2. Sources of Personal Compensation

What to disclose: The name and address of each employer who paid you or any member of your household more than $1,000 in salary, wages, commissions, tips or other forms of compensation (other than "gifts") during the period covered by this report. Describe the nature of each employer's business and the type of services for which you or a member of your household were compensated.

Also, list anything of value that any other person (outside your household) received for your or a member of your household's use or benefit. For example, if a person was paid by a third-party to be your personal housekeeper, identify that person, describe the nature of that person's services that benefited you, and provide information about the third-party who paid for the services on your behalf.

You need not disclose: Any money you or any member of your household received that constitutes gross income paid to a business that you or your household member owns or does business as. This will be disclosed in Section 11 below.
