(TEXT OF BILL BEGINS ON NEXT PAGE)

1 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Arizona:

2 Section 1. Section 12-1809, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to 3 read:

4 12-1809. Injunction against harassment; petition; venue; fees;
5 notices; enforcement; definition

6 A. A person may file a verified petition with a magistrate, justice of 7 the peace or superior court judge for an injunction prohibiting harassment.
8 If the person is a minor, the parent, legal guardian or person who has legal 9 custody of the minor shall file the petition unless the court determines 10 otherwise. The petition shall name the parent, guardian or custodian as the 11 plaintiff, and the minor is a specifically designated person for the purposes 12 of subsection F of this section. If a person is either temporarily or 13 permanently unable to request an injunction, a third party may request an 14 injunction on behalf of the plaintiff. After the request, the judicial 15 officer shall determine if the third party is an appropriate requesting party 16 for the plaintiff. Notwithstanding the location of the plaintiff or 17 defendant, any court in this state may issue or enforce an injunction against 18 harassment.

19 B. An injunction against harassment shall not be granted:

20 1. Unless the party who requests the injunction files a written 21 verified petition for injunction.

22 2. Against a person who is less than twelve years of age unless the 23 injunction is granted by the juvenile division of the superior court.

24 3. Against more than one defendant.

25 C. The petition shall state all of the following:

26 1. The name of the plaintiff. The plaintiff's address shall be 27 disclosed to the court for purposes of service. If the address of the 28 plaintiff is unknown to the defendant, the plaintiff may request that the 29 address be protected. On the plaintiff's request, the address shall not be 30 listed on the petition. Whether the court issues an injunction against 31 harassment, the protected address shall be maintained in a separate document 32 or automated database and is not subject to release or disclosure by the 33 court or any form of public access except as ordered by the court.

34 2. The name and address, if known, of the defendant.

35 3. A specific statement showing events and dates of the acts 36 constituting the alleged harassment.

37 4. The name of the court in which there was or is any prior or pending 38 proceeding or order concerning the conduct that is sought to be restrained.

39 5. The relief requested.

40 D. A fee shall not be charged for filing a petition under this 41 section. Fees for service of process may be deferred or waived under any 42 rule or law applicable to civil actions, except that fees for service of 43 process shall not be charged if the petition arises out of a dating 44 relationship. The court shall advise a plaintiff that the plaintiff may be 45 eligible for the deferral or waiver of these fees at the time the plaintiff

1 files a petition. The court shall not require the petitioner to perform 2 community restitution as a condition of the waiver or deferral of fees for 3 service of process. A law enforcement agency or constable shall not require 4 the advance payment of fees for service of process of injunctions against 5 harassment. If the court does not waive the fees, the serving agency may 6 assess the actual fees against the plaintiff. On request of the plaintiff, 7 an injunction against harassment that is issued by a municipal court may be 8 served by the police agency for that city if the defendant can be served 9 within the city. If the defendant cannot be served within the city, the 10 police agency in the city in which the defendant can be served may serve the 11 injunction. On request of the plaintiff, each injunction against harassment 12 that is issued by a justice of the peace shall be served by the constable for 13 that jurisdiction if the defendant can be served within the jurisdiction. If 14 the defendant cannot be served within that jurisdiction, the constable in the 15 jurisdiction in which the defendant can be served shall serve the injunction.
16 On request of the plaintiff, an injunction against harassment that is issued 17 by a superior court judge or commissioner may be served by the sheriff of the 18 county. If the defendant cannot be served within that jurisdiction, the 19 sheriff in the jurisdiction in which the defendant can be served may serve 20 the order. The court shall provide, without charge, forms for purposes of 21 this section for assisting parties without counsel.

22 E. The court shall review the petition, any other pleadings on file 23 and any evidence offered by the plaintiff, including any evidence of 24 harassment by electronic contact or communication, to determine whether the 25 injunction requested should issue without a further hearing. Rules 65(a)(1) 26 and 65(e) of the Arizona rules of civil procedure do not apply to injunctions 27 that are requested pursuant to this section. If the court finds reasonable 28 evidence of harassment of the plaintiff by the defendant during the year 29 preceding the filing of the petition or that good cause exists to believe 30 that great or irreparable harm would result to the plaintiff if the 31 injunction is not granted before the defendant or the defendant's attorney 32 can be heard in opposition and the court finds specific facts attesting to 33 the plaintiff's efforts to give notice to the defendant or reasons supporting 34 the plaintiff's claim that notice should not be given, the court shall issue 35 an injunction as provided for in subsection F of this section. If the court 36 denies the requested relief, it may schedule a further hearing within ten 37 days with reasonable notice to the defendant. For the purposes of 38 determining the one year period, any time that the defendant has been 39 incarcerated or out of this state shall not be counted.

40 F. If the court issues an injunction, the court may do any of the 41 following:

42 1. Enjoin the defendant from committing a violation of one or more 43 acts of harassment.

1 affidavit or certificate of service of process or acceptance of service. On 2 receiving these copies, the sheriff shall register the injunction.
3 Registration of an injunction means that a copy of the injunction and a copy 4 of the affidavit or certificate of service of process or acceptance of 5 service have been received by the sheriff's office. The sheriff shall 6 maintain a central repository for injunctions so that the existence and 7 validity of the injunctions can be easily verified. The effectiveness of an 8 injunction does not depend on its registration, and for enforcement purposes 9 pursuant to section 13-2810, a copy of an injunction, whether or not 10 registered, is presumed to be a valid existing order of the court for a 11 period of one year from the date of service of the injunction on the 12 defendant.

13 L. A peace officer, with or without a warrant, may arrest a person if 14 the peace officer has probable cause to believe that the person has violated 15 section 13-2810 by disobeying or resisting an injunction that is issued 16 pursuant to this section, whether or not the violation occurred in the 17 presence of the officer. The provisions for release under section 13-3903 do 18 not apply to an arrest made pursuant to this subsection. A person who is 19 arrested pursuant to this subsection may be released from custody in 20 accordance with the Arizona rules of criminal procedure or any other 21 applicable statute. An order for release, with or without an appearance 22 bond, shall include pretrial release conditions that are necessary to provide 23 for the protection of the alleged victim and other specifically designated 24 persons and may provide for additional conditions that the court deems 25 appropriate, including participation in any counseling programs available to 26 the defendant.

27 M. If a peace officer responds to a call alleging that harassment has 28 been or may be committed, the officer shall inform in writing any alleged or 29 potential victim of the procedures and resources available for the protection 30 of the victim including:

- 31 1. An injunction pursuant to this section.
- 32 2. The emergency telephone number for the local police agency.
- 33 3. Telephone numbers for emergency services in the local community.

34 N. The remedies provided in this section for enforcement of the orders 35 of the court are in addition to any other civil and criminal remedies
36 available. The municipal court and the justice court may hear and decide all 37 matters arising pursuant to this section. After a hearing with notice to the 38 affected party, the court may enter an order requiring any party to pay the 39 costs of the action, including reasonable attorney fees, if any. An order 40 that is entered by a justice court or municipal court after a hearing 41 pursuant to this section may be appealed to the superior court as provided in 42 title 22, chapter 2, article 4, section 22-425, subsection B and the superior 43 court rules of civil appellate procedure without regard to an amount in 44 controversy. No fee may be charged to either party for filing an appeal.

1 O. A peace officer who makes an arrest pursuant to this section is not 2 civilly or criminally liable for the arrest if the officer acts on probable 3 cause and without malice. A peace officer is not civilly liable for 4 noncompliance with subsection M of this section.

5 P. This section does not apply to preliminary injunctions issued 6 pursuant to an action for dissolution of marriage or legal separation or for 7 protective orders against domestic violence.

8 Q. In addition to the persons who are authorized to serve process
9 pursuant to rule 4(d), Arizona rules of civil procedure, a peace officer or a 10 correctional officer as defined in section 41-1661 who is acting in the 11 officer's official capacity may serve an injunction against harassment that 12 is issued pursuant to this section.

13 R. For the purposes of this section, "harassment" means a series of 14 acts over any period of time that is directed at a specific person and that 15 would cause a reasonable person to be seriously alarmed, annoyed or harassed 16 and the conduct in fact seriously alarms, annoys or harasses the person and 17 serves no legitimate purpose. HARASSMENT INCLUDES UNLAWFUL PICKETING, 18 TRESPASSORY ASSEMBLY, UNLAWFUL MASS ASSEMBLY, CONCERTED INTERFERENCE WITH 19 LAWFUL EXERCISE OF BUSINESS ACTIVITY AND ENGAGING IN A SECONDARY BOYCOTT AS 20 DEFINED IN SECTION 23-1321 AND DEFAMATION IN VIOLATION OF SECTION 23-1325.

21 Sec. 2. Section 12-1810, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to read:
22 12-1810. Injunction against workplace harassment; definitions

23 A. An employer or an authorized agent of an employer may file a 24 written verified petition with a magistrate, justice of the peace or superior 25 court judge for an injunction prohibiting workplace harassment.

26 B. The court shall not grant an injunction against workplace 27 harassment against either:

28 1. A person who is under twelve years of age unless the injunction is 29 granted by the juvenile division of the superior court.

30 2. More than one defendant.

31 C. The petition shall state all of the following:

32 1. The name of the employer.

33 2. The name and address, if known, of the defendant.

34 3. A specific statement showing the events and dates of the acts that 35 constitute harassment toward the employer or any person who enters the 36 employer's property or who is performing official work duties.

37 D. The filing fee for a petition that is filed pursuant to this 38 section is established pursuant to sections 12-284, 22-281 and 22-404.

39 E. The court shall review the petition and any evidence offered by the 40 employer to determine whether to issue the injunction without further 41 hearing. Rules 65(a)(1) and 65(e) of the Arizona rules of civil procedure do 42 not apply to injunctions requested pursuant to this section. If the court 43 finds reasonable evidence of workplace harassment by the defendant or that 44 good cause exists to believe that great or irreparable harm would result to 45 the employer or ANY other person who enters the employer's property or who is

1 performing official work duties or if the injunction is not granted before 2 the defendant or the defendant's attorney can be heard in opposition and the 3 court finds specific facts that attest to the employer's efforts to give 4 notice to the defendant or reasons supporting the employer's claim that 5 notice should not be given, the court shall issue an injunction pursuant to 6 subsection F of this section. If the court denies the requested relief, the 7 court may schedule a further hearing within ten days with reasonable notice 8 to the defendant.

9 F. If the court grants an injunction against workplace harassment, the 10 court may do any of the following:

11 1. Restrain the defendant from coming near the employer's property or 12 place of business and restrain the defendant from contacting the employer, 13 or other person while that person is on or at the employer's property or 14 place of business or is performing official work duties.

15 2. Grant any other relief necessary for the protection of the 16 employer, the workplace, the employer's employees or any other person who is 17 on or at the employer's property or place of business or who is performing 18 official work duties.

19 G. If the court issues an ex parte injunction pursuant to this 20 section, the injunction shall state on its face that the defendant is 21 entitled to a hearing on written request and shall include the name and 22 address of the judicial office in which the request may be filed. At any 23 time during the period that the injunction is in effect, the defendant may 24 request a hearing. The court shall hold the hearing within ten days after 25 the date of the written request unless the court finds compelling reasons to 26 continue the hearing. The hearing shall be held at the earliest possible 27 time. After the hearing, the court may modify, quash or continue the 28 injunction.

29 H. An injunction against workplace harassment that is issued pursuant 30 to this section shall include the following statement:

31 Warning

32 This is an official court order. If you disobey this order, you 33 may be arrested and prosecuted for the crime of interfering with 34 judicial proceedings and any other crime you may have committed 35 in disobeying this order.

36 I. A copy of the petition and the injunction shall be served on the 37 defendant within one year from the date the injunction is signed. An 38 injunction that is not served on the defendant within one year expires. The 39 injunction is effective on the defendant on service of a copy of the 40 injunction and petition and expires one year after service on the defendant.
41 A modified injunction is effective on service and expires one year after 42 service of the initial injunction and petition.

43 J. Each affidavit, acceptance or return of service shall be filed 44 promptly with the clerk of the issuing court. The filing shall be completed 45 in person, made by fax or postmarked, if sent by mail, no later than the end

1 of the seventh court business day after the date of service. If the filing 2 is made by fax, the original affidavit, acceptance or return of service shall 3 be filed promptly with the court. Within twenty-four hours after the 4 affidavit, acceptance or return of service has been filed, excluding weekends 5 and holidays, the court that issued the injunction shall register a copy of 6 the injunction and a copy of the affidavit of service of process or 7 acceptance of service with the sheriff's office of the county in which the 8 employer is located. A copy of an injunction is presumed to be a valid 9 existing order of the court for one year after the date on which the 10 defendant was served. Any changes or modifications to the injunction are 11 effective on entry by the court and shall be registered with the sheriff 12 within twenty-four hours after the entry, excluding weekends and holidays.

13 K. This section does not:

14 1. Expand, diminish, alter or modify the duty of an employer to 15 provide a safe workplace for its employees and other persons.

16 2. Permit a court to issue a temporary restraining order or injunction 17 that prohibits speech or other activities that are constitutionally protected

27 ~~is~~ ARE the target of harassment as defined by this section, the employer 28 shall make a good faith effort to provide notice to the person or persons 29 that the employer intends to petition the court for an injunction against 30 workplace harassment.

31 M. Whether or not a violation occurs in the presence of a peace 32 officer, a peace officer, with or without a warrant, may arrest a person if 33 the peace officer has probable cause to believe that the person has violated 34 section 13-2810 by disobeying or resisting an injunction that was issued 35 pursuant to this section. The release provisions under section 13-3903 do 36 not apply to an arrest made pursuant to this subsection. A person who is 37 arrested pursuant to this subsection may be released from custody pursuant to 38 the Arizona rules of criminal procedure or any applicable statute. The court 39 shall include in an order for release any pretrial release conditions that 40 the court deems appropriate.

41 N. The remedies under this section for the enforcement of protection 42 orders are in addition to any other civil and criminal remedies that are 43 available. The municipal court and the justice court may hear and decide all 44 matters arising pursuant to this section. On notice to the affected party 45 and after a hearing, the court may enter an order that requires any party to 1 pay the costs of the action, including reasonable attorney fees. A party may 2 appeal an order entered by a justice court or municipal court pursuant to 3 section 22-261 or 22-425 and the superior court rules of civil appellate 4 procedure without regard to an amount in controversy.

6 immune from civil or criminal liability if the officer acts on probable 7 cause.

8 P. An employer is immune from civil liability for seeking or failing 9 to seek an injunction under this section unless the employer is seeking an 10 injunction primarily to accomplish a purpose for which the injunction was not 11 designed. Any action or statement by an employer under this section shall 12 not be deemed an admission by the employer of any fact. An action or 13 statement by an employer under this section may be used for impeachment 14 purposes.

15 Q. In addition to the persons who are authorized to serve process
