harm to the patient or another individual is imminent or the patient or another individual is being physically harmed, a personnel member:
    - a. May initiate an emergency application of restraint or seclusion for the patient before obtaining an order for the restraint or seclusion, and
    - b. Obtains an order for the restraint or seclusion of the patient during the emergency application of the restraint or seclusion;
  5. An order for restraint or seclusion includes:
    - a. The name of the physician or registered nurse practitioner ordering the restraint or seclusion;
    - b. The date and time that the restraint or seclusion was ordered;
    - c. The specific restraint or seclusion ordered;
    - d. If a drug is ordered as a chemical restraint, the drug's name, strength, dosage, and route of administration;
    - e. The specific criteria for release from restraint or seclusion without an additional order; and
    - f. The maximum duration authorized for the restraint or seclusion;
  6. An order for restraint or seclusion is limited to the duration of the emergency situation and does not exceed three continuous hours;
  7. If an order for restraint or seclusion of a patient is not provided by the patient's attending physician, the patient's attending physician is notified as soon as possible;
  8. A medical practitioner or personnel member does not participate in restraint or seclusion, assess or monitor a patient during restraint or seclusion, or evaluate a patient after restraint or seclusion, and a physician or registered nurse practitioner does not order restraint or seclusion, until the medical practitioner or personnel member, completes education and training that:
    - a. Includes:
      - i. Techniques to identify medical practitioner, personnel member, and patient behaviors, events, and environmental factors that may trigger circumstances that require restraint or seclusion;

- ii. The use of nonphysical intervention skills, such as de-escalation, mediation, conflict resolution, active listening, and verbal and observational methods;
  - iii. Techniques for identifying the least restrictive intervention based on an assessment of the patient's medical or behavioral health condition;
  - iv. The safe use of restraint and the safe use of seclusion, including training in how to recognize and respond to signs of physical and psychological distress in a patient who is restrained or secluded;
  - v. Clinical identification of specific behavioral changes that indicate that the restraint or seclusion is no longer necessary;
  - vi. Monitoring and assessing a patient while the patient is in restraint or seclusion according to policies and procedures; and
  - vii. Except for the medical practitioner, training exercises in which the personnel member successfully demonstrates the techniques that the medical practitioner or personnel member has learned for managing emergency situations; and
- b. Is provided by individuals qualified according to policies and procedures;
9. When a patient is placed in restraint or seclusion:
- a. The restraint or seclusion is conducted according to policies and procedures;
  - b. The restraint or seclusion is proportionate and appropriate to the severity of the patient's behavior and the patient's:
    - i. Chronological and developmental age;
    - ii. Size;
    - iii. Gender;
    - iv. Physical condition;
    - v. Medical condition;
    - vi. Psychiatric condition; and
    - vii. Personal history, including any history of physical or sexual abuse;
  - c. The physician or registered nurse practitioner who ordered the restraint or seclusion is available for consultation throughout the duration of the restraint or seclusion;
  - d. The patient is monitored and assessed according to policies and procedures;
  - e. A physician or registered nurse assesses the patient within one hour after the patient is placed in the restraint or seclusion and determines:
    - i. The patient's current behavior,
    - ii. The patient's reaction to the restraint or seclusion used,
    - iii. The patient's medical and behavioral condition, and
    - iv. Whether to continue or terminate the restraint or seclusion;
  - f. The patient is given the opportunity:
    - i. To eat during mealtime, and
    - ii. To use the toilet; and
  - g. The restraint or seclusion is discontinued at the earliest possible time, regardless of the length of time identified in the order;
10. A medical practitioner or personnel member documents the following information in a patient's medical record before the end of the shift in which the patient is placed in restraint or seclusion or, if the patient's restraint or seclusion does not end during the shift in which it began, during the shift in which the patient's restraint or seclusion ends:
- a. The emergency situation that required the patient to be restrained or put in seclusion;
  - b. The times the patient's restraint or seclusion actually began and ended;
  - c. The time of the assessment required in subsection (C)(9)(e);
  - d. The monitoring required in subsection (C)(9)(d);
  - e. The names of the medical practitioners and personnel members with direct patient contact while the patient was in the restraint or seclusion;
  - f. The times the patient was given the opportunity to eat or use the toilet according to subsection (C)(9)(f); and
  - g. The patient evaluation required in subsection (C)(12);
11. If an emergency situation continues beyond the time limit of an order for restraint or seclusion, the order is renewed according to policies and procedures that include:
- a. The specific criteria for release from restraint or seclusion without an additional order, and
  - b. The maximum duration authorized for the restraint or seclusion; and
12. A patient is evaluated after restraint or seclusion is no longer being used for the patient.

R9-10-318. Child and Adolescent Residential Treatment Services

- A. An administrator of a behavioral health inpatient facility authorized to provide child and adolescent residential treatment services shall:
1. If abuse, neglect, or exploitation of a patient under 18 years of age is alleged or suspected to have occurred before the patient was accepted or while the patient is not on the premises and not receiving services from an employee or personnel member of the behavioral health inpatient facility, report the alleged or suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the patient according to A.R.S. § 13-3620;
  2. If the administrator has a reasonable basis, according to A.R.S. § 13-3620, to believe that abuse, neglect, or exploitation of a patient under 18 years of age has occurred on the premises or while the patient is receiving services from an employee or a personnel member:
    - a. If applicable, take immediate action to stop the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation;
    - b. Report the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the patient according to A.R.S. § 13-3620;
    - c. Document:
      - i. The suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation;
      - ii. Any action taken according to subsection (A)(2)(a); and
      - iii. The report in subsection (A)(2)(b);
    - d. Maintain the documentation in subsection (A)(2)(c) for at least 12 months after the date of the report in subsection (A)(2)(b);
    - e. Initiate an investigation of the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation and document the following information within five working days after the report required in subsection (A)(2)(b):
      - i. The dates, times, and description of the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation;
      - ii. A description of any injury to the patient related to the suspected abuse or neglect and any change to the patient's physical, cognitive, functional, or emotional condition;
      - iii. The names of witnesses to the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation; and
      - iv. The actions taken by the administrator to prevent the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation from occurring in the future; and
    - f. Maintain a copy of the documented information required in subsection (A)(2)(e) and any other information obtained during the investigation for at least 12 months after the date the investigation was initiated;
  3. If a patient who is under 18 years of age is absent and the absence is unauthorized as determined according to the criteria in R9-10-303(H), within an hour after determining that the patient's absence is unauthorized, notify:
    - a. Except as provided in subsection (A)(3)(b), the patient's parent or legal guardian; and
    - b. For a patient who is under a court's jurisdiction, the appropriate court or a person designated by the appropriate court;
  4. Document the notification in subsection (A)(3) in the patient's medical record and the written log required in R9-10-303(I)(3);
  5. In addition to the personnel records requirements in R9-10-306(F), ensure that a personnel record for each employee, volunteer, and student contains documentation of the individual's compliance with the fingerprinting requirements in A.R.S. § 36-425.03;
  6. Ensure that the patient's representative for a patient who is under 18 years of age:
    - a. Except in an emergency, either consents to or refuses treatment;
    - b. May refuse or withdraw consent to treatment before treatment is initiated, unless the treatment is ordered by a court according to A.R.S. Title 36, Chapter 5 or A.R.S. § 8-341.01; is necessary to save the patient's life or physical health; or is provided according to A.R.S. § 36-512;
    - c. Except in an emergency, is informed of alternatives to a proposed psychotropic medication and the associated risks and possible complications of the proposed psychotropic medication;
    - d. Is informed of the following:
      - i. The policy on health care directives, and
      - ii. The patient complaint process; and
    - e. Except as otherwise permitted by law, provides written consent to the release of information in the patient's:
      - i. Medical record, or
      - ii. Financial records;
  7. In addition to the restrictions provided in R9-10-311(C), ensure that a parent of a patient under 18 years of age is allowed to restrict the patient from:
    - a. Associating with individuals of the patient's choice, receiving visitors, and making telephone calls during the hours established by the behavioral health inpatient facility;
    - b. Having privacy in correspondence, communication, visitation, financial affairs, and personal hygiene; and
    - c. Sending and receiving uncensored and unopened mail;
  8. Establish, document, and implement policies and procedures to ensure that a patient is protected from the following from other patients at the behavioral health inpatient facility:
    - a. Threats,
    - b. Ridicule,
    - c. Verbal harassment,
    - d. Punishment, or
    - e. Abuse;
  9. Ensure that:
    - a. The interior of the behavioral health inpatient facility has furnishings and decorations appropriate to the ages of the patients receiving services at the behavioral health inpatient facility;
    - b. A patient older than three years of age does not sleep in a crib;
    - c. Clean and non-hazardous toys, educational materials, and physical activity equipment are available and accessible to patients in a quantity sufficient to meet each patient's needs and are appropriate to each patient's age, developmental level, and treatment needs; and
    - d. A patient's educational needs are met by establishing and providing an educational component, approved in writing by the Arizona Department of Education;
  10. In addition to the requirements for seclusion or restraint in R9-10-316, ensure that:

- a. An order for restraint or seclusion is limited to the duration of the emergency situation and does not exceed:
    - i. Two continuous hours for a patient who is between the ages of nine and 17, or
    - ii. One continuous hour for a patient who is younger than nine; and
  - b. Requirements are established for notifying the parent or guardian of a patient who is under 18 years of age and who is restrained or secluded; and
11. Prohibit a patient under 18 years of age from possessing or using tobacco products on the premises.
- B. An administrator of a behavioral health inpatient facility authorized to provide child and adolescent residential treatment services may continue to provide behavioral health services to a patient who is 18 years of age or older:
1. If the patient:
    - a. Was admitted to the behavioral health inpatient facility before the patient's 18th birthday,
    - b. Is not 21 years of age or older, and
    - c. Is completing high school or a high school equivalency diploma or participating in a job training program; or
  2. Through the last calendar day of the month of the patient's 18th birthday.

R9-10-320. Medication Services

A. An administrator shall ensure that policies and procedures for medication services:

1. Include:
  - a. A process for providing information to a patient about medication prescribed for the patient including:
    - i. The prescribed medication's anticipated results,
    - ii. The prescribed medication's potential adverse reactions,
    - iii. The prescribed medication's potential side effects, and
    - iv. Potential adverse reactions that could result from not taking the medication as prescribed;
  - b. Procedures for preventing, responding to, and reporting:
    - i. A medication error,
    - ii. An adverse reaction to a medication, or
    - iii. A medication overdose;
  - c. Procedures to ensure that a patient's medication regimen is reviewed by a medical practitioner to ensure the medication regimen meets the patient's needs;
  - d. Procedures for documenting medication administration and assistance in the self-administration of medication;
  - e. Procedures for assisting a patient in obtaining medication; and
  - f. If applicable, procedures for providing medication administration or assistance in the self-administration of medication off the premises; and
2. Specify a process for review through the quality management program of:
  - a. A medication administration error, and
  - b. An adverse reaction to a medication.

B. If a behavioral health inpatient facility provides medication administration, an administrator shall ensure that:

1. Policies and procedures for medication administration:
  - a. Are reviewed and approved by a medical practitioner;
  - b. Specify the individuals who may:
    - i. Order medication, and
    - ii. Administer medication;
  - c. Ensure that medication is administered to a patient only as prescribed; and
  - d. Cover the documentation of a patient's refusal to take prescribed medication in the patient's medical record;
2. Verbal orders for medication services are taken by a nurse, unless otherwise provided by law; and
3. A medication administered to a patient is:
  - a. Administered in compliance with an order, and
  - b. Documented in the patient's medical record.

- C. If a behavioral health inpatient facility provides assistance in the self-administration of medication, an administrator shall ensure that:
1. A patient's medication is stored by the behavioral health inpatient facility;
  2. The following assistance is provided to a patient:
    - a. A reminder when it is time to take the medication;
    - b. Opening the medication container for the patient;
    - c. Observing the patient while the patient removes the medication from the container;
    - d. Verifying that the medication is taken as ordered by the patient's medical practitioner by confirming that:
      - i. The patient taking the medication is the individual stated on the medication container label,
      - ii. The patient is taking the dosage of the medication stated on the medication container label or according to an order from a medical practitioner dated later than the date on the medication container label, and
      - iii. The patient is taking the medication at the time stated on the medication container label or according to an order from a medical practitioner dated later than the date on the medication container label; or
    - e. Observing the patient while the patient takes the medication;
  3. Policies and procedures for assistance in the self-administration of medication are reviewed and approved by a medical practitioner or registered nurse;
  4. Training for a personnel member, other than a medical practitioner or registered nurse, in assistance in the self-administration of medication:
    - a. Is provided by a medical practitioner or registered nurse or an individual trained by a medical practitioner or registered nurse; and
    - b. Includes:
      - i. A demonstration of the personnel member's skills and knowledge necessary to provide assistance in the self-administration of medication,
      - ii. Identification of medication errors and medical emergencies related to medication that require emergency medical intervention, and
      - iii. The process for notifying the appropriate entities when an emergency medical intervention is needed;
  5. A personnel member, other than a medical practitioner or registered nurse, completes the training in subsection (C)(4) before the personnel member provides assistance in the self-administration of medication; and
  6. Assistance in the self-administration of medication provided to a patient:
    - a. Is in compliance with an order, and
    - b. Is documented in the patient's medical record.
- D. An administrator shall ensure that:
1. A current drug reference guide is available for use by personnel members;
  2. A current toxicology reference guide is available for use by personnel members; and
  3. If pharmaceutical services are provided on the premises:
    - a. A committee, composed of at least one physician, one pharmacist, and other personnel members as determined by policies and procedures, is established to:
      - i. Develop a drug formulary,
      - ii. Update the drug formulary at least once every 12 months,
      - iii. Develop medication usage and medication substitution policies and procedures, and
      - iv. Specify which medications and medication classifications are required to be stopped automatically after a specific time period unless the ordering medical practitioner specifically orders otherwise;
    - b. The pharmaceutical services are provided under the direction of a pharmacist;
    - c. The pharmaceutical services comply with A.R.S. Title 36, Chapter 27; A.R.S. Title 32, Chapter 18; and 4 A.A.C. 23; and
    - d. A copy of the pharmacy license is provided to the Department upon request.
- E. When medication is stored at a behavioral health inpatient facility, an administrator shall ensure that:
1. Medication is stored in a separate locked room, closet, or self-contained unit used only for medication storage;
  2. Medication is stored according to the instructions on the medication container; and
  3. Policies and procedures are established, documented, and implemented for:
    - a. Receiving, storing, inventorying, tracking, dispensing, and discarding medication, including expired medication;
    - b. Discarding or returning prepackaged and sample medication to the manufacturer if the manufacturer requests the discard or return of the medication;
    - c. A medication recall and notification of patients who received recalled medication; and
    - d. Storing, inventorying, and dispensing controlled substances.
- F. An administrator shall ensure that a personnel member immediately reports a medication error or a patient's adverse reaction to a medication to the medical practitioner who ordered the medication and, if applicable, the behavioral health inpatient facility's clinical director.

A. An administrator shall ensure that:

1. The behavioral health inpatient facility obtains a license or permit as a food establishment under 9 A.A.C. 8, Article 1;
2. A copy of the behavioral health inpatient facility's food establishment license or permit is maintained;
3. If a behavioral health inpatient facility contracts with a food establishment, as established in 9 A.A.C. 8, Article 1, to prepare and deliver food to the behavioral health inpatient facility:

- a. A copy of the contracted food establishment's license or permit under 9 A.A.C. 8, Article 1 is maintained by the behavioral health inpatient facility; and
  - b. The behavioral health inpatient facility is able to store, refrigerate, and reheat food to meet the dietary needs of a patient;
  4. A registered dietitian is employed full-time, part-time, or as a consultant; and
  5. If a registered dietitian is not employed full-time, an individual is designated as a director of food services who consults with a registered dietitian as often as necessary to meet the nutritional needs of the patients.
- B. A registered dietitian or director of food services shall ensure that:
1. A food menu:
    - a. Is prepared at least one week in advance,
    - b. Includes the foods to be served each day,
    - c. Is conspicuously posted at least one calendar day before the first meal on the food menu will be served,
    - d. Includes any food substitution no later than the morning of the day of meal service with a food substitution, and
    - e. Is maintained for at least 60 calendar days after the last day included in the food menu;
  2. Meals and snacks provided by the behavioral health inpatient facility are served according to posted menus;
  3. Meals and snacks for each day are planned using:
    - a. The applicable guidelines in <http://www.health.gov/dietaryguidelines/2010.asp>, and
    - b. Preferences for meals and snacks obtained from patients;
  4. A patient is provided:
    - a. A diet that meets the patient's nutritional needs as specified in the patient's assessment or treatment plan;
    - b. Three meals a day with not more than 14 hours between the evening meal and breakfast except as provided in subsection (B)(4)(d);
    - c. The option to have a daily evening snack identified in subsection (B)(4)(d)(ii) or other snack; and
    - d. The option to extend the time span between the evening meal and breakfast from 14 hours to 16 hours if:
      - i. A patient group agrees; and
      - ii. The patient is offered an evening snack that includes meat, fish, eggs, cheese, or other protein, and a serving from either the fruit and vegetable food group or the bread and cereal food group;
  5. A patient requiring assistance to eat is provided with assistance that recognizes the patient's nutritional, physical, and social needs, including the use of adaptive eating equipment or utensils; and
  6. Water is available and accessible to patients.
- C. An administrator shall ensure that food is obtained, prepared, served, and stored as follows:
1. Food is free from spoilage, filth, or other contamination and is safe for human consumption;
  2. Food is protected from potential contamination;
  3. Food is prepared:
    - a. Using methods that conserve nutritional value, flavor, and appearance; and
    - b. In a form to meet the needs of a patient such as cut, chopped, ground, pureed, or thickened;
  4. Potentially hazardous food is maintained as follows:
    - a. Foods requiring refrigeration are maintained at 41° F or below; and
    - b. Foods requiring cooking are cooked to heat all parts of the food to a temperature of at least 145° F for 15 seconds, except that:
      - i. Ground beef and ground meats are cooked to heat all parts of the food to at least 155° F;
      - ii. Poultry, poultry stuffing, stuffed meats, and stuffing that contains meat are cooked to heat all parts of the food to at least 165° F;
      - iii. Pork and any food containing pork are cooked to heat all parts of the food to at least 155° F;
      - iv. Raw shell eggs for immediate consumption are cooked to at least 145° F for 15 seconds and any food containing raw shell eggs is cooked to heat all parts of the food to at least 155° F;
      - v. Roast beef and beef steak are cooked to an internal temperature of at least 155° F; and
      - vi. Leftovers are reheated to a temperature of at least 165° F;
  5. A refrigerator contains a thermometer, accurate to plus or minus 3° F, placed at the warmest part of the refrigerator;
  6. Frozen foods are stored at a temperature of 0° F or below; and
  7. Tableware, utensils, equipment, and food-contact surfaces are clean and in good repair.

R9-10-322. Emergency and Safety Standards

- A. An administrator shall ensure that a behavioral health inpatient facility has:
1. A fire alarm system installed according to the National Fire Protection Association 72: National Fire Alarm and Signaling Code, incorporated by reference in A.A.C. R9-1-412, and a sprinkler system installed according to the National Fire Protection Association 13 Standard for the Installation of Sprinkler Systems, incorporated by reference in A.A.C. R9-1-412, that are in working order; or
  2. An alternative method to ensure a patient's safety, documented and approved by the local jurisdiction.
- B. An administrator shall ensure that:
1. A disaster plan is developed, documented, maintained in a location accessible to personnel members and other employees, and, if necessary, implemented that includes:
    - a. When, how, and where patients will be relocated;
    - b. How a patient's medical record will be available to individuals providing services to the patient during a disaster;
    - c. A plan to ensure each patient's medication will be available to administer to the patient during a disaster; and

- d. A plan for obtaining food and water for individuals present in the behavioral health inpatient facility or the behavioral health inpatient facility's relocation site during a disaster;
- 2. The disaster plan required in subsection (B)(1) is reviewed at least once every 12 months;
- 3. Documentation of a disaster plan review required in subsection (B)(2) is created, is maintained for at least 12 months after the date of the disaster plan review, and includes:
  - a. The date and time of the disaster plan review;
  - b. The name of each personnel member, employee, volunteer, or student participating in the disaster plan review;
  - c. A critique of the disaster plan review; and
  - d. If applicable, recommendations for improvement;
- 4. A disaster drill for employees is conducted on each shift at least once every three months and documented;
- 5. An evacuation drill for employees and patients:
  - a. Is conducted at least once every six months; and
  - b. Includes all individuals on the premises except for:
    - i. A patient whose medical record contains documentation that evacuation from the behavioral health inpatient facility would cause harm to the patient, and
    - ii. Sufficient personnel members to ensure the health and safety of patients not evacuated according to subsection (B)(5)(b)(i);
- 6. Documentation of each evacuation drill is created, is maintained for at least 12 months after the date of the evacuation drill, and includes:
  - a. The date and time of the evacuation drill;
  - b. The amount of time taken for employees and patients to evacuate to a designated area;
  - c. If applicable:
    - i. An identification of patients needing assistance for evacuation, and
    - ii. An identification of patients who were not evacuated;
  - d. Any problems encountered in conducting the evacuation drill; and
  - e. Recommendations for improvement, if applicable; and
- 7. An evacuation path is conspicuously posted on each hallway of each floor of the behavioral health inpatient facility.
- C. An administrator shall:
  - 1. Obtain a fire inspection conducted according to the time-frame established by the local fire department or the State Fire Marshal,
  - 2. Make any repairs or corrections stated on the fire inspection report, and
  - 3. Maintain documentation of a current fire inspection.

Adopted effective June 14, 1979 (Supp. 79-3). Former Section R9-10-322 repealed, new Section R9-10-322 adopted effective February 4, 1981 (Supp. 81-1). Section repealed by final rulemaking at 8 A.A.R. 2785, effective October 1, 2002 (Supp. 02-2). New Section R9-10-322 made by exempt rulemaking at 19 A.A.R. 2015, effective October 1, 2013 (Supp. 13-2). R9-10-322 renumbered to R9-10-323; new Section R9-

10-322 renumbered from R9-10-321 and amended by exempt rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 1409, pursuant to Laws 2013, Ch. 10, § 13; effective July 1, 2014 (Supp. 14-2).

R9-10-323. Environmental Standards

- A. An administrator shall ensure that:
  - 1. The premises and equipment are:
    - a. Cleaned and, if applicable, disinfected according to policies and procedures designed to prevent, minimize, and control illness or infection; and
    - b. Free from a condition or situation that may cause a patient or other individual to suffer physical injury;
  - 2. A pest control program is implemented and documented;
  - 3. Biohazardous medical waste is identified, stored, and disposed of according to 18 A.A.C. 13, Article 14 and policies and procedures;
  - 4. Equipment used at the behavioral health inpatient facility is:
    - a. Maintained in working order;
    - b. Tested and calibrated according to the manufacturer's recommendations or, if there are no manufacturer's recommendations, as specified in policies and procedures; and
    - c. Used according to the manufacturer's recommendations;
  - 5. Documentation of equipment testing, calibration, and repair is maintained for at least 12 months after the date of the testing, calibration, or repair;
  - 6. Garbage and refuse are:
    - a. In areas used for food storage, food preparation, or food service, stored in covered containers lined with plastic bags;
    - b. In areas not used for food storage, food preparation, or food service, stored:
      - i. According to the requirements in subsection (6)(a), or
      - ii. In a paper-lined container that is cleaned and sanitized as often as necessary to ensure that the container is clean; and
    - c. Removed from the premises at least once a week;
  - 7. Heating and cooling systems maintain the behavioral health inpatient facility at a temperature between 70° F and 84° F;
  - 8. Common areas:
    - a. Are lighted to assure the safety of patients, and
    - b. Have lighting sufficient to allow personnel members to monitor patient activity;
  - 9. Hot water temperatures are maintained between 95° F and 120° F in the areas of a behavioral health inpatient facility used by patients;
  - 10. The supply of hot and cold water is sufficient to meet the personal hygiene needs of patients and the cleaning and sanitation requirements in this Article;
  - 11. Soiled linen and soiled clothing stored by the behavioral health inpatient facility are maintained separate from clean linen and clothing and stored in closed containers away from food storage, kitchen, and dining areas;
  - 12. Oxygen containers are secured in an upright position;
  - 13. Poisonous or toxic materials stored by the behavioral health inpatient facility are maintained in labeled containers in a locked area separate from food preparation and storage, dining areas, and medications and are inaccessible to patients;
  - 14. Combustible or flammable liquids and hazardous materials stored by a behavioral health inpatient facility are stored in the original labeled containers or safety containers in a locked area inaccessible to patients;

15. If pets or animals are allowed in the behavioral health inpatient facility, pets or animals are:
    - a. Controlled to prevent endangering the patients and to maintain sanitation;
    - b. Licensed consistent with local ordinances; and
    - c. For a dog or cat, vaccinated against rabies;
  16. If a water source that is not regulated under 18 A.A.C. 4 by the Arizona Department of Environmental Quality is used:
    - a. The water source is tested at least once every 12 months for total coliform bacteria and fecal coliform or E. coli bacteria;
    - b. If necessary, corrective action is taken to ensure the water is safe to drink; and
    - c. Documentation of testing is maintained for at least 12 months after the date of the test; and
  17. If a non-municipal sewage system is used, the sewage system is in working order and is maintained according to applicable state laws and rules.
- B. An administrator shall ensure that:
1. Smoking tobacco products is not permitted within a behavioral health inpatient facility; and
  2. Except as provided in R9-10-318(A)(11), smoking tobacco products may be permitted on the premises outside a behavioral health inpatient facility if:
    - a. Signs designating smoking areas are conspicuously posted, and
    - b. Smoking is prohibited in areas where combustible materials are stored or in use.
- C. If a swimming pool is located on the premises, an administrator shall ensure that:
1. At least one personnel member with cardiopulmonary resuscitation training that meets the requirements in R9-10-303(C)(1)(e) is present in the pool area when a patient is in the pool area, and
  2. At least two personnel members are present in the pool area when two or more patients are in the pool area.
- Historical Note
- Section R9-10-323, formerly numbered as R9-10-234, renumbered as an emergency effective February 22, 1979, pursuant to A.R.S. § 41-1003, valid for only 90 days (Supp. 79-1). Adopted effective June 14, 1979 (Supp. 79-3). Former Section R9-10-323 repealed, new Section R9-10-323 adopted effective February 4, 1981 (Supp. 81-1). Section repealed by final rulemaking at 8 A.A.R. 2785, effective October 1, 2002 (Supp. 02-2). New Section R9-10-323 made by exempt rulemaking at 19 A.A.R. 2015, effective October 1, 2013 (Supp. 13-2). R9-10-323 renumbered to R9-10-324; new Section R9-10-323 renumbered from R9-10-322 and amended by exempt rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 1409, pursuant to Laws 2013, Ch. 10, § 13; effective July 1, 2014 (Supp. 14-2).
- R9-10-324. Physical Plant Standards
- A. An administrator shall ensure that the premises and equipment are sufficient to accommodate:
1. The services stated in the behavioral health inpatient facility's scope of services, and
  2. An individual accepted as a patient by the behavioral health inpatient facility.
- B. An administrator shall ensure that:
1. A behavioral health inpatient facility has a:
    - a. Waiting area with seating for patients and visitors;
    - b. Room that provides privacy for a patient to receive treatment or visitors; and
    - c. Common area and a dining area that:
      - i. Are not converted, partitioned, or otherwise used as a sleeping area; and
      - ii. Contain furniture and materials to accommodate the recreational and socialization needs of the patients and other individuals in the behavioral health inpatient facility;
  2. A bathroom is available for use by visitors during the behavioral health inpatient facility's hours of operation and:
    - a. Provides privacy; and
    - b. Contains:
      - i. A working sink with running water,
      - ii. A working toilet that flushes and has a seat,
      - iii. Toilet tissue,
      - iv. Soap for hand washing,
      - v. Paper towels or a mechanical air hand dryer,
      - vi. Lighting, and
      - vii. A window that opens or another means of ventilation;
  3. For every six patients, there is at least one working toilet that flushes and has a seat and one sink with running water;
  4. For every eight patients, there is at least one working bathtub or shower with a slip-resistant surface;
  5. A patient bathroom complies with the following:
    - a. Provides privacy when in use;
    - b. Contains:
      - i. A shatterproof mirror, unless the patient's treatment plan requires otherwise;
      - ii. A window that opens or another means of ventilation; and
      - iii. Nonporous surfaces for shower enclosures and slip-resistant surfaces in tubs and showers;
    - c. Has plumbing, piping, ductwork, or other potentially hazardous elements concealed above a ceiling;
    - d. If the bathroom or shower area has a door, the door swings outward to allow for staff emergency access;
    - e. If grab bars for the toilet and tub or shower or other assistive devices are identified in the patient's treatment plan, has grab bars or other assistive devices to provide for patient safety;
    - f. If a grab bar is provided, has the space between the grab bar and the wall filled to prevent a cord being tied around the grab bar;
    - g. Does not contain a towel bar, a shower curtain rod, or a lever handle that is not a specifically designed anti-ligature lever handle;
    - h. Has tamper-resistant lighting fixtures, sprinkler heads, and electrical outlets; and
    - i. For a bathroom with a sprinkler head where a patient is not supervised while the patient is in the bathroom, has a sprinkler head that is recessed or designed to minimize patient access;
  6. If a patient bathroom door locks from the inside, an employee has a key and access to the bathroom;
  7. Each patient is provided a bedroom for sleeping;
  8. A patient bedroom complies with the following:
    - a. Is not used as a common area;
    - b. Is not used as a passageway to another bedroom or bathroom unless the bathroom is for the exclusive use of the patient occupying the bedroom;
    - c. Contains a door that opens into a hallway, common area, or outdoors and, except as provided in subsection (E), another means of egress;
    - d. Is constructed and furnished to provide unimpeded access to the door;

- e. Has window or door covers that provide patient privacy;
  - f. Has floor to ceiling walls;
  - g. Is a:
    - i. Private bedroom that contains at least 60 square feet of floor space, not including the closet; or
    - ii. Shared bedroom that:
      - (1) Is shared by no more than four patients;
      - (2) Contains, except as provided in subsection (B)(9), at least 60 square feet of floor space, not including a closet, for each patient occupying the bedroom; and
      - (3) Provides sufficient space between beds to ensure that a patient has unobstructed access to the bedroom door;
  - h. Contains for each patient occupying the bedroom:
    - i. A bed that is: at least 36 inches wide and at least 72 inches long, and consists of at least a frame and mattress and linens that is not a threat to health and safety; and
    - ii. Individual storage space for personnel effects and clothing such as shelves, a dresser, or chest of drawers;
  - i. Has clean linen for each bed including mattress pad, sheets large enough to tuck under the mattress, pillows, pillow cases, bedspread, waterproof mattress covers as needed, and blankets to ensure warmth and comfort for each patient;
  - j. Has sufficient lighting for a patient occupying the bedroom to read; and
  - k. If applicable, has a drawer pull that is recessed to eliminate the possibility of use as a tie-off point;
9. If a behavioral health inpatient facility licensed before November 1, 2003 was approved for 50 square feet of floor space for each patient in a bedroom, ensure that the bedroom contains at least 50 square feet for each patient not including the closet;
10. In a patient bathroom or a patient bedroom:
- a. The ceiling is secured from access or at least 9 feet in height; and
  - b. A ventilation grille is:
    - i. Secured and has perforations that are too small to use as a tie-off point, or
    - ii. Of sufficient height to prevent patient access;
11. For a door located in an area of the behavioral health inpatient facility that is accessible to patients:
- a. A door closing device, if used on a patient bedroom door, is mounted on the public side of the door;
  - b. A door's hinges are designed to minimize points for hanging;
  - c. Except for a door lever handle that contains specifically designed anti-ligature hardware, a door lever handle points downward when in the latched or unlatched position; and
  - d. Hardware has tamper-resistant fasteners; and
12. A window located in an area of the behavioral health inpatient facility that is accessible to patients is fabricated with laminated safety glass or protected by polycarbonate, laminate, or safety screens.
- C. An administrator of a licensed behavioral health inpatient facility may submit a request, in a Department-provided format, for additional time to comply with a physical plant requirement in subsection (B)(5)(c) through (B)(5)(i), (B)(10), (B)(11), or (B)(12) that includes:
- 1. The rule citation for the specific plant requirement,
  - 2. The current physical plant condition that does not comply with the physical plant requirement,
  - 3. How the current physical plant condition will be changed to comply with the physical plant requirement,
  - 4. Estimated completion date of the identified physical plant change, and
  - 5. Specific actions taken to ensure the health and safety of a patient until the physical plant requirement is met.
- D. When the Department receives a request for additional time to comply with a physical plant requirement in subsection (B)(5)(c) through (B)(5)(i), (B)(10), (B)(11), or (B)(12) submitted according to subsection (C), the Department may approve the request for up to 24 months after the effective date of these rules based on:
- 1. The behavioral health inpatient facility's scope of services,
  - 2. The expected patient acuity based on the behavioral health inpatient facility's scope of services,
  - 3. The specific physical plant requirement in the request, and
  - 4. The threat to patients' health and safety.
- E. A bedroom in a behavioral health inpatient facility is not required to have a second means of egress if:
- 1. An administrator ensures that policies and procedures are established, documented, and implemented that provide for the safe evacuation of a patient in the bedroom based on the patient's physical and mental limitations and the location of the bedroom; or
  - 2. The building where the bedroom is located has a fire alarm system and a sprinkler system required in R9-10-322(A)(1).
- F. If a swimming pool is located on the premises, an administrator shall ensure that:
- 1. The swimming pool is enclosed by a wall or fence that:
    - a. Is at least five feet in height as measured on the exterior of the wall or fence;
    - b. Has no vertical openings greater than four inches across;
    - c. Has no horizontal openings, except as described in subsection (F)(1)(e);
    - d. Is not chain-link;
    - e. Does not have a space between the ground and the bottom fence rail that exceeds four inches in height; and
    - f. Has a self-closing, self-latching gate that:
      - i. Opens away from the swimming pool,
      - ii. Has a latch located at least 54 inches from the ground, and
      - iii. Is locked when the swimming pool is not in use; and
  - 2. A life preserver or shepherd's crook is available and accessible in the pool area.
- G. An administrator shall ensure that a spa that is not enclosed by a wall or fence as described in subsection (F)(1) is covered and locked when not in use.

R9-10-421. Medication Services

A. An administrator shall ensure that policies and procedures for medication services:

1. Include:
  - a. A process for providing information to a resident about medication prescribed for the resident including:
    - i. The prescribed medication's anticipated results,
    - ii. The prescribed medication's potential adverse reactions,
    - iii. The prescribed medication's potential side effects, and
    - iv. Potential adverse reactions that could result from not taking the medication as prescribed;
  - b. Procedures for preventing, responding to, and reporting:
    - i. A medication error,
    - ii. An adverse response to a medication, or
    - iii. A medication overdose;
  - c. Procedures to ensure that a pharmacist reviews a resident's medications at least once every three months and provides documentation to the resident's attending physician and the director of nursing indicating potential medication problems such as incompatible or duplicative medications;
  - d. Procedures for documenting medication services; and
  - e. Procedures for assisting a resident in obtaining medication; and
2. Specify a process for review through the quality management program of:
  - a. A medication administration error, and
  - b. An adverse reaction to a medication.

B. An administrator shall ensure that:

1. Policies and procedures for medication administration:
  - a. Are reviewed and approved by the director of nursing;
  - b. Specify the individuals who may:
    - i. Order medication, and
    - ii. Administer medication;
  - c. Ensure that medication is administered to a resident only as prescribed; and
  - d. Cover the documentation of a resident's refusal to take prescribed medication in the resident's medical record;
2. Verbal orders for medication services are taken by a nurse, unless otherwise provided by law;
3. A medication administered to a resident:
  - a. Is administered in compliance with an order, and
  - b. Is documented in the resident's medical record; and
4. If a psychotropic medication is administered to a resident, the psychotropic medication:
  - a. Is only administered to a resident for a diagnosed medical condition; and
  - b. Unless clinically contraindicated or otherwise ordered by an attending physician or the attending physician's designee, is gradually reduced in dosage while the resident is simultaneously provided with interventions such as behavior and environment modification in an effort to discontinue the psychotropic medication, unless a dose reduction is attempted and the resident displays behavior justifying the need for the psychotropic medication, and the attending physician documents the necessity for the continued use and dosage.

C. An administrator shall ensure that:

1. A current drug reference guide is available for use by personnel members; and
2. If pharmaceutical services are provided:
  - a. The pharmaceutical services are provided under the direction of a pharmacist;
  - b. The pharmaceutical services comply with ARS Title 36, Chapter 27; A.R.S. Title 32, Chapter 18; and 4 A.A.C. 23; and
  - c. A copy of the pharmacy license is provided to the Department upon request.

D. When medication is stored at a nursing care institution, an administrator shall ensure that:

1. Medication is stored in a separate locked room, closet, or self-contained unit used only for medication storage;
2. Medication is stored according to the instructions on the medication container; and
3. Policies and procedures are established, documented, and implemented to protect the health and safety of a resident for:
  - a. Receiving, storing, inventorying, tracking, dispensing, and discarding medication including expired medication;
  - b. Discarding or returning prepackaged and sample medication to the manufacturer if the manufacturer requests the discard or return of the medication;
  - c. A medication recall and notification of residents who received recalled medication; and
  - d. Storing, inventorying, and dispensing controlled substances.

E. An administrator shall ensure that a personnel member immediately reports a medication error or a resident's adverse reaction to a medication to the medical practitioner who ordered the medication and the nursing care institution's director of nursing.

R9-10-424. Emergency and Safety Standards

A. An administrator shall ensure that:

1. A disaster plan is developed, documented, maintained in a location accessible to personnel members and other employees, and, if necessary, implemented that includes:
  - a. When, how, and where residents will be relocated, including:
    - i. Instructions for the evacuation or transfer of residents,
    - ii. Assigned responsibilities for each employee and personnel member, and
    - iii. A plan for continuing to provide services to meet a resident's needs;
  - b. How a resident's medical record will be available to individuals providing services to the resident during a disaster;
  - c. A plan for back-up power and water supply;
  - d. A plan to ensure a resident's medications will be available to administer to the resident during a disaster;
  - e. A plan to ensure a resident is provided nursing services and other services required by the resident during a disaster; and
  - f. A plan for obtaining food and water for individuals present in the nursing care institution or the nursing care institution's relocation site during a disaster;
2. The disaster plan required in subsection (A)(1) is reviewed at least once every 12 months;
3. Documentation of a disaster plan review required in subsection (A)(2) is created, is maintained for at least 12 months after the date of the disaster plan review, and includes:
  - a. The date and time of the disaster plan review;
  - b. The name of each personnel member, employee, or volunteer participating in the disaster plan review;
  - c. A critique of the disaster plan review; and
  - d. If applicable, recommendations for improvement;
4. A disaster drill for employees is conducted on each shift at least once every three months and documented;
5. An evacuation drill for employees and residents:
  - a. Is conducted at least once every six months; and
  - b. Includes all individuals on the premises except for:
    - i. A resident whose medical record contains documentation that evacuation from the nursing care institution would cause harm to the resident, and
    - ii. Sufficient personnel members to ensure the health and safety of residents not evacuated according to subsection (A)(5)(b)(i);
6. Documentation of each evacuation drill is created, is maintained for at least 12 months after the date of the drill, and includes:
  - a. The date and time of the evacuation drill;
  - b. The amount of time taken for employees and residents to evacuate to a designated area;
  - c. If applicable:
    - i. An identification of residents needing assistance for evacuation, and
    - ii. An identification of residents who were not evacuated;
  - d. Any problems encountered in conducting the evacuation drill; and

- e. Recommendations for improvement, if applicable; and
- 7. An evacuation path is conspicuously posted on each hallway of each floor of the nursing care institution.
- B. An administrator shall ensure that, if applicable, a sign is placed at the entrance to a room or area indicating that oxygen is in use.
- C. An administrator shall:
  1. Obtain a fire inspection conducted according to the time-frame established by the local fire department or the State Fire Marshal,
  2. Make any repairs or corrections stated on the fire inspection report, and
  3. Maintain documentation of a current fire inspection.

R9-10-427. Quality Rating

- A. As required in A.R.S. § 36-425.02(A), the Department shall issue a quality rating to each licensed nursing care institution based on the results of a compliance survey.
- B. The following quality ratings are established:
  1. A quality rating of "A" for excellent is issued if the nursing care institution achieves a score of 90 to 100 points,
  2. A quality rating of "B" is issued if the nursing care institution achieves a score of 80 to 89 points,
  3. A quality rating of "C" is issued if the nursing care institution achieves a score of 70 to 79 points, and
  4. A quality rating of "D" is issued if the nursing care institution achieves a score of 69 or fewer points.
- C. The quality rating is determined by the total number of points awarded based on the following criteria:
  1. Nursing Services:
    - a. 15 points: The nursing care institution is implementing a system that ensures residents are provided nursing services to maintain the resident's highest practicable physical, mental, and psychosocial well-being according to the resident's comprehensive assessment and care plan.
    - b. 5 points: The nursing care institution ensures that each resident is free from medication errors that resulted in actual harm.
    - c. 5 points: The nursing care institution ensures the resident's representative is notified and the resident's attending physician is consulted if a resident has a significant change in condition or if the resident is in an incident that requires medical services.
  2. Resident Rights:
    - a. 10 points: The nursing care institution is implementing a system that ensures a resident's privacy needs are met.
    - b. 10 points: The nursing care institution ensures that a resident is free from physical and chemical restraints for purposes other than to treat the resident's medical condition.
    - c. 5 points: The nursing care institution ensures that a resident or the resident's representative is allowed to participate in the planning of, or decisions concerning treatment including the right to refuse treatment and to formulate a health care directive.
  3. Administration:
    - a. 10 points: The nursing care institution has no repeat deficiencies that resulted in actual harm or immediate jeopardy to residents that were cited during the last survey or other survey or complaint investigation conducted between the last survey and the current survey.
    - b. 5 points: The nursing care institution is implementing a system to prevent abuse of a resident and misappropriation of resident property, investigate each allegation of abuse of a resident and misappropriation of resident's property, and report each allegation of abuse of a resident and misappropriation of resident's

- property to the Department and as required by A.R.S. § 46-454.
- c. 5 points: The nursing care institution is implementing a quality management program that addresses nursing care institution services provided to residents, resident complaints, and resident concerns, and documents actions taken for response, resolution, or correction of issues about nursing care institution services provided to residents, resident complaints, and resident concerns.
  - d. 1 point: The nursing care institution is implementing a system to provide social services and a program of ongoing recreational activities to meet the resident's needs based on the resident's comprehensive assessment.
  - e. 1 point: The nursing care institution is implementing a system to ensure that records documenting freedom from infectious pulmonary tuberculosis are maintained for each personnel member, volunteer, and resident.
  - f. 2 points: The nursing care institution is implementing a system to ensure that a resident is free from unnecessary drugs.
  - g. 1 point: The nursing care institution is implementing a system to ensure a personnel member attends in-service education according to policies and procedures.
4. Environment and Infection Control:
    - a. 5 points: The nursing care institution environment is free from a condition or situation within the nursing care institution's control that may cause a resident injury.
    - b. 1 point: The nursing care institution establishes and maintains a pest control program.
    - c. 1 point: The nursing care institution develops a written disaster plan that includes procedures for protecting the health and safety of residents.
    - d. 1 point: The nursing care institution ensures orientation to the disaster plan for each personnel member is completed within the first scheduled week of employment.
    - e. 1 point: The nursing care institution maintains a clean and sanitary environment.
    - f. 5 points: The nursing care institution is implementing a system to prevent and control infection.
    - g. 1 point: An employee cleans the employee's hands after each direct resident contact or when hand cleaning is indicated to prevent the spread of infection.
  5. Food Services:
    - a. 1 point: The nursing care institution complies with 9 A.A.C. 8, Article 1, for food preparation, storage and handling as evidenced by a current food establishment license.
    - b. 3 points: The nursing care institution provides each resident with food that meets the resident's needs as specified in the resident's comprehensive assessment and care plan.
    - c. 2 points: The nursing care institution obtains input from each resident or the resident's representative and implements recommendations for meal planning and food choices consistent with the resident's dietary needs.
    - d. 2 points: The nursing care institution provides assistance to a resident who needs help in eating so that the resident's nutritional, physical, and social needs are met.
    - e. 1 point: The nursing care institution prepares menus at least one week in advance, conspicuously posts each menu, and adheres to each planned menu unless an uncontrollable situation such as food spoilage or non-delivery of a specified food requires substitution.
    - f. 1 point: The nursing care institution provides food substitution of similar nutritive value for residents who refuse the food served or who request a substitution.
  - D. A nursing care institution's quality rating remains in effect until a survey is conducted by the Department for the next renewal period except as provided in subsection (E).
  - E. If the Department issues a provisional license, the current quality rating is terminated. A provisional licensee may submit an application for a substantial compliance survey. If the Department determines that, as a result of a substantial compliance survey, the nursing care institution is in substantial compliance, the Department shall issue a new quality rating according to subsection (C).
  - F. The issuance of a quality rating does not preclude the Department from seeking a civil penalty as provided in A.R.S. § 36-431.01, or suspension or revocation of a license as provided in A.R.S. § 36-427.

R9-10-707. Admission; Assessment

A. An administrator shall ensure that:

1. A resident is admitted based upon the resident's presenting behavioral health issue and treatment needs and the behavioral health residential facility's scope of services;
2. A behavioral health professional, authorized by policies and procedures to accept a resident for admission, is available;
3. General consent is obtained from:
  - a. An adult resident or the resident's representative before or at the time of admission, or
  - b. A resident's representative, if the resident is not an adult;
4. The general consent obtained in subsection (A)(3) is documented in the resident's medical record;
5. Except as provided in subsection (E)(1)(a), a medical practitioner performs a medical history and physical examination or a registered nurse performs a nursing assessment on a resident within 30 calendar days before admission or within seven calendar days after admission and documents the medical history and physical examina-

- tion or nursing assessment in the resident's medical record within seven calendar days after admission;
6. If a medical practitioner performs a medical history and physical examination or a nurse performs a nursing assessment on a resident before admission, the medical practitioner enters an interval note or the nurse enters a progress note in the resident's medical record within seven calendar days after admission;
7. If a behavioral health assessment is conducted by a:
  - a. Behavioral health technician or registered nurse, within 24 hours a behavioral health professional, certified or licensed to provide the behavioral health services needed by the resident, reviews and signs the behavioral health assessment to ensure that the behavioral health assessment identifies the behavioral health services needed by the resident; or
  - b. Behavioral health paraprofessional, a behavioral health professional, certified or licensed to provide the behavioral health services needed by the resident, supervises the behavioral health paraprofessional during the completion of the assessment and signs the assessment to ensure that the assessment identifies the behavioral health services needed by the resident;
8. Except as provided in subsection (A)(9), a behavioral health assessment for a resident is completed before treatment for the resident is initiated;
9. If a behavioral health assessment that complies with the requirements in this Section is received from a behavioral health provider other than the behavioral health residential facility or if the behavioral health residential facility has a medical record for the resident that contains a behavioral health assessment that was completed within 12 months before the date of the resident's current admission:
  - a. The resident's assessment information is reviewed and updated if additional information that affects the resident's assessment is identified, and
  - b. The review and update of the resident's assessment information is documented in the resident's medical record within 48 hours after the review is completed;
10. A behavioral health assessment:
  - a. Documents a resident's:
    - i. Presenting issue;
    - ii. Substance abuse history;
    - iii. Co-occurring disorder;
    - iv. Legal history, including:
      - (1) Custody,
      - (2) Guardianship, and
      - (3) Pending litigation;
    - v. Criminal justice record;

    - viii. Symptoms reported by the resident; and
    - ix. Referrals needed by the resident, if any;
  - b. Includes:
    - i. Recommendations for further assessment or examination of the resident's needs,
    - ii. The physical health services or ancillary services that will be provided to the resident until the resident's treatment plan is completed, and
    - iii. The signature and date signed of the personnel member conducting the behavioral health assessment; and
  - c. Is documented in resident's medical record;

11. A resident is referred to a medical practitioner if a determination is made that the resident requires immediate physical health services or the resident's behavioral health issue may be related to the resident's medical condition; and
  12. Except as provided in subsection (E)(1)(d), a resident provides evidence of freedom from infectious tuberculosis:
    - a. Before or within seven calendar days after the resident's admission, and
    - b. As specified in R9-10-113.
- B. An administrator shall ensure that:
1. A request for participation in a resident's behavioral health assessment is made to the resident or the resident's representative,
  2. An opportunity for participation in the resident's behavioral health assessment is provided to the resident or the resident's representative, and
  3. The request in subsection (B)(1) and the opportunity in subsection (B)(2) are documented in the resident's medical record.
- C. An administrator shall ensure that a resident's behavioral health assessment information is documented in the medical record within 48 hours after completing the behavioral health assessment.
- D. If information in subsection (A)(10) is obtained about a resident after the resident's behavioral health assessment is completed, an interval note, including the information, is documented in the resident's medical record within 48 hours after the information is obtained.
- E. If a behavioral health residential facility is authorized to provide respite services, an administrator shall ensure that:
1. Upon admission of a resident for respite services:
    - a. A medical history and physical examination of the resident:
      - i. Is performed; or
      - ii. Dated within the previous 12 months, is available in the resident's medical record from a previous admission to the behavioral health residential facility;
    - b. A treatment plan that meets the requirements in R9-10-708:
      - i. Is developed; or
      - ii. Dated within the previous 12 months, is available in the resident's medical record from a previous admission to the behavioral health residential facility;
    - c. If a treatment plan, dated within the previous 12 months, is available, the treatment plan is reviewed, updated, and documented in the resident's medical record; and
    - d. If the resident is not expected to be present in the behavioral health residential facility for more than seven days, the resident is not required to comply with the requirements in subsection (A)(12);
  2. The common area required in R9-10-722(B)(1)(b) provides at least 25 square feet for each resident, including residents who do not stay overnight; and
  3. In addition to the requirements in R9-10-722(B)(3), toilets and hand washing sinks are available to residents, including residents who do not stay overnight, as follows:
    - a. There is at least one working toilet that flushes and has a seat and one sink with running water for every 10 residents,
    - b. There are at least two working toilets that flush and have seats and two sinks with running water if there are 11 to 25 residents, and
    - c. There is at least one additional working toilet that flushes and has a seat and one additional sink with running water for each additional 20 residents.

  4. Behavioral health services:
    - a. Listed in the behavioral health residential facility's scope of services are provided on the premises; and
    - b. When provided in a setting or activity with more than one resident participating, before a resident participates, the diagnoses, treatment needs, developmental levels, social skills, verbal skills, and personal histories, including any history of physical or sexual abuse, of the residents participating are reviewed to ensure that the:
      - i. Health and safety of each resident is protected, and
      - ii. Treatment needs of each resident participating are being met; and
  5. A resident does not:
    - a. Use or have access to any materials, furnishings, or equipment or participate in any activity or treatment that may present a threat to the resident's health or safety based on the resident's documented diagnosis, treatment needs, developmental levels, social skills, verbal skills, or personal history; or
    - b. Share any space, participate in any activity or treatment, or verbally or physically interact with any other resident that may present a threat to the resident's health or safety based on the other resident's documented diagnosis, treatment needs, developmental levels, social skills, verbal skills, and personal history.
- B. An administrator shall ensure that counseling is:
1. Offered as described in the behavioral health residential facility's scope of services,
  2. Provided according to the frequency and number of hours identified in the resident's treatment plan, and
  3. Provided by a behavioral health professional or a behavioral health technician.
- C. An administrator shall ensure that:
1. A personnel member providing counseling that addresses a specific type of behavioral health issue has the skills and knowledge necessary to provide the counseling that addresses the specific type of behavioral health issue; and
  2. Each counseling session is documented in a resident's medical record to include:
    - a. The date of the counseling session;
    - b. The amount of time spent in the counseling session;
    - c. Whether the counseling was individual counseling, family counseling, or group counseling;
    - d. The treatment goals addressed in the counseling session; and
    - e. The signature of the personnel member who provided the counseling and the date signed.
- D. An administrator of a behavioral health residential facility authorized to provide behavioral health residential services to individuals under 18 years of age:
1. May continue to provide behavioral health services to a resident who is 18 years of age or older:
    - a. If the resident:
      - i. Was admitted to the behavioral health residential facility before the resident's 18th birthday;
      - ii. Is not 21 years of age or older; and
      - iii. Is:

  - d. Clean and non-hazardous toys, educational materials, and physical activity equipment are available and accessible to residents on the premises in a quantity sufficient to meet each resident's needs and are appropriate to each resident's age, developmental level, and treatment needs; and
  - e. A resident's educational needs are met, including providing or arranging for transportation:
    - i. By establishing and providing an educational component, approved in writing by the Arizona Department of Education; or
    - ii. As arranged and documented by the administrator through the local school district.
- E. An administrator shall ensure that:
1. An emergency safety response is:
    - a. Only used:
      - i. By a personnel member trained to use an emergency safety response,
      - ii. For the management of a resident's violent or self-destructive behavior, and
      - iii. When less restrictive interventions have been determined to be ineffective; and
    - b. Discontinued at the earliest possible time, but no longer than five minutes after the emergency safety response is initiated;
  2. Within 24 hours after an emergency safety response is used for a resident, the following information is entered into the resident medical record:
    - a. The date and time the emergency safety response was used;
    - b. The name of each personnel member who used an emergency safety response;
    - c. The specific emergency safety response used;
    - d. The personnel member or resident behavior, event, or environmental factor that caused the need for the emergency safety response; and
    - e. Any injury that resulted from the emergency safety response;
  3. Within 10 working days after an emergency safety response is used for a resident, the administrator or clinical director reviews the information in subsection (E)(2); and

4. After the review required in subsection (E)(3), the following information is entered into the resident's medical record:
    - a. Actions taken or planned actions to prevent the need for the use of an emergency safety response for the resident;
    - b. A determination of whether the resident is appropriately placed at the behavioral health residential facility; and
    - c. Whether the resident's treatment plan was reviewed or needs to be reviewed and amended to ensure that the resident's treatment plan is meeting the resident's treatment needs.
- F. An administrator shall ensure that:
1. A personnel member whose job description includes the ability to use an emergency safety response:
    - a. Completes training in crisis intervention that includes:
      - i. Techniques to identify personnel member and resident behaviors, events, and environmental factors that may trigger the need for the use of an emergency safety response;
      - ii. The use of nonphysical intervention skills, such as de-escalation, mediation, conflict resolution, active listening, and verbal and observational methods; and
      - iii. The safe use of an emergency safety response including the ability to recognize and respond to signs of physical distress in a client who is receiving an emergency safety response; and
    - b. Completes training required in subsection (F)(1)(a):
      - i. Before providing behavioral health services; and
      - ii. At least once every 12 months after the date the personnel member completed the initial training;
  2. Documentation of the completed training in subsection (F)(1)(a) includes:
    - a. The name and credentials of the individual providing the training;
    - b. Date of the training; and
    - c. Verification of a personnel member's ability to use the training; and
  3. The materials used to provide the completed training in crisis intervention, including handbooks, electronic presentations, and skills verification worksheets, are maintained for at least 12 months after each personnel member who received training using the materials no longer provides services at the behavioral health residential facility.

R9-10-718. Medication Services

- A. An administrator shall ensure that policies and procedures for medication services:
1. Include:
    - a. A process for providing information to a resident about medication prescribed for the resident including:
      - i. The prescribed medication's anticipated results,
      - ii. The prescribed medication's potential adverse reactions,
      - iii. The prescribed medication's potential side effects, and
      - iv. Potential adverse reactions that could result from not taking the medication as prescribed;
    - b. Procedures for preventing, responding to, and reporting:
      - i. A medication error,
      - ii. An adverse reaction to a medication, or
      - iii. A medication overdose;

4. Training for a personnel member, other than a medical practitioner or registered nurse, in assistance in the self-administration of medication:
    - a. Is provided by a medical practitioner or registered nurse or an individual trained by a medical practitioner or registered nurse; and
    - b. Includes:
      - i. A demonstration of the personnel member's skills and knowledge necessary to provide assistance in the self-administration of medication,
      - ii. Identification of medication errors and medical emergencies related to medication that require emergency medical intervention, and
      - iii. The process for notifying the appropriate entities when an emergency medical intervention is needed;
  5. A personnel member, other than a medical practitioner or registered nurse, completes the training in subsection (C)(4) before the personnel member provides assistance in the self-administration of medication; and
  6. Assistance in the self-administration of medication provided to a resident:
    - a. Is in compliance with an order, and
    - b. Is documented in the resident's medical record.
- D. An administrator shall ensure that:
1. A current drug reference guide is available for use by personnel members;
  2. A current toxicology reference guide is available for use by personnel members; and
  3. If pharmaceutical services are provided on the premises:
    - a. A committee, composed of at least one physician, one pharmacist, and other personnel members as determined by policies and procedures, is established to:
      - i. Develop a drug formulary,
      - ii. Update the drug formulary at least once every 12 months,
      - iii. Develop medication usage and medication substitution policies and procedures, and
      - iv. Specify which medications and medication classifications are required to be stopped automatically after a specific time period unless the ordering medical practitioner specifically orders otherwise;
    - b. The pharmaceutical services are provided under the direction of a pharmacist;
    - c. The pharmaceutical services comply with A.R.S. Title 36, Chapter 27; A.R.S. Title 32, Chapter 18; and 4 A.A.C. 23; and
    - d. A copy of the pharmacy license is provided to the Department upon request.
- E. When medication is stored at a behavioral health residential facility, an administrator shall ensure that:
1. Medication is stored in a separate locked room, closet, cabinet, or self-contained unit used only for medication storage;
  2. Medication is stored according to the instructions on the medication container; and
  3. Policies and procedures are established, documented, and implemented for:
    - a. Receiving, storing, inventorying, tracking, dispensing, and discarding medication, including expired medication;
    - b. Discarding or returning prepackaged and sample medication to the manufacturer if the manufacturer requests the discard or return of the medication;
    - c. A medication recall and notification of residents who received recalled medication; and
    - d. Storing, inventorying, and dispensing controlled substances.
- F. An administrator shall ensure that a personnel member immediately reports a medication error or a resident's adverse reaction to a medication to the medical practitioner who ordered the medication and, if applicable, the behavioral health residential facility's clinical director.

- u. Cover a quality management program, including incident report and supporting documentation;
- 2. Available to employees and volunteers of the assisted living facility; and
- 3. Reviewed at least once every three years and updated as needed.
- D. A manager shall ensure that the following are conspicuously posted:
  - 1. A list of resident rights;
  - 2. The assisted living facility's license;
  - 3. Current phone numbers of:
    - a. The unit in the Department responsible for licensing and monitoring the assisted living facility,
    - b. Adult Protective Services in the Department of Economic Security,
    - c. The State Long-Term Care Ombudsman, and
    - d. The Arizona Center for Disability Law; and
  - 4. The location at which a copy of the most recent Department inspection report and any plan of correction resulting from the Department inspection may be viewed.
- E. A manager shall ensure that, unless otherwise stated:
  - 1. Documentation required by this Article is provided to the Department within two hours after a Department request; and
  - 2. When documentation or information is required by this Chapter to be submitted on behalf of an assisted living facility, the documentation or information is provided to the unit in the Department that is responsible for licensing and monitoring the assisted living facility.
- F. If a requirement in this Article states that a manager shall ensure an action or condition or sign a document:
  - 1. A governing authority or licensee may ensure the action or condition or sign the document and retain the responsibility to ensure compliance with the requirement in this Article;
  - 2. The manager may delegate ensuring the action or condition or signing the document to another individual, but the manager retains the responsibility to ensure compliance with the requirement in the Article; and
  - 3. If the manager delegates ensuring an action or condition or signing a document, the delegation is documented and the documentation includes the name of the individual to whom the action, condition, or signing is delegated and the effective date of the delegation.
- G. A manager shall:
  - 1. Not act as a resident's representative and not allow an employee or a family member of an employee to act as a resident's representative for a resident who is not a family member of the employee;
  - 2. If the assisted living facility administers personal funds accounts for residents and is authorized in writing by a resident or the resident's representative to administer a personal funds account for the resident:
    - a. Ensure that the resident's personal funds account does not exceed $2,000;
    - b. Maintain a separate record for each resident's personal funds account, including receipts and expenditures;
    - c. Maintain the resident's personal funds account separate from any account of the assisted living facility; and
    - d. Provide a copy of the record of the resident's personal funds account to the resident or the resident's representative at least once every three months;
  - 3. Notify the resident's representative, family member, public fiduciary, or trust officer if the manager determines that a resident is incapable of handling financial affairs; and
- 4. Except when a resident's need for assisted living services changes, as documented in the resident's service plan, ensure that a resident receives at least 30 calendar days written notice before any increase in a fee or charge.
- H. A manager shall permit the Department to interview an employee, a volunteer, or a resident as part of a compliance survey or a complaint investigation.
- I. If abuse, neglect, or exploitation of a resident is alleged or suspected to have occurred before the resident was accepted or while the resident is not on the premises and not receiving services from an assisted living facility's manager, caregiver, or assistant caregiver, the manager shall report the alleged or suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the resident according to A.R.S. § 46-454.
- J. If a manager has a reasonable basis, according to A.R.S. § 46-454, to believe abuse, neglect or exploitation has occurred on the premises or while a resident is receiving services from an assisted living facility's manager, caregiver, or assistant caregiver, the manager shall:
  - 1. If applicable, take immediate action to stop the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation;
  - 2. Report the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the resident according to A.R.S. § 46-454;
  - 3. Document:
    - a. The suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation;
    - b. Any action taken according to subsection (J)(1); and
    - c. The report in subsection (J)(2);
  - 4. Maintain the documentation in subsection (J)(3) for at least 12 months after the date of the report in subsection (J)(2);
  - 5. Initiate an investigation of the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation and document the following information within five working days after the report required in subsection (J)(2):
    - a. The dates, times, and description of the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation;
    - b. A description of any injury to the resident related to the suspected abuse or neglect and any change to the resident's physical, cognitive, functional, or emotional condition;
    - c. The names of witnesses to the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation; and
    - d. The actions taken by the manager to prevent the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation from occurring in the future; and
  - 6. Maintain a copy of the documented information required in subsection (J)(5) for at least 12 months after the date the investigation was initiated.
- K. A manager shall provide written notification to the Department of a resident's:
  - 1. Death, if the resident's death is required to be reported according to A.R.S. § 11-593, within one working day after the resident's death; and
  - 2. Self-injury, within two working days after the resident inflicts a self-injury that requires immediate intervention by an emergency services provider.
- L. If a resident is receiving services from a home health agency or hospice service agency, a manager shall ensure that:
  - 1. The resident's medical record contains:
    - a. The name, address, and contact individual, including contact information, of the home health agency or hospice service agency;
    - b. Any information provided by the home health agency or hospice service agency; and

- c. A copy of resident follow-up instructions provided to the resident by the home health agency or hospice service agency; and
  - 2. Any care instructions for a resident provided to the assisted living facility by the home health agency or hospice service agency are:
    - a. Within the assisted living facility's scope of services,
    - b. Communicated to a caregiver, and

R9-10-811. Medical Records

A. A manager shall ensure that:

1. A medical record is established and maintained for each resident according to A.R.S. Title 12, Chapter 13, Article 7.1;
2. An entry in a resident's medical record is:
  - a. Only recorded by an individual authorized by policies and procedures to make the entry;
  - b. Dated, legible, and authenticated; and
  - c. Not changed to make the initial entry illegible;
3. If a rubber-stamp signature or an electronic signature is used to authenticate an order, the individual whose signature the rubber-stamp signature or electronic signature represents is accountable for the use of the rubber-stamp signature or electronic signature;
4. A resident's medical record is available to an individual:
  - a. Authorized according to policies and procedures to access the resident's medical record;
  - b. If the individual is not authorized according to policies and procedures, with the written consent of the resident or the resident's representative; or
  - c. As permitted by law; and
5. A resident's medical record is protected from loss, damage, or unauthorized use.

B. If an assisted living facility maintains residents' medical records electronically, a manager shall ensure that:

1. Safeguards exist to prevent unauthorized access, and
2. The date and time of an entry in a resident's medical record is recorded by the computer's internal clock.

C. A manager shall ensure that a resident's medical record contains:

1. Resident information that includes:

- a. The resident's name, and
- b. The resident's date of birth;
2. The names, addresses, and telephone numbers of:
  - a. The resident's primary care provider;
  - b. Other persons, such as a home health agency or hospice service agency, involved in the care of the resident; and
  - c. An individual to be contacted in the event of emergency, significant change in the resident's condition, or termination of residency;
3. If applicable, the name and contact information of the resident's representative and:
  - a. The document signed by the resident consenting for the resident's representative to act on the resident's behalf; or
  - b. If the resident's representative:
    - i. Has a health care power of attorney established under A.R.S. § 36-3221 or a mental health care power of attorney executed under A.R.S. § 36-3282, a copy of the health care power of attorney or mental health care power of attorney; or
    - ii. Is a legal guardian, a copy of the court order establishing guardianship;
4. The date of acceptance and, if applicable, date of termination of residency;
5. Documentation of the resident's needs required in R9-10-807(B);
6. Documentation of general consent and informed consent, if applicable;
7. Except as allowed in R9-10-808(B)(2), documentation of freedom from infectious tuberculosis as required in R9-10-807(A);
8. A copy of resident's health care directive, if applicable;
9. The resident's signed residency agreement and any amendments;
10. Resident's service plan and updates;
11. Documentation of assisted living services provided to the resident;
12. A medication order from a medical practitioner for each medication that is administered to the resident or for which the resident receives assistance in the self-administration of the medication;
13. Documentation of medication administered to the resident or for which the resident received assistance in the self-administration of medication that includes:
  - a. The date and time of administration or assistance;
  - b. The name, strength, dosage, and route of administration;
  - c. The name and signature of the individual administering or providing assistance in the self-administration of medication; and
  - d. An unexpected reaction the resident has to the medication;
14. Documentation of the resident's refusal of a medication, if applicable;
15. If applicable, documentation of any actions taken to control the resident's sudden, intense, or out-of-control behavior to prevent harm to the resident or another individual;
16. If applicable, documentation of a determination by a medical practitioner that evacuation from the assisted living facility during an evacuation drill would cause harm to the resident;
17. Documentation of notification of the resident of the availability of vaccination for influenza and pneumonia, according to A.R.S. § 36-406(1)(d);

18. Documentation of the resident's orientation to exits from the assisted living facility required in R9-10-818(B);
19. If a resident is receiving behavioral health services other than behavioral care, documentation of the determination in R9-10-813(3);
20. If a resident is receiving behavioral care, documentation of the determination in R9-10-812(3);
21. If applicable, for a resident who is unable to direct self-care, the information required in R9-10-815(F);
22. Documentation of any significant change in a resident's behavior, physical, cognitive, or functional condition and the action taken by a manager or caregiver to address the resident's changing needs;
23. Documentation of the notification required in R9-10-803(G) if the resident is incapable of handling financial affairs; and
24. If the resident no longer resides and receives assisted living services from the assisted living facility:
  - a. A written notice of termination of residency; or
  - b. If the resident terminated residency, the date the resident terminated residency.

E. A manager shall ensure that a resident's medication organizer is only filled by:

1. The resident;
2. The resident's representative;
3. A family member of the resident;
4. A personnel member of a home health agency or hospice service agency; or
5. The manager or a caregiver who has been designated and is under the direction of a medical practitioner, according to subsection (B)(2)(b).

F. When medication is stored by an assisted living facility, a manager shall ensure that:

1. Medication is stored in a separate locked room, closet, cabinet, or self-contained unit used only for medication storage;
2. Medication is stored according to the instructions on the medication container; and
3. Policies and procedures are established, documented, and implemented for:
  - a. Receiving, storing, inventorying, tracking, dispensing, and discarding medication including expired medication;
  - b. Discarding or returning prepackaged and sample medication to the manufacturer if the manufacturer requests the discard or return of the medication;

- c. A medication recall and notification of residents who received recalled medication; and
- d. Storing, inventorying, and dispensing controlled substances.
- G. A manager shall ensure that a caregiver immediately reports a medication error or a resident's unexpected reaction to a medication to the medical practitioner who ordered the medication or, if the medical practitioner who ordered the medication is not available, another medical practitioner.
- H. If medication is stored by a resident in the resident's bedroom or residential unit, a manager shall ensure that:
  - 1. The medication is stored according to the resident's service plan; or
  - 2. If the medication is not being stored according to the resident's service plan, the resident's service plan is updated to include how the medication is being stored by the resident.
- B. If the assisted living facility offers therapeutic diets, a manager shall ensure that:
  - 1. A current therapeutic diet manual is available for use by employees, and
  - 2. The therapeutic diet is provided to a resident according to a written order from the resident's primary care provider or another medical practitioner.
- C. A manager shall ensure that food is obtained, prepared, served, and stored as follows:
  - 1. Food is free from spoilage, filth, or other contamination and is safe for human consumption;
  - 2. Food is protected from potential contamination;
  - 3. Food is prepared:
    - a. Using methods that conserve nutritional value, flavor, and appearance; and
    - b. In a form to meet the needs of a resident, such as cut, chopped, ground, pureed, or thickened;
  - 4. Potentially hazardous food is maintained as follows:
    - a. Foods requiring refrigeration are maintained at 41° F or below; and
    - b. Foods requiring cooking are cooked to heat all parts of the food to a temperature of at least 145° F for 15 seconds, except that:
      - i. Ground beef and ground meats are cooked to heat all parts of the food to at least 155° F;
      - ii. Poultry, poultry stuffing, stuffed meats, and stuffing that contains meat are cooked to heat all parts of the food to at least 165° F;
      - iii. Pork and any food containing pork are cooked to heat all parts of the food to at least 155° F;
      - iv. Raw shell eggs for immediate consumption are cooked to at least 145° F for 15 seconds and any food containing raw shell eggs is cooked to heat all parts of the food to at least 155° F;
      - v. Roast beef and beef steak are cooked to an internal temperature of at least 155° F; and
      - vi. Leftovers are reheated to a temperature of at least 165° F;
  - 5. A refrigerator used by an assisted living facility to store food or medication contains a thermometer, accurate to plus or minus 3° F, placed at the warmest part of the refrigerator;
  - 6. Frozen foods are stored at a temperature of 0° F or below; and
  - 7. Tableware, utensils, equipment, and food-contact surfaces are clean and in good repair.
- D. A manager of an assisted living center shall ensure that:
  - 1. The assisted living center has a license or permit as a food establishment under 9 A.A.C. 8, Article 1; and
  - 2. A copy of the assisted living center's food establishment license or permit is maintained.

R9-10-817. Food Services

- A. A manager shall ensure that:
  - 1. A food menu:
    - a. Is prepared at least one week in advance,
    - b. Includes the foods to be served each day,
    - c. Is conspicuously posted at least one calendar day before the first meal on the food menu is served,
    - d. Includes any food substitution no later than the morning of the day of meal service with a food substitution, and
    - e. Is maintained for at least 60 calendar days after the last day included in the food menu;
  - 2. Meals and snacks provided by the assisted living facility are served according to posted menus;
  - 3. If the assisted living facility contracts with a food establishment, as established in 9 A.A.C. 8, Article 1, to prepare and deliver food to the assisted living facility, a copy of the food establishment's license or permit under 9 A.A.C. 8, Article 1 is maintained by the assisted living facility;
  - 4. The assisted living facility is able to store, refrigerate, and reheat food to meet the dietary needs of a resident;
  - 5. Meals and snacks for each day are planned using the applicable guidelines in <http://www.health.gov/dietaryguidelines/2010.asp>;
  - 6. A resident is provided a diet that meets the resident's nutritional needs as specified in the resident's service plan;
  - 7. Water is available and accessible to residents at all times, unless otherwise stated in a medical practitioner's order; and
  - 8. A resident requiring assistance to eat is provided with assistance that recognizes the resident's nutritional, physical, and social needs, including the provision of adaptive eating equipment or utensils, such as a plate guard, rocking fork, or assistive hand device, if not provided by the resident.

R9-10-818. Emergency and Safety Standards

- A. A manager shall ensure that:
  - 1. A disaster plan is developed, documented, maintained in a location accessible to caregivers and assistant caregivers, and, if necessary, implemented that includes:
    - a. When, how, and where residents will be relocated;

- b. How a resident's medical record will be available to individuals providing services to the resident during a disaster;
    - c. A plan to ensure each resident's medication will be available to administer to the resident during a disaster; and
    - d. A plan for obtaining food and water for individuals present in the assisted living facility or the assisted living facility's relocation site during a disaster;
  - 2. The disaster plan required in subsection (A)(1) is reviewed at least once every 12 months;
  - 3. Documentation of the disaster plan review required in subsection (A)(2) includes:
    - a. The date and time of the disaster plan review;
    - b. The name of each employee or volunteer participating in the disaster plan review;
    - c. A critique of the disaster plan review; and
    - d. If applicable, recommendations for improvement;
  - 4. A disaster drill for employees is conducted on each shift at least once every three months and documented;
  - 5. An evacuation drill for employees and residents:
    - a. Is conducted at least once every six months; and
    - b. Includes all individuals on the premises except for:
      - i. A resident whose medical record contains documentation that evacuation from the assisted living facility would cause harm to the resident, and
      - ii. Sufficient caregivers to ensure the health and safety of residents not evacuated according to subsection (A)(5)(b)(i);
  - 6. Documentation of each evacuation drill is created, is maintained for at least 12 months after the date of the evacuation drill, and includes:
    - a. The date and time of the evacuation drill;
    - b. The amount of time taken for employees and residents to evacuate the assisted living facility;
    - c. If applicable:
      - i. An identification of residents needing assistance for evacuation, and
      - ii. An identification of residents who were not evacuated;
    - d. Any problems encountered in conducting the evacuation drill; and
    - e. Recommendations for improvement, if applicable; and
  - 7. An evacuation path is conspicuously posted in each hallway of each floor of the assisted living facility.
- B. A manager shall ensure that:
- 1. A resident receives orientation to the exits from the assisted living facility and the route to be used when evacuating the assisted living facility within 24 hours after the resident's acceptance by the assisted living facility, and
  - 2. The resident's orientation is documented.
- C. A manager shall ensure that a first-aid kit is maintained in the assisted living facility in a location accessible to caregivers and assistant caregivers.
- D. When a resident has an accident, emergency, or injury that results in the resident needing medical services, a manager shall ensure that a caregiver or an assistant caregiver:
- 1. Immediately notifies the resident's emergency contact and primary care provider; and
  - 2. Documents the following:
    - a. The date and time of the accident, emergency, or injury;
    - b. A description of the accident, emergency, or injury;
    - c. The names of individuals who observed the accident, emergency, or injury;
    - d. The actions taken by the caregiver or assistant caregiver;
    - e. The individuals notified by the caregiver or assistant caregiver; and
    - f. Any action taken to prevent the accident, emergency, or injury from occurring in the future.
- E. A manager of an assisted living center shall ensure that:
- 1. Unless the assisted living center has documentation of having received an exception from the Department before October 1, 2013, in the areas of the assisted living center providing personal care services or directed care services:
    - a. A fire alarm system is installed according to the National Fire Protection Association 72: National Fire Alarm and Signaling Code, incorporated by reference in A.A.C. R9-1-412, and is in working order; and
    - b. A sprinkler system is installed according to the National Fire Protection Association 13 Standard for the Installation of Sprinkler Systems, incorporated by reference in A.A.C. R9-1-412, and is in working order;
  - 2. For the areas of the assisted living center providing only supervisory care services:
    - a. A fire alarm system and a sprinkler system meeting the requirements in subsection (E)(1) are installed and in working order, or
    - b. The assisted living center complies with the requirements in subsection (F);
  - 3. A fire inspection is conducted by a local fire department or the State Fire Marshal before initial licensing and according to the time-frame established by the local fire department or the State Fire Marshal;
  - 4. Any repairs or corrections stated on the fire inspection report are made; and
  - 5. Documentation of a current fire inspection is maintained.
- F. A manager of an assisted living home shall ensure that:
- 1. A fire extinguisher that is labeled as rated at least 2A-10-BC by the Underwriters Laboratories is mounted and maintained in the assisted living home;
  - 2. A disposable fire extinguisher is replaced when its indicator reaches the red zone;
  - 3. A rechargeable fire extinguisher:
    - a. Is serviced at least once every 12 months, and
    - b. Has a tag attached to the fire extinguisher that specifies the date of the last servicing and the identification of the person who serviced the fire extinguisher;
  - 4. Except as provided in subsection (G):
    - a. A smoke detector is:
      - i. Installed in each bedroom, hallway that adjoins a bedroom, storage room, laundry room, attached garage, and room or hallway adjacent to the kitchen, and other places recommended by the manufacturer;
      - ii. Either battery operated or, if hard-wired into the electrical system of the assisted living home, has a back-up battery;
      - iii. In working order; and
      - iv. Tested at least once a month; and
    - b. Documentation of the test required in subsection (F)(4)(a)(iv) is maintained for at least 12 months after the date of the test;
  - 5. An appliance, light, or other device with a frayed or spliced electrical cord is not used at the assisted living home; and

6. An electrical cord, including an extension cord, is not run under a rug or carpeting, over a nail, or from one room to another at the assisted living home.
- G. A manager of an assisted living home may use a fire alarm system and a sprinkler system to ensure the safety of residents if the fire alarm system and sprinkler system:
  1. Are installed and in working order, and
  2. Meet the requirements in subsection (E)(1).

R9-10-819. Environmental Standards

- A. A manager shall ensure that:
  1. The premises and equipment used at the assisted living facility are:
    - a. Cleaned and, if applicable, disinfected according to policies and procedures designed to prevent, minimize, and control illness or infection; and
    - b. Free from a condition or situation that may cause a resident or other individual to suffer physical injury;
  2. A pest control program is implemented and documented;
  3. Garbage and refuse are:
    - a. Stored in covered containers lined with plastic bags, and
    - b. Removed from the premises at least once a week;
  4. Heating and cooling systems maintain the assisted living facility at a temperature between 70° F and 84° F at all times, unless individually controlled by a resident;
  5. Common areas:
    - a. Are lighted to ensure the safety of residents, and
    - b. Have lighting sufficient to allow caregivers and assistant caregivers to monitor resident activity;
  6. Hot water temperatures are maintained between 95° F and 120° F in areas of an assisted living facility used by residents;
  7. The supply of hot and cold water is sufficient to meet the personal hygiene needs of residents and the cleaning and sanitation requirements in this Article;
  8. A resident has access to a laundry service or a washing machine and dryer in the assisted living facility;
  9. Soiled linen and soiled clothing stored by the assisted living facility are maintained separate from clean linen and clothing and stored in closed containers away from food storage, kitchen, and dining areas;
  10. Oxygen containers are secured in an upright position;
  11. Poisonous or toxic materials stored by the assisted living facility are maintained in labeled containers in a locked area separate from food preparation and storage, dining areas, and medications and are inaccessible to residents;
  12. Combustible or flammable liquids and hazardous materials stored by the assisted living facility are stored in the original labeled containers or safety containers in a locked area inaccessible to residents;
  13. Equipment used at the assisted living facility is:
    - a. Maintained in working order;
    - b. Tested and calibrated according to the manufacturer's recommendations or, if there are no manufacturer's recommendations, as specified in policies and procedures; and

- c. Used according to the manufacturer's recommendations;
  14. If pets or animals are allowed in the assisted living facility, pets or animals are:
    - a. Controlled to prevent endangering the residents and to maintain sanitation;
    - b. Licensed consistent with local ordinances; and
    - c. For a dog or cat, vaccinated against rabies;
  15. If a water source that is not regulated under 18 A.A.C. 4 by the Arizona Department of Environmental Quality is used:
    - a. The water source is tested at least once every 12 months for total coliform bacteria and fecal coliform or E. coli bacteria;
    - b. If necessary, corrective action is taken to ensure the water is safe to drink; and
    - c. Documentation of testing is retained for at least 12 months after the date of the test; and
  16. If a non-municipal sewage system is used, the sewage system is in working order and is maintained according to applicable state laws and rules.
- B. If a swimming pool is located on the premises, a manager shall ensure that:
  1. On a day that a resident uses the swimming pool, an employee:
    - a. Tests the swimming pool's water quality at least once for compliance with one of the following chemical disinfection standards:
      - i. A free chlorine residual between 1.0 and 3.0 ppm as measured by the N, N-Diethyl-p-phenylenediamine test;
      - ii. A free bromine residual between 2.0 and 4.0 ppm as measured by the N, N-Diethyl-p-phenylenediamine test; or
      - iii. An oxidation-reduction potential equal to or greater than 650 millivolts; and
    - b. Records the results of the water quality tests in a log that includes the date tested and test result;
  2. Documentation of the water quality test is maintained for at least 12 months after the date of the test; and
  3. A swimming pool is not used by a resident if a water quality test shows that the swimming pool water does not comply with subsection (B)(1)(a).

R9-10-820. Physical Plant Standards

- A. A manager shall ensure that an assisted living center complies with the applicable physical plant health and safety codes and standards, incorporated by reference in A.A.C. R9-1-412, in effect on the date the assisted living facility submitted architectural plans and specifications to the Department for approval, according to R9-10-104.
- B. A manager shall ensure that:
  1. The premises and equipment are sufficient to accommodate:
    - a. The services stated in the assisted living facility's scope of services, and
    - b. An individual accepted as a resident by the assisted living facility;

2. A common area for use by residents is provided that has sufficient space and furniture to accommodate the recreational and socialization needs of residents;
  3. A dining area has sufficient space and tables and chairs to accommodate the needs of the residents;
  4. At least one bathroom is accessible from a common area and:
    - a. May be used by residents and visitors;
    - b. Provides privacy when in use; and
    - c. Contains the following:
      - i. At least one working sink with running water,
      - ii. At least one working toilet that flushes and has a seat,
      - iii. Toilet tissue for each toilet,
      - iv. Soap in a dispenser accessible from each sink,
      - v. Paper towels in a dispenser or a mechanical air hand dryer,
      - vi. Lighting, and
      - vii. A window that opens or another means of ventilation;
  5. An outside activity space is provided and available that:
    - a. Is on the premises,
    - b. Has a hard-surfaced section for wheelchairs, and
    - c. Has an available shaded area;
  6. Exterior doors are equipped with ramps or other devices to allow use by a resident using a wheelchair or other assistive device; and
  7. The key to the door of a lockable bathroom, bedroom, or residential unit is available to a manager, caregiver, and assistant caregiver.
- C. A manager shall ensure that:
1. For every eight residents there is at least one working toilet that flushes and has a seat and one sink with running water;
  2. For every eight residents there is at least one working bathtub or shower; and
  3. A resident bathroom provides privacy when in use and contains:
    - a. A mirror;
    - b. Toilet tissue for each toilet;
    - c. Soap accessible from each sink;
    - d. Paper towels in a dispenser or a mechanical air hand dryer for a bathroom that is not in a residential unit and used by more than one resident;
    - e. A window that opens or another means of ventilation;
    - f. Grab bars for the toilet and, if applicable, the bathtub or shower and other assistive devices, if required to provide for resident safety; and
    - g. Nonporous surfaces for shower enclosures and slip-resistant surfaces in tubs and showers.
- D. A manager shall ensure that:
1. Each resident is provided with a sleeping area in a residential unit or a bedroom;
  2. For an assisted living home, a resident's sleeping area is on the ground floor of the assisted living home unless:
    - a. The resident is able to direct self-care;
    - b. The resident is ambulatory without assistance; and
    - c. There are at least two unobstructed, usable exits to the outside from the sleeping area that the resident is capable of using;
  3. Except as provided in subsection (E), no more than two individuals reside in a residential unit or bedroom;
  4. A resident's sleeping area:
    - a. Is not used as a common area;
    - b. Is not used as a passageway to a common area, another sleeping area, or common bathroom unless the resident's sleeping area:
      - i. Was used as a passageway to a common area, another sleeping area, or common bathroom before October 1, 2013; and
      - ii. Written consent is obtained from the resident or the resident's representative;
    - c. Is constructed and furnished to provide unimpeded access to the door;
    - d. Has floor-to-ceiling walls with at least one door;
    - e. Has access to natural light through a window or a glass door to the outside; and
    - f. Has a window or door that can be used for direct egress to outside the building;
  5. If a resident's sleeping area is in a bedroom, the bedroom has:
    - a. For a private bedroom, at least 80 square feet of floor space, not including a closet or bathroom;
    - b. For a shared bedroom, at least 60 square feet of floor space for each individual occupying the shared bedroom, not including a closet or bathroom; and
    - c. A door that opens into a hallway, common area, or outdoors;
  6. If a resident's sleeping area is in a residential unit, the residential unit has:
    - a. Except as provided in subsection (E)(2), at least 220 square feet of floor space, not including a closet or bathroom, for one individual residing in the residential unit and an additional 100 square feet of floor space, not including a closet or bathroom, for each additional individual residing in the residential unit;
    - b. An individually keyed entry door;
    - c. A bathroom that provides privacy when in use and contains:
      - i. A working toilet that flushes and has a seat;
      - ii. A working sink with running water;
      - iii. A working bathtub or shower;
      - iv. Lighting;
      - v. A mirror;
      - vi. A window that opens or another means of ventilation;
      - vii. Grab bars for the toilet and, if applicable, the bathtub or shower and other assistive devices, if required to provide for resident safety; and
      - viii. Nonporous surfaces for shower enclosures and slip-resistant surfaces in bathtubs and showers;
    - d. A resident-controlled thermostat for heating and cooling;
    - e. A kitchen area equipped with:
      - i. A working sink and refrigerator,
      - ii. A cooking appliance that can be removed or disconnected,
      - iii. Space for food preparation, and
      - iv. Storage for utensils and supplies; and
    - f. If not furnished by a resident:
      - i. An armchair, and
      - ii. A table where a resident may eat a meal; and
  7. If not furnished by a resident, each sleeping area has:
    - a. A bed, at least 36 inches in width and 72 inches in length, consisting of at least a frame and mattress that is clean and in good repair;
    - b. Clean linen, including a mattress pad, sheets large enough to tuck under the mattress, pillows, pillow cases, a bedspread, waterproof mattress covers as needed, and blankets to ensure warmth and comfort for the resident;

- c. Sufficient light for reading;
- d. Storage space for clothing;
- e. Individual storage space for personal effects; and
- f. Adjustable window covers that provide resident privacy.

- E. A manager may allow more than two individuals to reside in a residential unit or bedroom if:
  - 1. There is at least 60 square feet for each individual living in the bedroom;
  - 2. There is at least 100 square feet for each individual living in the residential unit; and
  - 3. The manager has documentation that the assisted living facility has been operating since before November 1, 1998, with more than two individuals living in the residential unit or bedroom.
- F. If there is a swimming pool on the premises of the assisted living facility, a manager shall ensure that:
  - 1. Unless the assisted living facility has documentation of having received an exception from the Department before October 1, 2013, the swimming pool is enclosed by a wall or fence that:
    - a. Is at least five feet in height as measured on the exterior of the wall or fence;
    - b. Has no vertical openings greater than four inches across;
    - c. Has no horizontal openings, except as described in subsection (F)(1)(e);
    - d. Is not chain-link;
    - e. Does not have a space between the ground and the bottom fence rail that exceeds four inches in height; and
    - f. Has a self-closing, self-latching gate that:
      - i. Opens away from the swimming pool,
      - ii. Has a latch located at least 54 inches from the ground, and
      - iii. Is locked when the swimming pool is not in use;
  - 2. A life preserver or shepherd's crook is available and accessible in the swimming pool area; and
  - 3. Pool safety requirements are conspicuously posted in the swimming pool area.
- G. A manager shall ensure that a spa that is not enclosed by a wall or fence as described in subsection (F)(1) is covered and locked when not in use.

R9-10-1010. Medication Services

- A. If an outpatient treatment center provides medication administration or assistance in the self-administration of medication, an administrator shall ensure that policies and procedures for medication services:
  - 1. Include:
    - a. A process for providing information to a patient about medication prescribed for the patient including:
      - i. The prescribed medication's anticipated results,
      - ii. The prescribed medication's potential adverse reactions,
      - iii. The prescribed medication's potential side effects, and
      - iv. Potential adverse reactions that could result from not taking the medication as prescribed;
    - b. Procedures for preventing, responding to, and reporting:
      - i. A medication error,
      - ii. An adverse reaction to a medication, or
      - iii. A medication overdose;
    - c. Procedures to ensure that a patient's medication regimen is reviewed by a medical practitioner and meets the patient's needs;
    - d. Procedures for documenting medication administration and assistance in the self-administration of medication;
    - e. Procedures for assisting a patient in obtaining medication; and
    - f. If applicable, procedures for providing medication administration or assistance in the self-administration of medication off the premises; and
  - 2. Specify a process for review through the quality management program of:
    - a. A medication administration error, and
    - b. An adverse reaction to a medication.
- B. If an outpatient treatment center provides medication administration, an administrator shall ensure that:
  - 1. Policies and procedures for medication administration:
    - a. Are reviewed and approved by a medical practitioner;
    - b. Specify the individuals who may:
      - i. Order medication, and
      - ii. Administer medication;
    - c. Ensure that medication is administered to a patient only as prescribed; and
    - d. Cover the documentation of a patient's refusal to take prescribed medication in the patient's medical record;
  - 2. Verbal orders for medication services are taken by a nurse, unless otherwise provided by law; and
  - 3. A medication administered to a patient is:
    - a. Administered in compliance with an order, and
    - b. Documented in the patient's medical record.
- C. If an outpatient treatment center provides assistance in the self-administration of medication, an administrator shall ensure that:
  - 1. A patient's medication is stored by the outpatient treatment center;
  - 2. The following assistance is provided to a patient:
    - a. A reminder when it is time to take the medication;
    - b. Opening the medication container for the patient;
    - c. Observing the patient while the patient removes the medication from the container;
    - d. Verifying that the medication is taken as ordered by the patient's medical practitioner by confirming that:

- i. The patient taking the medication is the individual stated on the medication container label;
    - ii. The patient is taking the dosage of the medication stated on the medication container label; and
    - iii. The patient is taking the medication at the time stated on the medication container label; or
  - e. Observing the patient while the patient takes the medication;
  - 3. Policies and procedures for assistance in the self-administration of medication are reviewed and approved by a medical practitioner or registered nurse;
  - 4. Training for a personnel member, other than a medical practitioner or registered nurse, in assistance in the self-administration of medication:
    - a. Is provided by a medical practitioner or registered nurse or an individual trained by a medical practitioner or registered nurse; and
    - b. Includes:
      - i. A demonstration of the personnel member's skills and knowledge necessary to provide assistance in the self-administration of medication;
      - ii. Identification of medication errors and medical emergencies related to medication that require emergency medical intervention; and
      - iii. The process for notifying the appropriate entities when an emergency medical intervention is needed;
  - 5. A personnel member, other than a medical practitioner or registered nurse, completes the training in subsection (C)(4) before the personnel member provides assistance in the self-administration of medication; and
  - 6. Assistance in the self-administration of medication provided to a patient is:
    - a. In compliance with an order; and
    - b. Documented in the patient's medical record.
- D. An administrator shall ensure that:
- 1. A current drug reference guide is available for use by personnel members;
  - 2. A current toxicology reference guide is available for use by personnel members;
  - 3. If pharmaceutical services are provided:
    - a. The pharmaceutical services are provided under the direction of a pharmacist;
    - b. The pharmaceutical services comply with ARS Title 36, Chapter 27; A.R.S. Title 32, Chapter 18; and 4 A.A.C. 23; and
    - c. A copy of the pharmacy license is provided to the Department upon request.
- E. When medication is stored at an outpatient treatment center, an administrator shall ensure that:
- 1. Medication is stored in a separate locked room, closet, or self-contained unit used only for medication storage;
  - 2. Medication is stored according to the instructions on the medication container; and
  - 3. Policies and procedures are established, documented, and implemented for:
    - a. Receiving, storing, inventorying, tracking, dispensing, and discarding medication including expired medication;
    - b. Discarding or returning prepackaged and sample medication to the manufacturer if the manufacturer requests the discard or return of the medication;
    - c. A medication recall and notification of patients who received recalled medication; and
    - d. Storing, inventorying, and dispensing controlled substances.
- F. An administrator shall ensure that a personnel member immediately reports a medication error or a patient's adverse reaction to a medication to the medical practitioner who ordered the medication and, if applicable, the outpatient treatment center's clinical director.

R9-10-1012. Behavioral Health Observation/Stabilization Services

- A. An administrator of an outpatient treatment center that is authorized to provide behavioral health observation/stabilization services shall ensure that:
  1. Behavioral health observation/stabilization services are available 24 hours a day, every calendar day;
  2. Behavioral health observation/stabilization services are provided in a designated area that:
    - a. Is used exclusively for behavioral health observation/stabilization services;
    - b. Has the space for a patient to receive privacy in treatment and care for personal needs; and
    - c. For every 15 observation chairs or less, has at least one bathroom that contains:
      - i. A working sink with running water,
      - ii. A working toilet that flushes and has a seat,
      - iii. Toilet tissue,

- iv. Soap for hand washing;
  - v. Paper towels or a mechanical air hand dryer;
  - vi. Lighting; and
  - vii. A means of ventilation;
3. If the outpatient treatment center is authorized to provide behavioral health observation/stabilization services to individuals under 18 years of age:
    - a. There is a separate designated area for providing behavioral health observation/stabilization services to individuals under 18 years of age that:
      - i. Meets the requirements in subsection (B)(2), and
      - ii. Has floor to ceiling walls that separate the designated area from other areas of the outpatient treatment center;
    - b. A registered nurse is present in the separate designated area; and
    - c. A patient under 18 years of age does not share any space, participate in any activity or treatment, or have verbal or visual interaction with a patient 18 years of age or older;
  4. A medical practitioner is available;
  5. If the medical practitioner present at the outpatient treatment center is a registered nurse practitioner or a physician assistant, a physician is on-call;
  6. A registered nurse is present and provides direction for behavioral health observation/stabilization services in the designated area;
  7. A nurse monitors each patient at the intervals determined according to subsection (A)(12) and documents the monitoring in the patient's medical record;
  8. An individual who arrives at the designated area for behavioral health observation/stabilization services in the outpatient treatment center is screened within 30 minutes after entering the designated area to determine whether the individual is in need of immediate physical health services;
  9. If a screening indicates that an individual needs immediate physical health services that the outpatient treatment center is:
    - a. Able to provide according to the outpatient treatment center's scope of services, the individual is examined by a medical practitioner within 30 minutes after being screened; or
    - b. Not able to provide, the individual is transferred to a health care institution capable of meeting the individual's immediate physical health needs;
  10. If a screening indicates that an individual needs behavioral health observation/stabilization services and the outpatient treatment center has the capabilities to provide the behavioral health observation/stabilization services, the individual is admitted to the designated area for behavioral health observation/stabilization services and may remain in the designated area and receive observation/stabilization services for up to 23 hours and 59 minutes;
  11. Before a patient is discharged from the designated area for behavioral health observation/stabilization services, a medical practitioner determines whether the patient will be:
    - a. If the behavioral health observation/stabilization services are provided in a health care institution that also provides inpatient services and is capable of meeting the patient's needs, admitted to the health care institution as an inpatient;
    - b. Transferred to another health care institution capable of meeting the patient's needs;
    - c. Provided a referral to another entity capable of meeting the patient's needs; or
    - d. Discharged and provided patient follow-up instructions;
  12. When a patient is admitted to a designated area for behavioral health observation/stabilization services, an assessment of the patient includes the interval for monitoring the patient based on the patient's medical condition, behavior, suspected drug or alcohol abuse, and medication status to ensure the health and safety of the patient;
  13. If a patient is not being admitted as an inpatient to a health care institution, before discharging the patient from a designated area for behavioral health observation/stabilization services, a personnel member:
    - a. Identifies the specific needs of the patient after discharge necessary to assist the patient to function independently;
    - b. Identifies any resources, including family members, community social services, peer support services, and Regional Behavioral Health Agency staff, that may be available to assist the patient; and
    - c. Documents the information in subsection (A)(13)(a) and the resources in subsection (A)(13)(b) in the patient's medical record;
  14. When a patient is discharged from a designated area for behavioral health observation/stabilization services, a personnel member:
    - a. Provides the patient with discharge information that includes:
      - i. The identified specific needs of the patient after discharge, and
      - ii. Resources that may be available for the patient; and
    - b. Contacts any resources identified as required in subsection (A)(13)(b);
  15. Except as provided in subsection (A)(16), a patient is not re-admitted to the outpatient treatment center for behavioral health observation/stabilization services within two hours after the patient's discharge from a designated area for behavioral health observation/stabilization services;
  16. A patient may be re-admitted to the outpatient treatment center for behavioral health observation/stabilization services within two hours after the patient's discharge if:
    - a. It is at least one hour since the time of the patient's discharge;
    - b. A law enforcement officer or the patient's case manager accompanies the patient to the outpatient treatment center;
    - c. Based on a screening of the patient, it is determined that re-admission for behavioral health observation/stabilization is necessary for the patient; and
    - d. The name of the law enforcement officer or the patient's case manager and the reasons for the determination in subsection (A)(16)(c) are documented in the patient's medical record;
  17. A patient admitted for behavioral health observation/stabilization services is provided:
    - a. An observation chair; or
    - b. A separate piece of equipment for the patient to use to sit or recline that:
      - i. Is at least 12 inches from the floor; and
      - ii. Has sufficient space around the piece of equipment to allow a personnel member to provide behavioral health services and physical health services, including emergency services, to the patient;

18. If an individual is not admitted for behavioral health observation/stabilization services because there is not an observation chair available for the individual's use, a personnel member provides support to the individual to access the services or resources necessary for the individual's health and safety, which may include:
    - a. Admitting the individual to the outpatient treatment center to provide behavioral health services other than behavioral health observation/stabilization services;
    - b. Establishing a method to notify the individual when there is an observation chair available;
    - c. Referring or providing transportation to the individual to another health care institution;
    - d. Assisting the individual to contact the individual's support system; and
    - e. If the individual is enrolled with a Regional Behavioral Health Authority, contacting the appropriate person to request assistance for the individual;
  19. Personnel members establish a log of individuals who were not admitted because there was not an observation chair available and document the individual's name, actions taken to provide support to the individual to access the services or resources necessary for the individual's health and safety, and date and time the actions were taken;
  20. The log required in subsection (A)(19) is maintained for at least 12 months after the date of documentation in the log;
  21. An observation chair or, as provided in subsection (A)(17)(b), a piece of equipment used by a patient to sit or recline is visible to a personnel member;
  22. Except as provided in subsection (A)(23), a patient admitted to receive behavioral health observation/stabilization services is visible to a personnel member;
  23. A patient admitted to receive behavioral health observation/stabilization services may use the bathroom and not be visible to a personnel member, if the personnel member:
    - a. Determines that the patient is capable of using the bathroom unsupervised,
    - b. Is aware of the patient's location, and
    - c. Is able to intervene in the patient's actions to ensure the patient's health and safety; and 24. An observation chair:
    - a. Effective until July 1, 2015, has space around the observation chair that allows a personnel member to provide behavioral health services and physical health services, including emergency services, to a patient in the observation chair; and
    - b. Effective on July 1, 2015, has at least three feet of clear floor space:
      - i. On at least two sides of the observation chair, and
      - ii. Between the observation chair and any other observation chair.
- B. An administrator of an outpatient treatment center that is authorized to provide behavioral health observation/stabilization services shall:
1. Have a room used for seclusion that complies with requirements for seclusion rooms in R9-10-316, and
  2. Comply with the requirements for restraint and seclusion in R9-10-316.
- C. An administrator of an outpatient treatment center that is authorized to provide behavioral health observation/stabilization services shall ensure that:
1. Policies and procedures are established, documented, and implemented to protect the health and safety of a patient that:
    - a. Cover the process for:
      - i. Evaluating a patient previously admitted to the designated area to determine whether the patient is ready for admission to an inpatient setting or discharge, including when to implement the process;
      - ii. Contacting other health care institutions that provide behavioral health observation/stabilization services to determine if the patient could be admitted for behavioral health observation/stabilization services in another health care institution, including when to implement the process; and
      - iii. Ensuring that sufficient personnel members, space, and equipment are available to provide behavioral health observation/stabilization services to patients admitted to receive behavioral health observation/stabilization services; and
    - b. Establish a maximum capacity of the number of patients for whom the outpatient treatment center is capable of providing behavioral health observation/stabilization services;
  2. The outpatient treatment center does not:
    - a. Exceed the maximum capacity established by the outpatient treatment center in subsection (C)(1)(b); or
    - b. Admit an individual if the outpatient treatment center does not have personnel members, space, and equipment available to provide behavioral health observation/stabilization services to the individual; and
  3. Effective on July 1, 2015:
    - a. If an admission of an individual causes the outpatient treatment center to exceed the outpatient treatment center's licensed occupancy, the individual is only admitted for behavioral health observation/stabilization services after:
      - (i.) A behavioral health professional reviews the individual's screening and determines the admission is an emergency; and
      - (ii.) Documents the determination in the individual's medical record; and
    - b. The outpatient treatment center's quality management program's plan, required in R9-10-1004(1), includes a method to identify and document each occurrence of exceeding licensed occupancy, to evaluate the occurrences of exceeding licensed occupancy, and to review the actions taken to reduce future occurrences of exceeding licensed occupancy.

    - d. Personnel members' response to an equipment malfunction during dialysis;
  - 2. A personnel member complies with the requirements in A.R.S. § 36-423 and R9-10-114 for hemodialysis technicians and hemodialysis technician trainees, if applicable;
  - 3. A personnel member completes basic cardiopulmonary resuscitation training specific to the age of the patients receiving dialysis from the outpatient treatment center:
    - a. Before providing dialysis services, and
    - b. At least once every 12 months after the initial date of employment or volunteer service;
  - 4. A personnel member wears a name badge that displays the individual's first name, job title, and professional license or certification; and
  - 5. At least one registered nurse or medical practitioner is on the premises while a patient receiving dialysis services is on the premises.
- D. An administrator of an outpatient treatment center that is authorized to provide dialysis services shall ensure that:
- 1. The premises of the outpatient treatment center where dialysis services are provided complies with the applicable physical plant health and safety codes and standards for outpatient treatment centers providing dialysis services, incorporated by reference in A.A.C. R9-1-412, that were in effect on the date listed on the building permit or zoning clearance submitted, as required by R9-10-104, as part of the application for approval of the architectural plans and specifications submitted before initial approval of the inclusion of dialysis services in the outpatient treatment center's scope of services;
  - 2. Before a modification of the premises of an outpatient treatment center where dialysis services are provided is made, an application for approval of the architectural plans and specifications of the outpatient treatment center required in R9-10-104(A):
    - a. Is submitted to the Department; and
    - b. Demonstrates compliance with the applicable physical plant health and safety codes and standards for outpatient treatment centers providing dialysis services, incorporated by reference in A.A.C. R9-1-412, in effect on the date:
      - i. Listed on the building permit or zoning clearance submitted as part of the application for approval of the architectural plans and specifications for the modification, or
      - ii. The application for approval of the architectural plans and specifications of the modification of the outpatient treatment center required in R9-10-104(A) is submitted to the Department; and
  - 3. A modification of the outpatient treatment center complies with applicable physical plant health and safety codes and standards for outpatient treatment centers providing dialysis services, incorporated by reference in A.A.C. R9-1-412 in effect on the date:
    - a. Listed on the building permit or zoning clearance submitted as part of the application for approval of the architectural plans and specifications for the modification, or
    - b. The application for approval of the architectural plans and specifications required in R9-10-104(A) is submitted to the Department.
- E. An administrator of an outpatient treatment center that is authorized to provide dialysis services shall ensure that for a patient receiving dialysis services:
- 1. The dialysis services provided to the patient meet the needs of the patient;
  - 2. A physician:
    - a. Performs a medical history and physical examination on the patient within 30 calendar days before admission or within 48 hours after admission, and
    - b. Documents the medical history and physical examination in the patient's medical record within 48 hours after admission;
  - 3. If the patient's medical history and physical examination required in subsection (E)(2) is not performed by the patient's nephrologist, the patient's nephrologist, within 30 calendar days after the date of the medical history and physical examination:
    - a. Reviews and authenticates the patient's medical history and physical examination, documents concurrence with the medical history and physical examination, and includes information specific to nephrology; or
    - b. Performs a medical history and physical examination that includes information specific to nephrology;
  - 4. The patient's nephrologist or the nephrologist's designee:
    - a. Performs a medical history and physical examination on the patient at least once every 12 months after the date of the patient's admission to the outpatient treatment center, and
    - b. Documents monthly notes related to the patient's progress in the patient's medical record;
  - 5. A registered nurse responsible for the nursing services provided to the patient receiving dialysis services:
    - a. Reviews with the patient the results of any diagnostic tests performed on the patient;
    - b. Assesses the patient's medical condition before the patient begins receiving hemodialysis and after the patient has received hemodialysis;
    - c. If the patient returns to another health care institution after receiving dialysis services at the outpatient treatment center, provides an oral or written notice of information related to the patient's medical condition to the registered nurse responsible for the nursing services provided to the patient at the health care institution or, if there is not a registered nurse responsible, the individual responsible for the medical services, nursing services, or health-related services provided to the patient at the health care institution;
    - d. Informs the patient's nephrologist of any changes in the patient's medical condition or needs; and
    - e. Documents in the patient's medical record:
      - i. Any notice provided as required in subsection (E)(5)(c), and
      - ii. Monthly notes related to the patient's progress;
  - 6. If the patient is not stable, before dialysis is provided to the patient, a nephrologist is notified of the patient's medical condition and dialysis is not provided until the nephrologist provides direction;
  - 7. The patient:
    - a. Is under the care of a nephrologist;
    - b. Is assigned a patient identification number according to the policy and procedure in subsection (C)(1)(b);
    - c. Is identified by a personnel member before beginning dialysis;

- d. Receives the dialysis services ordered for the patient by a medical practitioner;
  - e. Is monitored by a personnel member while receiving dialysis at least once every 30 minutes; and
  - f. If the outpatient treatment center reprocesses and reuses dialyzers, is informed that the outpatient treatment center reprocesses and reuses dialyzers before beginning hemodialysis;
8. Equipment used for hemodialysis is inspected and tested according to the manufacturer's recommendations or the outpatient treatment center's policies and procedures before being used to provide hemodialysis to a patient;
  9. The equipment inspection and testing required in subsection (E)(8) is documented in the patient's medical record;
  10. Supplies and equipment used for dialysis services for the patient are used, stored, and discarded according to manufacturer's recommendations;
  11. If hemodialysis is provided to the patient, a personnel member:
    - a. Inspects the dialyzer before use to ensure that the:
      - i. External surface of the dialyzer is clean;
      - ii. Dialyzer label is intact and legible;
      - iii. Dialyzer, blood port, and dialysate port are free from leaks and cracks or other structural damage; and
      - iv. Dialyzer is free of visible blood and other foreign material;
    - b. Verifies the order for the dialyzer to ensure the correct dialyzer is used for the correct patient;
    - c. Verifies the duration of dialyzer storage based on the type of germicide used or method of sterilization or disinfection used;
    - d. If the dialyzer has been reprocessed and is being reused, verifies that the label on the dialyzer includes:
      - i. The patient's name and the patient's identification number,
      - ii. The number of times the dialyzer has been used in patient treatments,
      - iii. The date of the last use of the dialyzer by the patient, and
      - iv. The date of the last reprocessing of the dialyzer;
    - e. If the patient's name is similar to the name of another patient receiving dialysis in the same outpatient treatment center, informs other personnel members, employees, and volunteers, of the similar names to ensure that the name or other identifying information on the label corresponds to the correct patient; and
    - f. Ensures that a patient's vascular access is visible to a personnel member during dialysis;
  12. A patient receiving dialysis is visible to a nurse at a location used by nurses to coordinate patients and treatment;
  13. If the patient has an adverse reaction during dialysis, a personnel member responds by implementing the policy and procedure required in subsection (C)(1)(c);
  14. If the equipment used during the patient's dialysis malfunctions, a personnel member responds by implementing the policy and procedure required in subsection (C)(1)(d); and
  15. After a patient's discharge from an outpatient treatment center, the nephrologist responsible for the dialysis services provided to the patient documents the patient's discharge in the patient's medical record within 30 calendar days after the patient's discharge and includes:
    - a. A description of the patient's medical condition and the dialysis services provided to the patient, and
    - b. The signature of the nephrologist.
- F. If an outpatient treatment center provides support for self-dialysis services, an administrator shall ensure that:
1. A patient or the patient's caregiver is:
    - a. Instructed to use the equipment to perform self-dialysis by a personnel member trained to provide the instruction, and
    - b. Monitored in the patient's home to assess the patient's or patient caregiver's ability to use the equipment to perform self-dialysis;
  2. Instruction provided to a patient as required in subsection (F)(1)(a) and monitoring in the patient's home as required in subsection (F)(1)(b) is documented in the patient's medical record;
  3. All supplies for self-dialysis necessary to meet the needs of the patient are provided to the patient;
  4. All equipment necessary to meet the needs of the patient's self-dialysis is provided for the patient and maintained by the outpatient treatment center according to the manufacturer's recommendations;
  5. The water used for hemodialysis is tested and treated according to the requirements in subsection (N);
  6. Documentation of the self-dialysis maintained by the patient or the patient's caregiver is:
    - a. Reviewed to ensure that the patient is receiving continuity of care, and
    - b. Placed in the patient's medical record; and
  7. If a patient uses self-dialysis and self-administers medication:
    - a. The medical practitioner responsible for the dialysis services provided to the patient reviews the patient's diagnostic laboratory tests;
    - b. The patient and the patient's caregiver are informed of any potential:
      - i. Side effects of the medication; and
      - ii. Hazard to a child having access to the medication and, if applicable, a syringe used to inject the medication; and
    - c. The patient or the patient's caregiver is:
      - i. Taught the route and technique of administration and is able to administer the medication, including injecting the medication;
      - ii. Taught and able to perform sterile techniques if the patient or the patient's caregiver will be injecting the medication;
      - iii. Provided with instructions for the administration of the medication, including the specific route and technique the patient or the patient's caregiver has been taught to use;
      - iv. Able to read and understand the directions for using the medication;
      - v. Taught and able to self-monitor the patient's blood pressure; and
      - vi. Informed how to store the medication according to the manufacturer's instructions.
- G. An administrator of an outpatient treatment center that is authorized to provide dialysis services shall ensure that a social worker is employed by the outpatient treatment center to meet the needs of a patient receiving dialysis services including:
1. Conducting an initial psychosocial evaluation of the patient within 30 calendar days after the patient's admission to the outpatient treatment center;

2. Participating in reviewing the patient's need for social work services;
  3. Recommending changes in treatment based on the patient's psychosocial evaluation;
  4. Assisting the patient and the patient's representative in obtaining and understanding information for making decisions about the medical services provided to the patient;
  5. Identifying community agencies and resources and assisting the patient and the patient's representative to utilize the community agencies and resources;
  6. Documenting monthly notes related to the patient's progress in the patient's medical record; and
  7. Conducting a follow-up psychosocial evaluation of the patient at least once every 12 months after the date of the patient's admission to the outpatient treatment center.
- H. An administrator of an outpatient treatment center that is authorized to provide dialysis services shall ensure that a registered dietitian is employed by the outpatient treatment center to assist a patient receiving dialysis services to meet the patient's nutritional and dietetic needs including:
1. Conducting an initial nutritional assessment of the patient within 30 calendar days after the patient's admission to the outpatient treatment center;
  2. Consulting with the patient's nephrologist and recommending a diet to meet the patient's nutritional needs;
  3. Providing advice to the patient and the patient's representative regarding a diet prescribed by the patient's nephrologist;
  4. Monitoring the patient's adherence and response to a prescribed diet;
  5. Reviewing with the patient any diagnostic test performed on the patient that is related to the patient's nutritional or dietetic needs;
  6. Documenting monthly notes related to the patient's progress in the patient's medical record; and
  7. Conducting a follow-up nutritional assessment of the patient at least once every 12 months after the date of the patient's admission to the outpatient treatment center.
- I. An administrator of an outpatient treatment center that is authorized to provide dialysis services shall ensure that a long-term care plan for each patient:
1. Is developed by a team that includes at least:
    - a. The chief clinical officer of the outpatient treatment center;
    - b. If the chief clinical officer is not a nephrologist, the patient's nephrologist;
    - c. A transplant surgeon or the transplant surgeon's designee;
    - d. A registered nurse responsible for nursing services provided to the patient;
    - e. A social worker;
    - f. A registered dietitian; and
    - g. The patient or patient's representative, if the patient or patient's representative chooses to participate in the development of the long-term care plan;
  2. Identifies the modality of treatment and dialysis services to be provided to the patient;
  3. Is reviewed and approved by the chief clinical officer;
  4. Is signed and dated by each personnel member participating in the development of the long-term care plan;
  5. Includes documentation signed by the patient or the patient's representative that the patient or the patient's representative was provided an opportunity to participate in the development of the long-term care plan;
6. Is signed and dated by the patient or the patient's representative; and
  7. Is reviewed at least once every 12 months by the team in subsection (I)(1) and updated according to the patient's needs.
- J. An administrator of an outpatient treatment center that is authorized to provide dialysis services shall ensure that a patient care plan for each patient:
1. Is developed by a team that includes at least:
    - a. The patient's nephrologist;
    - b. A registered nurse responsible for nursing services provided to the patient;
    - c. A social worker;
    - d. A registered dietitian; and
    - e. The patient or the patient's representative, if the patient or patient's representative chooses to participate in the development of the patient care plan;
  2. Includes an assessment of the patient's need for dialysis services;
  3. Identifies treatment and treatment goals;
  4. Is signed and dated by each personnel member participating in the development of the patient care plan;
  5. Includes documentation signed by the patient or the patient's representative that the patient or the patient's representative was provided an opportunity to participate in the development of the patient care plan;
  6. Is signed and dated by the patient or the patient's representative;
  7. Is implemented;
  8. Is evaluated by:
    - a. The registered nurse responsible for the dialysis services provided to the patient;
    - b. The registered dietitian providing services to the patient related to the patient's nutritional or dietetic needs; and
    - c. The social worker providing services to the patient related to the patient's psychosocial needs;
  9. Includes documentation of interventions, resolutions, and outcomes related to treatment goals; and
  10. Is reviewed and updated according to the needs of the patient:
    - a. At least once every six months for a patient whose medical condition is stable; and
    - b. At least once every 30 calendar days for a patient whose medical condition is not stable.
- K. In addition to the requirements in R9-10-1009(C), an administrator of an outpatient treatment center that is authorized to provide dialysis services shall ensure that a medical record for each patient contains:
1. An annual medical history;
  2. An annual physical examination;
  3. Monthly notes related to the patient's progress by a medical practitioner, registered dietitian, social worker, and registered nurse;
  4. If applicable, documentation of:
    - a. The equipment inspection and testing required in subsection (E)(9), and
    - b. The self-dialysis required in subsection (F)(2); and
  5. If applicable, documentation of the patient's discharge.
- L. For a patient who received dialysis services, an administrator shall ensure that after the patient's discharge from an outpatient treatment center that is authorized to provide dialysis services, the nephrologist responsible for the dialysis services provided to the patient documents the patient's discharge in the patient's medical record within 30 calendar days after the patient's discharge and includes:

1. A description of the patient's medical condition and the dialysis services provided to the patient, and
  2. The signature of the nephrologist.
- M. If an outpatient treatment center reuses dialyzers or other dialysis supplies, an administrator shall ensure that the outpatient treatment center complies with the guidelines adopted by the Association for the Advancement of Medical Instrumentation in Reuse of Hemodialyzers, ANSI/AAMI RD47:2002 & RD47:2002/A1:2003, incorporated by reference, on file with the Department, and including no future editions or amendments. Copies may be purchased from the Association for the Advancement of Medical Instrumentation, 1110 N. Glebe Road, Suite 220, Arlington, VA 22201-4795.
- N. A chief clinical officer shall ensure that the quality of water used in dialysis conforms to the guidelines adopted by the Association for the Advancement of Medical Instrumentation in Hemodialysis systems, ANSI/AAMI RD5:2003, incorporated by reference, on file with the Department, and including no future editions or amendments. Copies may be purchased from the Association for the Advancement of Medical Instrumentation, 1110 N. Glebe Road, Suite 220, Arlington, VA 22201-4795.

Historical Note

Adopted as an emergency effective November 17, 1983, pursuant to A.R.S. § 41-1003, valid for only 90 days (Supp. 83-6). Former Section R9-10-1018 adopted as an emergency now adopted and amended as a permanent rule effective February 15, 1984 (Supp. 84-1). Repealed by summary action interim effective date July 21, 1995 (Supp. 95-3). The proposed summary action repealing R9-10-1018 was remanded by the Governor's Regulatory Review Council which revoked the interim effectiveness of the summary rule. The Section in effect before the proposed summary action has been restored (Supp. 97-1). Section repealed by final rulemaking at 5 A.A.R. 1222, effective April 5, 1999 (Supp. 99-2). New Section made by exempt rulemaking at 19 A.A.R. 2015, effective October 1, 2013 (Supp. 13-2). Amended by exempt rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 1409, pursuant to Laws 2013, Ch. 10, § 13; effective July 1, 2014 (Supp. 14-2).

R9-10-1019. Emergency Room Services

An administrator of an outpatient treatment center that is authorized to provide emergency room services shall ensure that:

1. Emergency room services are:
  - a. Available on the premises:
    - i. At all times, and
    - ii. To stabilize an individual's emergency medical condition; and
  - b. Provided:
    - i. In a designated area, and
    - ii. Under the direction of a physician;
2. Clinical laboratory services are available on the premises;
3. Diagnostic imaging services are available on the premises;
4. An area designated for emergency room services complies with the physical plant codes and standards for a freestanding emergency care facility in R9-1-412;
5. Policies and procedures are established, documented, and implemented to protect the health and safety of a patient that specify requirements for the use of a seclusion room;
6. A physician is present in an area designated for emergency room services;
7. A registered nurse is present in an area designated for emergency room services and provides direction for nursing services in the designated area;

8. The outpatient treatment center has a documented transfer agreement with a general hospital;
9. Emergency room services are provided to an individual, including a woman in active labor, requesting medical services in an emergency;
10. If emergency room services cannot be provided at the outpatient treatment center, measures and procedures are implemented to minimize the risk to the patient until the patient is transferred to the general hospital with which the outpatient treatment center has a transfer agreement as required in subsection (8);
11. There is a chronological log of emergency room services provided to a patient that includes:
  - a. The patient's name;
  - b. The date, time, and mode of arrival; and
  - c. The disposition of the patient, including discharge or transfer; and 12. The chronological log required in subsection (12) is maintained:
  - a. In the designated area for emergency room services for at least 12 months after the date the emergency room services were provided; and
  - b. By the outpatient treatment center for a total of at least 24 months after the date the emergency room services were provided.

R9-10-1020. Opioid Treatment Services

A. A governing authority of an outpatient treatment center that is authorized to provide opioid treatment services shall:

1. Ensure that the outpatient treatment center obtains certification by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration before providing opioid treatment,
2. Maintain a current Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration certificate for the outpatient treatment center on the premises, and
3. Ensure that the administrator appointed as required in R9-10-1003(B)(3) is named on the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration certificate as the individual responsible for the opioid treatment services provided by or at the outpatient treatment center.

B. An administrator of an outpatient treatment center that is authorized to provide opioid treatment services shall ensure that:

1. In addition to the policies and procedures required in R9-10-1003(D), policies and procedures are established, documented, and implemented to protect the health and safety of a patient that:

- a. Include the criteria for receiving opioid treatment services and address:
    - i. Comprehensive maintenance treatment consisting of dispensing or administering an opioid agonist treatment medication at stable dosage levels to a patient for a period in excess of 21 calendar days and providing medical and health-related services to the patient, and
    - ii. Detoxification treatment that occurs over a continuous period of more than 30 calendar days;
  - b. Include the criteria and procedures for discontinuing opioid treatment services;
  - c. Address the needs of specific groups of patients, such as patients who:
    - i. Are pregnant;
    - ii. Are children;
    - iii. Have chronic or acute medical conditions such as HIV infection, hepatitis, diabetes, tuberculosis, or cardiovascular disease;
    - iv. Have a mental disorder;
    - v. Abuse alcohol or other drugs; or
    - vi. Are incarcerated or detained;
  - d. Contain a method of patient identification to ensure the patient receives the opioid treatment services ordered;
  - e. Contain methods to assess whether a patient is receiving concurrent opioid treatment services from more than one health care institution;
  - f. Contain methods to ensure that the opioid treatment services provided to a patient by or at the outpatient treatment center meet the patient's needs;
  - g. Include relapse prevention procedures;
  - h. Include for laboratory testing:
    - i. Criteria for the assessment of a patient's opioid agonist blood levels,
    - ii. Procedures for specimen collection and processing to reduce the risk of fraudulent results, and
    - iii. Procedures for conducting random drug testing of patients receiving an opioid agonist treatment medication;
  - i. Include procedures for the response of personnel members to a patient's adverse reaction during opioid treatment; and
  - j. Include criteria for dispensing one or more doses of an opioid agonist treatment medication to a patient for use off the premises and address:
    - i. Who may authorize dispensing,
    - ii. Restrictions on dispensing, and
    - iii. Information to be provided to a patient or the patient's representative before dispensing;
2. A physician provides direction for the opioid treatment services provided at the outpatient treatment center;
  3. If a patient requires administration of an opioid agonist treatment medication as a result of chronic pain, the patient:
    - a. Receives consultation with or a referral for consultation with a physician or registered nurse practitioner who specializes in chronic pain management, and
    - b. Is not admitted for opioid treatment services:
      - i. Unless the patient is physically addicted to an opioid drug, as manifested by the symptoms of withdrawal in the absence of the opioid drug; and
      - ii. A medical practitioner at the outpatient treatment center coordinates with the physician or registered nurse practitioner who is providing chronic pain management to the patient; and
  4. In addition to the requirements in R9-10-1009(C), a medical record for each patient contains:
    - a. If applicable, documentation of the dispensing of doses of an opioid agonist treatment medication to the patient for use off the premises; and
    - b. If applicable, documentation of the patient's discharge from receiving opioid treatment services.
- C. An administrator of an outpatient treatment center that is authorized to provide opioid treatment services shall ensure that for a patient receiving opioid treatment services:
1. The opioid treatment services provided to the patient meet the needs of the patient;
  2. A physician or a medical practitioner under the direction of a physician:
    - a. Performs a medical history and physical examination on the patient within 30 calendar days before admission or within 48 hours after admission, and
    - b. Documents the medical history and physical examination in the patient's medical record within 48 hours after admission;
  3. Before receiving opioid treatment, the patient is informed of the following:
    - a. The progression of opioid addiction and the patient's apparent stage of opioid addiction;
    - b. The goal and benefits of opioid treatment;
    - c. The signs and symptoms of overdose and when to seek emergency assistance;
    - d. The characteristics of opioid agonist treatment medication, including common side-effects and potential interaction effects with other drugs;
    - e. The requirement for a staff member to report suspected or alleged abuse or neglect of a child or an incapacitated or vulnerable adult according to state law;
    - f. Confidentiality requirements;
    - g. Drug screening and urinalysis procedures;
    - h. Requirements for dispensing to a patient one or more doses of an opioid agonist treatment medication for use by the patient off the premises;
    - i. Testing and treatment available for HIV and other communicable diseases; and
    - j. The patient complaint process;
  4. Documentation of the provision of the information specified in subsection (C)(3) is included in the patient's medical record;
  5. The patient receives a dose of an opioid agonist treatment medication only on the order of a medical practitioner;
  6. The patient begins detoxification treatment only at the request of the patient or according to the outpatient treatment center's policy and procedure for discontinuing opioid treatment services required in subsection (B)(1)(b);
  7. If the patient has an adverse reaction during opioid treatment, a personnel member and, if appropriate, a medical practitioner responds by implementing the policy and procedure required in subsection (B)(1)(i);
  8. Before the patient's discharge from opioid treatment services, the patient is provided with patient follow-up instructions that:
    - a. Include information that may reduce the risk of relapse; and
    - b. May include a referral for counseling, support groups, or medication for depression or sleep disorders; and

9. After the patient's discharge from opioid treatment services provided by or at the outpatient treatment center, the medical practitioner responsible for the opioid treatment services provided to the patient documents the patient's discharge in the patient's medical record within 30 calendar days after the patient's discharge and includes:
  - a. A description of the patient's medical condition and the opioid treatment services provided to the patient, and
  - b. The signature of the medical practitioner.
- D. An administrator of an outpatient treatment center that is authorized to provide opioid treatment services shall ensure that an assessment for each patient receiving opioid treatment services:
  1. Includes, in addition to the information in R9-10-1010(B):
    - a. An assessment of the patient's need for opioid treatment services,
    - b. An assessment of the patient's medical conditions that may be affected by opioid treatment,
    - c. An assessment of other medications being taken by the patient and conditions that may be affected by opioid treatment, and
    - d. A plan to prevent relapse;
  2. Identifies the treatment to be provided to the patient and treatment goals; and
  3. Specifies whether the patient may receive an opioid agonist treatment medication for use off the premises and, if so, the number of doses that may be dispensed.
- ii. Documentation of the discussion in subsection (3)(a),
- iii. The nature and intensity of the patient's pain, and
- iv. The objectives used to determine whether the patient is being successfully treated; and
4. If an injection or a nerve block is used to provide pain management services:
  - a. Before the injection or nerve block is initially used on a patient, an evaluation of the patient is performed by a physician or nurse anesthetist;
  - b. An injection or nerve block is administered by a physician or nurse anesthetist; and
  - c. The following information is included in a patient's medical record:
    - i. The evaluation of the patient required in subsection (4)(a),
    - ii. A record of the administration of the injection or nerve block, and
    - iii. Any resuscitation measures taken.

Historical Note

Adopted as an emergency effective November 17, 1983, pursuant to A.R.S. § 41-1003, valid for only 90 days (Supp. 83-6). #### R9-10-1313. Medication Services

- A. An administrator shall ensure that policies and procedures for medication services:
  1. Include:
    - a. A process for providing information to a patient about medication prescribed for the patient, including:
      - i. The prescribed medication's anticipated results,
      - ii. The prescribed medication's potential adverse reactions,
      - iii. The prescribed medication's potential side effects, and
      - iv. Potential adverse reactions that could result from not taking the medication as prescribed;
    - b. Procedures for preventing, responding to, and reporting:
      - i. A medication error,
      - ii. An adverse response to a medication, or
      - iii. A medication overdose;
    - c. Procedures for documenting medication services and assistance in the self-administration of medication; and
    - d. If applicable, procedures for providing medication administration or assistance in the self-administration of medication off the premises; and
  2. Specify a process for review through the quality management program of:
    - a. A medication administration error, and
    - b. An adverse reaction to a medication.
- B. A medical director shall ensure that:
  1. Policies and procedures for medication administration:
    - a. Are reviewed and approved by a medical practitioner;
    - b. Specify the individuals who may:
      - i. Order medication, and
      - ii. Administer medication; and
    - c. Ensure that medication is administered to a patient only as prescribed;
  2. A patient's refusal to take prescribed medication is documented in the patient's medical record;
  3. Verbal orders for medication services are taken by a nurse, unless otherwise provided by law;
  4. A medication administered to a patient:
    - a. Is administered in compliance with an order, and
    - b. Is documented in the patient's medical record; and
  5. If pain medication is administered to a patient on a PRN basis, documentation in the patient's medical record includes:
    - a. An identification of the patient's pain before administering the medication, and
    - b. The effect of the pain medication administered.
- C. If a behavioral health specialized transitional facility provides assistance in the self-administration of medication, a medical director shall ensure that:
  1. A patient's medication is stored by the behavioral health specialized transitional facility;
  2. The following assistance is provided to a patient:
    - a. A reminder when it is time to take the medication;
    - b. Opening the medication container for the patient;
    - c. Observing the patient while the patient removes the medication from the container;

- d. Verifying that the medication is taken as ordered by the patient's medical practitioner by confirming that:
    - i. The patient taking the medication is the individual stated on the medication container label,
    - ii. The dosage of the medication is the same as stated on the medication container label, and
    - iii. The medication is being taken by the patient at the time stated on the medication container label; or
  - e. Observing the patient while the patient takes the medication;
  - 3. Policies and procedures for assistance in the self-administration of medication are reviewed and approved by a medical practitioner or registered nurse;
  - 4. Training for a personnel member, other than a medical practitioner or nurse, in assistance in the self-administration of medication:
    - a. Is provided by a medical practitioner or registered nurse or an individual trained by a medical practitioner or registered nurse; and
    - b. Includes:
      - i. A demonstration of the personnel member's skills and knowledge necessary to provide assistance in the self-administration of medication,
      - ii. Identification of medication errors and medical emergencies related to medication that require emergency medical intervention, and
      - iii. Process for notifying the appropriate entities when an emergency medical intervention is needed;
  - 5. A personnel member, other than a medical practitioner or nurse, completes the training in subsection (C)(4) before the personnel member provides assistance in the self-administration of medication; and
  - 6. Assistance in the self-administration of medication provided to a patient:
    - a. Is in compliance with an order, and
    - b. Is documented in the patient's medical record.
- D. An administrator shall ensure that:
- 1. A current drug reference guide is available for use by personnel members;
  - 2. A current toxicology reference guide is available for use by personnel members; and
  - 3. If pharmaceutical services are provided:
    - a. The pharmaceutical services are provided under the direction of a pharmacist;
    - b. The pharmaceutical services comply with A.R.S. Title 36, Chapter 27; A.R.S. Title 32, Chapter 18; and 4 A.A.C. 23; and
    - c. A copy of the pharmacy license is provided to the Department upon request.
- E. When medication is stored at a behavioral health specialized transitional facility, an administrator shall ensure that:
- 1. Medication is stored in a separate locked room, closet, or self-contained unit used only for medication;
  - 2. Medication is stored according to the instructions on the medication container; and
  - 3. Policies and procedures are established, documented, and implemented for:
    - a. Receiving, storing, inventorying, tracking, dispensing, and discarding medication including expired medication;
    - b. Discarding or returning prepackaged and sample medication to the manufacturer if the manufacturer requests the discard or return of the medication;
    - c. A medication recall and notification of patients who received recalled medication;
    - d. Storing, inventorying, and dispensing controlled substances; and
    - e. Documenting the maintenance of a medication requiring refrigeration.
- F. An administrator shall ensure that a personnel member immediately reports a medication error or a patient's adverse reaction to a medication to the medical practitioner who ordered the medication and, if applicable, the behavioral health specialized transitional facility's medical director.

    - c. Is documented in participant's medical record;
  8. A participant is referred to a medical practitioner if a determination is made that the participant requires immediate physical health services or the participant's behavioral health issue may be related to the participant's medical condition;
  9. If a participant requires behavioral health services that the substance abuse transitional facility is not authorized or not able to provide, a personnel member arranges for the participant to be provided transportation to transfer to another health care institution where the behavioral health services can be provided;
  10. A request for participation in a participant's assessment is made to the participant or the participant's representative;
  11. An opportunity for participation in the participant's assessment is provided to the participant or the participant's representative;
  12. Documentation of the request in subsection (10) and the opportunity in subsection (11) is in the participant's medical record; and
  13. A participant's assessment information is:
    - a. Documented in the medical record within 48 hours after completing the assessment, and
    - b. Reviewed and updated when additional information that affects the participant's assessment is identified.

Historical Note

Adopted effective February 1, 1994 (Supp. 94-1). Section repealed; new Section made by exempt rulemaking at 19 A.A.R. 2015, effective October 1, 2013 (Supp. 13-2). Section R9-10-1406 renumbered to R9-10-1405; new Section R9-10-1406 renumbered from R9-10-1407 and amended by exempt rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 1409, pursuant to Laws 2013, Ch. 10, § 13; effective July 1, 2014 (Supp. 14-2).

R9-10-1407. Discharge

A. An administrator shall ensure that:

1. If a participant is not being transferred to another health care institution, before discharging the participant from a substance abuse transitional facility, a personnel member:

- a. Identifies the specific needs of the participant after discharge necessary to assist the participant to address the participant's substance abuse issues;
    - b. Identifies any resources, including family members, community social services, peer support services, and Regional Behavioral Health Agency staff, that may be available to assist the participant; and
    - c. Documents the information in subsection (A)(1)(a) and the resources in subsection (A)(1)(b) in the participant's medical record; and
  - 2. When an individual is discharged, a personnel member:
    - a. Provides the participant with discharge information that includes:
      - i. The identified specific needs of the participant after discharge, and
      - ii. Resources that may be available for the participant; and
    - b. Contacts any resources identified as required in subsection (A)(1)(b).
  - B. An administrator shall ensure that there is a documented discharge order by a medical practitioner before a participant is discharged unless the participant leaves the facility against a medical practitioner's advice.
  - C. An administrator shall ensure that, at the time of discharge, a participant receives a referral for behavioral health services that the participant may need after discharge, if applicable.
  - D. An administrator shall ensure that a discharge summary:
    - 1. Is entered into the participant's medical record within 10 working days after a participant's discharge; and
    - 2. Includes the following information completed by an individual authorized by policies and procedures:
      - a. The participant's presenting issue and other behavioral health and physical health issues identified in the participant's assessment;
      - b. A summary of the behavioral health services and physical health services provided to the participant;
      - c. The name, dosage, and frequency of each medication for the participant ordered at the time of the participant's discharge by a medical practitioner at the facility; and
      - d. A description of the disposition of the participant's possessions, funds, or medications brought to the facility by the participant.
  - E. An administrator shall ensure that a participant who is dependent upon a prescribed medication is offered a written referral to detoxification services or opioid treatment before the participant is discharged.
- b. Information in the participant's medical record, including orders that are in effect at the time of the transfer, is provided to a receiving health care institution; and
  - c. A personnel member explains risks and benefits of the transfer to the participant or the participant's representative; and
- 3. Documentation in the participant's medical record includes:
    - a. Communication with an individual at a receiving health care institution;
    - b. The date and time of the transfer;
    - c. The mode of transportation; and
    - d. If applicable, the name of the personnel member accompanying the participant during a transfer.

R9-10-1412. Medication Services

- A. If a facility provides medication administration or assistance in the self-administration of medication, an administrator shall ensure that policies and procedures for medication services:
  1. Include:
    - a. A process for providing information to a participant about medication prescribed for the participant including:
      - i. The prescribed medication's anticipated results,
      - ii. The prescribed medication's potential adverse reactions,
      - iii. The prescribed medication's potential side effects, and
      - iv. Potential adverse reactions that could result from not taking the medication as prescribed;
    - b. Procedures for preventing, responding to, and reporting:
      - i. A medication error,
      - ii. An adverse reaction to a medication, or
      - iii. A medication overdose;
    - c. Procedures to ensure that a participant's medication regimen is reviewed by a medical practitioner to ensure the medication regimen meets the participant's needs;
    - d. Procedures for documenting medication administration and assistance in the self-administration of medication;
    - e. Procedures for assisting a participant in obtaining medication; and
    - f. If applicable, procedures for providing medication administration or assistance in the self-administration of medication off the premises; and
  2. Specify a process for review through the quality management program of:
    - a. A medication administration error, and
    - b. An adverse reaction to a medication.
- B. If a substance abuse transitional facility provides medication administration, an administrator shall ensure that:
  1. Policies and procedures for medication administration:
    - a. Are reviewed and approved by a medical practitioner;
    - b. Specify the individuals who may:
      - i. Order medication, and
      - ii. Administer medication;
    - c. Ensure that medication is administered to a participant only as prescribed;
    - d. Cover the documentation of a participant's refusal to take prescribed medication in the participant's medical record;
  2. Verbal orders for medication services are taken by a nurse, unless otherwise provided by law; and
  3. A medication administered to a participant:
    - a. Is administered in compliance with an order, and
    - b. Is documented in the participant's medical record.
- C. If a substance abuse transitional facility provides assistance in the self-administration of medication, an administrator shall ensure that:

1. A participant's medication is stored by the substance abuse transitional facility;
  2. The following assistance is provided to a participant:
    - a. A reminder when it is time to take the medication;
    - b. Opening the medication container for the participant;
    - c. Observing the participant while the participant removes the medication from the container;
    - d. Verifying that the medication is taken as ordered by the participant's medical practitioner by confirming that:
      - i. The participant taking the medication is the individual stated on the medication container label,
      - ii. The participant is taking the dosage of the medication stated on the medication container label or according to an order from a medical practitioner dated later than the date on the medication container label, and
      - iii. The participant is taking the medication at the time stated on the medication container label or according to an order from a medical practitioner dated later than the date on the medication container label; or

R9-10-1508. Abortion Procedures

A. A medical director shall ensure that a medical evaluation of a patient is conducted before the patient's abortion is performed that includes:

1. A medical history including:
  - a. Allergies to medications, antiseptic solutions, or latex;
  - b. Obstetrical and gynecological history;
  - c. Past surgeries;
  - d. Medication the patient is currently taking; and
  - e. Other medical conditions;
2. A physical examination performed by a physician that includes a bimanual examination to estimate uterine size and palpation of adnexa; and
3. The following laboratory tests:
  - a. A urine or blood test to determine pregnancy;
  - b. Rh typing unless the patient provides written documentation of blood type acceptable to the physician;
  - c. Anemia screening; and
  - d. Other laboratory tests recommended by the physician or medical director on the basis of the physical examination.

B. If the medical evaluation indicates a patient is Rh negative, a medical director shall ensure that:

1. The patient receives information from a physician on this condition;
2. The patient is offered RhO(d) immune globulin within 72 hours after the abortion procedure;
3. If a patient refuses RhO(d) immune globulin, the patient signs and dates a form acknowledging the patient's condition and refusing the RhO(d) immune globulin;
4. The form in subsection (B)(3) is maintained in the patient's medical record; and
5. If a patient refuses RhO(d) immune globulin or if a patient refuses to sign and date an acknowledgment and refusal form, the physician documents the patient's refusal in the patient's medical record.

C. A physician estimates the gestational age of the fetus, and records the estimated age in the patient's medical record. The estimated age is based upon:

1. Ultrasound measurements of the biparietal diameter, length of femur, abdominal circumference, visible pregnancy sac, or crown-rump length or a combination of these; or
2. The date of the last menstrual period or the date of fertilization and a bimanual examination of the patient.

D. A medical director shall ensure that:

1. An ultrasound of a patient is performed by an individual who meets the requirements in R9-10-1505(3);
2. An ultrasound estimate of gestational age of a fetus is performed using methods and tables or charts published in a nationally recognized medical journal;
3. An original patient ultrasound print is:
  - a. Interpreted by a physician; and
  - b. Maintained in the patient's medical record in either electronic or paper form; and
4. If requested by the patient, the ultrasound is reviewed with the patient by a physician, physician assistant, registered nurse practitioner, or registered nurse.

E. A medical director shall ensure that before an abortion is performed on a patient:

1. Written consent is signed and dated by the patient or the patient's legal guardian; and
2. Information is provided to the patient on the abortion procedure including alternatives, risks, and potential complications.

F. A medical director shall ensure that an abortion is performed according to the abortion clinic's policies and procedures and this Article.

G. A medical director shall ensure that any medication, drug, or substance used to induce an abortion is administered in compliance with the protocol authorized by the United States Food and Drug Administration and that is outlined in the final printing labeling instructions for that medication, drug, or substance.

H. A medical director shall ensure that:

1. Patient care staff monitor the patient's vital signs throughout an abortion procedure to ensure the patient's health and safety;
2. Intravenous access is established and maintained on a patient undergoing an abortion after the first trimester unless the physician determines that establishing intravenous access is not appropriate for the particular patient and documents that fact in the patient's medical record; and
3. If a viable fetus shows signs of life:
  - a. Resuscitative measures are used to support life;

- b. The viable fetus is transferred as required in R9-10-1509; and
  - c. Resuscitative measures and the transfer are documented.
- I. A medical director shall ensure that following the abortion procedure:
  - 1. A patient's vital signs and bleeding are monitored by a physician, nurse, registered nurse practitioner, physician assistant, or, if a physician is able to provide direct supervision as defined in A.R.S. § 32-1401 or A.R.S. § 32-1800, as applicable, a medical assistant under the direct supervision of the physician to ensure the patient's health and safety; and
  - 2. A patient remains in the recovery room or recovery area until a physician, physician assistant, registered nurse practitioner or nurse examines the patient and determines that the patient's medical condition is stable and the patient is ready to leave the recovery room or recovery area.
- J. A medical director shall ensure that follow-up care includes:
  - 1. With a patient's consent, a telephone call to the patient by a member of the patient care staff, except a surgical assistant, within 24 hours after the patient's discharge following a surgical abortion to assess the patient's recovery. If the patient care staff is unable to speak with the patient, for any reason, the attempt to contact the patient is documented in the patient's medical record;
  - 2. Following a surgical abortion, a follow-up visit offered and scheduled, if requested, no more than 21 days after the abortion. The follow-up visit shall include:
    - a. A physical examination;
    - b. A review of all laboratory tests as required in R9-10-1508(A)(3); and
    - c. A urine pregnancy test; and
  - 3. Following a medication abortion, a follow-up visit offered and scheduled between seven and 21 days after the initial dose of a substance used to induce an abortion. The follow-up visit shall include:
    - a. A urine pregnancy test; and
    - b. An assessment of the degree of bleeding.
- K. If a continuing pregnancy is suspected as a result of the follow-up visit required in subsection (J)(2) or (J)(3), a physician who performs abortions shall be consulted.

R9-10-1510. Medications and Controlled Substances

- A medical director shall ensure that:
  - 1. The abortion clinic complies with the requirements for medications and controlled substances in A.R.S. Title 32, Chapter 18, and A.R.S. Title 36, Chapter 27;
  - 2. A medication is administered in compliance with an order from a physician, physician assistant, registered nurse practitioner, or as otherwise provided by law;
  - 3. A medication is administered to a patient by a physician or as otherwise provided by law;
  - 4. Medications and controlled substances are maintained in a locked area in the physical facilities;
  - 5. Only personnel designated by policies and procedures have access to the locked area containing medications and controlled substances;

6. Expired, mislabeled, or unusable medications and controlled substances are disposed of according to policies and procedures;
7. A medication error or an adverse reaction, including any actions taken in response to the medication error or adverse reaction, is immediately reported to the medical director and licensee, and recorded in the patient's medical record;
8. Medication information is maintained in a patient's medical record and contains:
  - a. The patient's name, age, and weight;
  - b. The medications the patient is currently taking; and
  - c. Allergies or sensitivities to medications, antiseptic solutions, or latex; and
9. If medication is administered to a patient, the following are documented in the patient's medical record:
  - a. The date and time of administration;
  - b. The name, strength, dosage form, amount of medication, and route of administration; and
  - c. The identification and signature of the individual administering the medication.
- h. Orders issued by a physician, physician assistant or registered nurse practitioner;
- i. A record of medical services, nursing services, and health-related services provided to the patient; and
- j. The patient's medication information;
2. A medical record is accessible only to the Department or personnel authorized by policies and procedures;
3. Medical record information is confidential and released only with the written informed consent of a patient or the patient's representative or as otherwise permitted by law;
4. A medical record is protected from loss, damage, or unauthorized use and is maintained and accessible for seven years after the date of an adult patient's discharge or if the patient is a child, either for at least three years after the child's 18th birthday or for at least seven years after the patient's discharge, whichever date occurs last;
5. A medical record is maintained at the abortion clinic for at least six months after the date of the patient's discharge; and
6. Vital records and vital statistics are retained according to A.R.S. § 36-343.

B. A licensee shall comply with Department requests for access to or copies of patient medical records as follows:

1. Subject to the redaction permitted in subsection (B)(5), for patient medical records requested for review in connection with a compliance inspection, the licensee shall provide the Department with the following patient medical records related to medical services associated with an abortion, including any follow-up visits to the abortion clinic in connection with the abortion:
  - a. Patient identification including:
    - i. The patient's name, address, and date of birth;
    - ii. The designated patient's representative, if applicable; and
    - iii. The name and telephone number of an individual to contact in an emergency;
  - b. The patient's medical history required in R9-10-1508(A)(1);
  - c. The patient's physical examination required in R9-10-1508(A)(2);
  - d. The laboratory test results required in R9-10-1508(A)(3);
  - e. The physician's estimated gestational age of the fetus required in R9-10-1508(C);
  - f. The ultrasound results required in R9-10-1508(D);
  - g. Each consent form signed by the patient or the patient's representative;
  - h. Orders issued by a physician, physician assistant, or registered nurse practitioner;
  - i. A record of medical services, nursing services, and health-related services provided to the patient; and
  - j. The patient's medication information.
2. For patient medical records requested for review in connection with an initial licensing or compliance inspection, the licensee is not required to produce for review by the Department any patient medical records created or prepared by a referring physician or any of that referring physician's medical staff.
3. The licensee is not required to provide patient medical records regarding medical services associated with an abortion that occurred before:
  - a. The effective date of these rules, or
  - b. A previous licensing or compliance inspection of the abortion clinic.

Historical Note

Adopted effective August 6, 1993, under an exemption from the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act pursuant to Laws 1993, Ch. 163, Section 3(B). Repealed effective November 1, 1998, under an exemption from the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act pursuant to Laws 1998, Ch. 178, § 17; filed with the Office of the Secretary of State October 2, 1998 (Supp. 98-4). New Section adopted effective April 1, 2000, under an exemption from the provisions of the Arizona Administrative Procedure Act pursuant to Laws 1999, Chapter 311; filed with the Office of the Secretary of State December 23, 1999 at 6 A.A.R. 351 (Supp. 99-4).

Amended by exempt rulemaking at 6 A.A.R. 3755, effective January 1, 2001 (Supp. 00-3). Amended by exempt rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 448, effective April 1, 2014 (Supp. 14-1).

R9-10-1511. Medical Records

A. A licensee shall ensure that:

1. A medical record is established and maintained for a patient that contains:
  - a. Patient identification including:
    - i. The patient's name, address, and date of birth;
    - ii. The designated patient's representative, if applicable; and
    - iii. The name and telephone number of an individual to contact in an emergency;
  - b. The patient's medical history required in R9-10-1508(A)(1);
  - c. The patient's physical examination required in R9-10-1508(A)(2);
  - d. The laboratory test results required in R9-10-1508(A)(3);
  - e. The physician's estimated gestational age of the fetus required in R9-10-1508(C);
  - f. The ultrasound results, including the original print, required in R9-10-1508(D);
  - g. Each consent form signed by the patient or the patient's legal guardian;

4. The patient medical records may be provided to the Department in either paper or in an electronic format that is acceptable to the Department.
  5. When access to or copies of patient medical records are requested from a licensee by the Department, the licensee shall redact only personally identifiable patient information from the patient medical records before the disclosure of the patient medical records to the Department, except as provided in subsection (B)(8).
  6. For patient medical records requested for review in connection with an initial licensing or compliance inspection, the licensee shall provide the redacted copies of the patient medical records to the Department within two business days of the Department's request for the redacted medical records if the total number of patients for whom patient medical records are requested by the Department is from one to ten patients, unless otherwise agreed to by the Department and the licensee. The time within which the licensee shall produce redacted records to the Department shall be increased by two business days for each additional five patients for whom patient medical records are requested by the Department, unless otherwise agreed to by the Department and the licensee.
  7. Upon request by the Department, in addition to redacting only personally identifiable patient information, the licensee shall code the requested patient medical records by a means that allows the Department to track all patient medical records related to a specific patient without the personally identifiable patient information.
  8. For patient medical records requested for review in connection with a complaint investigation, the Department shall have access to or copies of unredacted patient medical records.
  9. If the Department obtains copies of unredacted patient medical records, the Department shall:
    - a. Allow the examination and use of the unredacted patient medical records only by those Department employees who need access to the patient medical records to fulfill their investigative responsibilities and duties;
    - b. Maintain all unredacted patient medical records in a locked drawer, cabinet, or file or in a password-protected electronic file with access to the secured drawer, cabinet, or file limited to those individuals who have access to the patient medical records according to subsection (B)(9)(a);
    - c. Destroy all unredacted patient medical records at the termination of the Department's complaint investigation or at the termination of any administrative or legal action that is taken by the Department as the result of the Department's complaint investigation, whichever is later;
    - d. If the unredacted patient medical records are filed with a court or other judicial body, including any administrative law judge or panel, file the records only under seal; and
    - e. Prevent access to the unredacted records by anyone except as provided in subsection (B)(9)(a) or subsection (B)(9)(d).
- C. A medical director shall ensure that only personnel authorized by policies and procedures, records or signs an entry in a medical record and:
1. An entry in a medical record is dated and legible;
  2. An entry is authenticated by:
    - a. A written signature;
    - b. An individual's initials if the individual's written signature already appears in the medical record;
    - c. A rubber-stamp signature; or
    - d. An electronic signature;
  3. An entry is not changed after it has been recorded but additional information related to an entry may be recorded in the medical record;
  4. When a verbal or telephone order is entered in the medical record, the entry is authenticated within 21 days by the individual who issued the order;
  5. If a rubber-stamp signature or an electronic signature is used:
    - a. An individual's rubber stamp or electronic signature is not used by another individual;
    - b. The individual who uses a rubber stamp or electronic signature signs a statement that the individual is responsible for the use of the rubber stamp or the electronic signature; and
    - c. The signed statement is included in the individual's personnel record; and
  6. If an abortion clinic maintains medical records electronically, the medical director shall ensure the date and time of an entry is recorded by the computer's internal clock.
- D. As required by A.R.S. § 36-449.03(I), the Department shall not release any personally identifiable patient or physician information.

ARTICLE 18. ADULT BEHAVIORAL HEALTH THERAPEUTIC HOMES

R9-10-1801. Definitions

In addition to the definitions in A.R.S. § 36-401 and R9-10-101, the following definitions apply in this Article unless otherwise specified:

1. “Acceptance” means, after a referral from a collaborating health care institution, an individual begins to live in and receive services from a provider in an adult behavioral health therapeutic home.
2. “Backup provider” means an individual designated by a provider to be present in an adult behavioral health therapeutic home, when a provider is not present, who ensures that a resident receives the behavioral health services and ancillary services in the resident’s treatment plan.
3. “Provider” means an individual who lives in an adult behavioral health therapeutic home and ensures that a resident receives the behavioral health services and ancillary services in the resident’s treatment plan.
4. “Release” means a documented termination of services to a resident by a provider that is authorized by a collaborating health care institution.
5. “Resident” means an individual referred by a collaborating health care institution to and accepted by an adult behavioral health therapeutic home.

Historical Note

New Section made by exempt rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 1409, pursuant to Laws 2013, Ch. 10, § 13; effective July 1, 2014 (Supp. 14-2).

R9-10-1802. Supplemental Application Requirements

In addition to the license application requirements in A.R.S. § 36-422 and 9 A.A.C. 10, Article 1, an applicant shall include, in a format provided by the Department:

1. The name of the backup provider; and
2. For the adult behavioral health therapeutic home’s collaborating health care institution:
  - a. Name,
  - b. Address,
  - c. Class or subclass,
  - d. License number, and
  - e. Name and contact information for an individual assigned by the collaborating health care institution to monitor the adult behavioral health therapeutic home.

Historical Note

New Section made by exempt rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 1409, pursuant to Laws 2013, Ch. 10, § 13; effective July 1, 2014 (Supp. 14-2).

R9-10-1803. Administration

- A. A governing authority of an adult behavioral health therapeutic home:
1. Consists of no more than two providers, who live in the adult behavioral health therapeutic home;
  2. Has the authority and responsibility to manage the adult behavioral health therapeutic home;
  3. Has a documented agreement with a collaborating health care institution that establishes the responsibilities of the adult behavioral health therapeutic home and the collaborating health care institution, consistent with the requirements in this Chapter;
  4. Shall establish, in writing, the adult behavioral health therapeutic home's scope of services, which are approved by the collaborating health care institution;
  5. Shall designate a back-up provider to be present in the adult behavioral health therapeutic home and accountable for services provided by the adult behavioral health therapeutic home when the provider is not present at the adult behavioral health therapeutic home; and
  6. Shall ensure that:
    - a. No more than three residents are accepted by the adult behavioral health therapeutic home;
    - b. Documentation required by this Article is provided to the Department within two hours after a Department request; and
    - c. When documentation or information is required by this Chapter to be submitted on behalf of the adult behavioral health therapeutic home, the documentation or information is provided to the unit in the Department that is responsible for licensing the adult behavioral health therapeutic home.
- B. A provider or back-up provider:
1. Is at least 21 years of age;
  2. Holds current certification in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and first aid training applicable to the ages of residents;
  3. Has the skills and knowledge established by the collaborating health care institution as specified in R9-10-118;
  4. Has documentation of completion of training in assistance in the self-administration of medication as specified in R9-10-118; and
  5. Has documentation of evidence of freedom from infectious tuberculosis:
    - a. On or before the date the provider or back-up provider begins providing services at or on behalf of the adult behavioral health therapeutic home, and
    - b. As specified in R9-10-113.
- C. A provider shall ensure that policies and procedures are:
1. Established, documented, and implemented to protect the health and safety of a resident that cover:
    - a. Recordkeeping;
    - b. Resident acceptance and release;
    - c. Resident rights;
    - d. The provision of services, including coordinating the provision of behavioral health services;
    - e. Residents' medical records, including electronic medical records;
    - f. Assistance in the self-administration of medication;
    - g. Infection control; and
    - h. How a provider will respond to a resident's sudden, intense, or out-of-control behavior to prevent harm to the resident or another individual;
  2. Approved, in writing, by an adult behavioral health therapeutic home's collaborating health care institution before implementation and when the policies and procedures are reviewed or updated; and
- D. A provider shall provide written notification to the Department and the adult behavioral health therapeutic home's collaborating health care institution of a resident's:
1. Death, if the resident's death is required to be reported according to A.R.S. § 11-593, within one working day after the resident's death; and
  2. Self-injury, within two working days after the resident inflicts a self-injury that requires immediate intervention by an emergency medical services provider.
- E. If abuse, neglect, or exploitation of a resident is alleged or suspected to have occurred before the resident was accepted or while the resident is not at an adult behavioral health therapeutic home and not receiving services from the adult behavioral health therapeutic home, a provider shall report the alleged or suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the resident according to A.R.S. § 46-454.
- F. If a provider has a reasonable basis, according to A.R.S. § 46-454, to believe abuse, neglect, or exploitation has occurred on the premises or while a resident is receiving adult behavioral health therapeutic services, the provider shall:
1. If applicable, take immediate action to stop the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation;
  2. Immediately report the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the resident as follows:
    - a. To the adult behavioral health therapeutic home's collaborating health care institution; and
    - b. According to A.R.S. § 46-454;
  3. Document:
    - a. The suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation;
    - b. Any action taken according to subsection (F)(1); and
    - c. The report in subsection (F)(2);
  4. Maintain the documentation in subsection (F)(3) for at least 12 months after the date of the report in subsection (F)(2);
  5. Initiate an investigation of the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation and document the following information within five working days after the report required in subsection (F)(2):
    - a. The dates, times, and description of the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation;
    - b. A description of any injury to the resident related to the suspected abuse or neglect and any change to the resident's physical, cognitive, functional, or emotional condition;
    - c. The names of witnesses to the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation; and
    - d. The actions taken by the provider to prevent the suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation from occurring in the future; and
  6. Maintain a copy of the documented information required in subsection (F)(5) and any other information obtained during the investigation for at least 12 months after the date the investigation was initiated.
- G. A provider shall maintain a record for each provider and backup provider that includes:
1. For the provider and the backup provider:
    - a. Name;
    - b. Date of birth;
    - c. Contact telephone number; and
    - d. Documentation of:

- i. Verification of skills and knowledge, completed by the adult behavioral health therapeutic home's collaborating health care institution;
  - ii. Certification in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and first aid training;
  - iii. Completion of training in assistance in the self-administration of medication, provided by the adult behavioral health therapeutic home's collaborating health care institution;
  - iv. If the provider or backup provider provides behavioral health services, clinical oversight as required in R9-10-1805(C); and
  - v. Evidence of freedom from infectious tuberculosis; and
2. For the backup provider, home address.

Historical Note

New Section made by exempt rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 1409, pursuant to Laws 2013, Ch. 10, § 13; effective July 1, 2014 (Supp. 14-2).

R9-10-1804. Resident Rights

- A. A provider shall ensure that:
- 1. A resident is treated with dignity, respect, and consideration;
  - 2. A resident is not subjected to:
    - a. Abuse;
    - b. Neglect;
    - c. Exploitation;
    - d. Coercion;

    - i. Restraint;
    - j. Retaliation for submitting a complaint to the Department or another entity; or
  - k. Misappropriation of personal and private property by:
    - i. An adult behavioral health therapeutic home's provider or backup provider, or
    - ii. An individual other than a resident residing in the adult behavioral health therapeutic home; and
  - 3. A resident or the resident's representative:
    - a. Is informed of the resident complaint process;
    - b. Consents to photographs of the resident before the resident is photographed, except that the resident may be photographed when accepted by an adult behavioral health therapeutic home for identification and administrative purposes; and
    - c. Except as otherwise permitted by law, provides written consent to the release of information in the resident's medical record.
- B. A resident has the following rights:
- 1. Not to be discriminated against based on race, national origin, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, marital status, or diagnosis;
  - 2. To receive services that support and respect the resident's individuality, choices, strengths, and abilities;
  - 3. To receive privacy in care for personal needs;
  - 4. To review, upon written request, the resident's own medical record according to A.R.S. §§ 12-2293, 12-2294, and 12-2294.01;
  - 5. To receive a referral to another health care institution if the provider is not authorized or not able to provide physical health services or behavioral health services needed by the resident; and

- 6. To receive assistance from a family member, resident's representative, or other individual in understanding, protecting, or exercising the resident's rights.

Historical Note

New Section made by exempt rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 1409, pursuant to Laws 2013, Ch. 10, § 13; effective July 1, 2014 (Supp. 14-2).

R9-10-1805. Providing Services

- A. A provider shall ensure that behavioral health services and ancillary services are provided to a resident according to the resident's treatment plan obtained from the adult behavioral health therapeutic home's collaborating health care institution.
- B. A provider shall submit documentation of any significant change in a resident's behavior or physical, cognitive, or functional condition and the action taken by the provider to address the resident's changing needs to the adult behavioral health therapeutic home's collaborating health care institution or, if applicable, the resident's case manager.
- C. A provider who provides behavioral health services to a resident:
- 1. For the purpose of an exception to licensing in A.R.S. § 32-3271, is considered a behavioral health technician; and
  - 2. Shall comply with the requirements for clinical oversight for a behavioral health technician in R9-10-115.

Historical Note

New Section made by exempt rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 1409, pursuant to Laws 2013, Ch. 10, § 13; effective July 1, 2014 (Supp. 14-2).

R9-10-1806. Assistance in the Self-Administration of Medication

- A. If a provider provides assistance in the self-administration of medication, the provider shall ensure that:
- 1. If a resident is receiving assistance in the self-administration of medication, the resident's medication is stored by the provider;
  - 2. The following assistance is provided to a resident:
    - a. A reminder when it is time to take the medication;
    - b. Opening the medication container or medication organizer for the resident;
    - c. Observing the resident while the resident removes the medication from the medication container or medication organizer;
    - d. Verifying that the medication is taken as ordered by the resident's medical practitioner by confirming that:
      - i. The resident taking the medication is the individual stated on the medication container label,
      - ii. The resident is taking the dosage of the medication as stated on the medication container label, and
      - iii. The resident is taking the medication at the time stated on the medication container label; or
    - e. Observing the resident while the resident takes the medication; and
  - 3. Assistance in the self-administration of medication provided to a resident is documented in the resident's medical record.
- B. When medication is stored by a provider, the provider shall ensure that:

1. A locked cabinet, closet, or self-contained unit is used for medication storage;
  2. Medication is stored according to the instructions on the medication container; and
  3. Medication, including expired medication, that is no longer being used is discarded.
- C. A provider shall immediately report a medication error or a resident's adverse reaction to a medication to the:
1. Medical practitioner who ordered the medication, or
  2. Contact individual at an adult behavioral health therapeutic home's collaborating health care institution.

TITLE 9. HEALTH SERVICES*CHAPTER 22. ARIZONA HEALTH CARE COST CONTAINMENT SYSTEM ADMINISTRATION

Editor's Note: The Office of the Secretary of State prints all Code Chapters on white paper (Supp 01-3).

Editor's Note: This Chapter contains rules which were adopted or amended under an exemption from the Arizona Administrative Procedure Act (A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 6), pursuant to Laws 1992, Ch. 301, § 61 and Ch. 302, § 13, and Laws 1993, Ch. 6, § 34. Exemption from A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 6 means that AHCCCS did not submit notice of this rulemaking to the Secretary of State's Office for publication in the Arizona Administrative Register; the Governor's Regulatory Review Council did not review these rules; AHCCCS was not required to hold public hearings on these rules; and the Attorney General did not certify these rules. Because this Chapter contains rules which are exempt from the regular rulemaking process, the Chapter is printed on blue paper.

ARTICLE 2. SCOPE OF SERVICES*R9-22-201. Scope of Services-related Definitions

In addition to definitions contained in A.R.S. § 36-2901, the words and phrases in this Chapter have the following meanings unless the context explicitly requires another meaning:

“Anticipatory guidance” means a person responsible for a child receives information and guidance of what the person should expect of the child’s development and how to help the child stay healthy.

“Behavioral health recipient” means a Title XIX or Title XXI acute care member who is eligible for, and is receiving, behavioral health services through ADHS/DBHS.

“Benefit year” means a one-year time period of October 1st through September 30th.

“Clinical supervision” means a Clinical Supervisor under 9 A.A.C. 20, Article 2 reviews the skills and knowledge of the individual supervised and provides guidance in improving or developing the skills and knowledge.

“Emergency behavioral health condition for a non-FES member” means a condition manifesting itself by acute symptoms of sufficient severity, including severe pain, such that a prudent layperson who possesses an average knowledge of health and medicine could reasonably expect the absence of immediate medical attention to result in:

Placing the health of the person, including mental health, in serious jeopardy;

Serious impairment to bodily functions;

Serious dysfunction of any bodily organ or part; or

Serious physical harm to another person.

“Emergency behavioral health services for a non-FES member” means those behavioral health services provided for the treatment of an emergency behavioral health condition.

“Emergency medical condition for a non-FES member” means treatment for a medical condition, including labor and delivery, that manifests itself by acute symptoms of sufficient severity, including severe pain, such that a prudent layperson who possesses an average knowledge of health and medicine, could reasonably expect the absence of immediate medical attention to result in:

Placing the member's health in serious jeopardy,

Serious impairment to bodily functions, or

Serious dysfunction of any bodily organ or part.

"Emergency medical services for non-FES member" means services provided for the treatment of an emergency medical condition.

"Hearing aid" means an instrument or device designed for, or represented by the supplier as aiding or compensating for impaired or defective human hearing, and includes any parts, attachments, or accessories of the instrument or device.

"Home health services" means services and supplies that are provided by a home health agency that coordinates in-home intermittent services for curative, habilitative care, including home-health aide services, licensed nurse services, and medical supplies, equipment, and appliances.

"Occupational therapy" means medically prescribed treatment provided by or under the supervision of a licensed occupational therapist, to restore or improve an individual's ability to perform tasks required for independent functioning.

"Pharmaceutical service" means medically necessary medications that are prescribed by a physician, practitioner, or dentist under R9-22-209.

"Physical therapy" means treatment services to restore or improve muscle tone, joint mobility, or physical function provided by or under the supervision of a registered physical therapist.

"Post-stabilization services" means covered services related to an emergency medical or behavioral health condition provided after the condition is stabilized.

"Primary care provider services" means healthcare services provided by and within the scope of practice, as defined by law, of a licensed physician, certified nurse practitioner, or licensed physician assistant.

"Psychosocial rehabilitation services" means services that provide education, coaching, and training to address or prevent residual functional deficits and may include services that may assist a member to secure and maintain employment. Psychosocial rehabilitation services may include:

Living skills training,

Cognitive rehabilitation,

Health promotion,

Supported employment, and

Other services that increase social and communication skills to maximize a member's ability to participate in the community and function independently.

"RBHA" or "Regional Behavioral Health Authority" means the same as in A.R.S. § 36-3401.

"Residual functional deficit" means a member's inability to return to a previous level of functioning, usually after experiencing a severe psychotic break or state of decompensation.

"Respiratory therapy" means treatment services to restore, maintain, or improve respiratory functions that are provided by, or under the supervision of, a respiratory therapist licensed according to A.R.S. Title 32, Chapter 35.

"Scope of services" means the covered, limited, and excluded services under Articles 2 and 12 of this Chapter.

"Speech therapy" means medically prescribed diagnostic and treatment services provided by or under the supervision of a certified speech therapist.

"Sterilization" means a medically necessary procedure, not for the purpose of family planning, to render an eligible person or member barren in order to:

Prevent the progression of disease, disability, or adverse health conditions; or

Prolong life and promote physical health.

"Substance abuse" means the chronic, habitual, or compulsive use of any chemical matter that, when introduced into the body, is capable of altering human behavior or mental functioning and, with extended use, may cause psychological dependence and impaired mental, social or educational functioning. Nicotine addiction is not considered substance abuse for adults who are 21 years of age or older.

R9-22-202. General Requirements

A. For the purposes of this Article, the following definitions apply:

1. "Authorization" means written, verbal, or electronic authorization by:
  - a. The Administration for services rendered to a fee-for-service member, or
  - b. The contractor for services rendered to a prepaid capitated member.
2. Use of the phrase "attending physician" applies only to the fee-for-service population.

B. In addition to other requirements and limitations specified in this Chapter, the following general requirements apply:

1. Only medically necessary, cost effective, and federally-reimbursable and state-reimbursable services are covered services.
2. Covered services for the federal emergency services program (FESP) are under R9-22-217.
3. The Administration or a contractor may waive the covered services referral requirements of this Article.

4. Except as authorized by the Administration or a contractor, a primary care provider, attending physician, practitioner, or a dentist shall provide or direct the member's covered services. Delegation of the provision of care to a practitioner does not diminish the role or responsibility of the primary care provider.
  5. A contractor shall offer a female member direct access to preventive and routine services from gynecology providers within the contractor's network without a referral from a primary care provider.
  6. A member may receive behavioral health services as specified in Articles 2 and 12.
  7. AHCCCS or a contractor shall provide services under the Section 1115 Waiver as defined in A.R.S. § 36-2901.
  8. An AHCCCS registered provider shall provide covered services within the provider's scope of practice.
  9. In addition to the specific exclusions and limitations otherwise specified under this Article, the following are not covered:
    - a. A service that is determined by the AHCCCS Chief Medical Officer to be experimental or provided primarily for the purpose of research;
    - b. Services or items furnished gratuitously, and
    - c. Personal care items except as specified under R9-22-212.
  10. Medical or behavioral health services are not covered services if provided to:
    - a. An inmate of a public institution;
    - b. A person who is in residence at an institution for the treatment of tuberculosis; or
    - c. A person age 21 through 64 who is in an IMD, unless the service is covered under Article 12 of this Chapter.
- C. The Administration or a contractor may deny payment of non-emergency services if prior authorization is not obtained as specified in this Article and Article 7 of this Chapter. The Administration or a contractor shall not provide prior authorization for services unless the provider submits documentation of the medical necessity of the treatment along with the prior authorization request.
- D. Services under A.R.S. § 36-2908 provided during the prior period coverage do not require prior authorization.
- E. Prior authorization is not required for services necessary to evaluate and stabilize an emergency medical condition. The Administration or a contractor shall not reimburse services that require prior authorization unless the provider documents the diagnosis and treatment.
- F. A service is not a covered service if provided outside the GSA unless one of the following applies:
1. A member is referred by a primary care provider for medical specialty care outside the GSA. If a member is referred outside the GSA to receive an authorized medically necessary service, the contractor shall also provide all other medically necessary covered services for the member;
  2. There is a net savings in service delivery costs as a result of going outside the GSA that does not require undue travel time or hardship for a member or the member's family;
  3. The contractor authorizes placement in a nursing facility located out of the GSA; or
  4. Services are provided during prior period coverage or during the prior quarter coverage.
- G. If a member is traveling or temporarily residing outside of the GSA, covered services are restricted to emergency care services, unless otherwise authorized by the contractor.
- H. A contractor shall provide at a minimum, directly or through subcontracts, the covered services specified in this Chapter and in contract.
- I. The Administration shall determine the circumstances under which a FFS member may receive services, other than emergency services, from service providers outside the member's county of residence or outside the state. Criteria considered by the Administration in making this determination shall include availability and accessibility of appropriate care and cost effectiveness.
- J. The restrictions, limitations, and exclusions in this Article do not apply to the following: A contractor electing to provide noncovered services.
1. The Administration shall not consider the costs of providing a noncovered service to a member in the development or negotiation of a capitation rate.
  2. A contractor shall pay for noncovered services from administrative revenue or other contractor funds that are unrelated to the provision of services under this Chapter.
- K. Subject to CMS approval, the restrictions, limitations, and exclusions specified in the following subsections do not apply to American Indians receiving services through IHS or a tribal health program operating under P.L. 93-638 when those services are eligible for 100 percent federal financial participation:
1. R9-22-205(A)(8),
  2. R9-22-205(B)(4)(f),
  3. R9-22-206,
  4. R9-22-207,
  5. R9-22-212(C),
  6. R9-22-212(D),
  7. R9-22-212(E)(8),
  8. R9-22-215(C)(2), and
  9. R9-22-215(C)(5).

Amended by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 1949, effective September 6, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).

R9-22-203. Experimental Services

- A. Experimental services are not covered. A service is not experimental if:

1. It is generally and widely accepted as a standard of care in the practice of medicine in the United States and is a safe and effective treatment for the condition for which it is intended or used.
  2. The service does not meet the standard in subsection (A)(1), but the service has been demonstrated to be safe and effective for the condition for which it is intended or used based on the weight of the evidence in peer-reviewed articles in medical journals published in the United States.
  3. The service does not meet the standard in subsection (A)(2) because the condition for which the service is intended or used is rare, but the service has been demonstrated to be safe and effective for the condition for which it is intended or used based on the weight of opinions from specialists who provide the service or related services.
- B. The following factors shall be considered when evaluating the weight of peer-reviewed articles or the opinions of specialists:
1. The mortality rate and survival rate of the service as compared to the rates for alternative non-experimental services.
  2. The types, severity, and frequency of complications associated with the services as compared with the complications associated with alternative non-experimental services.
  3. The frequency with which the service has been performed in the past.
  4. Whether there is sufficient historical information regarding the service to provide reliable data regarding risks and benefits.
  5. The reputation and experience of the authors and/or specialists and their record in related areas.
  6. The extent to which medical science in the area develops rapidly and the probability that more definite data will be available in the foreseeable future.
  7. Whether the peer reviewed article describes a random controlled trial or an anecdotal clinical case study.
- Historical Note
- Adopted as an emergency effective May 20, 1982 pursuant to A.R.S. § 41-1003, valid for only 90 days (Supp. 82-3). Former Section R9-22-203 adopted as an emergency now adopted and amended as a permanent rule effective August 30, 1982 (Supp. 82-4). Amended effective October 1, 1985 (Supp. 85-5). Amended effective October 1, 1987; amended effective December 22, 1987 (Supp. 87-4). Amended effective May 30, 1989 (Supp. 89-2). Amended effective April 13, 1990 (Supp. 90-2). Amended effective September 29, 1992 (Supp. 92-3). Amended under an exemption from the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act effective March 22, 1993; received in the Office of the Secretary of State March 24, 1993 (Supp. 93-1). Amended effective December 13, 1993 (Supp. 93-4). Section repealed effective September 22, 1997 (Supp. 97-3). New Section made by exempt rulemaking at 16 A.A.R. 1638, effective October 1, 2010 (Supp. 10-3). Section amended by final rulemaking at 20 A.A.R. 1956, effective September 6, 2014 (Supp. 14-3).
- R9-22-204. Inpatient General Hospital Services
- A. The following limitations apply to inpatient general hospital services that are provided by FFS providers.
1. Providers shall obtain prior authorization from the Administration for the following inpatient hospital services:
    - a. Nonemergency and elective admission, including psychiatric hospitalization;
    - b. Elective surgery; and
    - c. Services or items provided to cosmetically reconstruct or improve personal appearance after an illness or injury.
  2. The Administration or a contractor may deny a claim if a provider fails to obtain prior authorization.
  3. Providers are not required to obtain prior authorization from the Administration for the following inpatient hospital services:
    - a. Voluntary sterilization,
    - b. Dialysis shunt placement,
    - c. Arteriovenous graft placement for dialysis,
    - d. Angioplasties or thrombectomies of dialysis shunts,
    - e. Angioplasties or thrombectomies of arteriovenous graft for dialysis,
    - f. Hospitalization for vaginal delivery that does not exceed 48 hours,
    - g. Hospitalization for cesarean section delivery that does not exceed 96 hours, and
    - h. Other services identified by the Administration through the Provider Participation Agreement.
  4. The Administration may perform concurrent review for hospitalizations of non-FES members to determine whether there is medical necessity for the hospitalization. A provider shall notify the Administration no later than 72 hours after an emergency admission.
- C. Coverage of in-state and out-of-state inpatient hospital services is limited to 25 days per benefit year for members age 21 and older for claims with discharge dates on or before September 30, 2014. The limit applies for all inpatient hospital services with dates of service during the benefit year regardless of whether the member is enrolled in Fee for Service, is enrolled with one or more contractors, or both, during the benefit year.
1. For purposes of calculating the limit:
    - a. Inpatient days are counted towards the limit if paid by the Administration or a contractor;
    - b. Inpatient days will be counted toward the limit in the order of the adjudication date of a paid claim;
    - c. Paid inpatient days are allocated to the benefit year in which the date of service occurs;
    - d. Each 24 hours of paid observation services is counted as one inpatient day if the patient is not admitted to the same hospital directly following the observation services,
    - e. Observation services, which are directly followed by an inpatient admission to the same hospital are not counted towards the inpatient limit; and
    - f. After 25 days of inpatient hospital services have been paid as provided for in this rule Section:
      - i. Outpatient services that are directly followed by an inpatient admission to the same hospital, including observation services, are not covered.
      - ii. Continuous periods of observation services of less than 24 hours that are not directly followed by an inpatient admission to the same hospital are covered.
      - iii. For continuous periods of observation services of 24 hours or more that are not directly followed by an inpatient admission to the same hospital, 23 hours of observations services are covered.
  2. The following inpatient days are not included in the inpatient hospital limitation described in this Section:

- a. Days reimbursed under specialty contracts between AHCCCS and a transplant facility that are included within the component pricing referred to in the contract;
- b. Days related to Behavioral Health:
  - i. Inpatient days that qualify for the psychiatric tier under R9-22-712.09 and reimbursed by the Administration or its contractors, or
  - ii. Inpatient days with a primary psychiatric diagnosis code reimbursed by the Administration or its contractors, or
  - iii. Inpatient days paid by the Arizona Department of Health Services Division of Behavioral Health Services or a RBHA or TRBHA.
- c. Days related to treatment for burns and burn late effects at an American College of Surgeons verified burn center;
- d. Same Day Admit Discharge services are excluded from the 25 day limit; and
- e. Subject to approval by CMS, days for which the state claims 100% FFP, such as payments for days provided by IHS or 638 facilities.

R9-22-207. Dental Services

- A. The Administration or a contractor shall cover dental services for a member less than 21 years of age under R9-22-213.
- B. For individuals age 21 years of age or older, the Administration or a contractor shall cover medical and surgical services furnished by a dentist only to the extent such services may be performed under state law either by a physician or by a dentist and such services would be considered a physician service if furnished by a physician.

1. Except as specified in subsection (C), such services must be related to the treatment of a medical condition such as acute pain, infection, or fracture of the jaw. Covered dental services include examination of the oral cavity, radiographs, complex oral surgical procedures such as treatment of maxillofacial fractures, administration of an appropriate level of anesthesia and the prescription of pain medication and antibiotics.
  2. Such services do not include services that physicians are not generally competent to perform such as dental cleanings, routine dental examinations, dental restorations including crowns and fillings, extractions, pulpotomies, root canals, and the construction or delivery of complete or partial dentures. Diagnosis and treatment of temporomandibular joint dysfunction are not covered except for the reduction of trauma.
- C. For the purposes of this subsection, simple restorations means silver amalgam or composite resin fillings, stainless steel crowns or preformed crowns. In addition, dental services for an individual 21 years of age or older include:
1. The elimination of oral infections and the treatment of oral disease, which includes dental cleanings, treatment of periodontal disease, medically necessary extractions and the provision of simple restorations as a medically necessary pre-requisite to covered transplantation; and
  2. Prophylactic extraction of teeth in preparation for covered radiation treatment of cancer of the jaw, neck or head.

R9-22-209. Pharmaceutical Services

- A. An inpatient or outpatient provider, including a hospital, clinic, other appropriately licensed health care facility, and pharmacy may provide covered pharmaceutical services.
- B. The Administration or a contractor shall require a provider to make pharmaceutical services:
  - 1. Available during customary business hours, and
  - 2. Located within reasonable travel distance of a member's residence.
- C. Pharmaceutical services are covered if:
  - 1. Prescribed for a member by the member's primary care provider, attending physician, practitioner, or dentist;
  - 2. Prescribed by a specialist upon referral from the primary care provider or attending physician; or
  - 3. The contractor or its designee authorizes the service.
- D. The following limitations apply to pharmaceutical services:
  - 1. A medication personally dispensed by a physician, dentist, or a practitioner within the individual's scope of practice is not covered, except in geographically remote areas where there is no participating pharmacy or if accessible pharmacies are closed.
  - 2. A new prescription or refill in excess of a 30 day supply is not covered unless:
    - a. The member will be out of the provider's service area for an extended period of time and the prescription is limited to the extended time period, not to exceed a 90 day supply; or
    - b. The Contractor authorizes the prescription for an extended time period not to exceed a 90-day supply.
  - 3. An over-the-counter medication, in place of a covered prescription medication, is covered only if the over-the-counter medication is appropriate, equally effective, safe, and less costly than the covered prescription medication.
- E. A contractor shall monitor and ensure sufficient services to prevent any gap in the pharmaceutical regimen of a member who requires a continuing or complex regimen of pharmaceutical treatment to restore, improve, or maintain physical well being.

R9-22-210. Emergency Medical Services for Non-FES Members

A. General provisions.

1. Applicability. This Section applies to emergency medical services for non-FES members. Provisions regarding emergency behavioral health services for non-FES members are in R9-22-210.01. Provisions regarding emergency medical and behavioral health services for FES members are in R9-22-217.
2. Definitions.
  - a. For the purposes of this Section, "contractor" has the same meaning as in A.R.S. § 36-2901. Contractor does not include ADHS/DBHS or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS.
  - b. For the purposes of this Section and R9-22-210.01, "fiscal agent" means a person who bills and accepts payment for a hospital or emergency room provider.
3. Verification. A provider of emergency medical services shall verify a person's eligibility status with AHCCCS, and if eligible, determine whether the person is enrolled with AHCCCS as non-FES FFS or is enrolled with a contractor.
4. Prior authorization.
  - a. Emergency medical services. A provider is not required to obtain prior authorization for emergency medical services.
  - b. Non-emergency medical services. If a non-FES member's medical condition does not require emergency medical services, the provider shall obtain prior authorization as required by the terms of the provider agreement under R9-22-714(A) or the provider's subcontract with the contractor, whichever is applicable.
5. Prohibition against denial of payment. Neither the Administration nor a contractor shall:
  - a. Limit what constitutes an emergency medical condition on the basis of lists of diagnoses or symptoms,
  - b. Deny or limit payment because the provider failed to obtain prior authorization for emergency services,
  - c. Deny or limit payment because the provider does not have a subcontract.
6. Grounds for denial. The Administration and a contractor may deny payment for emergency medical services for reasons including but not limited to:
  - a. The claim was not a clean claim;
  - b. The claim was not submitted timely; and
  - c. The provider failed to provide timely notification under subsection (B)(4) to the contractor or the Administration, as appropriate, and the contractor does not have actual notice from any other source that the member has presented for services.

B. Additional requirements for emergency medical services for non-FES members enrolled with a contractor.

1. Responsible entity. A contractor is responsible for the provision of all emergency medical services to non-FES members enrolled with the contractor.
2. Prohibition against denial of payment. A contractor shall not limit or deny payment for emergency medical services when an employee of the contractor instructs the member to obtain emergency medical services.
3. Contractor notification. A contractor shall not deny payment to a hospital, emergency room provider, or fiscal agent for an emergency medical service rendered to a non-FES member based on the failure of the hospital, emergency room provider, or fiscal agent to notify the member's contractor within 10 days from the day that the member presented for the emergency medical service.

4. Contractor notification. A hospital, emergency room provider, or fiscal agent shall notify the contractor no later than the 11th day after presentation of the non-FES member for emergency inpatient medical services. A contractor may deny payment for a hospital's, emergency room provider's, or fiscal agent's failure to provide timely notice, under this subsection.

C. Post-stabilization services for non-FES members enrolled with a contractor.

1. After the emergency medical condition of a member enrolled with a contractor is stabilized, a provider shall request prior authorization from the contractor for post-stabilization services.
2. The contractor is financially responsible for medical post-stabilization services obtained within or outside the network that have been prior authorized by the contractor.
3. The contractor is financially responsible for medical post-stabilization services obtained within or outside the network that are not prior authorized by the contractor, but are administered to maintain the member's stabilized condition within one hour of a request to the contractor for prior authorization of further post-stabilization services;
4. The contractor is financially responsible for medical post-stabilization services obtained within or outside the network that are not prior authorized by the contractor, but are administered to maintain, improve, or resolve the member's stabilized condition if:
  - a. The contractor does not respond to a request for prior authorization within one hour;
  - b. The contractor authorized to give the prior authorization cannot be contacted; or
  - c. The contractor representative and the treating physician cannot reach an agreement concerning the member's care and the contractor physician is not available for consultation. In this situation, the contractor shall give the treating physician the opportunity to consult with a contractor physician. The treating physician may continue with care of the member until the contractor physician is reached or:
    - i. A contractor physician with privileges at the treating hospital assumes responsibility for the member's care,
    - ii. A contractor physician assumes responsibility for the member's care through transfer,
    - iii. The contractor's representative and the treating physician reach agreement concerning the member's care, or
    - iv. The member is discharged.
5. Transfer or discharge. The attending physician or practitioner actually treating the member for the emergency medical condition shall determine when the member is sufficiently stabilized for transfer or discharge and that decision shall be binding on the contractor.

D. Additional requirements for FFS members.

1. Responsible entity. The Administration is responsible for the provision of all emergency medical services to non-FES FFS members.
2. Grounds for denial. The Administration may deny payment for emergency medical services if a provider fails to provide timely notice to the Administration.
3. Notification. A provider shall notify the Administration no later than 72 hours after a FFS member receiving emergency medical services presents to a hospital for inpatient services. The Administration may deny payment for failure to provide timely notice.

Historical Note

R9-22-210.01. Emergency Behavioral Health Services for Non-FES Members

A. General provisions.

1. Applicability. This Section applies to emergency behavioral health services for non-FES members. Provisions regarding emergency medical services for non-FES members are in R9-22-210. Provisions regarding emergency medical and behavioral health services for FES members are in R9-22-217.
2. Definition. For the purposes of this Section, "contractor" has the same meaning as in A.R.S. § 36-2901. Contractor does not include ADHS/DBHS, a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS, or Children's Rehabilitative Services.
3. Responsible entity for inpatient emergency behavioral health services.
  - a. Members enrolled with a contractor.
    - i. ADHS/DBHS. ADHS/DBHS or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS is responsible for providing all inpatient emergency behavioral health services to non-FES members with psychiatric or substance abuse diagnoses who are enrolled with the contractor, from one of the following time periods, whichever comes first:
      - (1) The date on which the member becomes a behavioral health recipient, or
      - (2) The 73rd hour after admission for inpatient emergency behavioral health services.
    - ii. Contractors. Contractors are responsible for providing inpatient emergency behavioral health services to non-FES members with psychiatric or substance abuse diagnoses who are enrolled with a contractor and are not behavioral health recipients, for the first 72 hours after admission.
  - b. FFS members. ADHS/DBHS or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS is responsible for providing all inpatient emergency behavioral health services for non-

- FES FFS members with psychiatric or substance abuse diagnoses.
4. Responsible entity for non-inpatient emergency behavioral health services for non-FES members. ADHS/DBHS or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS is responsible for providing all non-inpatient emergency behavioral health services for non-FES members.
  5. Verification. A provider of emergency behavioral health services shall verify a person's eligibility status with AHCCCS, and if eligible, determine whether the person is a member enrolled with AHCCCS as non-FES FFS or is enrolled with a contractor, and determine whether the member is a behavioral health recipient as defined in R9-22-102.
  6. Prior authorization.
    - a. Emergency behavioral health services. A provider is not required to obtain prior authorization for emergency behavioral health services.
    - b. Non-emergency behavioral health services. When a non-FES member's behavioral health condition is determined by the provider not to require emergency behavioral health services, the provider shall follow the prior authorization requirements of a contractor and ADHS/DBHS or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS.
  7. Prohibition against denial of payment. A contractor, ADHS/DBHS, or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS shall not limit or deny payment to an emergency behavioral health provider for emergency behavioral health services to a non-FES member for the following reasons:
    - a. On the basis of lists of diagnoses or symptoms;
    - b. Prior authorization was not obtained;
    - c. The provider does not have a contract;
    - d. An employee of the contractor, ADHS/DBHS, or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS instructs the member to obtain emergency behavioral health services; or
    - e. The failure of a hospital, emergency room provider, or fiscal agent to notify the member's contractor, ADHS/DBHS, or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS within 10 days from the day the member presented for the emergency service.
  8. Grounds for denial. A contractor, ADHS/DBHS, or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS may deny payment for emergency behavioral health services for reasons including but not limited to the following:
    - a. The claim was not a clean claim;
    - b. The claim was not submitted timely; or
    - c. The provider failed to provide timely notification under subsection (A)(9) to the contractor, ADHS/DBHS, or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS.
  9. Notification. A hospital, emergency room provider, or fiscal agent shall notify a contractor, ADHS/DBHS, or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS, whichever is appropriate, no later than the 11th day from presentation of the non-FES member for emergency inpatient behavioral health services.
  10. Behavioral health evaluation. An emergency behavioral health evaluation is covered as an emergency behavioral health service for a non-FES member under this Section if:
    - a. Required to evaluate or stabilize an acute episode of mental disorder or substance abuse, and
    - b. Provided by a qualified provider who is:
      - i. A behavioral health medical practitioner as defined in R9-22-112, including a licensed psychologist, a licensed clinical social worker, a licensed professional counselor, and a licensed marriage and family therapist; or
      - ii. An ADHS/DBHS-contracted provider.
  11. Transfer or discharge. The attending physician or the provider actually treating the non-FES member for the emergency behavioral health condition shall determine when the member is sufficiently stabilized for transfer or discharge and that decision shall be binding on the contractor and ADHS/DBHS or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS.
- B. Post-stabilization requirements for non-FES members.
1. A contractor, ADHS/DBHS, or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS, as appropriate, is financially responsible for behavioral health post-stabilization services obtained within or outside the network that have been prior authorized by the contractor, ADHS/DBHS, or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS.
  2. The contractor, ADHS/DBHS, or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS, as appropriate, is financially responsible for behavioral health post-stabilization services obtained within or outside the network that are not prior authorized by the contractor, ADHS/DBHS, or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS, but are administered to maintain the member's stabilized condition within one hour of a request to the contractor, ADHS/DBHS, or a subcontractor for prior authorization of further post-stabilization services;
  3. The contractor, ADHS/DBHS, or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS, as appropriate, is financially responsible for behavioral health post-stabilization services obtained within or outside the network that are not prior authorized by the contractor, ADHS/DBHS, or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS, but are administered to maintain, improve, or resolve the member's stabilized condition if:
    - a. The contractor, ADHS/DBHS, or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS, does not respond to a request for prior authorization within one hour;
    - b. The contractor, ADHS/DBHS, or a subcontractor of ADHS/DBHS authorized to give the prior authorization cannot be contacted; or
    - c. The representative of the contractor, ADHS/DBHS, or the subcontractor and the treating physician cannot reach an agreement concerning the member's care and the contractor's, ADHS/DBHS' or the subcontractor's physician, is not available for consultation. The treating physician may continue with care of the member until ADHS/DBHS', the contractor's, or the subcontractor's physician is reached, or:
      - i. A contractor physician with privileges at the treating hospital assumes responsibility for the member's care;
      - ii. ADHS/DBHS', a contractor's, or a subcontractor's physician assumes responsibility for the member's care through transfer;
      - iii. A representative of the contractor, ADHS/DBHS, or the subcontractor and the treating physician reach agreement concerning the member's care; or
      - iv. The member is discharged.

Historical Note

New Section made by final rulemaking at 11 A.A.R. 5480, effective December 6, 2005 (Supp. 05-4).
Amended by final rulemaking at 17 A.A.R. 1658, effective August 2, 2011 (Supp. 11-3).

R9-22-211. Transportation Services

- A. Emergency ambulance services.

1. A member shall receive medically necessary emergency transportation in a ground or air ambulance:
    - a. To the nearest appropriate provider or medical facility capable of meeting the member's medical needs, and
    - b. If no other appropriate means of transportation is available.
  2. The Administration or a member's contractor shall reimburse a ground or air ambulance transport that originates in response to a 911 call or other emergency response system:
    - a. If the member's medical condition justifies the medical necessity of the type of ambulance transportation received,
    - b. The transport is to the nearest appropriate provider or medical facility capable of meeting the member's medical needs, and
    - c. No prior authorization is required for reimbursement of these transports.
  3. The member's medical condition at the time of transport determines whether the transport is medically necessary.
  4. A ground or air ambulance provider furnishing transport in response to a 911 call or other emergency response system shall notify the member's contractor within 10 working days from the date of transport. Failure of the provider to provide notification is cause for denial.
  5. Notification to the Administration of emergency transportation provided to a FFS member is not required, but the provider shall submit documentation with the claim that justifies the service.
- B. The Administration or a contractor covers air ambulance services only if at least one criterion in subsection (B)(1) is met and at least one criterion in subsection (B)(2), or the criterion in subsection (B)(3) is met. The criteria are:
1. The air ambulance transport is initiated at the request of:
    - a. An emergency response unit,
    - b. A law enforcement official,
    - c. A clinic or hospital medical staff member, or
    - d. A physician or practitioner, and
  2. The point of pickup:
    - a. Is inaccessible by ground ambulance, or
    - b. Is a great distance from the nearest hospital or other provider with appropriate facilities to treat the member's condition and ground ambulance service will not suffice, or
  3. The medical condition of the member requires immediate intervention from emergency ambulance personnel or providers with the appropriate facilities to treat the member's condition.
- C. Coverage of medically necessary nonemergency transportation is limited to the cost of transporting the member to an appropriate provider capable of meeting the member's medical needs.
1. As specified in contract, a contractor shall arrange or provide medically necessary nonemergency transportation services for a member who is unable to arrange transportation to a service site or location.
  2. For a fee-for-service member, the Administration shall authorize medically necessary nonemergency transportation for a member who is unable to arrange transportation to a service site or location.
- D. For the purposes of this subsection, an individual means a person who is not in the business of providing transportation services such as a family or household member, friend, or neighbor. The Administration or a contractor shall cover expenses for transportation in traveling to and returning from an approved and prior authorized health care service site provided by an individual if:
1. The transportation services are authorized by the Administration or the member's contractor or designee,
  2. The individual is an AHCCCS registered provider, and
  3. No other means of appropriate transportation is available.
- E. The Administration or a contractor shall cover expenses for meals, lodging, and transportation for a member traveling to and returning from an approved health care service site outside of the member's service area or county of residence.
- F. The Administration or a contractor shall cover the expense of meals, lodging, and transportation for:
1. A family member accompanying a member if:
    - a. The member is traveling to or returning from an approved health care service site outside of the member's service area or county of residence; and
    - b. The meals, lodging, and transportation services are authorized by the Administration or the member's contractor or designee.
  2. An escort who is not a family member as follows:
    - a. If the member is travelling to or returning from an approved and prior authorized health care service site, including an inpatient facility, outside of the member's service area or county of residence;
    - b. If the escort services are authorized by the Administration or the member's contractor or designee; and
    - c. Wage paid to an escort as reimbursement shall not exceed the federal minimum wage.
- G. A provider shall obtain prior authorization from the Administration for transportation services provided for a member for the following:
1. Medically necessary nonemergency transportation services not originated through a 911 call or other emergency response system when the distance traveled exceeds 100 miles (whether one way or round trip); and
  2. All meals, lodging, and services of an escort accompanying the member under this Section.
- H. A charitable organization routinely providing transportation service at no cost to an ambulatory or chairbound person shall not charge or seek reimbursement from the Administration or a contractor for the provision of the service to a member but may enter into a subcontract with a contractor for medically necessary transportation services provided to a member.

2. Prescribed by a specialist upon referral from the primary care provider, attending physician, or practitioner; and
3. Authorized as required by the Administration, contractor, or contractor's designee.
- B. Covered medical supplies are consumable items that are designed specifically to meet a medical purpose, are disposable, and are essential for the member's health.
- C. Covered DME is any item, appliance, or piece of equipment that is not a prosthetic or orthotic; and
  1. Is designed for a medical purpose, and is generally not useful to a person in the absence of an illness or injury, and
  2. Can withstand repeated use, and
  3. Is generally reusable by others.
- D. Prosthetics are devices prescribed by a physician or other licensed practitioner to artificially replace missing, deformed or malfunctioning portion of the body. Only those prosthetics that are medically necessary for rehabilitation are covered, except as otherwise provided in R9-22-215.
- E. The following limitations on coverage apply:
  1. The DME is furnished on a rental or purchase basis, whichever is less expensive. The total expense of renting the DME does not exceed the cost of the DME if purchased.
  2. Reasonable repair or adjustment of purchased DME is covered if necessary to make the DME serviceable and if the cost of repair or adjustment is less than the cost of renting or purchasing another unit.
  3. A change in, or addition to, an original order for DME is covered if approved by the prescriber in subsection (A), or prior authorized by the Administration or contractor, and the change or addition is indicated clearly on the order and initialed by the vendor. No change or addition to the original order for DME may be made after a claim for services is submitted to the member's contractor, or the Administration, without prior written notification of the change or addition to the Administration or the contractor.
  4. Reimbursement for rental fees shall terminate:
    - a. No later than the end of the month in which the prescriber in subsection (A) certifies that the member no longer needs the DME;
    - b. If the member is no longer eligible for AHCCCS services; or
    - c. If the member is no longer enrolled with a contractor, with the exception of transitions of care as specified in R9-22-509.
  5. Except for incontinence briefs for persons over 3 years old and under 21 years old as provided in subsection (E)(6), personal care items including items for personal cleanliness, body hygiene, and grooming are not covered unless needed to treat a medical condition. Personal care items are not covered services if used solely for preventive purposes.
  6. Incontinence briefs, including pull-ups are covered to prevent skin breakdown and enable participation in social, community, therapeutic and educational activities under the following circumstances:
    - a. The member is over 3 years old and under 21 years old;
    - b. The member is incontinent due to a documented disability that causes incontinence of bowel or bladder, or both;
    - c. The PCP or attending physician has issued a prescription ordering the incontinence briefs;
  7. First aid supplies are not covered unless they are provided in accordance with a prescription.
  8. The following services are not covered for individuals 21 years of age or older:
    - a. Hearing aids;
    - b. Prescriptive lenses unless they are the sole visual prosthetic device used by the member after a cataract extraction;
    - c. Bone Anchor Hearing Aid (BAHA);
    - d. Cochlear implant;
    - e. Percussive vest;
    - f. Insulin pump;
    - g. Microprocessor-controlled lower limbs or microprocessor-controlled joints for lower limbs; and
    - h. Orthotics, which are defined as devices that are prescribed by a physician or other licensed practitioner of the healing arts to support a weak or deformed portion of the body.
- F. Liability and ownership.
  1. Purchased DME that is provided to a member and no longer needed by the member may be disposed of in accordance with each contractor's policy.
  2. The Administration shall retain title to purchased DME provided to a member who becomes ineligible or no longer requires use of the DME.
  3. If customized DME is purchased by the Administration or contractor for a member, the equipment shall remain with the person during times of transition to a different contractor, or upon loss of eligibility. For purposes of this subsection, customized DME refers to equipment that is altered or built to specifications unique to a member's medical needs and that, most likely, cannot be used or reused to meet the needs of another individual.
  4. A member shall return DME obtained fraudulently to the Administration or the contractor.
- d. Incontinence briefs do not exceed 240 briefs per month unless the prescribing physician presents evidence of medical necessity for more than 240 briefs per month for a member diagnosed with chronic diarrhea or spastic bladder;
- e. The member obtains incontinence briefs from providers in the contractor's network;
- f. Prior authorization has been obtained as required by the Administration, contractor, or contractor's designee. Contractors may require a new prior authorization to be issued no more frequently than every 12 months. Prior authorization for a renewal of an existing prescription may be provided by the physician through telephone contact with the member rather than an in-person physician visit. Prior authorization will be permitted to ascertain that:
  - i. The member is over age 3 and under age 21;
  - ii. The member has a disability that causes incontinence of bladder or bowel, or both;
  - iii. A physician has prescribed incontinence briefs as medically necessary. A physician prescription supporting medical necessity may be required for specialty briefs or for briefs different from the standard briefs supplied by the contractor; and
  - iv. The prescription is for 240 briefs or fewer per month, unless evidence of medical necessity for over 240 briefs is provided.

Editor's Note: The following Section was adopted and amended under an exemption from the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act which means that this rule was not reviewed by the Governor's Regulatory Review Council; the agency did not submit notice of proposed rulemaking to the Secretary of State for publication in the Arizona Administrative Register; the agency was not required to hold public hearings on the rules; and the Attorney General has not certified this rule. This Section was subsequently repealed and a new Section adopted under the regular rulemaking process.

R9-22-217. Services Included in the Federal Emergency Services Program

- A. Definition. For the purposes of this Section, an emergency medical or behavioral health condition for a FES member means a medical condition or a behavioral health condition, including labor and delivery, manifesting itself by acute symptoms of sufficient severity, including severe pain, such that the absence of immediate medical attention could reasonably be expected to result in:
1. Placing the member's health in serious jeopardy,
  2. Serious impairment to bodily functions,
  3. Serious dysfunction of any bodily organ or part, or
  4. Serious physical harm to another person.
- B. Services. "Emergency services for a FES member" mean those medical or behavioral health services provided for the treatment of an emergency condition. Emergency services include outpatient dialysis services for a FES member with End Stage Renal Disease (ESRD) where a treating physician has certified for the month in which services are received that in the physician's opinion the absence of receiving dialysis at least three times per week would reasonably be expected to result in:
1. Placing the member's health in serious jeopardy, or
  2. Serious impairment of bodily function, or
  3. Serious dysfunction of a bodily organ or part.
- C. Covered services. Services are considered emergency services if all of the criteria specified in subsection (A) are satisfied at the time the services are rendered. The Administration shall determine whether an emergency condition exists on a case-by-case basis.
- D. Prior authorization. A provider is not required to obtain prior authorization for emergency services for FES members. Prior authorization for outpatient dialysis services is met when the treating physician has completed and signed a monthly certification as described in subsection (B).
- E. Services rendered through the Federal Emergency Services Program are subject to all exclusions and limitation on services in this Article including but not limited to the limitations on inpatient hospital services in R9-22-204.

Section repealed by final rulemaking at 5 A.A.R. 294, effective January 8, 1999 (Supp. 99-1). Section reserved by final rulemaking at 19 A.A.R. 3309, effective November 30, 2013 (Supp. 13-4).

R9-22-303. Prior Quarter Eligibility

- A. Prior Quarter eligibility shall be effective no earlier than January 1, 2014. An applicant may be eligible during any of the three months prior to application if the applicant:
1. Received one or more covered services described in 9 A.A.C. 22, Article 2 and Article 12, and 9 A.A.C. 28, Article 2 during the month; and

2. Would have qualified for Medicaid at the time services were received if the person had applied regardless of whether the person is alive when the application is made.
- B. The Prior Quarter requirements do not apply to:
1. Qualified Medicare Beneficiaries
  2. KidsCare

Historical Note

Adopted effective August 30, 1982 (Supp. 82-4). Former Section R9-22-303 repealed, new Section R9-22-303 adopted effective November 20, 1984 (Supp. 84-6). Amended effective October 1, 1985 (Supp. 85-5). Amended effective January 1, 1987, filed December 31, 1986 (Supp. 86-6). Amended subsection (A) effective February 26, 1988 (Supp. 88-1). Section repealed by final rulemaking at 5 A.A.R. 294, effective January 8, 1999 (Supp. 99-1). New Section made by final rulemaking at 19 A.A.R. 3309, effective November 30, 2013 (Supp. 13-4).

R9-22-304. Verification of Eligibility Information

- A. Except as provided in subsection (E), if information provided by or on behalf of an applicant or member on an application, renewal form or otherwise does not conflict with information obtained by the agency through an electronic data match, the Administration or its designee shall determine or renew eligibility based on such information.
- B. The Administration or its designee shall not require an applicant, member, or representative to provide additional verification unless the verification cannot be obtained electronically or the verification obtained electronically conflicts with information provided by or on behalf of the applicant or member.
- C. If information provided by or on behalf of an applicant or member does conflict with information obtained through an electronic data match, the applicant or member shall provide the Administration or its designee with information or documentation necessary to verify eligibility, including evidence originating from an agency, organization, or an individual with actual knowledge of the information.
- D. Income information obtained through an electronic data match shall be considered reasonably compatible with income information provided by or on behalf of an individual if both meet or both exceed the applicable income limit.
- E. The Administration or its designee shall not accept the applicant's or member's statement by itself as verification of:
1. SSN;
  2. Qualified alien status, except as described under 42 USC 1320b-7(d)(4)(A); or
  3. Citizenship, except as described under 42 USC 1396a(ee)(1).
- F. The Administration or its designee shall give an applicant or member at least 10 days from the date of a written or electronic request for information to provide required verification. The Administration or its designee may deny the application or discontinue eligibility if an applicant or a member does not provide the required information timely.

Historical Note

Adopted effective August 30, 1982 (Supp. 82-4). Former Section R9-22-304 repealed, new Section R9-22-304 adopted effective November 20, 1984 (Supp. 84-6). #### R9-22-305. Eligibility Requirements

As a condition of eligibility, the Administration or its designee must require applicants, and members to do the following:

1. Take all necessary steps to obtain any annuities, pensions, retirement, disability benefits to which they are entitled, unless they can show good cause for not doing so.
2. Furnish a SSN under 42 CFR 435.910 and 435.920, or in the absence of an SSN, provide proof of a submitted application of SSN. The Administration or its designee will assist in obtaining or verifying the applicant's SSN under 42 CFR 435.910 if an applicant cannot recall the applicant's SSN or has not been issued a SSN. An applicant is not required to furnish an SSN if the applicant is not able to legally obtain a SSN. The Administration or its designee shall determine eligibility notwithstanding the applicant's lack of a SSN, if the applicant is cooperating with the Administration or its designee to obtain a SSN and obtain a SSN prior to the next scheduled review of eligibility.
3. Provide proof of residency of Arizona. An applicant or a member is not eligible unless the applicant or member is a resident of Arizona under 42 CFR 435.403 effective October 1, 2012, which is incorporated by reference and on file with the Administration, and available from the U.S. Government Printing Office, Mail Stop: IDCC, 732 N. Capitol Street, NW, Washington, DC, 20401. This incorporation by reference contains no future editions or amendments.
4. A written declaration, signed under penalty of perjury, must be provided for each person for whom benefits are being sought stating whether the individual is a citizen or national of the United States, and, if that individual is not a citizen or national of the United States, that the individual is a qualified alien. The declaration must be provided by the individual for whom eligibility is being sought or an adult member of the individual's family or household.
5. Each applicant who claims qualified alien status must provide either:
  - a. Alien registration documentation or other proof of immigration registration from the Immigration and Naturalization Service that contains the individual's alien admission number or alien file number (or numbers if the individual has more than one number), or
  - b. Other documents that the Administration or its designee accepts as evidence of immigration status, such as:
    - i. a Form I-94 Departure Record issued by the USCIS,
    - ii. a Foreign Passport,
    - iii. a USCIS Parole Notice,
    - iv. a Victim of Trafficking Certification or Eligibility Letter issued by the US DHHS Office of Refugee Resettlement,
    - v. other documentation consistent with 42 CFR 435.406 or 435.407.
  - c. Sufficient information for the Administration or its designee to obtain electronic verification of immigration status from the USCIS.
6. If a person for whom eligibility is being sought, states that they are an alien, that person is not required to comply with subsections (4) and (5); however, if they do not comply with those sections, and if they meet all other eligibility criteria, benefits will be limited to those necessary to treat an emergency medical condition.

R9-22-306. Administration, Administration's designee or Member Responsibilities*A. The Administration or its designee is responsible for the following:

1. The Administration or its designee shall determine eligibility within 90 days for an applicant applying on the basis of disability and 45 days for all other applicants, unless:
  - a. The agency cannot reach a decision because the applicant or an examining physician delays or fails to take a required action, or
  - b. When there is an administrative or other emergency beyond the agency's control.
2. If an applicant dies while an application is pending, the Administration or its designee shall complete an eligibility determination for the deceased applicant.
3. The Administration or its designee shall complete an eligibility determination on an application filed on behalf of a deceased applicant.
4. During the application process the Administration or its designee shall provide information to the applicant or member explaining the requirements to:
  - a. Cooperate with DCSS in establishing paternity and enforcing medical support, except in circumstances when good cause under 42 CFR 433.147 exists for not cooperating;
  - b. Establish good cause for not cooperating with DCSS in establishing paternity and enforcing medical support, when applicable;
  - c. Report a change listed under subsection (B)(3)(c) no later than 10 days from the date the applicant or member knows of the change;
  - d. Send to the Administration or its designee any medical support payments resulting from a court order;
  - e. Cooperate with the Administration or its designee's assignment of rights and securing payments received from any liable party for a member's medical care.
5. Offer to help the applicant or member to complete the application form and to obtain the required verification;
6. Provide the applicant or member with information explaining:
  - a. The eligibility and verification requirements for AHCCCS medical coverage;
  - b. The requirement that the applicant or member obtain and provide a SSN to the Administration or its designee;
  - c. How the Administration or its designee uses the SSN;
7. Explain to the applicant or member the practice of exchange of eligibility and income information through the electronic service established by the Secretary;
8. Explain to the applicant and member the right to appeal an adverse action under R9-22-315;
9. Use any information provided by the member to complete data matches with potentially liable parties;

10. Explain the eligibility review process;
11. Explain the AHCCCS pre-enrollment process;
12. Use the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) process to verify qualified alien status;
13. Provide information regarding the penalties for perjury and fraud on the application;
14. Review any verification items provided by the applicant or member and inform the member of any additional verification items and time-frames within which the applicant or member shall provide information to the Administration or its designee;
15. Explain to the applicant or member the applicant's and member's responsibilities under subsection (B);
16. Transfer the applicant's information to other insurance affordability programs as described under 42 CFR 435.1200(e) when the applicant does not qualify for Medicaid;
17. Attain a written record of a collateral contact: such as a verbal statement from a representative of an agency or organization, or an individual with actual knowledge of the information;
18. Complete a review of eligibility:
  - a. Any time there is a change in a member's circumstance that may affect eligibility,
  - b. For a member approved for the MED program under R9-22-1435 through R9-22-1440 before the end of the six-month eligibility period,
  - c. Of each member's continued eligibility for AHCCCS medical coverage once every 12 months;
19. The Administration or its designee shall discontinue eligibility and notify the member of the discontinuance under R9-22-307 if the member:
  - a. Fails to comply with the review of eligibility,
  - b. Fails to comply under 42 CFR 433.148 with the requirements and conditions of eligibility under this Article regarding assignment of rights and cooperation of establishing paternity and obtaining medical support, or
  - c. Does not meet the eligibility requirements; and
20. Redetermine eligibility for a person terminated from the SSI cash program.
  - a. Continuation of AHCCCS medical coverage. The Administration shall continue AHCCCS medical coverage for a person terminated from the SSI cash program until a redetermination of eligibility is completed.
  - b. Coverage group screening. Before terminating a person from the SSI cash program, the Administration shall determine if the person is eligible for coverage as a person described in A.R.S. §§ 36-2901(6)(a)(i) through (vi) or 36-2934.
  - c. Eligibility decision.
    - i. If a person is eligible under this Article or 9 A.A.C. 28, Article 4, the Administration shall send a notice informing the applicant that AHCCCS medical coverage is approved.
    - ii. If a person is ineligible, the Administration shall send a notice to deny AHCCCS medical coverage.

B. Applicant and Member Responsibilities.

1. An applicant or a member shall authorize the Administration or its designee to obtain verification for initial eligibility or continuation of eligibility.
2. As a condition of eligibility, an applicant or a member shall:

Arizona Health Care Cost Containment System – Administration

- a. Provide the Administration or its designee with complete and truthful information. The Administration or its designee may deny an application or discontinue eligibility if:
    - i. The applicant or member fails to provide information necessary for initial or continuing eligibility;
    - ii. The applicant or member fails to provide the Administration or its designee with written authorization or electronic authorization to permit the Administration or its designee to obtain necessary initial or continuing eligibility verification;
    - iii. The applicant or member fails to provide verification under R9-22-304 after the Administration or its designee made an effort to obtain the necessary verification but has not obtained the necessary information; or
    - iv. The applicant or member does not assist the Administration or its designee in resolving incomplete, inconsistent, or unclear information that is necessary for initial or continuing eligibility;
  - b. Cooperate with the Division of Child Support Services (DCSS) in establishing paternity and enforcing medical support obligations when requested unless good cause exists for not cooperating under 42 CFR 433.147 as of October 1, 2012, which is incorporated by reference, on file with the Administration, and available from the U.S. Government Printing Office, Mail Stop: IDCC, 732 N. Capitol St., NW, Washington, DC, 20401. This incorporation by reference contains no future editions or amendments. The Administration or its designee shall not deny AHCCCS eligibility to an applicant who would otherwise be eligible, is a minor child, and whose parent or legal representative does not cooperate with the medical support requirements or first- and third-party liability requirements under Article 10 of this Chapter; and
  - c. Provide the information needed to pursue third party coverage for medical care, such as:
    - i. Name of policyholder,
    - ii. Policyholder's relationship to the applicant or member,
    - iii. Name and address of the insurance company, and
    - iv. Policy number.
3. A member or an applicant shall:
    - a. Send to the Administration or its designee any medical support payments received while the member is eligible that result from a medical support order;
    - b. Cooperate with the Administration or its designee regarding any issues arising as a result of Eligibility Quality Control described under A.R.S. § 36-2903.01; and
    - c. Inform the Administration or its designee of the following changes within 10 days from the date the applicant or member knows of a change:
      - i. In address;
      - ii. In the household's composition;
      - iii. In income;
      - iv. In resources, when required under the Medical Expense Deduction (MED) program;
      - v. In Arizona state residency;
      - vi. In citizenship or immigrant status;
      - vii. In first- or third-party liability that may contribute to the payment of all or a portion of the person's medical costs;
      - viii. That may affect the member's or applicant's eligibility, including a change in a woman's pregnancy status;
      - ix. Death;
      - x. Change in marital status; or
      - xi. Change in school attendance.
  4. As a condition of eligibility, an applicant or a member shall cooperate with the assignment of rights as required by R9-22-311. If the applicant or member receives medical care and services for which a first or third party is or may be liable, the applicant or member shall cooperate with the Administration or its designee in assisting, identifying and providing information to assist the Administration or its designee in pursuing any first or third party who is or may be liable to pay for medical care and services.
  5. A pregnant woman under A.R.S. § 36-2901(6)(a)(ii) is not required to provide the Administration or its designee with information regarding paternity or medical support from a father of a child born out of wedlock.
- C. Administration or its designee responsibilities at Eligibility Renewal.
1. The Administration or its designee shall renew eligibility without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information available to the agency, including through an electronic data match. If able to renew eligibility based on such information, the Administration or its designee shall send the member notice of:
    - a. The eligibility determination; and
    - b. The member's requirement to notify the Administration or its designee if any of the information contained in the renewal notice is inaccurate.
  2. If unable to renew eligibility, the Administration or its designee shall:
    - a. Send a pre-populated renewal form listing the information needed to renew eligibility,
    - b. Give the member 30 days from the date of the renewal form to submit the signed renewal form and the information needed,
    - c. Send the member notice of the renewal decision under R9-22-312 or R9-22-1413(B) as applicable.

R9-22-316. Exemptions from Sponsor Deemed Income

- A. An applicant shall provide proof to the Administration or its designee when claiming an exemption from sponsor deemed income.
- B. The Administration or its designee shall grant an exemption from deeming a sponsor's income for a Lawful Permanent Resident applicant if the applicant:
  1. Adjusted immigration status to Lawful Permanent Resident from status as a refugee or asylee;
  2. Is the spouse or dependent child of the sponsor and lives with the sponsor;
  3. Is indigent as specified in subsection (C);
  4. Is a victim of domestic violence or extreme cruelty as specified in subsection (D); or
  5. Has acquired 40 qualified quarters of work credit based on earnings as specified in subsection (E).
- C. Exemption from sponsor deeming based on indigence.
  1. The Administration or its designee shall consider the applicant indigent and grant an exemption from sponsor deemed income for an applicant, for a period of 12 months beginning with the first month of eligibility if all the following are met:

- a. An applicant is indigent if all of the following are met:
    - i. The applicant does not reside with the applicant's sponsor;
    - ii. The applicant does not receive free room and board; and
    - iii. The applicant's total gross income including monies received from the sponsor and the value of any vendor payments received for food, utilities, or shelter does not exceed 100% of the FPL for the size of the income group.
  2. The Administration or its designee shall send a notice under 8 U.S.C. 1631(e)(2) to the Attorney General's Office when approving an applicant who is exempt from sponsor deemed income due to indigence.
- D. The Administration or its designee shall grant an exemption from sponsor deemed income for an applicant who is a victim of domestic violence or extreme cruelty under 8 CFR 204.2 for a period of 12 months beginning with the first month of eligibility. The Administration or its designee shall redetermine the exemption status at each renewal.
1. The Administration or its designee considers an applicant to be a victim of domestic violence or extreme cruelty when all of the following are met:
    - a. The applicant is the victim, the parent of a child victim, or the child of a parent victim;
    - b. The perpetrator of the domestic violence or extreme cruelty was the spouse or parent of the victim or other family member related by blood, marriage or adoption to the victim;
    - c. The perpetrator was residing in the same household as the victim when the abuse occurred;
    - d. The abuse occurred in the United States;
    - e. The applicant did not participate in the domestic violence or cruelty; and
    - f. The victim does not currently live with the perpetrator.
  2. The applicant shall provide proof that the applicant or the applicant's child is a victim of domestic violence or extreme cruelty by presenting one of the following:
    - a. USCIS form I-360 Petition for Amerasian, Widow, or Special Immigrant;
    - b. USCIS form I-797 USCIS approval of the I-360 petition;
    - c. Reports or affidavits concerning the domestic violence or cruelty documented by police, judges, or other court officials, medical personnel, school officials, clergy, social workers, counseling or mental health personnel, or other social service agency personnel;
    - d. Legal documentation, such as an order of protection against the perpetrator or an order convicting the perpetrator of committing an act of domestic violence or extreme cruelty that chronicles the existence of domestic violence or extreme cruelty;
    - e. Evidence that indicates that the applicant sought safe haven in a battered women's shelter or similar refuge because of the domestic violence or extreme cruelty against the applicant or the applicant's child; or
    - f. Photographs of the applicant or applicant's child showing visible injury.
- E. The Administration or its designee shall grant an exemption from sponsor deemed income for an applicant who has reached 40 qualifying quarters of work credit.
1. The Administration or its designee shall not count quarters credited after January 1, 1997 that were earned while the applicant was receiving any federal means-tested benefits.

2. The Administration or its designee shall not count the 40 qualifying quarters of work credit unless the credited quarters are:
  - a. Quarters that the applicant worked;
  - b. Quarters worked by the applicant's spouse or deceased spouse during their marriage; or
  - c. Quarters worked by the applicant's parents when the applicant was under age 18.

R9-22-317. Sponsor Deemed Income

- A. The Administration or its designee shall use income of a USCIS sponsor to determine eligibility for a non-citizen applicant, whether or not the income is available, to the non-citizen applicant unless exempt under R9-22-316.
- B. Counting the income from a sponsor.
1. This Section applies to non-citizen applicants who:
    - a. Are Lawful Permanent Residents under 8 CFR 101.3;
    - b. Applied for Lawful Permanent Resident Status on or after December 19, 1997;
    - c. Are sponsored by an individual who signed a USCIS I-864 Affidavit of Support; and
    - d. Are eligible for full AHCCCS medical coverage.
  2. Sponsor deemed income shall be considered the income of the non-citizen applicant only.
  3. The Administration or its designee shall not use the provisions of this Section when:
    - a. The applicant becomes a naturalized U.S. citizen;
    - b. The applicant qualifies for an exemption listed in R9-22-316; or
    - c. The sponsor dies.
- C. Determining income from a sponsor.
1. For an applicant who is exempt from sponsor deeming under R9-22-316, only cash contributions actually received from the sponsor are countable income to the applicant.

2. For an applicant to whom the sponsor's income is deemed, the Administration or its designee shall exclude any cash contributions received from the sponsor.

D. Calculation of income from a sponsor.

1. The Administration or its designee shall include the total gross income of the sponsor and the sponsor's spouse, when living with the sponsor;
2. The Administration or its designee shall subtract an amount equal to 100% of the FPL for the sponsor's household size from the total gross income under (D)(1); and
3. The amount calculated under subsection (D)(2) is deemed as income to the applicant for purposes of determining eligibility.
