PROCLAMATION FILED

WHEREAS, advances in information technology and the Internet enhance our lives by increasing our abilities to effortlessly communicate, create, learn and do business through the interactive use of such technologies; and

WHEREAS, the proliferation of information in hardcopy and electronic formats, compounded by the ease of information access through the interconnected world create a global imperative and call to action for government industry and society to identify data privacy risks and respond proactively to counteract threats to personal data privacy; and

WHEREAS, it is incumbent on private industry, non-profit organizations and government to: (1) continually examine the appropriateness of collecting, securing, managing and disposing of personal identifying information, whether in hardcopy and electronic format; (2) abide by responsible and appropriate information management policies and practices; (3) support information privacy education within the organization; and (4) provide individuals with ease of access to the organization's information management policies and practices; and (5) promote resources which assist individuals to manage the privacy of their personal information; and

WHEREAS, in furtherance of the above, government officials from the United States, Canada, and Europe have joined with privacy professionals, academic communities, legal scholars, educators, business representatives, and others with an interest in raising awareness about data privacy issues to recognize Data Privacy Day; and

WHEREAS, in observance of Arizona Data Privacy Day, schools, businesses, citizens, and other interested groups are encouraged to participate with appropriate events, activities, and initiatives that promote the awareness of data privacy; enlist organizations to employ fair information and privacy practices; and advance responsible information sharing by citizens.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Douglas A. Ducey, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim January 28, 2016 as

ARIZONA DATA PRIVACY DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Arizona

Douglas A. Ducey

GOVERNOR

DONE at the Capitol in Phoenix on this nineteenth day of January in the year Two Thousand and Sixteen and of the Independence of the United States of America the Two Hundred and Fortieth.
