A. PERSONAL FINANCIAL INTERESTS

This section requires disclosure of your financial interests and/or the financial interests of the member(s) of your household.

1. Identification of Household Members and Business Interests

What to disclose: If you are married, is your spouse a member of your household? Yes No N/A (If not married/widowed, select N/A)

Are any minor children members of your household? Yes (if yes, disclose how many) No

For the remaining questions in this Financial Disclosure Statement, the term "member of your household" or "household member" will be defined as the person (s) who correspond to your "yes" answers above.

2. Sources of Personal Compensation

What to disclose in subsection (2)(a): Provide the name and address of each employer who paid you or any member of your household more than $1,000 in salary, wages, commissions, tips or other forms of compensation (other than "gifts") during the period covered by this report. Describe the nature of each employer's business and the type of services for which you or a member of your household were compensated.

What to disclose in in subsection (2)(b): List anything of value that any other person (outside your household) received for your or a member of your household's use or benefit. For example, if a person was paid by a third-party to be your personal housekeeper, identify that person, describe the nature of that person's services that benefited you, and provide information about the third-party who paid for the services on your behalf.

You need not disclose income of a business, including money you or any member of your household received that constitutes income paid to a business that you or your household member owns or does business as. This type of business income will be disclosed in Question 12.

4. Personal Creditors

What to disclose: The name and address of each creditor to whom you or a member of your household owed a qualifying personal debt over $1,000 during any point during the period covered by this Financial Disclosure Statement.

Additionally, if the qualifying personal debt was either incurred for the first time or completely discharged (paid in full) during this period, list the date and check the applicable box to indicate whether it was incurred or discharged. Otherwise, check the box for "N/A" if the debt was not first incurred or fully discharged during the period covered by this Financial Disclosure Statement.

You need not disclose the following, which do not qualify as "personal debt":

- Debts resulting from the ordinary conduct of a business (these will be disclosed in Section B);
- Debts on any personal residence or recreational property;
- Debts on motor vehicles used primarily for personal purposes (not commercial purposes);
- Debts secured by cash values on life insurance;
- Debts owed to relatives;
- Personal credit card transactions or the value of any retail installment contracts you or your household member entered into.

6. Gifts

What to disclose: The name of the donor who gave you or a member of your household a single gift or an accumulation of gifts during the preceding calendar year with a cumulative value over $500, subject to the exceptions listed in the below "You need not disclose" paragraph. A "gift" means a gratuity (tip), special discount, favor, hospitality, service, economic opportunity, loan or other benefit received without adequate consideration (reciprocal value) and not provided to members of the public at large (in other words, a personal benefit you or your household member received without providing an equivalent benefit in return).

Please note: the concept of a "gift" for purposes of this Financial Disclosure Statement is separate and distinct from the gift restrictions outlined in Arizona's lobbying statutes. Thus, disclosure in a lobbying report does not relieve you or a member of your household's duty to disclose gifts in this Financial Disclosure Statement.

You need not disclose the following, which do not qualify as "gifts":

- Gifts received by will;
- Gift received by intestate succession (in other words, gifts distributed to you or a household member according to Arizona's intestate succession laws, not by will);
- Gift distributed from an inter vivos (living) or testamentary (by will) trust established by a spouse or family member;
- Gifts received from any other member of the household;
- Gifts received from parents, grandparents, siblings, children and grandchildren; or
- Political campaign contributions reported on campaign finance reports.

Memo:

The listed ownership interests are based on the information and values that were available at the time this disclosure was completed. Because of extreme market fluctuations, absolute accuracy is impossible. To avoid under-reporting, the value category was increased to the next highest level when it appeared reasonable that the asset may have had a value in that higher category at some point during the twelve month period. Some assets reported as category 3 may never have had a value of $100,001 or more, some assets reported as category 2 may never have had a value of $25,000 or more, and some assets reported as category 1 may never have had a value of $1,000 or more.

9. Ownership of Bonds

What to disclose: Bonds issued by a state or local government agency worth more than $1,000 that you or a member of your household held during the period covered by this Financial Disclosure Statement. Also, check the box to indicate the approximate value of the bonds.

Additionally, if the bonds were either acquired for the first time or completely divested (sold in full) during this period, list the date and check the box whether the bonds were acquired or divested. Otherwise, check "N/A" (for "not applicable") if the bonds were not first acquired or fully divested during the period covered by this Financial Disclosure Statement.

B. BUSINESS FINANCIAL INTERESTS

This section requires disclosure of any financial interests of a business owned by you or a member of your household.

12. Business Names

What to disclose: The name of any business under which you or any member of your household owns or did business under (in other words, if you or your household member were self-employed) during the period covered by this Financial Disclosure Statement, which include any corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships, sole proprietorships or any other type of business conducted under a trade name.

Also disclose if the named business is controlled or dependent. A business is "controlled" if you or any member of your household (individually or combined) had an ownership interest that amounts to more than 50%. A business is classified as "dependent," on the other hand, if: (1) you or any household member (individually or combined) had an ownership interest that amounts more than 10%; and (2) the business received more than $10,000 from a single source during the period covered by this Financial Disclosure Statement, which amounted to more than 50% of the business' gross income for the period.

Please note: If the business was either controlled or dependent, check the box to indicate whether it was controlled or dependent. If the business was both controlled and dependent during the period covered by this Financial Disclosure Statement, check both boxes. Otherwise, leave the boxes blank.

Please note: If a business listed in the foregoing Question 12 was neither "controlled" nor "dependent" during the period covered by this Financial Disclosure Statement, you need not complete the remainder of this Financial Disclosure Statement with respect to that business. If none of the businesses listed in Question 12 were "controlled" or "dependent," you need not complete the remainder of this Financial Disclosure Statement.

13. Controlled Business Information

What to disclose: The name of each controlled business listed in Question 12, and the goods or services provided by the business.

If a single client or customer (whether a person or business) accounts for more than $10,000 and 25% of the business' gross income during the period covered by this Financial Disclosure Statement, the client or customer is deemed a "major client" and therefore you must describe what your business provided to this major client in the third column. Also, if the major client is a business, please describe the client's type of business activities in the final column (but if the major client is an individual, write "N/A" for "not applicable".)

If the business does not have a major client, write "N/A" for "not applicable."

You need not disclose: The name of any major client, or the activities of any major client that is an individual.

If you or your household member does not own a business, or if your or your household member's business is not a controlled business, you may leave this question blank.
