ABOUT THIS PUBLICATION

The authenticated pdf of the Administrative Register (A.A.R.) posted on the Office of the Secretary of State's website is the official published version for rulemaking activity in the state of Arizona. The Register is published weekly by issue number, every Friday by the Administrative Rules Division.

The Register is cited by volume and page number. Volumes are published by calendar year. Page numbering continues in each weekly issue.

The Register contains notices of docket openings, proposed, final, emergency, expedited, exempt, and terminated rules as defined in Arizona Revised Statutes known as the Arizona Administrative Procedure Act (APA), and A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 6, Articles 1 through 10. Other "notice only" filings are published in the Register which includes Informal Public Meetings on an Open Rulemaking Docket, Formal Rulemaking Advisory Committees, Public Information, Oral Proceedings, Public Hearings, Public Meetings, Agency Guidance Documents, Substantive Policy Statements, Proposed Delegation Agreements, Final Delegation Agreements, and Agency Ombudsman.

ABOUT AMENDMENTS TO RULES

Rulemaking is defined in the APA. Rules can be made (all new text); amended (changed) or repealed (removed) as codified in the Arizona Administrative Code; or renumbered (moving rules to a different Section number). New rules published in the Register, whether proposed or made as a final rule, are underlined; repealed rules (text being removed), is stricken.

ABOUT THE TABLE OF CONTENTS

On the cover: Each agency is assigned a Chapter in the Arizona Administrative Code under a specific Title. Titles represent broad subject areas. The Title number is listed first; with the acronym A.A.C., which stands for the Arizona Administrative Code; following the Chapter number and Agency name, then program name. For example, the Secretary of State has rules on rulemaking in Title 1, Chapter 1 of the Arizona Administrative Code. The citation for this Chapter is 1 A.A.C. 1, Secretary of State, Rules and Rulemaking.

ABOUT FILE NUMBERS

Notices filed in the Division are assigned a file number. This number is enclosed in brackets and located at the top right of the published documents in the Register. Original filed notices are available in pdf for free. For a copy, contact our Division with the file number.

ABOUT THE ADMINISTRATIVE CODE

The Arizona Administrative Code (A.A.C.) contains codified text of rules. When published, the underling and striking of text in notices as published in the Register are removed. The codified rules have either been approved by the Governor's Regulatory Review Council or Attorney General as prescribed under the APA. The Code also contains rules exempt from the rulemaking process, and emergency rules. The authenticated pdf of Code Chapters posted on the Office of the Secretary of State's website are the official published version of rules in the A.A.C. The Code is posted online for free.

Participate in Rulemaking

Review Published Notices

Those interested in participating in the rulemaking process should review notices published in the Arizona Administrative Register.

The Preamble at the beginning of a notice contains information about the rulemaking and provides agency justification and regulatory intent. Agency contact information is published in the Preamble for those interested in participating in the rulemaking process.

The Preamble includes reference to the specific statutes authorizing the agency to make the rule, an explanation of the rule, reasons for proposing the rule, and the preliminary Economic Impact Statement.

Agency Contact Lists

Many agencies maintain stakeholder lists to contact those interested in proposed changes to rules. Check an agency's website and its newsletters for information about notices, oral proceedings, and meetings. Feel like a change should be made to a rule and an agency has not proposed changes? You can petition an agency to make, amend, or repeal a rule. The agency must respond to the petition. Refer to A.R.S. § 41-1033 for more information.

Attend a Public Meeting

Stakeholders can attend an public meeting, known as an oral proceeding, being conducted by the agency on a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. A proceeding may be listed in the Preamble of a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking or an agency may inform the public of the meeting in a Notice of Oral Proceeding. Attend the meeting and be prepared to speak and comment.

An agency may not have a public meeting scheduled on the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. If not, you may request the agency schedule a proceeding. This request must be put in writing within 30 days after the published Notice of Proposed Rulemaking.

Refer to information in the Preamble.

Write the Agency

Put your comments in writing and send them to the agency. In order for the agency to consider your comments, the agency must receive them by the close of record. The comment must be received within the 30-day comment timeframe following the Register publication of the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking.

You can also submit to the Governor's Regulatory Review Council written comments that are relevant to the Council's power to review a given rule (A.R.S. § 41-1052).

The Council reviews the rule at the end of the rulemaking process, before the rules are filed with the Secretary of State.

THE REGULAR RULEMAKING PROCESS

Authority

An agency is given the authority to promulgate a rule under the APA, statute passed by the Legislature, or ballot proposition, which is passed by the voters.

An agency may be given certain exemptions to the APA or portions thereof.

Information about the exemptions are provided in the Preamble of the rulemaking.

Permission to Proceed

Before moving forward with any notice, an agency first receives permission from the governor's office to proceed with a rulemaking.

The governor's office provides the agency a written response to proceed that is filed with the notice.

Stakeholder and Public Notification

The agency opens a docket. It is filed as a Notice of Rulemaking Docket Opening for publication in the Register.

The notice includes agency contact information along with its intentions to make, amend, repeal, or renumber, a rule and its justification to perform the rulemaking action. Often an agency will file the docket with the proposed rulemaking.

An agency may decide not to proceed and not file final rule with G.R.R.C. within one year after proposed rule is published. A.R.S. § 41-1021(A)(4)

Agency Proposes Rules, Public Reviews Proposal

The agency files a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking and the notice is published in the Register.

The public is given the opportunity to comment on the proposed rules. The agency opens the comment period to last at least 30 days. Written comments are accepted informally.

The notice may contain information about oral proceedings.

A proceeding is held no sooner than 30 days after the notice is published.

If no proceeding is scheduled, the agency provides information on how a person may request to speak to the agency in person at an oral proceeding.

Oral Proceeding

A person requests an agency to conduct an oral proceeding based on the information provided in its Notice of Proposed Rulemaking.

The agency prepares a Notice of Oral Proceeding on Proposed Rulemaking, schedules one or more proceeding, and files the notice for publication in the Register.

When it occurs, an agency extends the public comment period.

Close of Record

After evaluating public comments and conducting an internal review of the rule, an agency:

1. Determines whether the rulemaking requires a substantial change. When an agency decides to make substantial changes to a proposed rule, it continues the process as outlined under the APA. The agency obtains permission to proceed as stated under #2 of this timeline. The agency prepares a Notice of Supplemental Proposed Rulemaking with the changes and files it for publication in the Register. Comments are once again solicited and reviewed by the agency.
2. Prepares and submits for review a Notice of Final Rulemaking for review and approval by G.R.R.C. or Attorney General. The Notice of Final Rulemaking must be submitted for review within 120 days after the close of record; or
3. Terminates the rulemaking. The agency may decide to terminate its docket and files a notice for publication in the Register notifying stakeholders of the termination. Refer to A.R.S. § 41-1021(A)(2).

Time Frame for Approval or Disapproval of the Notice

G.R.R.C. has 90 days to review and approve or return the rule package, in whole or in part; A.G. has 60 days.

The Approved Rule is Published in Register and Codified in the Code

After approval by G.R.R.C. or A.G., the rule becomes effective 60 days after filing the notice with the Office of the Secretary of State, unless otherwise indicated in the Preamble of the notice.

The Notice of Final Rulemaking is published in the Register and codified in the Arizona Administrative Code.

NOTICES OF PROPOSED RULEMAKING

The Administrative Procedure Act (APA) requires an agency file a Notice of Rulemaking Docket Opening which outlines its rulemaking intentions under A.R.S. § 41-1021. A docket opening and Notice of Proposed Rulemaking are often filed at the same time and published in the same Register issue. If they are not filed at the same time, information on where the docket opening was published is listed in the preamble of the proposed rulemaking.

An agency must allow at least 30 days to elapse after the publication of the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking in the Register before scheduling any oral proceedings. Written public comments shall be accepted for at least 30 days after the published notice. Refer to A.R.S. §§ 41-1013, 41-1022 and 41-1023.

Questions about the notice can be answered by the person listed in item #5 of the preamble.

Refer to item #11 of the preamble for information on how to comment on this notice, the close of record to comment, and information related to oral proceedings.

6. An agency's justification and reason why a rule should be made, amended, repealed or renumbered, to include an explanation about the rulemaking:

The Revised Arizona Unclaimed Property Act (the "Act") requires a holder to send a due diligence notice to the apparent owner at least 120 days before the holder files its report and requires the Department to publish notice and to maintain a website after it receives the property. A.R.S. §§ 44-307(E), 44-309.

This rulemaking implements the Act (A.R.S. §§ 44-301 through 44-340) to provide that the Department sends written notice to each apparent owner, at the owner's last known address, of property valued at $50 or more before the Department takes custody of the property; to prescribe the form and content of the holder due diligence notice; and to require a holder to submit a preliminary, data-only report at the time of the due diligence notice. The Department cannot alter the dates on which a holder must report and remit property, which A.R.S. §§ 44-307(D) and 44-308(A) fix by statute, and the rules are designed to operate within that schedule.

The rules do not apply the holder due diligence notice requirements to monies held by a state agency for the payment of a warrant. A.R.S. § 44-302(A)(11) presumes those monies abandoned at the void date printed on the face of the warrant, and A.R.S. § 44-307(H) requires monthly rather than annual reporting, so the notice prescribed by A.R.S. § 44-307(E) cannot be timed to the report. The State issues the warrant to the payee with the void date on its face.

On August 25, 2025, the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit held in Garza v. Woods, 150 F.4th 1118 (9th Cir. 2025), that owners of unclaimed property stated a viable procedural due process claim regarding the notice provided before their property is transferred to the State. Applying Taylor v. Westly, 488 F.3d 1197 (9th Cir. 2007) ("Taylor II"), the court reasoned that notice given by a third-party holder and notice by publication may be insufficient, and that due process generally requires notice reasonably calculated to reach the apparent owner before the State takes custody of the property. See Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306 (1950); Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976).

The Ninth Circuit has held that California's amended unclaimed property statute, under which a State sends pre-transfer notice reasonably calculated to reach apparent owners, is facially constitutional. Taylor v. Westly, 525 F.3d 1288, 1289-90 (9th Cir. 2008) (per curiam) ("Taylor III"). The court has since held that a State providing such notice is not required to search additional databases to locate owners in order to satisfy due process. Taylor v. Yee, 780 F.3d 928, 938-39 (9th Cir. 2015). No court has entered a final decision on the merits in Garza.

While the Garza opinion did not address particular facts regarding the type of property at issue and what the Department believes is a lack of prejudice to owners of such property that may distinguish Taylor II, it is uncertain that the Ninth Circuit will be receptive to such arguments on any subsequent appeal such that it will treat this case differently than Taylor II.

Based on the Department's understanding of this precedent, the rulemaking conforms the Department's notice practices to the model of State-sent pre-transfer notice that the Ninth Circuit has held facially constitutional, consistent with the Act.

7. A reference to any study relevant to the rule that the agency reviewed and proposes either to rely on or not to rely on in its evaluation of or justification for the rule, where the public may obtain or review each study, all data underlying each study, and any analysis of each study and other supporting material:

The Department reviewed the following in its evaluation of and justification for the rules:

- The Department's holder reporting test program, which informed the content of the preliminary report required by R15-8-104. The Department relies on it for that purpose.
- The Department's voluntary owner notification outreach, which informed the Department's evaluation of whether voluntary collection of preliminary owner data is a sufficient alternative to a rule. The Department relies on it for that purpose.
- Publicly reported operational results of the California unclaimed property program. The Department reviewed this information and does not rely on it in its evaluation of or justification for the rules.

The Department did not review any other study relevant to the rules. Each of the above, the data underlying it, and any analysis may be obtained from the contact person listed in item 5.

8. A showing of good cause why the rulemaking is necessary to promote a statewide interest if the rulemaking will diminish a previous grant of authority of a political subdivision of this state:

Not applicable.

9. The preliminary summary of the economic, small business, and consumer impact:

Under current practice, the only individualized notice an apparent owner receives before the owner's property is transferred to the custody of the State is a notice a holder sends under A.R.S. § 44-307(E). The Department's own notice is by publication under A.R.S. § 44-309, after the transfer has occurred. That practice recurs on each annual reporting cycle and will continue absent these rules, such that an apparent owner may have property transferred from the holder to the State without having received notice directly from the State during the time the holder still held it. The Department estimates the rules will substantially reduce the number of properties transferred to the State without State-sent notice to the apparent owner.

Arizona Administrative Register

The Department preliminarily estimates that the rulemaking imposes the principal new cost on holders that must submit a preliminary, data-only report under R15-8-104, imposes notice content and address-confirmation form costs on holders under R15-8-103, and imposes notice-production and mailing costs on the Department under R15-8-102. The Department preliminarily estimates that the rules benefit apparent owners by increasing the likelihood that property is returned to them and by providing notice before the property is transferred to the custody of the State, and benefit the public by reducing the volume of property the State must hold and administer.

10. The agency's contact person who can answer questions about the economic, small business and consumer impact statement:

Name: Kerry Montgomery
Title: Unclaimed Property Counsel
Division: Unclaimed Property Unit
Address: Arizona Department of Revenue
1600 W. Monroe St.
Phoenix, AZ 85007

Telephone: (623) 271-5786
Email: kmontgomery@azdor.gov
Website: <https://azdor.gov/unclaimed-property>

11. The time, place, and nature of the proceedings to make, amend, repeal, or renumber the rule, or if no proceeding is scheduled, where, when, and how persons may request an oral proceeding on the proposed rule:

Written comments about this proposed rulemaking will be accepted in person at the address provided under item 5, Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., except state holidays. Comments will also be accepted by email at the email address provided under item 5. Mailed written comments shall be postmarked within 30 days after this notice is published in the Register.

An oral proceeding is not scheduled. Under A.R.S. § 41-1023(C), a person may submit a written request for an oral proceeding to the person listed under item 5 within 30 days after this notice is published in the Register.

If a person requests an oral proceeding, the agency shall provide notice of the proceeding by filing a Notice of Oral Proceeding on the Proposed Rulemaking under A.R.S. § 41-1023(D) which will be published in the Register.

12. All agencies shall list other matters prescribed by statute applicable to the specific agency or to any specific rule or class of rules. Additionally, an agency subject to Council review under A.R.S. §§ 41-1052 and 41-1055 shall respond to the following questions:

- a. Whether the rule requires a permit, whether a general permit is used and if not, the reasons why a general permit is not used:
The rules do not require a permit.
- b. Whether a federal law is applicable to the subject of the rule, whether the rule is more stringent than federal law and if so, citation to the statutory authority to exceed the requirements of federal law:
Not applicable. This rulemaking responds to a decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit applying the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment. It does not implement a federal statute or regulation, and it is not more stringent than any federal statute or regulation.
- c. Whether a person submitted an analysis to the agency that compares the rule's impact on the competitiveness of business in this state to the impact on business in other states:
Not applicable.

13. A list of any incorporated by reference material as specified in A.R.S. § 41-1028 and its location in the rules:

Not applicable.

14. The full text of the rules follows:

ARTICLE 1. NOTICE TO OWNERS: HOLDER DUE DILIGENCE AND REPORTING

R15-8-101. Definitions

The definitions in A.R.S. § 44-301 apply to this Chapter. In addition, in this Chapter:

1. “Mailable address” means an address for an apparent owner shown in a holder’s records that the records do not indicate is inaccurate.
2. “Preliminary report” means a data-only submission under R15-8-104 that is not accompanied by payment or delivery of property.

R15-8-102. Department Notice to Apparent Owner

- A. The Department shall send written notice to each apparent owner listed in a preliminary report under R15-8-104 for whom the report states a name and a mailable address. The Department shall send the notice before the property is transferred to the custody of the Department under A.R.S. § 44-308 and before the Department publishes notice under A.R.S. § 44-309.
- B. The Department shall send written notice to each apparent owner for whom a report under A.R.S. § 44-307 states a name and a mailable address. The Department shall send the notice as soon as practicable after it receives the report.
- C. The Department shall send the notice by first class mail to the mailable address and, if the Department has an electronic mail address for the apparent owner, by electronic mail.
- D. The notice shall:
 1. Identify the holder;
 2. State that a holder has reported the property as presumed abandoned and that the property will be transferred to, or has been transferred to, the custody of the State;
 3. State how, and by when, the apparent owner may claim the property from the holder or the Department, as applicable, or indicate an interest in the property under A.R.S. § 44-302; and

R15-8-103. Holder Due Diligence Notice

- A. At least 120 days before a holder files the report required by A.R.S. § 44-307, a holder shall send the written notice required by A.R.S. § 44-307(E) to each apparent owner of property valued at $50 or more for whom the holder has a mailable address. The holder shall send the notice by mail and, if the apparent owner has consented to electronic notice, also electronically.
- B. In addition to the content required by A.R.S. § 44-307(E), the notice shall state the time when the property will be transferred to the State, that a claim must be filed for the property to be returned, and, in boldface type or in a font at least two points larger than the rest of the notice:
 1. That there has been no owner activity on the property during the statutorily prescribed period;
 2. An identification of the property by a number or identifier, if applicable, that need not exceed four digits;
 3. That the property will be transferred to the custody of the State unless the apparent owner responds to the notice; and

The preliminary report shall not list a traveler’s check, money order, or similar instrument.
- B. The preliminary report is a data submission only. A holder shall not remit funds or deliver property with the preliminary report. Payment and delivery are due only with the report and delivery required by A.R.S. §§ 44-307 and 44-308.
- C. A holder shall transmit the preliminary report by a secure, encrypted method prescribed by the Department.
- D. The preliminary report does not relieve a holder of the due diligence obligation under R15-8-103 or the reporting obligation under A.R.S. § 44-307.

7. An agency's justification and reason why a rule should be made, amended, repealed or renumbered, to include an explanation about the rulemaking:

The purpose of this rulemaking is to amend A.A.C. R3-2-801 to update the incorporated reference "PMO", officially titled the Grade "A" Pasteurized Milk Ordinance, from the 2023 revision to the most current 2025 revision. The PMO is a set of minimum standards and requirements for milk production established by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), allowing for interstate shipment of milk and milk products. The National Conference on Interstate Milk Shipments (NCIMS) and the FDA periodically revise the standards based on input from state regulators and industry members to reflect current industry standards and practices. A.R.S. § 3-605 says the provisions of the federal milk ordinance apply to the state of Arizona, and the Department believes the most updated version of the ordinance is intended by this statute. The Department also wants to use the most updated version to be in compliance with FDA guidelines and to maintain the ability to participate in the NCIMS. Therefore, the state rules must maintain the federal standards, otherwise Arizona dairy producers would no longer be able to market their products across state lines.

8. A reference to any study relevant to the rule that the agency reviewed and either relied on or did not rely on in its evaluation of or justification for the rule, where the public may obtain or review each study, all data underlying each study, and any analysis of each study and other supporting material:

None.

9. A showing of good cause why the rulemaking is necessary to promote a statewide interest if the rulemaking will diminish a previous grant of authority of a political subdivision of this state:

Not applicable.

10. A summary of the economic, small business, and consumer impact, if applicable to the exemption:

A.R.S. §§ 3-605 and 41-1005(1)(33) authorize an exemption from the rulemaking requirements of A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 6 for the purpose of establishing rules to adopt and implement the provisions of the federal milk ordinance. As a result, this rulemaking is exempt from the requirements of the Administrative Procedures Act and no economic, small business, and consumer impact statement is required.

11. An agency's summary of the public or stakeholder comments made about the rulemaking and the agency response to the comments:

Not applicable.

12. All agencies shall list other matters prescribed by statute applicable to the specific agency or to any specific rule or class of rules. Additionally, an agency subject to Council review under A.R.S. §§ 41-1052 and 41-1055 shall respond to the following questions:

A.R.S. § 3-104(F) requires the Arizona Department of Agriculture Advisory Council assist the Director of the Department on all rulemaking activities. The council shall review, advise and make recommendations before they are adopted. During the August 26, 2026 Advisory Council meeting, council members approved the Department's recommendations to amend rule R3-2-801.

a. Whether the rule requires a permit, whether a general permit is used and if not, the reasons why a general permit is not used:

Not applicable.

b. Whether a federal law is applicable to the subject of the rule, whether the rule is more stringent than federal law and if so, citation to the statutory authority to exceed the requirements of federal law:

Federal laws 42 U.S.C. §§ 216, 243, 264, and 271 relate to the provisions of the incorporated reference of the Grade A Pasteurization Milk Ordinance ("PMO"), and the prescribing federal regulation found at 21 CFR § 1240.61, as it relates to the interstate sale of milk.

NOTICES OF RULEMAKING DOCKET OPENING

The Administrative Procedure Act (APA) requires an agency file a Notice of Rulemaking Docket Opening which outlines its rulemaking intentions under A.R.S. § 41-1021.

A docket opening and Notice of Proposed Rulemaking are often filed at the same time and published in the same Register issue.

If a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking is not published in this Register that corresponds with a published docket in this week's issue, it simply means the agency has not filed the notice for consideration and public review.

An agency has one year from the publishing of this notice to propose a rule; after one year the docket expires. Questions about the notice can be answered by the person listed in item #5 of the preamble.

Refer to item #6 in the preamble for information on how to comment on this notice.
