5 the penalties otherwise authorized by law if an allegation of prior 6 conviction is charged in the indictment or information and admitted or found 7 by the court. The release provisions prescribed by this section shall not be 8 substituted for any penalties required by the substantive offense or a
9 provision of law that specifies a later release or completion of the sentence
10 imposed before release. The court shall allow the allegation of a prior 11 conviction at any time before the date the case is actually tried unless the 12 allegation is filed fewer than twenty days before the case is actually tried 13 and the court finds on the record that the person was in fact prejudiced by 14 the untimely filing and states the reasons for these findings. If the 15 allegation of a prior conviction is filed, the state must make available to 16 the person a copy of any material or information obtained concerning the 17 prior conviction. The charge of previous conviction shall not be read to the 18 jury. For the purposes of this subsection, "substantive offense" means the 19 felony offense that the trier of fact found beyond a reasonable doubt the

35 opinions presented by the victim or the victim's immediate family at any 36 aggravation or mitigation proceeding or in the presentence report.

38 13-708. Offenses committed while released from confinement

39 A. A person who is convicted of any felony involving a dangerous
40 offense that is committed while the person is on probation for a conviction 41 of a felony offense or parole, work furlough, community supervision or any 42 other release or has escaped from confinement for conviction of a felony 43 offense shall be sentenced to imprisonment for not less than the presumptive 44 sentence authorized under this chapter and is not eligible for suspension or 45 commutation or release on any basis until the sentence imposed is served.

1 B. A person who is convicted of a dangerous offense that is committed 2 while the person is on release or has escaped from confinement for a
3 conviction of a serious offense as defined in section 13-706, an offense 4 resulting in serious physical injury or an offense involving the use or 5 exhibition of a deadly weapon or dangerous instrument shall be sentenced to 6 the maximum sentence authorized under this chapter and is not eligible for 7 suspension or commutation or release on any basis until the sentence imposed 8 is served. If the court finds that at least two substantial aggravating 9 circumstances listed in section 13-701, subsection D apply, the court may 10 increase the maximum sentence authorized under this chapter by up to 11 twenty-five per cent. A sentence imposed pursuant to this subsection shall 12 revoke the convicted person's release if the person was on release and shall 13 be consecutive to any other sentence from which the convicted person had been 14 temporarily released or had escaped, unless the sentence from which the 15 convicted person had been paroled or placed on probation was imposed by a 16 jurisdiction other than this state.

17 C. A person who is convicted of any felony offense that is not 18 included in subsection A or B of this section and that is committed while the 19 person is on probation for a conviction of a felony offense or parole, work 20 furlough, community supervision or any other release or escape from 21 confinement for conviction of a felony offense shall be sentenced to a term 22 of not less than the presumptive sentence authorized for the offense and the 23 person is not eligible for suspension of sentence, probation, pardon or 24 release from confinement on any basis except as specifically authorized by 25 section 31-233, subsection A or B until the sentence imposed by the court has 26 been served, the person is eligible for release pursuant to section 27 41-1604.07 or the sentence is commuted. The release provisions prescribed by 28 this section shall not be substituted for any penalties required by the 29 substantive offense or provision of law that specifies a later release or 30 completion of the sentence imposed before release. A sentence imposed 31 pursuant to this subsection shall revoke the convicted person's release if 32 the person was on release and shall be consecutive to any other sentence from 33 which the convicted person had been temporarily released or had escaped, 34 unless the sentence from which the convicted person had been paroled or 35 placed on probation was imposed by a jurisdiction other than this state. For 36 the purposes of this subsection, "substantive offense" means the felony, 37 misdemeanor or petty offense that the trier of fact found beyond a reasonable 38 doubt the defendant committed. Substantive offense does not include 39 allegations that, if proven, would enhance the sentence of imprisonment or 40 fine to which the defendant would otherwise be subject.

41 D. A person who is convicted of committing any felony offense that is 42 committed while the person is released on bond or on the person's own 43 recognizance on a separate felony offense or while the person is escaped from 44 preconviction custody for a separate felony offense shall be sentenced to a 45 term of imprisonment two years longer than would otherwise be imposed for the

1 felony offense committed while on release. The additional sentence imposed 2 under this subsection is in addition to any enhanced punishment that may be 3 applicable under section 13-703, section 13-704, section 13-1204, subsection 4 C or section ~~13-709.02~~ 13-714. The person is not eligible for suspension of 5 sentence, probation, pardon or release from confinement on any basis, except 6 as specifically authorized by section 31-233, subsection A or B, until the 7 two years are served, the person is eligible for release pursuant to section 8 41-1604.07 or the sentence is commuted. The penalties prescribed by this 9 subsection shall be substituted for the penalties otherwise authorized by law
 10 if the allegation that the person committed a felony while released on bond 11 or on the person's own recognizance or while escaped from preconviction 12 custody is charged in the indictment or information and admitted or found by 13 the court. The release provisions prescribed by this subsection shall not be 14 substituted for any penalties required by the substantive offense or 15 provision of law that specifies a later release or completion of the sentence
 16 imposed before release. The court shall allow the allegation that the person 17 committed a felony while released on bond or on the person's own recognizance 18 on a separate felony offense or while escaped from preconviction custody on a 19 separate felony offense at any time before the case is actually tried unless 20 the allegation is filed fewer than twenty days before the case is actually 21 tried and the court finds on the record that the person was in fact 22 prejudiced by the untimely filing and states the reasons for these findings.
 23 The allegation that the person committed a felony while released on bond or 24 on the person's own recognizance or while escaped from preconviction custody
 25 shall not be read to the jury. For the purposes of this subsection, 26 "substantive offense" means the felony offense that the trier of fact found 27 beyond a reasonable doubt the person committed. Substantive offense does not 28 include allegations that, if proven, would enhance the sentence of 29 imprisonment or fine to which the person otherwise would be subject.
