ABOUT THIS PUBLICATION

The authenticated pdf of the Administrative Register (A.A.R.) posted on the Office of the Secretary of State's website is the official published version for rulemaking activity in the state of Arizona. The Register is published weekly by issue number, every Friday by the Administrative Rules Division.

The Register is cited by volume and page number. Volumes are published by calendar year. Page numbering continues in each weekly issue.

The Register contains notices of docket openings, proposed, final, emergency, expedited, exempt, and terminated rules as defined in Arizona Revised Statutes known as the Arizona Administrative Procedure Act (APA), and A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 6, Articles 1 through 10. Other "notice only" filings are published in the Register which includes Informal Public Meetings on an Open Rulemaking Docket, Formal Rulemaking Advisory Committees, Public Information, Oral Proceedings, Public Hearings, Public Meetings, Agency Guidance Documents, Substantive Policy Statements, Proposed Delegation Agreements, Final Delegation Agreements, and Agency Ombudsman.

ABOUT AMENDMENTS TO RULES

Rulemaking is defined in the APA. Rules can be made (all new text); amended (changed) or repealed (removed) as codified in the Arizona Administrative Code; or renumbered (moving rules to a different Section number). New rules published in the Register, whether proposed or made as a final rule, are underlined; repealed rules (text being removed), is stricken.

ABOUT THE TABLE OF CONTENTS

On the cover: Each agency is assigned a Chapter in the Arizona Administrative Code under a specific Title. Titles represent broad subject areas. The Title number is listed first; with the acronym A.A.C., which stands for the Arizona Administrative Code; following the Chapter number and Agency name, then program name. For example, the Secretary of State has rules on rulemaking in Title 1, Chapter 1 of the Arizona Administrative Code. The citation for this Chapter is 1 A.A.C. 1, Secretary of State, Rules and Rulemaking.

ABOUT FILE NUMBERS

Notices filed in the Division are assigned a file number. This number is enclosed in brackets and located at the top right of the published documents in the Register. Original filed notices are available in pdf for free. For a copy, contact our Division with the file number.

ABOUT THE ADMINISTRATIVE CODE

The Arizona Administrative Code (A.A.C.) contains codified text of rules. When published, the underling and striking of text in notices as published in the Register are removed. The codified rules have either been approved by the Governor's Regulatory Review Council or Attorney General as prescribed under the APA. The Code also contains rules exempt from the rulemaking process, and emergency rules. The authenticated pdf of Code Chapters posted on the Office of the Secretary of State's website are the official published version of rules in the A.A.C. The Code is posted online for free.

Participate in Rulemaking

Review Published Notices

Those interested in participating in the rulemaking process should review notices published in the Arizona Administrative Register.

The Preamble at the beginning of a notice contains information about the rulemaking and provides agency justification and regulatory intent. Agency contact information is published in the Preamble for those interested in participating in the rulemaking process.

The Preamble includes reference to the specific statutes authorizing the agency to make the rule, an explanation of the rule, reasons for proposing the rule, and the preliminary Economic Impact Statement.

Agency Contact Lists

Many agencies maintain stakeholder lists to contact those interested in proposed changes to rules. Check an agency's website and its newsletters for information about notices, oral proceedings, and meetings. Feel like a change should be made to a rule and an agency has not proposed changes? You can petition an agency to make, amend, or repeal a rule. The agency must respond to the petition. Refer to A.R.S. § 41-1033 for more information.

Attend a Public Meeting

Stakeholders can attend an public meeting, known as an oral proceeding, being conducted by the agency on a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. A proceeding may be listed in the Preamble of a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking or an agency may inform the public of the meeting in a Notice of Oral Proceeding. Attend the meeting and be prepared to speak and comment.

An agency may not have a public meeting scheduled on the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. If not, you may request the agency schedule a proceeding. This request must be put in writing within 30 days after the published Notice of Proposed Rulemaking.

Refer to information in the Preamble.

Write the Agency

Put your comments in writing and send them to the agency. In order for the agency to consider your comments, the agency must receive them by the close of record. The comment must be received within the 30-day comment timeframe following the Register publication of the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking.

You can also submit to the Governor's Regulatory Review Council written comments that are relevant to the Council's power to review a given rule (A.R.S. § 41-1052).

The Council reviews the rule at the end of the rulemaking process, before the rules are filed with the Secretary of State.

THE REGULAR RULEMAKING PROCESS

Authority

An agency is given the authority to promulgate a rule under the APA, statute passed by the Legislature, or ballot proposition, which is passed by the voters.

An agency may be given certain exemptions to the APA or portions thereof.

Information about the exemptions are provided in the Preamble of the rulemaking.

Permission to Proceed

Before moving forward with any notice, an agency first receives permission from the governor's office to proceed with a rulemaking.

The governor's office provides the agency a written response to proceed that is filed with the notice.

Stakeholder and Public Notification

The agency opens a docket. It is filed as a Notice of Rulemaking Docket Opening for publication in the Register.

The notice includes agency contact information along with its intentions to make, amend, repeal, or renumber, a rule and its justification to perform the rulemaking action. Often an agency will file the docket with the proposed rulemaking.

An agency may decide not to proceed and not file final rule with G.R.R.C. within one year after proposed rule is published. A.R.S. § 41-1021(A)(4)

Agency Proposes Rules, Public Reviews Proposal

The agency files a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking and the notice is published in the Register.

The public is given the opportunity to comment on the proposed rules. The agency opens the comment period to last at least 30 days. Written comments are accepted informally.

The notice may contain information about oral proceedings.

A proceeding is held no sooner than 30 days after the notice is published.

If no proceeding is scheduled, the agency provides information on how a person may request to speak to the agency in person at an oral proceeding.

Oral Proceeding

A person requests an agency to conduct an oral proceeding based on the information provided in its Notice of Proposed Rulemaking.

The agency prepares a Notice of Oral Proceeding on Proposed Rulemaking, schedules one or more proceeding, and files the notice for publication in the Register.

When it occurs, an agency extends the public comment period.

Close of Record

After evaluating public comments and conducting an internal review of the rule, an agency:

1. Determines whether the rulemaking requires a substantial change. When an agency decides to make substantial changes to a proposed rule, it continues the process as outlined under the APA. The agency obtains permission to proceed as stated under #2 of this timeline. The agency prepares a Notice of Supplemental Proposed Rulemaking with the changes and files it for publication in the Register. Comments are once again solicited and reviewed by the agency.
2. Prepares and submits for review a Notice of Final Rulemaking for review and approval by G.R.R.C. or Attorney General. The Notice of Final Rulemaking must be submitted for review within 120 days after the close of record; or
3. Terminates the rulemaking. The agency may decide to terminate its docket and files a notice for publication in the Register notifying stakeholders of the termination. Refer to A.R.S. § 41-1021(A)(2).

Time Frame for Approval or Disapproval of the Notice

G.R.R.C. has 90 days to review and approve or return the rule package, in whole or in part; A.G. has 60 days.

The Approved Rule is Published in Register and Codified in the Code

After approval by G.R.R.C. or A.G., the rule becomes effective 60 days after filing the notice with the Office of the Secretary of State, unless otherwise indicated in the Preamble of the notice.

The Notice of Final Rulemaking is published in the Register and codified in the Arizona Administrative Code.

NOTICES OF PROPOSED EXPEDITED RULEMAKING

changes proposed in the Department's recent five-year review report on 17 A.A.C. 5, Article 4, Dealers, approved by the Governor's Regulatory Review Council on April 7, 2026. The Department determined that there were sections of the rules that should be updated in order to improve clarity and efficiency within the dealer licensing processes and there are no additional anticipated costs.

The rules have been amended to add clarity to the differences between types of business establishments and explain further that manufacturers and distributors are exempt from providing a bond, as outlined in the rules. These changes also include corrections to technical and grammatical errors.

- 7. A reference to any study relevant to the rule that the agency reviewed and proposes either to rely on or not to rely on in its evaluation of or justification for the rule, where the public may obtain or review each study, all data underlying each study, and any analysis of each study and other supporting material:

The agency did not review or rely on any study relevant to the rules.

- 8. A showing of good cause why the rulemaking is necessary to promote a statewide interest if the rulemaking will diminish a previous grant of authority of a political subdivision of this state:

This rulemaking does not diminish a previous grant of authority of a political subdivision in this state.

This rulemaking is exempt from the requirements to obtain and file an economic, small business, and consumer impact under A.R.S. § 41-1055(D)(2), as it is in response to the Department's recent five-year review report on 17 A.A.C. 5, Article 4, Dealers, approved by the Governor's Regulatory Review Council on April 7, 2026. In addition, the recommended changes to the rules do not impose any costs on consumers, the Department, or other state or local agencies, therefore the Department anticipates no change to the economic impact related to the dealer licensing process. The economic impact of each of these rules has been the same as estimated in the economic impact statement prepared by the Department and submitted to the Council in support of the last rulemaking effort completed for this Article.

- 10. Where, when, and how a person may provide written comments on the proposed expedited rule:

Written comments on the proposed expedited rulemaking should be directed to the person listed in item 5. All comments must be received by the close of public record at 5:00 p.m., on August 17, 2026. The Department has scheduled the following oral proceeding for public comments:

There are no other matters prescribed by statute applicable to the Department or to any specific rule or class of rules.

- a. Whether the rule requires a permit, whether a general permit is used and if not, the reasons why a general permit is not used:

The rules do not require a permit, however, Title 28, Chapter 10, Arizona Revised Statutes, requires vehicle dealers, automotive recyclers, and transporters to be licensed by ADOT to operate in this state. Each one of these dealer licenses is a general permit because the activities and practices authorized by this class of license are the same for all businesses that have the license.

- 6. An agency's justification and reason why a rule should be made, amended, repealed or renumbered, to include an explanation about the rulemaking:
The Arizona Securities Act, in A.R.S. § 44-1844(A), lists transactions that are exempt from the Act's registration requirements. The exemption relevant to this rulemaking, A.R.S. § 44-1844(A)(11), is commonly referred to as the

Arizona Administrative Register
NOTICES OF PROPOSED EXEMPT RULEMAKING

“manual exemption.” It exempts certain securities sales where the class of security has been outstanding in the hands of the public for at least 90 days and a recognized manual of securities designated by the commission by rule or order contains the names of the issuers officers and directors, a statement of financial condition of the issuer as of a date within 18 months of the date of the sale, and a statement of the income or operations for each of the two fiscal years or from the commencement of the issuer’s existence. Pursuant to this statute, the commission adopted R14-4-114, which lists the recognized manuals of securities. Since R14-4-114 was last amended, some of the listed manuals are no longer published and other publishers now exist that provide information that satisfies the requirements in A.R.S. § 44-1844(A)(11). One of these new publishers, OTC Markets Group Inc., lists securities and provides information on those securities that meet the manual exemption’s statutory requirements. The proposed changes to R14-4-114 delete the out-of-print manuals and add securities listed on two of OTC’s exchanges.

- 7. A reference to any study relevant to the rule that the agency reviewed and proposes either to rely on or not to rely on in its evaluation of or justification for the rule, where the public may obtain or review each study, all data underlying each study, and any analysis of each study and other supporting material:

Not applicable

- 8. A showing of good cause why the rulemaking is necessary to promote a statewide interest if the rulemaking will diminish a previous grant of authority of a political subdivision of this state:

Not applicable

- 9. The preliminary summary of the economic, small business, and consumer impact:

The Division prepared an Economic, Small Business and Consumer Impact Statement (the “EIS”) for the proposed modifications of R14-4-114. The EIS identifies the proposed changes to R14-4-114, described in item 6 of this Preamble, along with three classes of persons affected by the rules. Because R14-4-114 deals with a self-executing exemption that securities issuers have complete discretion to utilize, the rule changes do not directly affect securities issuers or purchasers. Because the manual exemption is self-executing, the extent of its utilization is unknown. The proposed changes could increase usage as they widen the availability of the exemption. The rule changes should have no direct impact on private employment in Arizona, or on small businesses. The changes may benefit businesses that issue securities and buyers by providing additional information and liquidity to buyers. The proposed revisions to R14-4-114 are the least costly and least intrusive method for modernizing the exemption.

NOTICES OF RULEMAKING DOCKET OPENING

NOTICES OF RULEMAKING DOCKET OPENING

The Administrative Procedure Act (APA) requires an agency file a Notice of Rulemaking Docket Opening which outlines its rulemaking intentions under A.R.S. § 41-1021.

A docket opening and Notice of Proposed Rulemaking are often filed at the same time and published in the same Register issue.

If a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking is not published in this Register that corresponds with a published docket in this week's issue, it simply means the agency has not filed the notice for consideration and public review.

An agency has one year from the publishing of this notice to propose a rule; after one year the docket expires.

Questions about the notice can be answered by the person listed in item #5 of the preamble.

Refer to item #6 in the preamble for information on how to comment on this notice.
