10 determined by reliable and continuously available price quotations, at least 11 equal to the amount of the loan.

12 B. A BANK SHALL NOTIFY THE DEPARTMENT THE FIRST TIME IT MAKES A LOAN

23 as a result of such evaluation accepts the obligation in reliance primarily 24 upon the third person for payment. In such case the obligations of the third 25 person to the bank shall be the sole applicable limitation.

26 2. Obligations, whether general obligations or payable from revenues
27 or special assessment, of the United States or any agency or instrumentality

41 6. Obligations which are outstanding in the regular process of bank 42 collection or clearing transactions.

8 exceed the aggregate funds paid and the value of property delivered by the 11 the sale of any assets of the bank in a transaction which has been approved 12 by the superintendent.

13           ~~D.~~ E. If the bank participates in an obligation with another obligee, 14 the limitations of this section shall be applicable only to the extent of the 15 bank's participation.

17 fully secured under subsection A falls below one hundred per cent of the 23 repayment terms are not deemed to be a new loan or an extension of credit 24 except in instances in which interest on the renewed loan or extension of 25 credit is capitalized or additional money is advanced.

26           ~~4.~~ H. Financial instruments may be denominated in foreign currencies 27 which are freely convertible to United States dollars. If denominated and 28 payable in a currency other than that of the loan or extension of credit
29 which it secures, the bank's procedures adopted pursuant to subsection ~~B- C~~
